Supporters' Club Notes

Our Travel Section swings into operation next Saturday with the first away match at Millwall. We ran coaches or trains to every match last season and hope to do so again this year. Book as soon as possible with our Travel Stewards, Alan Shepherd and Ossie Macdonald in the Social Club after today's match or any evening, or the Development Shop during the week.

FOOTBALL HOLIDAYS IN ITALY NEXT SUMMER

The appetite of the Blackpool supporters was certainly whetted by the Pool winning the Anglo-Italian final against Bologna. There was very little interest by the supporters for the two matches played in Italy against Roma and Verona, but when Blackpool unexpectedly reached the final there was a sudden surge of interest and arrangements had literally to be made overnight to fly about 100 keen supporters to Italy for the final.

Many more would have gone but for the expense of over £30 for a day out, and others would have gone except for knowing it was to be transmitted in full by TV. As Blackpool will be participating again next year about 80 of our supporters have decided to take their holidays for a fortnight in Italy next year and see the matches during that period. They have already commenced a Savings Club and Mr. Jack Procter, one of the committee, attends the Clubroom every Friday night to receive contributions. Anyone who would like to join in is welcome and should contact Mr. Procter.

Of course, definite arrangements cannot yet be given for dates, hotel bookings, etc. until the actual opponents and fixtures are known.

Another holiday project is a bit further ahead for the World Cup matches in Munich, but we will have to wait until we see whether England qualify first, as there would not be a great deal of interest otherwise.

NEW SUPPORTERS HAND BOOK ON SALE

Our new season's handbook is now on sale, price 10p. It contains a double page photo of the Pool's victorious Anglo-Italian side, individual photos of the first team squad, fixture lists, last season's full record and over a dozen articles, including contributions from Frank M. Dickinson, Chairman of the football club, Bob Stokoe, Jim Armfield, Dennis Follows, Secretary of the F.A., and many others including our own chairman and other officials and branch secretaries. Also reports on all supporters club activities.

It is proving very popular once again and you can obtain your copy from the boys who sell on the track or at the end of the game from the south-west corner of the ground. The Social Club and the Development Shop also hold stocks.

Mr. JOE SMITH

As most supporters will already know, Mr. Joe Smith, the club manager for 23 years, passed away this week.

The memory of his achievement both as a player and particularly as Blackpool's manager during those past halcyon days will remain forever.

I feel sure that all our supporters will join with the club in conveying their deepest sympathy to Mr. Smith's family.
