WELCOME

This afternoon we return to Barclays League action and are pleased to welcome to The County Ground the players, officials and supporters of Barnsley Football Club.

BARCLAYS LEAGUE

We are back in action here again on Tuesday evening in the Barclays League when Brentford return to The County Ground. Kick off is at 7.45pm. Brentford put paid to our progress in the Anglo Italian Cup last month and will no doubt be out to dent our League progress.

The game with Newcastle United at St James' Park on Sunday 8 November 1992 is all ticket. No seats are available to visiting supporters. However, we have been allocated a large number of terrace tickets at £7 each and these are available from the Advance Ticket Office at The County Ground.

RESERVES

This coming Monday afternoon the Reserves are in action in the Neville Ovenden Football Combination when they meet Crystal Palace at Plough Lane, Wimbledon. They are then faced with two home League games in a week when on Monday 9 November Watford visit The County Ground followed two days later by Arsenal Football Club. Both games kick off at 7.30pm.

WITH THE YOUTHS

Next Wednesday evening the Youth Team meet their counterparts from Oxford United for the fifth time in five weeks. This time it is in the 1st round of the F.A. Youth Cup, here at The County Ground kicking off at 7.30pm. Recently in the 1st round replay of the Midland Youth Cup we got the better of our local rivals and can expect a typical derby battle again on Wednesday evening.

This morning the lads were in action in the South East Counties League at Crystal Palace. Next Saturday Luton Town visit Wanborough in the League kicking off at 11.00am.

CASTROL KID-A-QUID

Our experimental Kid-a-Quid scheme has now been extended to include all remaining Barclays League fixtures here at The County Ground following a sponsorship deal with Castrol.

Accompanied youngsters can purchase tickets in the Town End Family Enclosure for just £1. Numbers of tickets per game are limited so advance booking is recommended.

Castrol are also coming up with some great plans to put fun back into coming to football at Swindon. Look out for their cheeky lad appearing in future programmes with details.

CREDIT CARD FEE

We are pleased to announce that the £1 per ticket administration fee levied on Credit Card bookings of match tickets at The County Ground has now been reduced to £1 per transaction.

REDUCED SEASONS

With now almost a third of the season gone we have significantly reduced the price of season tickets in all parts of the stadium. The Advance Ticket Office has full details of availability. Please give them a call on Swindon 430430. We regret that Season Tickets and County Club memberships cannot be issued on matchdays.

to be doubly sure this does not happen to us today.

I believe it was to our advantage to follow the Upton Park game with another big match against Oldham in midweek. There was no question of us taking them lightly.

It must be said that there's none more aware of the possible pitfalls than the players. They know only too well that there is a lot of hard work to do yet.

Delighted as I was with the show at West Ham I wouldn't like to play that way for 46 games. But we do need to do this sort of thing eight or twelve times a season if we are to reap the rewards we deserve.

Barnsley will certainly be no easy task to overcome. In Wayne Biggins they have a very good player who we will need to keep a close watch on.

But it is down to us. After all the excitement of Tuesday night our destiny in the League is in our own hands.

Finally. Congratulations to Steve White and his wife Amanda who welcomed a new addition - Ashley - to their fold this week.

we defended well and proved very hard to break down.

We have been striving for ages to try and produce this kind of performance away from home. It is really essential if you are to become a successful side.

Liverpool have been doing it for years. In their dominating days they didn't always sparkle but they made sure of getting results.

I have brought this home to the players. This doesn't mean it is easy to achieve but we did it at Upton Park.

Now we must be careful. Sometimes after doing the unexpected you can come crashing down to earth with a bump next time out. We have

It is a nice position to be in going into this afternoon's game second in the First Division table.

We were all highly delighted with the result at West Ham last Saturday and it was very interesting to see Newcastle United were beaten at home by Grimsby Town.

Kevin Keegan's team have had an interesting week with a tough tie against Chelsea in the Coca-Cola Cup followed by a difficult date at Leicester this afternoon.

Bearing this all in mind it makes our game against Barnsley today all the more significant...In fact I venture to say that this is the most important game we have had.

At West Ham last week we didn't play anywhere near as well as we can. But

SUNDAY 29 NOVEMBER: PETERBOROUGH UNITED vs SWINDON TOWN

NEWS ON one

Millwall maintained their current good form on Sunday with an impressive 2-0 victory over high riding Wolves at The Den. The Lions are reportedly keen to bring Sunderland striker John Byrne down south and Manager Mick McCarthy is full of the players praises, "John may be a 31 year old but he is still a class striker. Players we have here could learn from him." Millwall are apparently keen on a player exchange deal but Roker boss Malcolm Crosby is holding out for hard cash.

Another striker in great demand at the moment is Pompey's Guy Whittingham who can't stop scoring. Whittingham hit the first of two Portsmouth goals last Saturday that beat Sunderland at Fratton Park to take his season's tally to 12 in the League. Whittingham cost Pompey a mere £450 when they bought him out of the army but has now been given a £1 million price tag and midfielder Alan McLoughlin explains why: "Guy is on a high at the moment and anything that comes his way you expect him to put away."

Cambridge United have parted company with Manager John Beck who was sacked last week. Beck had been reported to be interested in the vacant post at Third Division Preston but says he was disappointed to get the boot following the success he brought to The Abbey "I'm tremendously shocked and deeply upset. I was asked to resign but said no. I didn't want to leave. I have been told that the decision was taken because I had stated I was ambitious to manage a big club but I would not have left The Abbey unless an offer came in from the biggest...which was unlikely." Cambridge have appointed his former assistant Gary Johnson as caretaker and he managed to earn a point at Southend on Sunday in a one all draw.

At Upton Park where West Ham United were beaten by Swindon, manager Billy Bonds has seen his side make a good start to the season and is pleased the way things are going "I'm now getting things the way I want them but it is not going to be an easy season. We don't have to contend with the quality we faced last season in teams like Arsenal, Leeds and Manchester United but in a way the situation is now reversed. Everyone wants to beat us.. it's going to be like a Cup Final for us every Saturday."

Birmingham City have taken Aston Villa Reserve keeper Les Sealey on loan after a series of heavy defeats. The plan seems to be working with

City beating Bristol Rovers 3-1 at St Andrews last week. Blues boss Terry Cooper says he has acquired Sealey with his aggressive side in mind "We've got a really quiet team and there are not many characters. But with Les here and John Gayle back after injury it's got the place going. It was crazy in the dressing room after our recent match with Oxford as Les was going potty."

Attendances in the First Division continue to stay below those reached last season with the current average of 10,009 being 500 down on the average for the whole of last year. Newcastle continue to hit the 30,000 gate barrier every game at St James's Park with their attendance against Tranmere of 30,137 being the best of the season, while at Oxford there were only 3,785 to see the visit of Cambridge United. The lowest gate has been at Barnsley.

Mick McCarthy - Interested in Sunderland's John Byrne.

Barnsley

Barnsley have the true-grit and determination associated with most Yorkshire sides but in the past two years have failed to deliver the prizes their talented squad have promised.

Just over a year ago this Yorkshire mining community was positive its team had the makings of a promotion side after just missing out on the play-offs in the previous campaign. But they started badly and never really found their feet.

This season has followed much the same lines. True, their opening dates with West Ham United, Portsmouth, Grimsby, Millwall and Wolves were not the easiest of fixtures but it wasn't until their seventh game - away to Notts County - that the Tykes recorded a win. It was another seven, League and Cup games, before they registered a second victory.

On paper the problem seemed straight forward. Just two goals scored in the opening six games suggested a weakness up front particularly as Mel Machin's team had not conceded more than one goal in any one match.

In the opening game, at home to West Ham United, the Tykes were denied a clear penalty, had a Robinson effort headed off the line and hit the bar through David Currie. If they had the feeling it wasn't their day they were right. The Hammers hit them on the break to steal the game through a Clive Allen finish.

Currie, a most gifted forward of infinite skill, has failed to produce the consistency expected of him. The former Middlesbrough and Darlington striker had first arrived at Oakwell in February 1988 for £150,000 and duly netted 20 goals in his first full season with the club. Nottingham Forest paid, a record fee of, £750,000 for him in January 1990 but by the following summer David was signed up with Oldham.

A year later he was back at Oakwell, at a cost of £250,000; manager Mel Machin hoping his impudent magic would spark a glorious revival. But last season he managed just seven goals in 37 League games and this season has yet to score.

The top shot last season was Andy Rammell, with eight goals in Division Two, but he too has been struggling to finish this term, his sole contribution coming in the 1-1 home draw with Derby County.

Hence Mr Machin's dabble in the transfer market this month - to recruit the much travelled striker Wayne Biggins for a fee of £200,000 set by a League tribunal last week.

Biggins has responded well with four goals in four appearances but what is even more encouraging is that he seems to have brought the best out of John Pearson who has notched three times in the last three outings - including two last Saturday in a 3-2 win over Brentford when he returned after a 14-minute spell of treatment with five stitches above his left eye and scored the knock-out blows.

The new-found success of the Biggins-Pearson partnership has seen Barnsley undefeated in their last three games with wins over Luton and Brentford and a goalless draw at Oxford United.

Perhaps the luck has changed for the Tykes who were dumped out of the Coca-Cola Cup in the first round by Grimsby on penalties; and the Anglo Italian Cup by Derby County...You know, Barnsley have never ever competed in Division One before and there is a feeling in South Yorkshire that given the breaks Mel Machin could lead them to the promised land.

Owen Archdeacon - Midfield. Joined Celtic from school and went on to make 70 senior appearances for the Parkhead club, after making his debut in 1984. Picked up two Scottish Premier League championship medals as well as a Skol Cup runners-up prize. Capped by Scotland at Youth and Under-21 levels. Joined Barnsley in June 1989 for £80,000 and missed just the last game of the 1991-92 season. Born: Glasgow 4-3-66

Wayne Biggins - Striker. Much travelled striker, Barnsley becoming his seventh club earlier this month. started his career as an apprentice with Lincoln City but made only eight League appearances (1 goal). Then joined Kings Lynn before Burnley brought him back. Scored 29 goals in 78 League appearances and that was enough to tempt Norwich City. Wayne scored just 16 goals in 79 League outings for the Canaries; added another 9 in 32 games with Manchester City. Moved to Stoke four years ago. Born: Sheffield 20-11-61.

Wayne Bullimore - Midfield. A former trainee with Manchester United he arrived at Oakwell on a free transfer in March 1991. Made his debut, as a sub, in a Rumbelows League Cup third round tie at Middlesbrough, in October 1991. A week later he made his League bow at Oxford and finished last season with 18 appearances. Born: Sutton-in-Ashfield 12-9-70.

Lee Butler - Goalkeeper. Started his League career with Lincoln City after being spotted with Harwort Colliery. Played 30 games for the Imps before Aston Villa snapped him up but he was unable to oust Nigel Spink - appearing just 8 times. Spent two months on loan with Hull City before transferring to Barnsley in July 1991 for £215,000. Born: Sheffield 30-5-66.

Gary Fleming - Defender. Linked up with Mel Machin for the second time when he signed from Manchester City in March 1990 for £65,000. Mr Machin had previously taken him to Maine Road from Notts County on loan. A regular member of the Northern Ireland team. Born: Londonderry 17-2-67.

Andrew Liddell - Forward. still only 19 but given his chance this season. Was with the club on Associated Schoolboy forms and signed pro in 1991. Born: Leeds 28-6-73.

B A R N S L E Y

Brendan O'Connell - Midfield. A Londoner who started his career with Portsmouth. Made his League debut for Exeter after joining them in 1986. Scored 19 goals in 81 appearances before moving to Burnley in the season of 1988-89. A £45,000 fee took him to Oakwell in March 1990. Player of the Year in 1991. Born: London 12-11-66.

John Pearson - Forward. Signed for Sheffield Wednesday from school and went on to make 105 League appearances for the Owls (24 goals). Then had a spell with Charlton Athletic (15 goals in 61); Leeds United (12 goals in 99 League games) and Rotherham - on loan - before transferring to Barnsley in July 1991 for £135,000. A former England Youth international he had a spell on loan at Hull last season. Born: Sheffield 1-9-63.

Andy Rammell - Forward. Came into football with Nuncaton Borough and Atherstone in the Beazer Homes League. In the summer of 1989 he was taken on by Manchester United - who paid £60,000 for his registration. Scored 16 goals in the reserves but did not make his League debut until joining Barnsley for £150,000 in September 1990. Joint top scorer last season he had scored 20 League goals by the close of last season.

Neil Redfearn - Midfield. Now with his eighth club Neil served his apprenticeship with Nottingham Forest before moving on a free to Bolton Wanderers in 1982. Two years later he moved on to Lincoln City and in 1986 he joined Doncaster Rovers. Had further spells with Crystal Palace (£100,000 in July 1987); Watford (£150,000 Nov 1988) and Oldham Athletic (£150,000 in Jan 1990). Barnsley splashed out £180,000 for his services after a spell on loan at Oakwell. Had made 360 League appearances (67 goals) by the close of last season. Born: Dewsbury 20-6-65

Jamie Robinson - Fullback. Versatile defender who can play across the back line but considers his best role is leftback. Signed on a free transfer from Liverpool in the summer, having failed to make the first team at Anfield. Born: Liverpool 26-2-72.

Mark Robinson - Midfield. Another free-transfer capture, Mark arrived from the Hawthorns in the summer of 1987 after four appearances for WBA. Ironically, he made his Barnsley debut against his former club, at the end of the 1987-88 season. Born: Manchester 21-11-68.

Gerry Taggart - Defender. Current Northern Ireland international - he has over 10 caps - and is the most capped player while on Barnsley's books. A trainee with Manchester City he captained their youth team and made 12 League appearances during their promotion season of 1988-89. In January 1990 he moved to Oakwell in a £70,000 deal. Made his 100th career League appearance against Wolves at the end of April 1992. Born: Belfast 18-10-70.

THE MAN IN CHARGE

Mel Machin, born in Newcastle-under-Lyme, on 16th April 1945, was, in his playing days a cultured fullback, though he had started out as a striker.

He first came to prominence with the Stoke-on-Trent Schoolboy team and was soon persuaded to join the apprentice ranks at Port Vale. Turned professional in 1962 and four years later joined Gillingham.

Adapted successfully to a mid-field role and in December 1970 moved to Bournemouth before joining the exodus to Carrow Road, along with John Bond and Ken Brown in December 1973.

Played for the Canaries for five years and scored hat-tricks in both the first team and reserves before joining the Seattle Sounders in the NFL. While in America Mel sustained a knee injury which led to his retirement in 1977.

Took up coaching with Norwich City working his way through the youth and reserve sides to become chief coach and Ken Brown's assistant in a highly successful partnership.

It was no surprise when he was offered the manager's chair at Maine Road in May 1987.

After missing promotion at his first attempt Manchester City clinched a place in Division One next time round. Machin's reward was the sack in December 1989. Within a month he was back in business with Barnsley and plotting another push for Division One.

Those were the days...

BY PAUL PLOWMAN

... looks back at previous connections with today's visitors

Last weekend saw the completion of the qualifying rounds of the FA Cup for another season. Our look back today starts in the days when the name of Swindon Town appeared regularly at this stage of the competition. In fact, one hundred years ago this very weekend, on October 29 1892, the Town took on Bristol Club Warmley and were victorious by 8 goals to one.

Such results were commonplace then, when Swindon were strictly amateurs, playing their football in Old Town, at The Croft. Of course, there was no Wembley in those days, but Swindon's chances of reaching The Oval, or wherever they chose to play the Final, were as remote as Halifax winning the Cup this century.

Year after year, they battled against the likes of Maidenhead and Marlow, Warmley and Weymouth, but always failed to clear the final qualifying hurdle. The first time that the Town faced Cup opponents from 'north of Watford' was a meeting with Barnsley at Oakwell in December 1902. This was also their first clash with a Football League Club in the Cup.

By this time, Swindon were a professional outfit, albeit one annually tottering on the brink of bankruptcy. However, they had amassed 25 goals in brushing aside Chippenham Town (5-0), Yeovil Casuals (4-0), Poole (7-1) and Whiteheads Torpedo Works (9-0), before being faced with a further obstacle - which the Football Association termed an Intermediate Round - barring the way to the First Round proper.

Barnsley had not been excused from the qualifying rounds either. Despite poor League form, they had disposed of fellow Second Division sides Chesterfield and Gainsborough Trinity to face the Town. Had Swindon not been without experienced goalkeeper Bob Menham, who went down with rheumatic fever a few days before the trip to Yorkshire, they might have fared better than a 4-0 defeat. Tom Lewis stepped up for what proved to be his only senior appearance for the Town. Menham never played again.

Swindon's Cup reputation had been somewhat enhanced by the time they next met Barnsley, in 1910. Barnsley were still in the Second Division and the Town still in the Southern League, but how times had changed for Swindon. Now inspired by Harold Fleming, of England, they had almost reached the Final. They claimed the scalps of Burnley and Manchester City of the Second Division and Tottenham of the First, the latter falling to a Fleming hat-trick. This took them to a semi-final meeting, on Tottenham's ground, where they went down 2-0 to Newcastle United. Barnsley had gone one better, getting to the Final and holding the Geordies to a 1-1 draw before going down in a replay at Goodison.

Their meeting with the Town, on Thursday May 5, was on foreign soil, the venue being the Velodrome du Parc des Princes in Paris. The prize was the Dubonnet Cup.

Swindon were not at full strength. Jack Burkinshaw, born not too many miles from Barnsley at Kilnhurst, came in at centre-forward for Freddy Wheatcroft and Sammy Lamb for Jack Lavery on the left-wing. But once again Fleming's trickery won the day, his two goals securing a 2-1 win for the Town. The players were awarded medals and brought back to the County Ground a large bronze vase, valued at a princely £40! Today's teams will see the trophy, too, as it now stands in the corridor on the way to the dressing rooms.

S Marketing SWINDON

with Janet Garrett

Hello and a very warm welcome to this afternoon's exciting game from myself and my colleagues in the Marketing Department.

I am delighted to welcome once again our Matchday Sponsors Swindon Cable. Last season they sponsored the game against Southend United and enjoyed their time with us so much that they booked their game as soon as the fixtures were available. Swindon Cable is the leading Cable operator in the UK having over 18,000 customers in the Swindon area. They provide their customers with over 20 channels of great choice in television viewing, all without the need for an aerial or unsightly satellite dish.

Today's party is headed by General Manager David Gosling and Marketing Director Martin Harvey. Amongst Swindon Cable's guests today are several key members of the company's staff plus visitors from Sky TV, MTV, Children's Channel and United Artists Programming.

Castrol Link Up

We hope that every member of the Swindon Cable party enjoys their day and we will see them again very soon.

As you have probably noticed by now the Kid-a-Quid scheme has been a great success with the family encl sure full of enthusiastic young supporters, making lots of much appreciated noise. Hopefully these youngsters are now life long fans and come to all our future matches. The good news is that thanks to Castrol (UK) Limited all games except cup matches will have the Kid-a-Quid scheme in operation.

Matchball Sponsorship

I am looking for a Matchball sponsor for the Brentford and Southend games on November 3rd and 14th respectively.

This package entitles you to the following for four people:-

- Four of the best seats in the North Stand
- Pre-Match buffet in the Executive Lounge
- Complimentary half time refreshments

- Complimentary matchday programme
- A signed Swindon Town Football
- Advertisement in the programme
- Mention on the PA system and the electronic scoreboard

If you would like to be the Matchball sponsor for these two games then please contact me on Swindon 430430 as soon as possible.

The Swindon Town Lucky Mascots

Our first lucky mascot who is in for a great time today is 7 years old Roger Bunce from Aldbourne. Roger goes to St Michael's School at Aldbourne and says his hobbies are football and the Beavers, although he doesn't play for any particular team yet. His favourite players are Glenn Hoddle, Nicky Hammond and Fraser Digby and as well as Swindon Town, Roger supports Spurs and Rangers.

Our second lucky mascot is 9 soon to be 10 year old Oliver Hanks from Brimble Hill in Wroughton. Oliver goes to Wroughton Junior School and lists his hobbies as football, collecting football programmes and reading. His favourite players are also Glenn Hoddle and Fraser Digby and of course his favourite team is Swindon Town.

Have a great day Roger and Oliver!

BARCLAYS

STAR OF THE WEEK

PLAYER PROFILE

THE BARCLAYS LEAGUE PLAYERS

PLAYER PROFILE

The Barclays League enhanced its reputation last week when a representative side, led by Glenn Hoddle, defeated the Italian Serie B team by 3-1 at Ashton Gate.

It was sweet revenge for the 2-1 defeat suffered in Caserta last season, in the first of this highly successful series which promises to become a regular fixture on the soccer calendar.

Not only was this a good advert for English soccer but a testament to the quality found here at Swindon Town. For with Glenn Hoddle in charge, John Gorman his assistant, and super displays from Craig Maskell, Colin Calderwood and David Kerlake the Town influence was there for all to enjoy.

It was Craig who hit the headlines once again with two well taken goals and the Swindon striker can feel well satisfied with his performance.

Says Craig: "It was nice to be involved. I have been to England Schoolboy trials as a kid and was in the last 20 for the England Youth team but never got picked so this was my first representative honour."

"When I realised I was playing I was very excited and determined to do well. The game started well for me because in the third minute I got in behind my marker with a spin and was dribbling the ball almost along their goal-line when I was confronted by another defender. I tried to play the ball between his legs - it was the only place I could go - and the ball deflected off his knee into the net."

"That gave me a great boost and from then on I felt nice and sharp. The Italians marked very tightly with man to man marking and a sweeper so they give little away. But I was really wound up for this one after a terrible game here against Notts County the previous Saturday. County too had operated a man to man marking system and though we won comfortably in the end I have to admit Michael Johnson did a very good job on me. He hardly allowed me a kick."

"So I was determined to master that system against the Italians. I did manage two sort of simple goals - the second came when their goalkeeper made an error and gave the ball to Jon Goodman who chipped it in to give me a free header - but apart from that very rarely got away from my shadow."

The whole experience came as a refreshing boost to all our lads and Craig says: "Colin played exceptionally well as usual and in the second half David Kerlake really did put on a performance. Both of them came close to scoring...It was a nice performance and result for the Gaffer and John Gorman."

Those goals took Craig's tally this season to 13 and last Saturday he went one better with the winner, at Upton Park, against West Ham United. "There was a bit of luck about this one as well," Craig is quick to acknowledge - his free-kick from 20-yards taking a deflection to wrongfoot Miklosko.

But he reflects: "Maybe it is about time Swindon enjoyed a bit of luck anyway. We have dominated so many games this season without getting a result. George Parris had brought down Martin Ling and my only concern was to keep my kick low.

"I must say we were all keyed up for that game. We have been getting some stick, and rightly so, from the manager and other sources over our lack of success away. We were determined to do something this time.

"It was the most spirited performance since I came here and I think we got our just reward. The Sunday papers claimed that West Ham were all over us second-half but they didn't once get behind us. They had a lot of the ball but most of their efforts were restricted by us to long shots."

When it comes to shooting of course Craig is the master but has he ever had a better start than this to a season?

"No...I scored 33 goals in my first season with Huddersfield but only had 14 by Christmas. This is by far my best start but though I have had the headlines don't forget the others. David Mitchell has eight and Shaun Taylor six...we are the top shots."

Gorman's GROOVE

JOHN GORMAN

Welcome this afternoon to everybody from Barnsley Football Club who I feel are a much better team than their League position suggests. I am sure that Mel Machin will turn things around before long-starting after today's game! Our 5-1 victory over Notts County a fortnight ago was really pleasing. The goals were mixed with five different lads getting on the score-sheet. Martin Ling, Dave Mitchell and Nicky Summerbee all added to their totals while young Kevin Horlock scored on his full League debut and John Moncur netted our fifth having come on as substitute after his lay off through injury. This was also John's first goal for the Club in the League following his arrival from Spurs at the end of last season.

Craig Maskell for once didn't score but managed to bag a brace in the Barclays League representative game at Ashton Gate a few days later against the Italian League side. Goal of the game had to be Martin Allen's brilliant chip which left the Italian keeper stranded. It was a really good three days for Glenn and I to work with other quality players along with our own Nicky Hammond, Colin Calderwood and David Kerslake. The attitude and standard of players involved was truly magnificent. They worked so well in our training methods together and you could feel a team spirit develop in the three days during our stay. It was good that we were based here in Swindon.

We were looked after in the usual excellent manner at the De Vere Hotel and got to know each other better during this time. The couple of training periods were held at our own home from home Allied Dunbar Training Centre at Wanborough. The way we played on the night against the Italians was a real credit to everybody involved. The lads enjoyed the style of football we promote at Swindon and the Football League staff were superb in the way we were looked after.

To see our boys do so well with the cream of the League was a pleasure. It was a pity that there wasn't a bigger crowd to savour the game but with the Rangers vs Leeds United match live on television it was to be expected. However the atmosphere created by the cheering youngsters who came, helped the players greatly. Our new Kid-a-Quid scheme in the Town End also promotes youngsters coming to the game which can only do good.

Action from Ashton Gate.

Home & Away

Last month Brentford came and conquered in the Anglo Italian Cup. A combination of ill-luck came when Micky Hazard fired in a stunning drive that had goalkeeper Ashley Bayes well and truly beaten - only to rebound from the crossbar.

Brentford centre-back Jamie Bates couldn't believe his luck when he threw up his arm to haul down a penetrating cross that was streaking towards David Mitchell's head. He must have expected a penalty award against him and a yellow, if not a red card. But the referee did nothing and a minute or two later Brentford broke away to pinch a winner.

This coming Tuesday you can expect some fireworks as the lads seek revenge for a defeat that should never have been. For Brentford are here again in a very important Barclays League Division One game.

We first entertained the Bees here in our Southern League days - a 0-0 draw being the outcome of the first encounter in September 1901. Twenty years later Billy Batty scored the only goal in our first ever League meeting. A week later Billy Wareing - the former Everton wing-half - popped in the winner as we completed a double at Griffin Park.

It is nearly six years since we last clashed with the London Club at The County Ground. A penalty from Tom Jones and a shot from Steve White clinching a 2-0 win.

Last week Brentford were in action against today's visitors, Barnsley, at Oakwell, and showed their potential when Gary Blissett shot them into a two goal lead. But the Tykes stormed back to take the game 3-2 to leave the Londoners in the bottom four. Brentford are still looking for their first away win in the League, but can they repeat that victory of mid-September? Or will Glenn's men go to town on exacting revenge?

COLIN'S CORNER

WITH COLIN CALDERWOOD

We were absolutely thrilled with our 1-0 win at West Ham last week. For long periods of the game we had our backs to the wall but showed grit and determination that we have not displayed for a long long time... If we can reproduce that sort of determination and spirit regularly away from home then we will be really going places.

It seems an awful long time since a home crowd has booed us for our tackling - but that is what is required. Too often we are applauded from the field for our football with 'hard luck you played well', ringing in our ears as we traipsed off defeated.

We weren't dirty or anything like that at Upton Park just committed. West Ham are quite a physical team you know. That's how football is at this level. It is not all pretty passing and standing off and after you Claud.

You would have to say that had we been the home side and the game had gone against us in the way we would have been disappointed and no doubt the West Ham lads felt that. But to us it was very very sweet.

Nicky Hammond was superb and Shaun Taylor just headed everything away as we frustrated all their efforts... I tell you. We'd take another ten performances like this where people think we are lucky to win the points. It is something we used to do regularly when we were enjoying success in the fourth and third divisions.

BENNO

At the end of a week when goalkeepers' punchlines were not so funny Nicky Hammond restored our faith in this specialized position with as sound a display as you could wish to see at West Ham United.

You know there was a time when English club goalkeepers were renowned the world over but John Lukic's miscued punch in the European Cup tie at Ibrox, that put Rangers back in a game they seemed well out of, is just one of many errors that have been committed by our top goalies in recent years.

Of course Bruce Grobbelaar - a goalkeeper I have never rated - went even further with his pantomime show in Moscow. I have seen it written that Bruce was a victim of the new back-pass rule but his eccentric displays have been going on much longer than this ridiculous manifestation from FIFA.

Another excuse offered was the inexperience of Liverpool defence which it is said is suffering, along with all other defenders, from having their confidence undermined by the back-pass rule.

Last Sunday I watched the Inter Milan v Juventus game on TV and saw no evidence at all of the Italian players being unsettled by the rule. In fact I can hardly recall a single back-pass to the goalkeepers in a game flowing with attacking rhythm and precision.

But then I suppose this is because in general Italian defenders are technically superior. They all seem very comfortable on the ball.

Channel 4 have certainly backed a winner here - though it seems not all English fans agree. On last Saturday's 606 Radio programme one disgruntled Coventry City fan rang in to say he couldn't understand what the fuss was about the Italian game.

The caller reckoned that all those fabulous goals we have been treated to in Serie A were "Rubbish" - mainly the bi-product of appalling goalkeeping on the part of the Italian goalies.

The whole basis of his argument seemed to be anchored on the fact that, in his opinion, he felt Steve Ogrizovic was a much better custodian than Walter Zenya - who I might add was reckoned to be best in the world at his peak.

Everyone of course is entitled to their opinions but I must say it seemed a strange time to be knocking Italian 'keepers in the wake of Messrs Lukic and Grobbelaar's blunders.

A glance at Monday's First Division table made happy reading for all Town fans. That 1-0 win at West Ham shot us up to second place behind Newcastle United.

Kevin Keegan's team hold a nine point lead, and have a game in hand too, it is true. Yet better teams than Newcastle have squandered similar advantages and Grimsby clipped their wings on Saturday.

Gavin Peacock the Magpie skipper claimed it "a blessing in disguise." We all share those sentiments..

INSIGHT

Football felt the cool draught of depression last week when Barclays Bank formerly advised the Football League that it will not be extending its sponsorship when the current contract finishes at the end of this season.

Commenting on the Bank's decision. Bill Gordon, Managing Director, Barclays Banking Division, said, "Our decision to take up the sponsorship in 1987 was based solely on commercial reasons with clear business objectives in mind. Over the past six seasons these objectives have been fulfilled and we feel that the end of this current season is the most appropriate time for the Bank to stand down from the sponsorship..

"We have been delighted with our football involvement and our partnership with The Football League in establishing the single most successful sports sponsorship in the UK to date. The nine-month Football League campaign provides unrivalled opportunities for increasing name awareness, involvement in local communities, marketing and promotional activities."

Gordon McKeag, President of The Football League said: "Whilst we are sad that our very successful association with Barclays Bank is to come to an end at the close of this season, we appreciate that this sponsorship has lasted as long as most commercial sponsorships and fully understand the reasons for Barclay's decision."

"I concur wholeheartedly with the views expressed by Bill Gordon. The Barclays sponsorship has been of great benefit not only to Barclays but to The Football League and to the reputation of football as a whole. Throughout the term of the sponsorship, relations between the parties have always been both constructive and harmonious. It is typical of the Bank's attitude to the League that they have continued to support us

during this difficult season and that they have given us the earliest possible notice of their decision to enable us to negotiate a new sponsorship deal for next season."

"Indeed, the timing of this announcement may be propitious following, as it does, our successful International Football League match against the Italian Serie B side and coming at a time when the gates at Barclays League matches continue to improve against the trend and when we are commanding significant television audiences."

"I am confident that the range, quality and popularity of League football presents an unrivalled opportunity for a blue-chip sponsor, and I feel sure that the void undoubtedly created by Barclays decision, will soon be filled."

Lets hope so. For the current Barclays deal pumps something like £11 million into the game's coffers.

We have had the Canon League, the Today League and now the Barclays League. So who is next to sponsor the oldest league competition in the world?

Helping the most important people in football

Football is much more than a game of 90 minutes. Every day clubs throughout Britain are providing recreational and sporting opportunities for their local communities.

Much of this has been achieved with the help of the Football Trust. As part of its commitment to Football, The Trust has granted £4M to set up the National Football and Community Development Scheme.

Bringing club and community together, Trust-backed initiatives have provided a variety of local amenities, including:

- Artificial pitches for local teams
- Coaching for youngsters
- Support for women's football
- Facilities for people with disabilities

The Football Trust is helping the game at all levels.

We are looking into the possibility of starting a creche near The County Ground on matchdays. Starting in January we are hopeful of running it every Saturday or Sunday matchday from 2.00pm - 5.00pm. If successful and there is a demand a creche for midweek fixtures could follow.

The creche would be held at Broadgreen Community Centre, Salisbury Street, Swindon which is only 500 yards from the stadium.

The aims are:-

- 1) To allow both parents with toddlers to attend football matches together.
- 2) To make it easier for single parents to attend Swindon Town games.
- 3) To allow one parent to attend football while the other is free to go shopping.
- 4) To encourage families with young children to attend football matches together.

The creche will be for children aged 1 to 6 years old, would cost £4 per child and would of course be fully supervised.

To give us a better idea into the requirements of supporters, could interested parties please let me know by answering the following either in a letter or on a postcard:-

- 1) When would you use the creche - Saturdays/Midweek/Both
 - 2) How often would you use it - Every game/Occasionally
 - 3) How many of your children would use the creche?
 - 4) Would you use the creche just to attend matches or maybe to do other things ie shopping - Matches/Other/Both
- We would be pleased to send you further information when you return the answers, if you include a stamped addressed envelope.

Please send to:
Community Office,
Swindon Town Football Club, County Ground,
Swindon, SN1 2ED.

Fun Weeks

Over the past week we have been holding another of our successful Football Fun Weeks. Boys and girls have thoroughly enjoyed coaching with visits from the players.

Other weeks are arranged for the future including the Christmas and New Year holiday.

Any interested youngsters please contact the Community Office or pick up an application form from the Club offices.

Rowland's RESERVES

With our Neville Ovenden Football Combination game at West Ham United called off last week because of a waterlogged pitch at Upton Park, I was able to get along to Ashton Gate where Glenn Hoddle was managing the Barclays League side who took on a team from the Italian Serie B. Some of the football played at Bristol was tremendous considering that Glenn and John Gorman only had the team together for just three days prior to the game.

The Barclays League team were based here in Swindon and we saw them in training at our Wanborough Training Ground and straight away I could see that Glenn had got together some of the best talent in the Football League. We could not have wished for a better start to the game with our own Craig Maskell continuing his impressive form when after just three minutes he caught the Italians napping. He was rewarded following an aggressive run through the box and at first seemed to have no chance scoring with a shot from near the goal-line.

However, as the Italian defenders closed in, the ball spun off Gianluca Francesconi and looped into the net with keeper Bucci stranded. On the half hour Craig scored his second of the evening and again it was from a mistake from the visiting keeper who was given a back-pass and presented it straight to Millwall's Jon Goodman who crossed straight to Craig who was totally unmarked to head past Bucci.

Brilliant skill from West Ham's Martin Allen, captain on the night, got Glenn's side their third goal. Allen had plenty of options but before reaching the edge of the area he beat Bucci with a precise chip straight into the corner of the net.

The Italian's scored a consolation goal from Giampiere Maini with quarter of an hour remaining but this could not take the gloss off what must have been a pleasing and creditable performance for Glenn and John.

FOCUS on youth

In the first game of our 1st round Midland Youth Cup tie with Oxford United at The Manor Ground we could not have had a better start with two goals in the opening three minutes, both coming from rehearsed corner kicks. Gaining this advantage should have given us the confidence to really get our passing game going. Unfortunately for the next ten minutes or so it had the reverse effect allowing Oxford back into the game by not pressurising or working hard enough to gain possession.

A goal in each half pulled Oxford level and from then on the game could have gone either way.

In most games a draw away from home would have been a good result but having gained that early advantage we should have made the game safe instead of needing a replay.

The replay last week here at The County Ground was a hard fought battle with both sides giving 100%. However, it was too frantic at times with far too much controlled football being played.

This was another typical Cup tie, end to end, although we had more of the possession we did not make that count until shortly before the interval when following a move down the right Ben Worrall hit a 25 yard shot into the top corner to give us the interval lead.

Maintaining our effort two further goals from Steve Lane were reward for the persistence of our strikers in chasing through balls from Andrew Kearns and Jamie Pitman, the second by Steve Lane and the third following good work from Steve Luwero.

This was a hard working team performance with everybody contributing. Their approach and effort was right, not allowing

JOHN TROLLOPE

Oxford the time or space to get their game going. We must look to apply ourselves in this manner in all games showing more composure on the ball at times.

We now look forward to a trip to the winners of the Derby County vs Hereford United first round tie in the next round.
