CLUB NOTES

Now for a resumption of League Football. After all the excitement and glamour of the "Cup", the tumult and the shouting dies. We wonder. On Tuesday almost 26,000 people present, and today, for what is probably a much more important match for the Club, 12,000, our earnest hope but our real supporters. We appreciate the leader in the "Swindon Advertiser" dated 30th January 1963. Thank you Mr. Editor, if only people will take up your suggestion of boosting the gates up to at least 15,000, not only would the financial side improve, but also the playing. The larger crowd produces an atmosphere not only on the field of play, but also in the dressing room before the game.

After the run of success and the climax on Tuesday, there could be a reaction. We sincerely hope not. Now in front of us lies the serious business of consolidating our position and gaining valuable league points. Division 3 is wide open, and any one of the top fifteen could gain promotion. Many vital and hard-fought games confront the team. We need the "full-blooded" support of all our spectators; let us therefore go forward "To strive to seek, to find, and not to yield".

Apart from the result, the 4th Round Cup-tie provided excellent entertainment for the huge crowd. Unfortunately, the ground itself was not in good condition, whilst the approaches to the County Ground were most difficult. We are only too sorry such an important game could not have been played under better circumstances. The Club had a very worrying time beforehand dealing with the various problems: tickets, lights, ground, etc. Then arose the business of packing everyone in who had purchased a ticket. At one time it looked as if the situation would get out of hand. Common sense, however, prevailed, and with the help of police and stewards, everyone was safely let in. Success, indeed, brings trouble, and difficulties. It would appear we had some very unpleasant visitors on Tuesday, and several people lost sums of money. We are sorry for those persons, but obviously such an occasion attracts all kinds of visitors.

Everton was indeed a great side, and it was obvious from the kick-off that they meant to get down to serious determined play. They were a fast moving, clever ball playing side, with not the vestige of a weakness. They certainly played good open football, one minute in attack, the next in defence, quick off the mark, and no rest for any of our lads with the ball. They definitely made the most of their goal scoring opportunities. We do feel however, they had the run of the ball. Although the score was 5—1, it was by no means one-sided. Our lads matched their opponents in everything except finishing. Everyone gave of his best right to the final whistle. The spectators obviously enjoyed the game, because very few, despite the condition of travel, left before the end.

In addition to the pickpocket we also had “pirate programmes”. Please be sure to purchase your copy from the official sellers. We hope in the near future to equip them with white plastic mac’s with the words “Official Programmes” printed on the collar.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES

These notes are being written prior to the Cup Tie with Everton. Consequently, we cannot comment at length on the match of the week.

The writer remembers, as a small boy (when Swindon were drawn to play against a First Division Club), asking a well known Town player what he prospects might be.

The player replied: "We shall do very well if we only LOSE against them!!" There are, of course, different ways of losing, and whatever the outcome of the match with Everton we feel confident that the players will have performed creditably.

The victory at Luton is naturally still fresh in mind, and caused great excitement in the town. Residents who, during the week, had been suffering from shortages of gas, electricity, water, patience and temper, thawed perceptibly during the evening.

The paucity of matches lately has brought to the Town's games, reporters from newspapers which would not normally have covered the activities of a Third Division team, and the verdict has been very satisfactory.

Never can we remember a season when there has been such a spirit of co-operation between all concerned. We believe that Supporters, Directors, Officials and Players all share the feeling that "we are all in it together", and that the Football Club is now established on a family basis.

Every family must have a head, and the Head of Swindon's family (Mr. B. J.) has, in the past, accepted with commendable dignity, the responsibility when results have not been those for which we had hoped, and plans had not quite matured.

Now that things have been moving more in accordance with plan, he has been generous in giving the players their mead of praise.

Many of these we knew as boys (as the juvenile members of the family), while others who have joined the Club later, have obviously become imbued with the family spirit.

At one time a League match seemed but an anti-climax after a Cup-tie, but this is not so today, and we all join in wishing the players the best of luck in the pursuit of promotion.

We take this opportunity to remind Supporters of our Dinner and Dance at Messrs. McIlroy's on 18th February. Tickets may be obtained at our Headquarters, at 12/6 for the whole event, commencing at 7.30 p.m., or 4/- for the Dance only, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. As previously announced, Harry Smith and his Band have been engaged for the evening.

In conclusion, a word to the younger supporters of the Town. Partisanship is a fine thing and it is good to cheer the players during the course of the game. The players appreciate all the vocal encouragement you can give them.

It is not a good thing, however, to "boo" the visiting side when the players enter the field at the commencement of the match and after half-time.

They are Swindon's guests for the afternoon, and have come to provide us with entertainment. As such they are entitled to the normal courtesies which should be forthcoming from every host.

The Supporters' Club has always aimed to foster a sporting spirit amongst its members, and it would be unfortunate if a good reputation should be marred by a few thoughtless people. Bad habits are contagious, and it is therefore most desirable that this one should be cured immediately; we are confident that this appeal will not be ignored.
