CLUB VIEW

Today we welcome Swindon Town and their manager Dave Mackay. Swindon are not too far away from us in distance or position in the League and if the weather is fine as it has been recently we can expect a big gate and possibly as is usual with Swindon an attractive game.

We have already played one match in what is now the most hectic part of the season. We used to, of course, not only have a big programme at Easter, but also Christmas, but that has now been reduced to one match.

Easter is probably the most vital period now in the season for clubs involved in relegation and promotion battles. I think personally it is a little unfair that the future of clubs who are involved in these important fixtures can be decided literally upon the result of three matches in the space of four days.

Obviously, injuries can affect a team and their results, because there is little chance of getting the players fit in time.

Once the Easter programme has been completed you have only three or four games left and if you have been unfortunate with injuries it gives you no time to recover.

Naturally, middle of the table sides like ourselves haven't the problems that some of the top clubs, particularly those involved in the European and F.A. Cup competitions.

This doesn't affect the Second Division Championship which hasn't been settled yet, and our supporters who saw us beat Norwich last week must have wondered how they are top of the League. The only thing we could think of after the game was that the conditions suited us better, that they could be a heavy ground team and if this is so they are going to struggle over the last few games particularly as Birmingham are playing so well and are in with an obvious chance. We could still have a say in the Championship depending, of course, on the result of our match at Millwall.

Last Saturday's games did show that we didn't really need a lot of changes to get amongst the promotion challengers next season, Particularly as Richard Reynolds has really settled down in recent matches and begun to show some very good form. Let us hope this is an omen for the future.

THREE-A-SIDE TOURNAMENT

Thirty-six teams contested the three-a-side tournament held for senior teams that use Fratton Park training facilities. The matches were fiercely competitive and the six teams that reached the finals were Horndean A, Safari B, Horndean C, Horndean D, Naval Tailors A and Pelham B. These six teams were divided into two groups of three teams and the group winners, Safari and Horndean contested the final. This match was won 3-2 by Horndean after extra time.

Horndean by getting three of their teams through were the outstanding club in the tournament, but the team who gave the bravest and possibly the most skillful performance were a team of local youngsters called Fratton. Other clubs represented in the tournament were Graham Arms, The Beacon, Portsmouth Taxis, Forest Rovers and Centre Athletic.

Thanks are due to Bill Fair who helped with the organisation on the two Friday evenings.

GETTING AROUND

Club staff have been busy in recent weeks meeting various sections of the public and much interesting discussion has taken place. Pat Wright took a demonstration coaching session on Centre-Back play for local teachers and students, these sessions are part of the regular scene nowadays at Fratton Park and on this occasion Pat dealt with a difficult topic in a clear and straightforward manner.

Club chairman Mr. Collett together with manager Ron Tindall were on the panel at the recent News Forum on Sport. Besides the two football representatives the panel consisted of Martin Hyman, representing Athletics, Peter Maunder, Manager of Parks Department; and two of the News' Sports Writers, Reg Betts and Alister Marshall. Questions were naturally wide ranging and touched on topics such as the provision of a major, all-embracing sports' centre for the region; the current shortage of pitches in the area and possible solution with the aid of artificial turf; and one specifically for Ron Tindall on the tactical problems of playing the old W formation.

A group of managers from IBM were shown round the ground last Monday evening and this was followed by a discussion with manager Ron Tindall on the job of running a football team. The discussion was particularly interesting in that it high-lighted the similarity in the techniques required for the management of a football club and the management of a completely different branch of industry.

Finally, on Tuesday, 21st March. Alan Sefton visited H.M.S. Collingwood and after being shown the sporting facilities on the establishment exchanged ideas on Recreation Management in general with Collingwood P.T.I. personnel.

All these meetings provided an excellent opportunity for us to get close to various sections of the local community. They gave us a chance to explain the workings, aims and plans of the football club and at the same time hear the public's reaction to them. We firmly believe that this club can only return to its former greatness by a committed and enthusiastic partnership between the club and the local public.

THIS BOY MUST PLAY AT FRATTON PARK

Pompey scouts were at the Empire Pool last week. His performance was electric. Whenever he did his thing, the fans went wild, clapping and cheering in their seats.

It was decided there and then: this boy must come to Fratton Park. Negotiations are being conducted.

Birmingham leader, Bob Latchford, takes on the Pompey defence but is beaten to the ball by John Milkins supported by Colin Blant (No.6) and Eoin Hand.

For the first time this season we adopted a defensive pattern of play for an away match, lining up in a 5-3-2 formation. Unfortunately even this could not improve our dismal away record.

Everything went according to plan during the first half. We expected to be subjected to a lot of pressure but knew we were capable of breaking out into the vacant spaces down the flanks. This we proceeded to do, especially down the left where George Ley was causing a great deal of trouble. Up front Ray Hiron and Richard Reynolds were doing a great job and we eventually took the lead following a great piece of opportunism by Richard. He forced his way through a forest of red shirts and shot home into the corner.

MATCH REPORT

Orient now put considerable pressure on to us but we were coping pretty well. We were fortunate not to concede a penalty however. Just before half time Colin Blant handled when under severe pressure. It appeared that he was being fouled at the time but, even so, it was the sort of decision which most home teams get!!

The second half proved a calamity for us. We now allowed ourselves to get under siege and stopped playing the ball out from the back. Corner followed corner but we kept our goal intact. As so often happens in this type of situation the two most harmless situations led to the goals. A diagonal cross from the left was headed into his own goal by Eoin Hand following a misunderstanding between skipper and John Milkins. Soon after we half cleared a corner and Peter Allen's completely mis-hit shot trickled into the corner through a sea of defenders.

Ray Pointer substituted for Colin Blant for the last 20 mins and nearly saved the game for us. His header was cleared off the line with the goalkeeper beaten.

The advent of Dave Mackay as player-manager is one of the most exciting transfers to have involved Swindon for many years.

Dave Mackay has a long and distinguished career as a player with Tottenham Hotspur and Derby County in particular.

Almost from the time he emerged as a successful captain it was as though he was destined to be a team manager and if his successful record to date is anything to go by it will not be too long before we see Swindon emerge as promotion contenders at least.

However, their record this season has been rather moderate and, one thing for certain, Dave Mackay will have learnt a great deal, both about Swindon and the Second Division.

They have now, withstanding their record this season, achieved so many notable successes in recent years - in the League Cup, when they beat the might Arsenal, and in the Inter-Italian League Club Competition. Both excellent achievements for a Second Division side.

In recent weeks, Swindon have gained five points from their last six games which is fairly consistent with their performances throughout the whole season as their position in the table just below ourselves with 31 points from 32 games is indicative of their average form, and although they haven't scored as many goals as we have they haven't conceded quite so many.

SWINDON TOWN

On the whole, Swindon are a good, strong, no-nonsense team with the strong running of Don Rogers an attraction for the fans, if not their opponents.

At Fratton Park we have quite a reasonable record against them. The complete record of our League meetings reads as follows.

The 1907/08 season saw the commencement of Swindon's rise to fame, and from that time the club has never looked back. They competed in the F.A. Cup for the first time in 1907 and reached the Third Round and three years later got into the semi-final when they were beaten by Newcastle United.

The club won the Southern League Championship in 1911 and again in 1914 and during the period of 1907/14 never finished lower than fifth in the table.

WATERLOOVILLE

FIXTURES 1971-72

With only six more games to play Waterloooville are holding on to their lead at the top of the Southern League Division I (South). As they go out on the field for their Easter programme they are closely pressed by Ramsgate and Tonbridge, who still have games in hand over the 'Ville. When I last wrote these paragraphs they had just been held to a draw by lowly Ashford but, on looking at later results, this slight failure does not seem to have been as bad as was first thought. A few days afterwards Ashford travelled to Bexley and beat them 4-3. Maidstone lost their last League game and appear to have lost their chance in the promotion race. However, nothing is yet settled and by the time you read these notes even more results will be at hand and the picture will be clearer. Because of the Easter situation I have had to prepare these notes early so, as I write, I don't even know the result of last week's match against Basingstoke. Don't forget that on Monday you can make a football pig of yourself! Before you saunter into Fratton Park in the afternoon why not come to Waterloooville in the morning to see them play Winchester. The kick-off is at 11 a.m.

The Hampshire side have been having a happy end to the season, the highlight being a fine 3-1 home win against Basingstoke. It was a great team display and the inclusion of new-signing Robin Sykes seems to have given the front line a lot more initiative. It was his goal that gave Waterloooville a draw a few days later in the first round of the Victory Cup at Jubilee Park against Gosport Borough. This was a game that on form we should have won but it was not to be and the replay date has to be decided. The Hampshire men have two more League games to play, both against Brockenhurst, and the home tie is on Saturday, April 8th, Kick-off 3.00 p.m. This will be the last time that a Waterloooville team will appear at Jubilee Park this season in league matches so do come along for a shout.

At the end of this season I will be compiling a handbook of Waterloooville F.C. 1971/72 including details of all matches played, reports from the managers and chairman and other interesting articles. The cost of this valuable memento of Waterloooville's first season in Southern League football will be about 15-20p, depending on the demand. If you are interested in receiving a copy please drop a postcard with your name and address on to GRUM (Handbook), 78, Durley Avenue, Cowplain, Hants.

John Kill

Big John, born at Cowplain 22 years ago, now lives with his wife at Clanfield and works as a quantity surveyor. He started his football career very early with Hayling Island boys' club and was selected for the English boys' club's side in 1967. He was also present in youth teams for Portsmouth, Brighton and Southampton, but he says his greatest honour was to be captain of both the Hampshire Youth side and the Hampshire Schools' XI when he was 15. After two years at Horndean ('64-'66), John moved to Gosport where he was until he joined the 'Ville this season.

John is 6ft. 1in., blond-haired and blue-eyed, and since joining the club has, I believe, developed into one of the best centre-backs in Southern League football. His strength, determination and heading accuracy have been a decisive factor in many games this season.

He says his ambition is to enjoy whatever he's doing and as long as he's happy at Jubilee Park we are happy to have him.

PLAYER OF THE SEASON

At this time of the year we ask you to vote for the Player of the Season. Last season it was won by David Munks. This year who knows?

The result is entirely up to you. A voting coupon appears in this programme and we ask you to nominate your choice as to whom you think is the Player of the Season.

The closing date for votes will be 22nd April.

Every week in this column I appeal to the public for more volunteers to help us swell our funds. With the summer season closing in on us I shall need many more. Although the football season closes it is to me one of the hardest times of the year to maintain the figures throughout this period. But I have confidence in you as members of the football fans that you will contact me with a view to helping me through the summer. Apart from this, my own feelings are that from now on this club is going to show the way, and I want you all to be a part of the team which helped this to be achieved.
