news & views

All supporters will know of the departure of Mr. Ford, a grand fellow held in esteem throughout the football world. He deserved a better fate. However, that is football, in fact it is life. One minute up, and the next down. He will no doubt be back in football in a very short time.

A certain amount of reorganisation has been necessary resulting from the change of manager. Mr. Anderson has been put in charge of training and coaching. This left the young players, both in the Reserves and the 'A' team, without an experienced man to guide them. It was felt the person for this post was Maurice Owen. His example to these lads of service and loyalty, extending over twenty-five years, his attitude, behaviour and disposition both on and off the field and his undoubted skill and ability as a player. He is certainly a man to whom all young players 'look up to' and endeavour to follow.

The game at Oxford was most enjoyable. The home team had most of the play in the first half, but Swindon took over in the second. A draw was a very fair result. This was a hard fought local derby, yet there was not one stoppage for injury, although the game was full of incident.

We were sorry to hear of the illness of one of the noble workers in the past for Swindon Town F.C. Charlie Hopkins was one of a fine body of people who helped the Club voluntarily in the early fifties, when it was in financial difficulties. He was the general 'factotum', doing any job, from helping on the ground to putting up notices, but his main concern was with the Junior team playing in the Gloucestershire Northern Senior League. He was responsible for the whole of the kit for this team, and he also acted as linesman. I recall one amusing incident at Cinderford. Charlie was running along the line, fell flat on his face and did not move. With some alarm the trainer at that time (Rodney Carlyon), went dashing off and when he reached him said: 'What have you done?' 'I've broken my braces' came the reply. Many men in the 35 to 40 age group have much for which to thank this kind, warm-hearted man.

This afternoon we welcome once again Millwall, our old friends of Southern League days, now riding high near the top of Division 2, with sights on promotion. They will provide stiff opposition for our team. To date they have only lost one game away from home, won 2 and drawn 4. Swindon has lost 4, drawn 4 and won 1. Those records are almost equal, except Millwall's goal average is 11-10 and Swindon's 3-9.

Last season Swindon defeated Millwall at the County Ground by 3 goals to nil. We were a little fortunate to win by this margin as Millwall played really well. The return fixture resulted in a draw of two goals each, and a very fine game. Our opponent's form this season is rather remarkable, as the team is almost identical with that of last year. Their goalkeeper, Bryan King, recently watched by other clubs, had a trial with Swindon. He was turned down by the then manager, as being too small to make the grade - a mere 5ft 8in. Today he stands a powerful 6ft 4in, and is one of the most consistent and brilliant goalkeepers in the Second Division. His transfer from Chelmsford City in 1967, for £4,500, proved Manager Benny Fenton a fine judge of his great potential.

Next Saturday we play Preston North End here on the County Ground, equalling the number of home and away games, thus showing us our true position. To date we have obtained six points away from home; quite a good record, just a few more shots going into the net of our opponents and we should rise in the League table.

Millwall — a brief history of the club

The Club was formed in 1885 when it was known as Millwall Rovers. It consisted then of employees in Messrs. Morton and played on land near the Millwall Docks in a part of East London known as the Isle of Dogs, so called we are told because Queen Elizabeth I kept her hunting dogs there when she resided in the Royal Palace at Greenwich, which is on the opposite side of the River Thames. In 1890 the Club moved its headquarters to another part of the 'Island' to a piece of ground in East Ferry Road and at the same time adopted professional status. Two years later they won the Luton Charity Shield and the Middlesex Junior Cup. In 1893 the Club became known as Millwall Athletic and joined the Southern League which had just been formed and remained in membership until 1920 when it joined the newly formed Division 3 of the Football League. In 1910 the Club had moved its ground to the South side of the River to New Cross to its present site, and having already acquired the nickname of the Lions appropriately christened their new ground The Den.

In 1928 Millwall were promoted to Division Two and remained there for six years. They were relegated to Division Three in 1934, but jumped back again in 1938. Ten years later they were back again in Division Three and in 1950 were compelled to apply for re-election. In 1958 the Football League formed the Fourth Division and Millwall by virtue of their position in Division Three (South) at the end of the season prior to the formation of the new division were placed in Division Four. There then followed years of struggle to get back into the Third, which was eventually achieved in 1962. Two seasons later, however, the Club found itself back again in the Fourth Division, but not for long. Back they came the following season, and this was followed up with promotion to Division Two. It was during this period that the Club wrote its name in the history books of Football by creating a new record for consecutive home games without defeat. The Club went 59 games at home without defeat, and it is the sort of record which is unlikely to be equalled or beaten in the modern set up of soccer.

Millwall has reached the Semi-Finals of the Football Association Challenge Cup on three occasions in its history — in 1900, 1903 and 1937, the last occasion being the first time a Third Division club has reached this stage of the competition. In the Semi-Final Sunderland beat Millwall on the Huddersfield Town ground by 2-1 and Sunderland eventually won the Final. Also during this Cup campaign the Club's ground attendance record was set up, 48,327 spectators saw the cup-tie at The Den against Derby County.

During its long and varied history Millwall has had many well known personalities and Internationals on their playing staffs, both amateur and professional. Names to recall are 'Tiny' Joyce, a giant of a goalkeeper who, the ancients tell us, could throw a ball from one end of the field to the other. Bill (Banger) Voisey, who apart from playing for his country was in charge of International teams when they were on tour. W. I. Bryant, Amateur International centre-half. Tom Brolly, Irish International, Charlie Hurley and Pat Saward, Eire Internationals and Lawrie Leslie who was a Scottish International goalkeeper. On the staff today, John Gilchrist, a former Scottish Schoolboy International, and Eamonn Dunphy has been capped many times for Eire. Alex Stepney, now with Manchester United, also started his professional career with Millwall and was transferred to Chelsea at a record fee for a goalkeeper.

The Club colours have changed over the years. For many years the colour was blue, now they play in an all white strip.

amid the bright lights, you can watch the Town in action at Shepherd's Bush.

Then, when you meet afterwards, you can enjoy a good meal before going to the show;
all this we can arrange for you.

'Humbug?' . . . Scrooge would

Supporters club notes

Now that Dave Mackay has taken over the team selection and discipline, let us look forward to some good attacking football and some good results in our favour, after all we know that Dave hates to lose. All being well we should see the Town move nearer the top of the table. Best of luck, Dave, we are all behind you.

Today we welcome our old friends from Millwall. Since our return to the Second Division, we have seen some good games both here and at The Den.

We have had many enquiries as to the nickname of the Club, so to settle all arguments, the Town are known as the Railwaymen. The only solution as to the name of the Robins must, we feel, come from our friends from the Blunsdon Abbey speedway outfit.

The game at Oxford last Saturday was a marked improvement. Keep it up lads. The great cause of annoyance is the hooligans who persist in causing trouble and fighting at every opportunity. Why should police have to give up their leave to keep this lot of so-called fans in order.
