Club Notes

We are quite sure everyone present enjoyed the grand game last Wednesday. The great pity was we dropped another valuable home point, and yet one must admit that Hull City really deserved to gain a point. Whilst we enjoyed the greater part of the game, especially in the first half, Hull fought back splendidly, with fast open football, and kept going right to the end, even after Swindon had taken the lead from a penalty. Strangely enough the performance was repeated on Saturday, but only in reverse. This time Swindon, the away team, kept chasing to the final whistle, even though the home team seemed to get on top at certain periods.

Today sees the first of three home games in succession. Maximum points from each will surely put us in a secure position. Our supporters have certainly responded to the efforts of our lads. They are right behind them, not only in attendance (almost 11,000 last week), but also in their encouragement and vocal support. Carry on the good work; the team deserve it. Whatever happens we feel, considering the football played on the County Ground this season, that the team is in a false position. Time and time again we have had reports, away as well as at home, of fine displays, but unfortunately little to show for it in the important matters of goals scored for, and points obtained.

The visit of Barnsley will stir the memories of some of our older supporters. Season 1911-12. F.A. Cup Semi-final Swindon v. Barnsley. The first game a draw, and the second a win for Barnsley by 1-0. Many of us can still recall the names of that great team — Skiller; Kay, Walker; Tout, Silto, Handley; Jefferson, Fleming, Wheatcroft, Bown, Bolland. Jock Walker is still one of our most loyal supporters, and Tommy Bolland is frequently seen at the County Ground.

Many spectators consider the present team to be as good as that one. Certainly their names (almost all local boys) will be remembered with pleasure for many years to come.

To the lads we say, "Thank you for your outstanding play and efforts. Forget the position and continue to play good football."

We trust we shall have the pleasure of welcoming to Swindon the chairman of Barnsley, Mr. J. Richards, and President of the Football League, and also Chairman of the English F.A. Selection Board. During the past year he has worked extremely hard for the League during the long and difficult negotiations with the Players Union. He has never shirked responsibility and has spoken in a frank and open manner. Thank you, Mr. Richards.

Notes

The attendance at last Wednesday's match against Hull City was exceedingly good, particularly as the weather was most unpleasant. Those present were rewarded by a very good game under trying conditions.

It is an intriguing thought that were the team in a safe but "uninteresting" position, around the half way mark in the League table, the gates at this stage of the year would probably have fallen (judging by past experience), to 7,000/8,000 whereas, with every point a vital necessity, to avoid fears of relegation, they have remained among the highest in Division III.

This encourages us to think that, should happier times arrive, with the Club engaged in future seasons in a struggle for promotion, the gates might well reach double their present average.

We wish the team every success this evening.

Members of our weekly competition, and supporters generally, will regret to hear of the illness of our Competition Secretary, Mr. F. N. Deane, who has pneumonia, and all will wish him a quick and complete recovery.

His work for several years past has been invaluable to our Club, in assisting to alleviate the financial problems of the Directors of the parent Club.

On the other side of the picture we are very pleased to offer congratulations to one of the lady members of our Committee, who will soon be celebrating her eightieth birthday. We trust that she may long continue to enjoy the good health which enables her to attend the County Ground regularly, to sell her quota of match programmes, and to carry out the other duties which she has performed so conscientiously over a long period.

Holders of the lucky programmes on 12th April were:—
1212, Mr. M. Kell, 5 Alanbrooke Crescent, Swindon. 2121, Not claimed.
