news Eviews

It is with real pleasure we welcome to the County Ground one of the finest footballing teams in the country. The game this afternoon is a most important one for Leicester City. Still in the F.A. Cup - they replay their 6th Round tie at Highbury on Monday - but their sights are very much on promotion. To date they occupy fourth position in the League table with 38 points from 29 games, two less than the leaders, Cardiff City, but with a game in hand. Their away record is very good having won five and drawn five of the fourteen played on opponents' grounds. The visit of Leicester last season produced a splendid game, watched by a fine crowd of 22,310. Peter Noble scored ten minutes after half-time, but Len Glover equalised nine minutes from the end of the match. Later in the season, 17th January 1970, Swindon won a fine victory at Filbert Street by two goals (Horsfield 2) to nil. This was by far the best display given by Swindon up to that date. Leicester, then still very much in the running for promotion, exerted great pressure in the second half, but Swindon were worthy winners before a gate of 24,378.

This season Swindon visited Leicester on 14th November 1970, and after an excellent game were defeated 1-3, so we shall be all the keener to reverse that score-line today.

Leicester City have a wonderful F.A. Cup record. Since 1960 they have played 43 cup-ties against Arsenal's 28. Only Manchester United (44) have played more. Tottenham having played the same number as Leicester. In addition they have appeared at Wembley on four occasions. In 1949 they lost to Wolves 1-3, in 1961 lost 0-2 to Spurs, who thus completed the double. In 1963 Leicester were defeated 1-3 by Manchester United, and in 1969 lost 0-1 to Manchester City. On Monday they meet Arsenal to decide who shall play Stoke in the semi-final. We wish them the best of luck, and may they go forward this time to be Cup Final winners.

In addition to their exploits and achievements in the F.A. Cup competition, Leicester have experienced quite a see-saw period. In 1954 they were promoted from Division 2 only to be relegated the following season. In 1957 they again won promotion to Division 1. However, in 1969 they received a double disappointment, being defeated in the Cup Final and relegated to Division 2.

They are, however, again very much on the crest of the wave, still in the F.A. Cup, and challenging for Division 1 status.

It is evident from their record that Leicester have much talent. Long-serving players like David Nish, Rodney Fern, Graham Cross, John Sjoberg, and Peter Shilton form a nucleus, but Leicester have spent the £165,000 obtained for the transfer of Allan Clarke, on players of drive, skill and aggression: Bobby Kellard, Willie Carlin, Malcolm Partridge (from Mansfield), Joe Jopling (Aldershot), and John Farrington (Wolves). Full-back Jopling has failed to obtain a first-team place due to the excellent form of local discovery, 18-year-old Steve Whitworth.

At the moment, at least seven clubs are in the running for promotion, with several others (including ourselves) on the fringe. What interest and enthusiasm would be displayed if only we had the long sought after four up and four down. It seems certain that gates would be much higher. Clubs are always seeking ways and means of increasing income and this move would surely produce much more revenue, as instanced in our game at Middlesbrough last week. Almost twenty-one thousand spectators turned up to witness the game, because the home club has 38 points and is literally in third position. Birmingham City, now enjoying a fine run and going forward to a position challenging for promotion, drew a crowd of 27,605, by far the highest gate in Division 2.

Supporters club notes

Anglo-Italian Inter-League Club Competition

Now that the draw has been made for the above Competition, and we know who and where Swindon will be playing in Italy, plans are now well on the way to provide facilities for supporters who wish to go to Italy.

The matches against Bologna and Sampdoria (Genoa) were arranged for Wednesday, 2nd and Saturday 5th June respectively. The latest information would suggest, however, that these dates will be changed to Tuesday, 1st and Friday, 4th. This is due to an Italian International match on Saturday, 5th, which will have nation-wide television coverage, and would probably affect the gate money at any other match.

This does not affect the supporters already booked on the 15-day holiday which covers both matches - and also the cup final, should Swindon reach it again. There has been a change here, however. The Travel Company through whom arrangements were made, have been obliged to cancel the Bristol Airport tour, as arranged, and those booked will, no doubt, be pleased to know that the alternative holiday offered is perhaps even more attractive. It will now be located at Lido de Jesolo, Venice, with all the facilities and sights of this beautiful and ancient city available after the matches. Accommodation will be the same as the original tour, and as this change is at the Company's request, there will be no extra charge. There are now a few more places available. and anyone interested in this Venetian and football holiday should get their seats booked at once.

Two day trips are envisaged, should demand warrant it. Obviously this will depend on more or less full aircraft. Options have been secured on jet aircraft for these day trips, and the cost will be based, as for last year, on a complete all-in trip, all coach, air, match ticket, insurance and airport tax included, at not exceeding £22.00 per person. It is anticipated that the Bologna match flight will be to Venice Airport and we hope to include time for a few hours to be available for sight-seeing in Venice, before going on to Bologna.

The second flight will be to Genoa Airport, with plenty of time to sight-see in this ancient city and port. To book for any of the above three ventures, contact PATRICK TRAVEL, 32 Havelock Street, Swindon, telephone Swindon 21262. A deposit of £5.00 only is required, returnable if, through lack of support, either of the day flights have to be cancelled.

Insurance against illness etc. is in force from the time of booking.

It has not been possible to arrange an economic 8-day holiday.

Grand National Draw - Draw tickets for the above Draw should be returned to the Promoter, Mr. Phil Hart, today, or as soon as possible.

The Draw will take place next Saturday, the 20th March, in the Supporters' Club H.Q. after the match. Anyone who would like to see the draw made is cordially invited to call in and see it.

Supporters' Club, Chippenham Branch – Those of you in the Chippenham area, or in Swindon, are reminded that this Branch is holding the first Dance tonight at the Neeld Hall, Chippenham. Two bands, with refreshments included, and tickets are 15/- each. Contact Nobby Swatton, or Mrs. Barbara Ranger, in the Social Club, for tickets and a seat in the Swindon coach, if available, before or after the match today.

Social Club Tote Results – Sunday, 28th February. Winning number 6 and 24. Four winning tickets – Nos. 7580: 5185 9049 and 7626 share £42.00. Sunday, 7th March. Winning numbers 19 and 28. Three winning tickets – Nos. 8245: 8338 8700 share £42.00.

On the 4th March, 1931, the Swindon Town Supporters' Club was formed -40 years ago. To mark this occasion, there will be a Dance and Social Evening in the Social Club, on Tuesday, 23rd March. Admission for Supporters' Club members, not also Social Club members, will be 15p, on production of their Supporters' Club membership card.

Peter Downsborough and Joe Butler wish to thank the supporters very much for the two collections made for their benefit. Each collection was just under £178.00 and cheques for the round amount have been presented.

Frank Burrows in action

This effort by Birmingham's Trevor Francis is blocked by Frank Burrows. Francis had a great game against the Town getting both of the Birmingham goals. Frank was also in action at the other end, seen here challenging Roger Hynd and goal-keeper Kelly for this cross.

Charles H Nicholls

Started refereeing in 1950. Progressed through Plymouth and District League, South Western League, and the Western League to the Football League. Linesman from 1962 until 1966 and Referee since 1966.

Has officiated as Linesman in the European Cup match, B.K. Odense (Denmark) v Real Madrid, 1964, also the Football League v the Irish League 1966, and F.A. Cup Semi-Final Leicester City v West Bromwich Albion at Hillsborough in 1969.

Mr. Nicholls is married with a daughter, aged 18 years, and is a Technical Officer, Ministry of Defence (Navy).

Hobbies and interests are home decorating and golf (keen participant).

Mr. Nicholls says that although he lives in what is classed as a remote district (Plymouth), along with other Football League Linesmen, he does not mind the long distance travelling involved, especially with the improved rail facilities.

in the Anglo-Italian Inter-Club Competition of 1971

Last June the Swindon Town Football Club were triumphant in the first series of this European Competition and are surely worthy of your support in defence of the Competition trophy. The undermentioned table of the Italian First Division indicates the strength of our opposition and our players deserve your cheers to urge them on once again to the Final of the tournament.
