Dave Mitchell in the thick of it!

It's a pleasure to welcome Mick McCarthy and his players to The County Ground. Mick has to be applauded for the way he has turned Millwall round since taking office. I'm pleased he has chosen to pursue a creative approach and develop a passing game.

There can never be too many teams adopting this style of play and I must say that Millwall proved to be one of the best footballing sides we have played against this season. I'm sure this afternoon's game will be a treat for the fans.

Millwall have been going great guns in recent weeks but we too have turned in some good performances, particularly in our last two games against Wolves and Sunderland.

Our show at Roker Park last week was particularly encouraging and following on from the win over Wolves lifted us nicely into a more positive position in the First Division table.

In both games the lads worked extremely hard and punished the opposition at the right time. Two clean sheets emphasised the work the whole team put in when we lost the ball.

Now we have to produce similar performances week in week out until the final kick of the season. You can only take one game at a time but consistency has got to be our objective.

We are digging in deep as a team and I can only be pleased with recent form.

While on the Sunderland match a special mention of Fraser Digby. He was excellent. Saved a penalty and played as well as I have ever seen him perform since I joined the Club.

Overall then a good team performance in which everyone showed initiative, a willingness to graft, skill and good organisation.

A word or two of thanks as well to that loyal band of supporters who made the long long trek to Roker

Park. I can't tell you how much we appreciate your support and I'm sure, like us, you enjoyed the return journey all the better because of the result.

The pitch was in excellent condition. Evidently the North East has not had so much rain as we have and the conditions were certainly good for our brand of football.

What about Paul Bodin. Three goals in three games is his record coming into this afternoon's match and all have been excellent strikes. It was a real beauty that beat Sunderland and I'm sure there are more to come.

Paul is beginning to revel in the space our formation present him. So lethal is he in front of goal in training that we call him "Rushy." He literally hits goals from all over the place.

Congratulations to Paul on his selection for the Welsh squad to play the Republic of Ireland next week and to Duncan Shearer too who has been named in the Scottish squad for the very first time at the age of 30! Duncan did a lot for us while he was at Swindon and we wish him all the best.

While on the subject of former players we have Tom Jones back with us for treatment. Tom, who joined Reading last summer broke his leg in training but is now on the mend and we are happy to give him all the help we can.

Enjoy the game. It is set up nicely and we need your vocal support to rally the lads. So let's be hearing you. Play your part in helping us establish a solid record at home.

DERBY COUNTY vs SWINDON TOWN Kick Off: 2.55pm

NEWS ON one

New Sunderland Boss Terry Butcher did not get his second stint at management off to the start he would have liked with a 1-0 defeat to Swindon Town at Roker Park. Butcher was appointed as the fifth Sunderland Manager in the last ten years following the dismissal of Malcolm Crosby and will be hard pressed to copy the success he enjoyed by his former England team mate Kevin Keegan at neighbours Newcastle. Butcher considers his approach at Roker Park will be different to that adopted at Highfield Road "I went in at Coventry with guns blazing and wanting to change the world but I have since learned that you have to be more patient."

Newcastle were without a game last weekend and the players enjoyed a break abroad in preparation for today's F.A. Cup clash with Blackburn. Keegan's right hand man at St James' Park is Terry McDermott, although he explains he is not at the Club in a technical capacity "I'm not here as coach and I don't profess to be a coach. I get on with the players though, and that's what I do."

It's not my job to bawl them out. I think I'm here to bring a bit of life to the place, add a bit of bubble. I'm enjoying it but I'm only here as long as Kevin. If he goes you won't find me looking to take over. We knew we had good players but results have been even better than we hoped."

Bristol City, under the leadership of caretaker Manager Russell Osman who is standing in following the sacking of Denis Smith gained a surprise 3-2 win at Portsmouth. Osman is in charge at Ashton Gate until the end of the season and has been given Board backing to strengthen the City squad and has taken Ipswich Town midfielder Glenn Pennyfather on loan. Dismissed Smith meanwhile has been linked with several jobs and is keen to stay in the game "I'm more angry than anything else and determined to stay in the game and do other things."

Notts County have found a new lease of life following their parting with Manager Neil Warnock who had been in charge at Meadow Lane since January 1989. Caretaker Mick Walker saw his side beat Birmingham 3-1 on Saturday to continue their recent good form and striker

Tony Agana believes Walker is the man for the job "It's unbelievable. The whole Club has been given a lift. We are trying to play good football and trying to put the enjoyment back into our game. Neil Warnock's approach got us where we are now so we have nothing to lose."

Despite their home defeat to Tranmere last Saturday Cambridge are enjoying a good run of form under new Manager Ian Atkins who took over following the departure of John Beck in November. Atkins first signing at The Abbey was Watford's Steve Butler and he believes the team are better for the change in management "When John Beck was in charge the lads said they got in trouble if they didn't do set things. It is hard to change overnight but it is coming. We have freedom to play football under new boss Ian Atkins."

Kevin Keegan - Cup clash today against Blackburn.

Mick McCarthy's Millwall have made a stylish impression on the First Division this season emerging as serious promotion contenders on merit.

Last year the Lions earned a reputation as no nonsense competitors but their talentless long-ball game didn't win many admirers outside the confines of Cold Blow Lane.

This season however McCarthy has introduced a more constructive and imaginative approach to the game, re-styling the side with the introduction of one or two new players such as Andy May and the highly rated Jamie Moralee, whose goalscoring feats are only matched by his youthful exuberance.

Aidan Davison kicked off the season as the number one choice in goal but the Lions' Player of the Year was injured in the second game and his cover, Kasey Keller, has proved so good he has now firmly established himself.

With player-manager Mick McCarthy limited to just a couple of games following persistent calf injuries and England 'B' pivot, Alan McLeary, sidelined by injury as well, the central defensive partnership of former Middlesbrough fullback Colin Cooper and stalwart Keith Stevens has proved highly effective.

With Kenny Cunningham, an enterprising Dubliner, impressing in the number two shirt and the reliable Ian Dawes at leftback, Millwall's defence has provided a sound foundation on which to launch their promotion charge.

Only Newcastle United have conceded fewer goals and the Lions goal difference at home of 41-11 indicates the emphasis played on attack. Yet away from home Millwall have not proved quite so fluent with just 11 goals netted in 14 away trips; a figure below that of all teams in the First Division apart from Birmingham City (8 goals), and Sunderland (9 goals).

Their recent 3-0 defeat at Oxford co-incided with the absence of three of the back line; Cunningham with a bruised foot; Stevens with calf problems and Cooper through suspension. All three were back last week for the impressive 5-2 demolition of Watford.

In the meantime McLeary and Tony McCarthy - a £100,000 signing from Irish champions Shelbourne last June - formed a makeshift partnership with Alex Rae at the back and were clearly out of touch.

They say that any successful side needs a spine and in the centre of the Lions midfield Andy May has been a revelation. Very experienced he acts as the anchor man just in front of the back-four. Ian Bogle provides the industry alongside Andy Roberts on the right and the stylish Phil Barber on the left.

Jamie Moralee and Jon Goodman present a talented front-line with pace and perception with Malcolm Allen, a neat little finisher providing an alternative when required.

They have been good enough to keep John Byrne, a £250,000 recruit from Sunderland, in the shadows. Last year Byrne was the scoring sensation of the Rokerites march to Wembley in the F.A. Cup but after injuring his thigh in the 1-1 draw with Southend he has been unable to get back in this side. His record shows one goal in six appearances.

Other players used this season include Paul Holsgrove and Tony Dolby, an extremely promising 18-year-old forward from Greenwich.

Eight goals in 40 League appearances was his tally at the start of the season. Born: Walthamstow 2-6-71.

Kasey Keller - Goalkeeper. Hopes to be playing number one for the USA in the next World Cup Finals in the States. Arrived at the Den in January 1992 as the understudy to Tony Meola in the USA squad and made just one League appearance, against Southend in May. But injury to Aidan Davison in the second game of this season opened the door and since then he has missed just one game. Born: Washington USA 29-11-69.

Alan McLeary - Central Defender. Millwall's second longest serving pro Alan made his debut for the club v Lincoln City in December 1982. Has now played in 301 games and has been capped by England at Under-21 (1) and 'B' (2) levels. Born: Lambeth 6-10-64.

Andy May - Midfield. Former team mate of Mick McCarthy's at Manchester City (he scored eight goals in 150 League appearances) he was swapped for David Thompson in an exchange deal with Bristol City last summer. Has stamped his authority on Millwall's midfield where he plays a holding role. Has also played for Huddersfield, Bolton on loan. Born: 26-2-64.

Jamie Moralee - Striker. Arrived as part of the deal that took £1.5 million Chris Armstrong to Crystal Palace earlier this season. Has responded well with nine goals in his first 16 League appearances for the Lions. Made his League debut for Palace last season v Coventry (1-2-92) and made six appearances in all in the old First Division. Born: Wandsworth 2-12-71.

Andy Roberts - Midfield/Fullback. Versatile performer, Andy broke into the side last April when he came on as a sub against Cambridge United. A member of the Lions F.A. Youth Cup winning side in 1991 he has earned a regular spot in the number seven shirt this season. Born: Dartford 20-3-74.

Keith Stevens - Midfield/Defender. Currently playing in the centre of the defence 'Rhino' has chalked up well over 300 appearances for the London Club. The longest serving player on the books he first wore the Millwall shirt at Oxford in April 1981.

THE MAN IN CHARGE

Mick McCarthy was elevated to the status of player-manager in April 1992 after a successful run as caretaker boss following the departure of Bruce Rioch. Born and bred in Barnsley - he celebrated his 34th birthday on the 7th February. Mick joined the apprentice ranks of his local team upon leaving school and got his break in August 1977, when he made his debut in a 4-0 win over Rochdale.

Was an ever-present in his first two seasons with Barnsley and clocked up 272 League appearances in seven years at the Club.

A steady consistent performer he attracted the attentions of Manchester City who invested £200,000 in him on December 14th 1983. Mick strengthened City's defence considerably, adding 140 League games to his total in four years at Maine Road, helping them win promotion from Division Two in 1985.

From Maine Road he moved to Celtic in 1987, helping them clinch the Premier League Championship and the Scottish Cup in 1988. In the summer of 1990 Mick moved into Europe with Olympique Lyon the French Club.

A latecomer to International football, he was 25 when he made his debut for the Republic of Ireland against Poland in May 1983 but is the holder of a proud record as the Irish captain.

He skipped the side in the 1990 World Cup Finals in Italy and was in the side during last summer's tour of the USA but injury has prevented him adding to his 57 full caps this season.

Those were the days...

... looks back at previous connections with today's visitors

By the time the Town next face Millwall, the Londoners will have moved to a new home at Senegal Fields, not far from their present one. So perhaps this is an appropriate time to reflect on Swindon's days at Cold Blow Lane.

The Town were one of the first ever visitors there, back in November 1910. Just a fortnight after the ground opened, Millwall's 2-0 win ended Swindon's nine-match unbeaten start to the season. The new venue thus brought much the same fortune to the Town as the Lions' previous homes at East Ferry Road (seven games, seven defeats) and North Greenwich (one win in nine visits). But Swindon has the last laugh, going on to win the Southern League Championship that season.

Two years later, the Town recorded their first win at The Den, Billy Batty scoring the only goal of the game. He was on target again in April 1914, when a 1-1 draw helped Swindon to a second championship win. They won both of the final Southern League encounters there, 2-1 in 1914/15 and 2-0 in 1919/20. But things were back to normal in the first Third Division clash at New Cross, when Millwall were 5-0 winners almost ten years to the day since that opening meeting.

Little changed in the period between the Wars, when the Town recorded just two wins in twelve trips to South London. In 1927/28, the Lions' won the Third Division South with Swindon being one of only two sides to take a point from The Den. Former Millwall man Harry Morris scored twice in a 3-3 scoreline. On the way to the Londoners' next championship win, ten years later, the Town won 2-0 there on Good Friday in front of the biggest gate of the season, 38,373. Millwall gained swift revenge with a 2-1 win at the County Ground on Easter Monday. Foster Hedley, later to join Swindon, hit both goals.

The first four post-war encounters at The Den were all witnessed by 20,000 plus crowds, the highest being 23,390 in August 1949. Maurice Owen netted in a 3-1 defeat on Christmas Day 1948, but no Town player scored there again for five years. The next successful marksman was Mickey Bull, but sadly Swindon conceded six!

After picking up just three points from ten visits to Cold Blow Lane, the Town finally recorded their first - and only - post-war League success there in November 1962. A hat-trick from Cliff Jackson helped them to a 4-3 win and an eventful first-ever promotion to the Second Division. But a 3-1 reverse in April 1970 effectively put paid to a similar promotion bid, when Swindon missed out on a step to the First Division. In 1980, the Town has enjoyed Cup success but their League aspirations again suffered and a 6-2 defeat at Millwall in March did little for their cause. A new signing, full-back David Peach at a club record £135,000, made his debut.

Although failing to record a second away League victory since the last War, Swindon have fared better in the Cups. Only once in four outings have the Town slipped to defeat - in the Associate Members Cup in 1984. That came just four months after a Second Round F.A. Cup tie when, despite having central defender Simon Gibson sent off, Swindon went through 3-2. The first two legged League Cup First Round ties in 1975/76 brought Swindon a 1-0 victory in London and a 3-1 aggregate win. Then a Steve White 'double' there last season in a 2-2 draw set the Town up for a 5-3 aggregate success.

Steve White - Last Swindon player to score at Cold Blow Lane in a Cup tie.

Today's Lucky Mascots

Swindon Town Football Club have been proud to have two or three young supporters for every home match this season as mascots. At the moment we still have some vacancies for this season's remaining games and are in the process of taking bookings for next season.

It's every young supporters dream to become a mascot, to meet and run on the pitch with their favourite team. To make your child's/grandchild's dream come true please contact Justine Phillips on 0793 430430 for more details.

Town and his favourite player is Glenn Hoddle.

Ian Hutchinson from Bromley, Chippenham is our second home mascot today. Ian is fifteen years old and attends John Bentley School in Calne. Ian participates in many aspects of sport but in particular he enjoys tennis and football. He plays as a centre forward for his school team and also belongs to Bromley Football Club. His football idols are Glenn Hoddle and Colin Calderwood.

Today we are also happy to welcome Richard Fromant, Millwall's mascot to The County Ground. Richard is eleven years old and attends St Michaels C of E Primary School in Welling near his home. Richard's hobbies include chess, swimming and rugby. His favourite player is Malcolm Allen. Currently he plays football for his school and local team where he is captain.

Junior Robins

Once again I am planning an away trip for the Junior Robins to support Swindon Town for our fixture at The Abbey Stadium against Cambridge United on Saturday 20th February. We are hoping to arrange a morning football match for the young supporters, but this is dependent on the state of their pitches. One of the lucky Junior Robins on the coach will be picked out to be our lucky away mascot to make the day a little special. Anyone wishing to join us on this trip please contact Justine for more details and booking form.

PLAYER PROFILE

PLAYER PROFILE

There can be no greater hell for a professional athlete than a long recurring career threatening injury. The loneliness of the long distance runner pales into insignificance against the kind of nightmare Ross MacLaren has lived through these past ten months.

For Ross the end seemed nigh on several occasions as hopes for recovery were dashed by infection and breakdown. The sweat of physical endeavour matched by that of nervous tension.

That is why his return at Blundell Park on January 26th was so pleasing for all concerned with the club. It was his first appearance in the senior side since the 29th February 1992, when we lost 1-0 at home to Middlesbrough.

Says Ross: "I was very happy with the way things went in my comeback match. It was a great relief.

"This is the first time in my career that I have suffered a serious injury. It is something you next expect to happen. The first indication didn't seem serious. I had a pain in the region of the hamstring. I played, had treatment and played and it got worse and worse.

"That was the Christmas before last. When the specialist eventually diagnosed a hernia problem he was talking in terms of five weeks."

The five weeks stretched to five months then eleven in a depressing scenario.

Ross explains: "The first time the surgeon went in blind. He stretched the tendons and thought he had cured the problem. But I picked up an infection. Again we thought it would be a quick repair job but it wasn't.

"My wife thought I was mucking about one morning when I was putting on agony. On the Wednesday I was on antibiotics and early Sunday woke up in some discomfort. A hole had opened up in the wound and was discharging poison. It took Nicola 40 minutes to bathe it.

"The medical consultants said I needed another operation. I was back to square one.

"Again my hopes were dashed. I thought it would be another two weeks before I could get down to work after they had drained it all out. But it took three months to heal then another five weeks before I could kick a ball!"

It's a bit like climbing a slippery pole and Ross admits it crossed his mind more than once that his footballing days may be over. He says: "I have to thank Nicola for keeping my spirits up when I was down. She and the children were great. It was harder work for her than for me. But I have a lot of good friends at the club and outside. Glenn was terrific. He has experienced the trauma of long-term injury himself of course and understands what we go through.

"Kevin Morris put in a lot of hours to help get me back. I can be a little impatient at times. I bought a mountain bike - it cost me an arm and a leg - because I thought it would help speed up the recovery. But they banned me from using it.

"I was okay on the rowing machine though. When I came to run for the first time it was frightening. It was like going backwards. Then it all clicked into place."

Ross played in three full reserve games and put in another hour at Luton on a rock hard surface. He was very sore afterwards but there were no serious side-effects.

"I wasn't at all nervous at Grimsby," claims Ross. It was nice to run out for an important game and the fans gave me a great reception. It was a bigger ordeal for the home game with Wolves because I needed to do well in front of the home fans.

"It will take a few weeks before I am back to my best but the boss is guiding me through carefully. I have never been a great trainer - I sometimes find it hard. But after all this I really appreciate it much more I can tell you.

"There were days when I would have done anything to be allowed to join in with the lads."

The return of Ross has been eagerly awaited. He is the one player who can slip back into Glenn's sweeper role and cover when the boss surges forward. Consequently his inclusion in the side means that Town now have more attacking options to call upon as we move into the decisive phase of the campaign.

Good afternoon and welcome back to The County Ground for a game we have all been looking forward to against a team who believe in the same principals as ourselves.

Mick McCarthy, Ian Evans, Ian McDonald and Tom Walley are like Glenn, Andy, John and myself all ex-players and all enjoy seeing football played in a way we would want our teams to play.

Millwall deservedly beat us at The Den earlier in the season and we will want to narrow the gap between us in the League today after our fine wins over Wolverhampton Wanderers and Sunderland.

Much has been written about what happened at half time in the dressing room at the Wolves game. We feel that whatever is said in the dressing rooms at any time should never be made public otherwise you might as well announce it over the P.A. system for all to hear.

We have to make decisions and sometimes not everybody will agree but hopefully these decisions are made for the good of the team as a whole. I'm always on about team spirit and although people knock teams like Wimbledon, credit on their loyalty to each other is the reason they get the results they do against all the odds.

We really need to pull together as a Club as we have no big cheque book to brandish about to get where we desire.

A pleasing aspect is that the Reserves are starting to click at the moment and Andy Rowland is very happy with the way the young lads in the team are developing into our style of play as well.

I understand that the Reserves had the best pre-match team talk possible on their trip to take on Wimbledon at Plough Lane last week. Vinny Jones' Hard Man video was shown on the coach taking them to London and they had a rough idea what to expect... and they were not disappointed either!

A win for The Dons would have taken them to the top of the Football Combination but Andy's lads battled on to a great 3-0 victory even at the expense of Wayne O'Sullivan getting a mouthful of a Wimbledon's strikers elbow in an off the ball incident and 'keeper Nicky Hammond had to have stitches after a hefty clash. By all accounts these tackles are being lined up for volume two of the video!

We have to also be very pleased with our Youth Team's efforts and all praise to the work being undertaken by John Trollope and Adrian Riddiford as things are starting to pay off.

The youngsters were very unfortunate to lose by the odd goal against Bristol City at Ashton Gate in the F.A. Youth Cup. The lads were heartbroken after the game but they will be all the better for it and it will make them stronger characters and more resolute for their next big Cup tie - the Midland Youth semi-final against either Nottingham Forest or Birmingham City.

Home & Away

We suffered a black out last time Tranmere Rovers visited us in December - the game abandoned when a fire in the floodlight switch room caused a total power failure.

Rovers' boss John King was far from happy about the drama for his team were leading 2-1 at the time and looking good to extend one of the best runs in the clubs history.

But then that's football and Glenn was confident at the time that Town, who had come back from 2-0 down, had the momentum to salvage the game.

The chance is there to do even better for Tranmere Rovers are back in Town for the re-arranged fixture on Tuesday 23rd February in what promises to be a real thriller.

Shrove Tuesday it might be; a chance to batter the Rovers and toss them aside maybe. Mr King's men are going well though a magical tour by Cambridge United goalkeeper John Vaughan handed them an undeserved win at the Abbey Stadium last week.

That is the venue of our First Division fixture next Saturday when we travel to Cambridge

United in search of our first ever League win in the University City.

We thrashed John Beck's outfit here last August and prompted his departure from the club. But under Ian Atkins Cambridge United are trying to play a more positive system, a game that should be better suited to our own.

Tranmere inflicted the U's sixth home defeat of the season last week with Neil McNab's winner netted just four minutes from time. Can we make it seven?

But don't forget our next home date. Swindon Town v Tranmere Rovers in another promotion special. Here on Tuesday February 23rd at 7.45pm.

Things are hotting up nicely. After that win at Roker Park last Saturday the feeling was great. It is not often you go to Sunderland and come away with three points. Even rarer to go there and survive two penalties.

The first was unfortunate. The ball was headed straight at Shaun from a yard. He couldn't get out the way. But Fraser made a great save from the spot kick.

Their second penalty remains a mystery. We are still trying to find out why it was given. The linesman flagged, the referee consulted, and told us it was for hand-ball. Justice was done, as far as we are concerned, when the fellow missed from the spot. It was the last kick of the game.

Our aim against the wind had been to keep a clean sheet until half-time. In the second period we played more positively and scored a good goal through Paul Bodin... Terry Butcher should have gone for a professional foul but was allowed to stay.

But that's the way to play it away from home. Tight at the back. The feeling of elation afterwards was electric. You'd have thought we had won the F.A.Cup. But that made it two good wins - both 1-0 - which is a surprise for us at the back.

We now take on four teams above us in our next home fixtures; Millwall, Tranmere, Portsmouth and Newcastle. These are really important games for us and if we can establish a good home run against them it will put us right in the frame.

We start with Millwall today who played very well against us at their place in September. We took the lead but lost the game and came away well impressed by the quality of their football... It could be some game.

Association Football is very much a team game but when it comes to penalty kicks it is one against one with all the drama that entails.

Fraser Digby maintains "it's just part of the job," for a goalkeeper but even the most seasoned custodian must feel that extra tingle of excitement as he pits his wits against the oncoming penalty taker.

Let's face it. Just maintaining a clean sheet at Roker Park is a great achievement. Successfully doing that in the face of two penalty kicks against you is an absolute sensation!

It prompted me to ask the former Manchester United apprentice if he had ever faced up to two spot kicks in one game before... silly me.

"I had three against me at West Brom." Fraser advised me smoothly. "It was only a year or so ago when Ossie was in charge.

"I think we won the game 2-1. I saved the first penalty; the second was blasted over and Goodman beat me with the third."

The ordeal at Roker Park then was quite mild in comparison... Fraser laughed.

He explained: "I don't think either decision should have been a penalty. The first one the ball was headed straight at Shaun from close range. It was close and so fast he didn't have time to react and the ball just struck him.

"It was quite funny really. As Gordon Armstrong was spotting the ball the gaffer came up to me and said he hadn't a clue where he would put it but to look as if he knew he was talking about and put him off.

"It seemed to work. Armstrong approached the ball at a bit of an angle which gave me a clue and I just happen to guess right. I got my hand to the ball but thought it had gone in. However it had hit the post and we were saved.

"The second penalty is a bit of a mystery. It came right at the death and nobody seems to know why. The referee said hand-ball but none of us handled it.

"Kevin Ball elected to take this one but no one came to give me any advice this time. Tempers were rather high I fear. As Kevin addressed the ball I thought he was going to shoot to my left. I have the feeling he caught my eyes and changed his mind at the last second, dragging his shot wide of my right post... Great relief for us.

"If I see players taking penalties on TV then I obviously take note in case I'm up against them in a similar situation. The way the kicker runs up to the ball can give you an idea of what he is intending."

As Fraser says it is the penalty taker who is usually on a hiding to nothing. No one ever blames a 'keeper for letting one in. Even so to stand up and be counted twice in one match takes some bottle.

Talking of bottle - poor Marcus Phillips had one broken and worse in the car park of the team hotel on Saturday. Young Marcus had put his bag down by the side of his car to open the boot when a woman driver reversed out over it.

A brand new CD player was wrecked as were several other items. Skipper Colin Calderwood says: "We're still looking for the culprit... It's just as well we picked up a win bonus!"

Fraser Digby - the penalty king.

From Tyneside to Plymouth Ho! Simon Garrett, his wife Nicola plus the father-in-law, trek across England every season following the fortunes of Swindon Town. It is a pilgrimage of passion that has even taken them as far as Holland in their quest to watch Town in action.

Simon was introduced to football by his Gramps, and says: "He was always talking of his schoolboy days in London when he played football at places like Upton Park and Tottenham. He followed Swindon and took me to Joe Butler's Testimonial. I think it was against Derby."

The youngster was smitten and has been an ardent Town supporter ever since. Hardly a Saturday passes by without the Garrett family shunting off to support Glenn Hoddle and his lads home and away.

"We get a lot of midweek games in as well if they are not too far away," says Simon who believes it was his grandfather's sheer enthusiasm for the sport that really made an impression on his youth.

"Gramps used to enjoy his football," says Simon. "He was always talking about it. When I was at school I played a bit but never bothered once I had left. I prefer watching Swindon."

There have been many great moments but two in particular stick in Simon's memory. He recalls: "The day we clinched promotion from the Fourth Division against Mansfield was one of the happiest. I had been at Newport County when we lost and so were relegated. So success was all the more sweeter."

Another red-letter day for the 25-year-old postman had come earlier in his life when Town knocked Arsenal out of the League Cup here. "That was a real thrill - the whole town seemed to celebrate," he claims.

"We then beat Wolves here - they were a First Division side then - but lost the second leg at Molineux. I went to both games."

Travelling as he does Simon's comments on the handling of away supporters are worth noting. He says: "At some towns we are treated like cattle by both the police and the Clubs. At Leicester we were made to feel like second-class citizens. Bristol Rovers is similar."

"It isn't like that everywhere. We were treated well at Newcastle and West Ham and there was a terrific atmosphere at Portsmouth too. You hear all these stories about Millwall but we found them very hospitable."

"It was a good day out at The Den even though we lost. Honestly they are the best footballing side I have seen in the First Division this season apart from us. They are the only team that can be compared with Town."

Simon believes it is time to relax the security paranoia that surrounds the modern game. He insists: "I haven't seen any trouble for years and would like to see us returning more to the old conventions."

"Football has to come to terms with its market. It is a spectator sport - a business and should cater better for its customers. Away fans are usually tucked in some corner out of the way with inadequate toilet and refreshment facilities. We are then normally held back for 10-minutes or so after a game; then herded off like cattle."

"And we definitely don't want all-seater stadia. It will kill the atmosphere, strangle the game."

Yet when it all comes down to the nitty gritty Simon is prepared to accept all the imperfections just to be part of the Swindon scene. He enthuses; "Glenn Hoddle has given us flair and imagination that we have never seen here before."

"I'd walk a million miles to watch this team it is one of the best sides I have ever seen. Certainly the strongest X1 we have had at Swindon for years. They are a joy to watch."

Enthralled by the excitement, the beauty of the passing game, Simon and family will be here today for their weekly dose of Hoddle magic.

John Gorman and Shaun Taylor.*

Rowland's RESERVES

Several times in my previous notes I had promised that somebody would be on the wrong end of a hiding and unfortunately for them it was our local rivals Oxford United recently at The Manor Ground in the Football Combination.

On the night we were a little more experienced than the home side but that is taking nothing away from a tremendous all round team performance.

Although we dominated the first half we did not manage to get on the score sheet, in fact it again Nicky Hammond was called upon to make two excellent saves just before half time which would have given Oxford a lead they scarcely deserved.

This shook us up a little and seemed to put us in a more positive frame of mind from the restart, particularly in the last third of the pitch where we soon did some damage. Shaun Close scored the all important first goal just after the break and soon after Wayne O'Sullivan added a second.

Some of the football we played during the second half was a pleasure to watch and for once I was able to sit back, relax and enjoy the lads play.

Dave Mitchell weighed in with a third goal before Shaun added two more to complete a fine hat-trick and round off a fine team performance with a pleasing 5-0 result.

The following week we faced a strong Southampton outfit and found this game an entirely different proposition to that at Oxford United.

The Saints were very direct working hard trying to stop us from playing but in saying this we still played well for the first hour of the game.

With Nicky Hammond out with a recurrence of his groin strain, it was Kevin Phillips turn between the sticks again and for much of the first half he was a virtual spectator. Again all we had failed to do was turn our possession into goalscoring opportunities and for long periods we were in Southampton's half and only rarely troubled on the break. After a goal-less first half we came out and really started playing some good football and scored a lovely opener through Shaun Close which at the time was no more than we deserved. Taking the lead though affected us more than Southampton and instead of going on and being positive we seemed to sit back, invite pressure and hope that we could hang on to our lead. This tactic played right into the Saints hands and for the last half hour we were put under the 'cosh'.

We can count ourselves fortunate that they only punished us once, through a Kerry Dixon header.

We should have been more positive after scoring our goal and kept playing in their half mixing our game up a bit instead of trying to sit back and soak up pressure which is always a dangerous game.

FOCUS on youth

With the F.A. Youth Cup tie against Bristol City so near, in the South East Counties League game against Brentford the players might have had their minds on the Cup match but to their credit they approached the game in the right way.

Brentford were a strong physical side but we more than matched them in this department.

The game saw an even first half with us playing the football against the longer and more direct play of the home side.

We went ahead just before the interval when Mark Hoddle's through ball put Steve Lane clear who lobbed the advancing keeper.

Brentford came out even more determined in the second half and we had to defend for long periods but although conceding an equaliser never dropped our heads and weathered heavy pressure with good defending throughout the team.

What looked like a certain penalty against Steve Lane was not given but this seemed to lift us and with two minutes to go a free kick was headed back across the goal for Lane to score his second and well deserved winner. Overall this was a good team performance not letting the strength and power of Brentford put us off our game and we came away with a hard worked victory.

The F.A. Youth Cup 4th round tie with Bristol City at Ashton Gate gave us the chance to reach the quarter final stage.

From the performance point of view the game went well with us having the better of the possession but unfortunately not the victory.

Although we started slowly we gradually got our passing going but it was Bristol who scored what turned out to be the only goal of the game midway through the first half.

We dominated the second half with good passing movements into the final third of the pitch but we did not create the openings to have the efforts at goal this approach work should have brought.

The few openings from which we managed to get a shot in were fruitless and for all the players efforts we could not get the all important goal to earn a replay or a victory they deserved.

Unfortunately David Elsey was unable to complete the game with a recurrence of his back injury and we could well be without his services until the end of next month.

To play so well and not get a result was naturally very disappointing for this performance would have given us a win on many other occasions.

All praise to the players for the way they played and we can now look forward to the semi-final of the Midland Youth Cup against Nottingham Forest or Birmingham City over two legs.
