CLUB CALL

WITH JON POLLARD
SECRETARY

WELCOME

This afternoon we are pleased to welcome the players, officials and supporters of Newcastle United Football Club to The County Ground for today's Barclays League fixture.

BARCLAYS LEAGUE

We have four Barclays League games remaining this month.

Next Wednesday evening we travel to Kenilworth Road where we take on Luton Town in a re-arranged game. The original fixture was called off on Boxing Day. Tickets originally purchased are still valid for next week. However the game is all ticket and no tickets will be sold at Luton on the day. We will stop selling our allocation of tickets at 4.45pm on Tuesday evening. Kick off is at 7.45pm.

Next Sunday we have our televised game against Derby County at The Baseball Ground kicking off at 2.55pm before our next home game here at The County Ground on Wednesday 24 March against Bristol City. This game is not all ticket. However as with all evening fixtures we would ask that supporters allow extra time to get into the stadium for the 7.45pm kick off.

The Barclays League game with Brentford on Saturday 27 March at Griffin Park is all ticket. Tickets are on sale now to County Club members and season ticket holders only from the Advance Ticket Office. Terrace tickets are £7 each (£5 concessions) with seats £12 each (£10 concessions).

FOOTBALL COMBINATION

This coming Monday afternoon the Reserves are in action here in the Neville Ovenden Football Combination when they meet bottom club Fulham kicking off at 2.00pm. Next Wednesday evening they travel to play Brighton & Hove Albion at The Goldstone Ground kicking off at 7.15pm.

WILTSHIRE PREMIER SHIELD

Next Saturday the Reserves play their Wiltshire Premier Shield semi-final against Trowbridge Town at Frome Road kicking off at 3.00pm. Calne Town and Westbury United contest the other semi-final.

SOUTH EAST COUNTIES

The Youth Team are without a South East Counties League fixture now until Saturday 27 March when they tackle Bristol Rovers at Wanborough kicking off at 11.00am.

MIDLAND YOUTH CUP

Birmingham City and Nottingham Forest have still been unable to play their Midland Youth Cup quarter-final tie due to Forest's F.A. Youth Cup commitments.

We meet the winners of the Birmingham vs Forest tie in a two-legged semi-final. However time restrictions could reduce the tie to just one game.

ALLIED COUNTIES LEAGUE

This Monday evening the Youth Team meet Newbury Town at South Marston in the Allied Counties League kicking off at 7.30pm.

RESPECT

The Board of Directors would thank all supporters for the respect shown during the minutes silence for Bobby Moore at our last home game with Portsmouth.

Glenn Hoddle

For openers this afternoon I welcome Kevin and Terry McDermott to the County Ground. Two men with whom I have played during my career and it is always nice to see old team mates.

They really do deserve to be applauded for what they have done at Newcastle. To set the pace and then maintain it takes some doing and an away record that shows ten wins and three draws is a wonderful achievement.

We had a tremendous game at St James' Park and recently have performed as well as we have played this season. So it all looks set for a great game.

There's just one thing I would disagree on. Recently Kevin claimed that Newcastle and West Ham were the two best footballing sides in Division One. I believe we are on a par with both of them.

This fixture has certainly generated a lot of interest and after the spectacle of our draw at St James' Park I'm surprised this game has not been selected for TV.

Still the ground will be jam packed again with every ticket sold a week ago so we are guaranteed an exciting atmosphere. It will be a good hard test of our ability.

It will also provide a real challenge for our fans. Newcastle's support is famous so let's try and out-shout them this afternoon. You all deserve a big pat on the back for your response at the Portsmouth game while last Saturday, at Watford, you were wonderful. That was the best away support we have enjoyed since I came to the Club. Thank you.

We have played all the top teams at home recently and beaten them so our confidence is high. True, Portsmouth tested our resolve with a solid defensive performance. It was one of those games where we had to stay patient, and most importantly so too did our fans. Everyone did and eventually we got the deserved winner.

We then backed that up with a marvellous win at Watford. It was a great afternoon for Steve White who scored a tremendous hat-trick. His third goal in particular was outstanding. Paul Bodin, who had a great game and created three of our four goals, lobbed a first time cross in from the right of the box and Steve hammered in a spectacular volley.

It is good to see Steve doing so well after being on the substitutes bench for much of the season. David Mitchell, who scored our second goal with a header, is also looking better than ever after we rested him from the attack.

To think we are doing all this with our top scorer on the sidelines injured. Craig, who is still troubled by his hamstring, tried to come back too early and broke-down again. It happens at times. We tried a short-cut and it didn't come off.

The injury situation at the Club at the moment is a little worrying I must admit. The squad cannot carry six or seven injuries and it will be a real test for those players who are fit. I feel this is the only thing that can stop our progress.

This is why we need Craig back to full fitness as quickly as possible. However we have an excellent striker in Shaun Close who when he came on very nearly won us the game at Cambridge United.

As you know I have been fortunate enough to win the Barclays Manager of the Month award again. As last time I can only thank everyone involved; John Gorman and the coaching staff; the players and not least the fans. It is very much a team effort and without your support we would not be so effective.

Hopefully we can pick up a few more of these awards. That will mean we are doing well on the field.

Last time I won it I gave the Champagne to John. I think today we will put it on ice and if we get three points we might just open it up in the dressing room!

There is a capacity of 18,000 here this afternoon. Let us hope it is a great occasion worthy of the billage.

SUNDAY 21 MARCH 1993
DERBY COUNTY vs SWINDON TOWN Kick Off: 2.55pm

NEWS ON one

The battle continues to avoid relegation with only twelve points separating the clubs in the bottom half of the table. Following their 3-0 defeat at fellow strugglers Notts County on Saturday Bristol Rovers find themselves rooted to the foot of the table. Caretaker manager at Rovers, Malcolm Allison, has been temporarily relieved of his duties due to ill health.

Across the Westcountry neighbours Bristol City also find themselves in deep trouble losing 3-1 at home to Tranmere to leave them fourth from bottom. Stand in player-manager Russell Osman will be keen to hang on to the services of his highly rated striker Andrew Cole who has been attracting the attention of several top clubs including Newcastle United who reportedly had a sizeable bid recently rejected.

Birmingham City gave their new owner, David Sullivan, also proprietor of The Daily Sport, the perfect start with a 1-0 home win over Oxford United. The Blues winner was scored by Canadian international Paul Peschisolido but this was only Birmingham's twenty ninth goal of the season, the lowest tally in the division. City manager Terry Cooper is not happy with the way his players are performing "When they make the same mistakes week after week either I've got to go or I've got to change the players. I wouldn't mind if one of them put a right hook on me but after I've finished saying my bit they all slink off. A question of bottle and standing up to be counted."

Southend United remain in the relegation zone despite the goal rate of Stan Collymore who has hit eight times since his move from Crystal Palace just before Christmas. Having become an instant hit with the Roots Hall crowd there is talk already of a big money move although manager Colin Murphy will not be giving him away to the first offer: "Collymore will move if a club comes in with a £1.5 million offer as that would set the club up." Murphy also has the option of selling Brett Angel who rejected a £1 million move to Blackburn.

At the other end of the table Newcastle took another step towards the Premier League with a convincing 5-1 win over Brentford at St James' Park. Despite being top Newcastle have been under some pressure of late however manager Keegan says a loss of form was bound to come: "We have only lost one game in the League this year but our performances were being questioned. Even the great Liverpool side went off the boil in two or three games. It's inevitable."

The defeat at Newcastle has left Brentford hovering above the relegation zone. The Bees have not won at home since the New Year and are now in danger of returning to the Second Division at the first attempt. Manager Phil Holder believes he needs to spend to strengthen his side particularly on one side: "My main priorities are a left back and a left winger."

Charlton's win at Southend has kept alive their hopes of a place in the play offs. Joint manager Alan Curbishley has however been plagued by injuries: "From a short time ago when we played Leeds we have five of that team out of action. Nevertheless we will keep battling on and we know that the results will turn around."

Russell Osman.

Newcastle United

The arrival of Kevin Keegan as manager just over a year ago sent a wave of optimism through Tyneside. Keegan had been recruited to lift the morale of a giant that was not only sleeping but virtually on the brink of humiliation.

Newcastle United had slumped to one place from the foot of the Second Division table following a 5-2 defeat at Oxford United when Keegan was introduced to turn things around.

Even his charisma was questioned when disagreements with the Board over the injection of new talent, threatened to end the partnership before it had begun. But the differences were ironed out and victories in their last two games prevented the Magpies from falling through the trap door to Division Three.

Given the resources and the fanatical support United can call upon they opened this campaign as firm favourites to contest the Championship. The backing proved well founded as the Magpies flew to their best ever start to a season.

Eleven straight League wins saw them soar to the top of the First Division chart and it seemed odds on that Keegan's marvels would smash the League record of 13 straight wins - set by Reading at the start of the 1985-86 season.

It was Grimsby Town who dashed those hopes with a surprise victory at St James' Park. When Newcastle then crashed out of the Coca-Cola Cup and lost at Leicester as well it seemed the bubble had burst. But they were soon back on the winning trail to eventually forge a massive 15 point lead at the head of the First Division ladder.

A recent slump has seen that lead whittled down by the chasing pack yet normal service was resumed when Newcastle proved just too strong for Tranmere Rovers, securing a fine 3-0 win at Prenton Park.

Keegan had inherited a fine crop of youngsters when he returned to the North East but it has been his astute dealings in the transfer market that have really helped the club turn from despair to optimism.

The signings of experienced players such as former Liverpool fullback Barry Venison; Kevin Sheedy the Republic of Ireland midfielder, John Beresford and winger Robert Lee, have given Newcastle United stability and penetration.

Success has generated confidence and Newcastle's fluent style has provided a great springboard for top-shot David Kelly whose scoring instincts have produced goals this season.

The win over Tranmere had halted an alarming run of six League games without a win, including an untidy 0-0 draw at home to bottom club Bristol Rovers. But last Saturday they confirmed their recovery with an emphatic 5-1 win over Brentford.

The First Division leaders are back in business and having absolutely dominated the first half of the season they intend to enhance their position with a flourish in the closing months.

Keegan's determination to clinch promotion was emphasised on Tuesday when he splashed out £1.1 million to sign winger Scott Sellars from Leeds United for £700,000; and Barnsley's Mark Robinson for £400,000.

Robinson was expected to take over from the injured Barry Venison in the home game with Charlton on Wednesday.

John Beresford - Fullback.

After an outstanding season with Portsmouth, John was set to join Liverpool in the summer but the deal fell through on medical grounds. Keegan stepped in to snap him up for £650,000. A stylish overlapping defender, John came into the pro game with Manchester City but did not play in the League until he joined Barnsley in 1986. Moved to Portsmouth for £300,000 three years later. An England Youth cap. Born: Sheffield 4-9-66.

Paul Bracewell - Midfield.

The first of Kevin Keegan's summer signings, Paul was out of contract with Sunderland and cost a tribunal set fee of £250,000. Made his fourth FA Cup Final appearance with the Rovers last May. A play-maker of the highest class his career has covered over 380 League games with Stoke City, Sunderland (twice) and Everton. While at Goodison Park he won League Championship and European Cup Winners' Cup medals as well. Capped 3 times by England in 1985-86. Born: Stoke 19-7-62.

Lee Clark - Midfield.

A former England Schoolboy's captain Lee made his international Under-21 debut for the Magpies at Bristol City in September 1990. Opened this season with 7 goals in 48 League appearances. Born: Wallsend 10-10-72.

Stephen Howey - Central Defender.

Another young star groomed through the YTS. A prolific scorer in the youth and reserve sides he made his League debut, as a sub, at Manchester United in May 1989. It wasn't until he was switched to central defence last season that he really established himself. Born: Sunderland 26-11-71.

David Kelly - Striker.

Has suddenly realised his potential in Keegan's revamped side to establish himself as one of the First Division's top scorers. Started his career with Alvechurch and was brought into League football, in April 1984, by Walsall at Millwall. After scoring 28 goals for The Saddlers in 1987-88 he had a trial with Bayern Munich but chose West Ham United who paid £600,000 for his services. Failed to impress at Upton Park - his return of 7 goals in 41 games prompting his transfer to Leicester City. Netted 22 goals in 66 League outings for the Filberts who sold him to Newcastle for £250,000 in December 1991. Current Eire international David notched a hat-trick for them on his debut v Israel (10-11-87). Born: Birmingham 25-11-65.

Brian Kilcline - Central Defender.

Made his entry into League football with Notts County at Bristol Rovers in October 1979. A giant of a man in stature and leadership qualities he became the first County player ever to win England Under-21 honours. In 1984 he joined Coventry and skippered them to FA Cup Final victory over Spurs in 1987. Made 8 appearances for Oldham last season and joined Newcastle for £300,000 in March 1992. Born: Nottingham 7-5-62.

NEWCASTLE UNITED

Robert Lee - Forward.

Two goals against Tranmere Rovers took his tally to 8 since his £700,000 transfer from Charlton Athletic in September. Had played in excess of 350 games for the Valiants having made his debut in March 1984 v Grimsby. A former turnstile operator at the Valley he was playing for ABTA when Charlton spotted him. An England Under-21 International. Born: West Ham 1-2-66.

Liam O'Brien - Midfield.

Acquired from Manchester United for £300,000 in November 1988 Liam's graceful style and penetrating runs have endeared him to the Newcastle fans. A Dubliner he started his career with Bohemians and was with Shamrock Rovers when United brought him to the UK in 1986. Made his debut for the Red Devils v Leicester in December 1986 and made 31 League appearances in all. Born: Dublin 5-9-64.

Gavin Peacock - Midfield.

Was outstanding last season scoring 22 goals including a hat-trick against Crewe in the Rumbelows Cup. Gavin arrived from Portsmouth in a £350,000 deal in November 1990. Formerly with QPR and Gillingham he has won England recognition at Schoolboy, Youth and U-19 levels. The son of former Charlton star Keith Peacock. Born: Welling 18-11-67.

Mark Robinson - Midfield/Defence.

Right sided player signed from Barnsley for £400,000 on Tuesday. Came into the game with West Brom on the YTS in 1985 and made his League debut vs Sheffield Wednesday in April 1986. Moved to Barnsley in 1987. A versatile performer equally at home at fullback or in midfield. Born: Manchester 21-11-68.

Scott Sellars - Midfield.

Beautifully balanced player who can go either way but is possibly most effective on the left wing. Served his apprenticeship with Leeds United, making his debut for them at Shrewsbury in May 1983. It was after his move to Blackburn Rovers in 1986 that he really made his name and the Elland Road Club re-signed him for £1 million last summer. Injuries have since hampered his progress and he joined Newcastle on Tuesday for £700,000. Born: Sheffield 27-11-65.

Kevin Scott - Central Defender.

Commanding stopper who has chalked up almost 200 League appearances since making his debut in a First Division defeat by Sheffield Wednesday in September 1986. Now Club captain, he was released as a teenager by Middlesbrough and was spotted playing for Easington Juniors. Was in the Magpies FA Youth Cup winning side in 1985. Born: Easington 17-12-66.

Kevin Sheedy - Midfield.

Was surprisingly given a free transfer midway through last season by Everton after 274 League appearances (67 goals) for the Toffeemen. The Republic of Ireland international served his apprenticeship with Hereford then spent four years at Anfield but made only three League appearances for Liverpool before moving up the road to Goodison. Has a cultured left-foot. Born: Bultth Wells 21-10-59.

Pavel Srnicek - Goalkeeper.

A Czechoslovakian Under-21 International signed from Banik Ostrava in January 1991 for £350,000. Made his English debut in April 1991 and conceded 15 goals in his opening 7 games. Stands at 6' 3" and has lightning reflexes. Hails from the northern mining town of Ostrava where he was born 10-3-68.

Barry Venison - Fullback.

Signed from Liverpool in the summer for £250,000 after 110 League appearances for the Anfield club. Became the youngest captain in a Wembley final when he led Sunderland against Norwich in the 1985 Milk Cup Final. Moved to Liverpool in July 1986 for £250,000 and won two Championships - 1988 & '90 - and an FA Cup runners-up medal in '89. Born: Consett 16-8-64.

Tommy Wright - Goalkeeper.

First choice for club and Northern Ireland until injury ruled him out. Cost only £30,000 when signed from Linfield six years ago. A former cross country champion and part-time barman. Had a spell on loan with Hull City. Born: Belfast 29-8-63.

THE MAN IN CHARGE

The return of Kevin Keegan to St James' Park in February 1992 sparked a revival that even this most famous England star could little have anticipated.

Keegan, born at Armthorpe, Yorkshire, on St Valentine's Day 1951, emerged as one of the country's most loved footballers in a career that started in the apprentice ranks of Scunthorpe United in December 1968.

In May 1971 the relatively unknown star transferred to Liverpool for a mere £35,000. His tremendous verve and commitment, not to mention his prolific scoring rate, helped establish the Anfield club as the greatest in English football.

The soccer world was stunned when in the summer of 1977, Kevin turned his back on Liverpool and signed for SV Hamburg for half a million!

In Germany he was a great success but three years later he was back. Southampton investing £420,000 in his services. After two years at The Dell he arrived at St James' Park for £100,000. Proved the inspiration of Arthur Cox's side finishing his playing career on a glorious note as he led Newcastle back to Division One.

Keegan collected three League Championship medals, winners' medals in the FA Cup, the European Cup, UEFA Cup (twice). He was crowned Footballer of the Year in 1976; European Footballer of the Year in 1978 and again in '79 as well as PFA Player of the Year in '82.

First capped by England against Wales in 1972 he played his 63rd and final game in the goalless draw with Spain in the World Cup Finals... Kevin had scored 21 goals for his country.

Those were the days...

BY PAUL PLOWMAN

... looks back at previous connections with today's visitors

It is only in recent years that Newcastle and Swindon have confronted each other in League action and it was not until two years ago this month that the Town recorded their first League win over today's visitors.

But back in 1929, Swindon notched a famous FA Cup victory over the Tynesiders. The Town had enjoyed relative success in the 1920's, only once finishing out of the top six in the Third Division South. Their progress from the First to the Fourth Round of the Cup during 1927/28 - in which star goal-getter Harry Morris had scored all six of the club's goals in the competition - gave them a 'bye' to the Third Round in the following season. Morris had hit hat-tricks in the two previous games, taking his tally for the current season to twenty.

Newcastle had their own goals machine in Scottish international Hughie Gallacher. Both he and Morris had notched a record number of goals for their clubs two seasons previously - Gallacher 39 for United and Morris 48 for the Town, so it appeared to be a case of which marksman would hit the target most. However, the key to the outcome of the ties was at centre-half, where the visitors came without the injured Hill, while Swindon's Danny Bew played the game of his life, keeping Gallacher 'in his back pocket' all afternoon.

Earlier in his career, Bew had played as an amateur for Newcastle's great rivals Sunderland - his home-town - and so the confrontation was one which he probably relished. But the entire Town defence that day gave heroic performances. Goalkeeper Teddy Nash and left-half Archie Archer were the only Swindonians in the side. Nash was something of a veteran at 27. He had made his debut in the first team back in 1916, at the tender age of 14!

Archer would have had fond memories of Newcastle. In 1913, he gained his second England schoolboy cap in a 6-0 victory over Scotland at St James' Park. Coincidentally, in the England side that day was Tom Phillipson, who signed for Newcastle in December 1919 and came to the County Ground in May 1921, soon after the arrival of Archer. A third member of the Town's side at that time also had links with the Magpies. Arthur Metcalf had begun his League career on Tyneside on 1909.

In front of Nash were the full-backs Wally Dickenson and Tommy Wylie. Dickenson was a dour Yorkshireman and the Town's penalty expert. Wylie, being a Scot, gave little away and had many similarities to his more renowned predecessor Jack Walker.

The tie was decided by two goals, both coming from the boots of Morris, in the 32nd and 61st minutes. The majority of the 17,689 crowd - a figure that should not be too far away from today's gathering - thus went home happy.

Swindon went on to defeat another First Division side in the Fourth Round. They took a remarkable three-goal lead at Turf Moor, but Burnley fought back to force a replay, when the Town finished the job with a 3-2 victory, even without an unfit Bew. Arsenal were Fifth Round visitors to the County Ground where the game ended goalless, before they put a brave Swindon side out with a single goal at Highbury.

STAR OF THE WEEK

PLAYER PROFILE

Nicky Summerbee

PLAYER PROFILE

A few minutes in conversation with Nicky Summerbee will convince you that this Swindon Town side is destined for Glory. After helping Town dispatch promotion rivals Tranmere Rovers and Portsmouth in successive games he was fair and brimming over with youthful enthusiasm expressing a conviction that will be hard to deny.

"I think we are going to pull something off - I really do," enthused the 21-year-old midfielder who prior to last week's departure for Vicarage Road told me: "I really fancy us to win at Watford. It has been a lucky ground for us and the way we are playing at the moment we could beat any side."

We didn't just beat them of course we thrashed them to claim third place in the First Division and add credence to Nicky's belief.

There is no disguising the thrill this young star feels within to be part of the success story that is gradually unfolding. For though he is not short on confidence, or talent, Nicky has found it difficult to establish his credentials.

He had a run of six games in October - November 1991 and another spell between last October and December before this current series of games which has coincided with our best sequence of results this season.

"A lot of people ask me why I can't establish myself as a first choice," claims Nicky. "I always think I deserve to play and that I deserve a regular place...The thing is that most of the time I have been in for others and when they are fit to return they come straight back."

"I'm sure I deserve to be in on my own account. I don't want to be in and out of the side. I need regular first team football and am doing all I can to make sure I keep my shirt."

"If someone else does well and takes my place I'll say nothing. But if I am just dropped to make way for another name I shall have to contemplate my future."

Nicky has proved a very versatile performer occupying fullback, midfield and forward roles. Is there then the possibility of falling between these roles. Of Nicky becoming the Jack of all trades and master of none?

"I don't think so," he replies dismissively. "The experience can only do me the world of good. I'm essentially a winger and as the system does not actually feature wingers I have to be able to adapt. The fullbacks fill this role in our game so it is still an attacking position."

"The role I have got now, on the right of midfield, really suits me. It allows me to break wide if I want and enables me to play on the wing. I think I have more going for me going forward than as a defender but all-round experience can only make me a better player."

"It is going well at the moment. You just can't wait for the next game."

"There is a different feeling within the side now. I think we are more together. When we lose the ball we all defend as a unit and work for each other. We are looking more solid in defence because of this without detracting from attacking play."

The confidence within the team is terrific. I think we have been playing well for six or seven games now. Even at Cambridge we were the better side and should have taken a point. We were punished for one error and that can happen to anyone.

"The collective feeling is really contagious and when you are involved in something like this you just want to get out there and play every minute of the day."

"Newcastle had a good win last week but that has not knocked our confidence. We played them off the park at St James' and I think they will be more worried about us than we are about them. We have nothing to fear."

"You can't really attach too much importance on the performances of teams against other opposition. We have found that most sides, such as Portsmouth and so on, seem to change their tactical approach when they play us. It shows how much respect we are commanding. They fear our ability on the ball."

"We know we are in for a hard afternoon but we are used to that. This will be a great game to play in. The bigger the crowd, the greater the excitement, the better the enjoyment for everyone."

"We will try and play our football and take the game to them."

"I'm very happy with my game though I would like to score a few goals. I had a couple of chances against Portsmouth that I should really have taken. I keep kicking the ground instead of the ball."

No doubt a word or two from dad, Mike - the former Town, Manchester City and England star - will help.

Says Nicholas: "We have little chats now and again but his business commitments have prevented him from coming recently. I haven't tried to copy his style or anything I've done it all myself. Dad has helped by supporting everything I've done."

"When I joined the club it was as a centre-forward but then I was moved back. But I would like to get a few more goals and one against Newcastle would be fantastic."

Nicky Summerbee.

Gorman's GROOVE

WITH JOHN GORMAN

An especially warm welcome this afternoon to Kevin Keegan, Terry McDermott and Derek Fazackerley who have all done a magnificent job since taking over at St. James' Park. Newcastle are a Club with probably the most enthusiastic supporters in the land - however I would hope that our fans will prove me wrong today!

Naturally we would expect our biggest crowd of the season this afternoon against a team who have been at the top of the Division all year.

When we last met at St. James' Park back in November, Newcastle were in first place with us laying one place below. Our recent successes have moved us nearer the top of the table again following our slide over the Christmas period.

What a super advert for the game our last encounter with Kevin's team was and I would well expect today's clash to be similar.

We have had a great run at home and want to continue this against the team everybody wants to beat.

I know that I get too excited at games when we score and I hope that the poor ball boy wasn't too surprised when I lifted him up in the air when Paul Bodin scored our winner in the dying minutes of the last home game against Portsmouth.

Although it was a tight game our play and patience meant that we thoroughly deserved the result in the end.

I was invited to the Wyvern Theatre last week to see George Best and Rodney Marsh on their Roadshow. Both were great players on the pitch and are proving they make a good team off of it. Compere Garry Richardson asked me to persuade Colin Calderwood and Shaun Taylor to go onto the stage at the start to be introduced as stars of the show instead of Best and Marsh and it went down really well as indeed did the whole performance. George and Rodney had the audience in raptures and told some wonderful stories and provided answers to some excellent questions.

I would like to thank the kind lady who gave me a mention about my contribution to the team but would hasten to add that contrary to belief it was not my wife or mother planted in the audience!

I played in the same team as Rodney when at Tampa Bay Rowdies and he gave his usual witty (nothing to do with the answer) retort in telling the story of how I got my nickname with the players.

It was greatly exaggerated like some of his stories as nobody else has ever called me by that name bar Rodney!

I must admit though that they were something special as players and great characters in the game, something that will never be forgotten.

Watching the European matches on television again saw teams display a great advertisement for the modern game with all the clubs playing on the deck (Swindon style) football.

I have to say Rangers were a credit to our British game and the Belgians too played their part.

The stunning goal from Papin for AC Milan was typical of the man and he must be an example for every player proving that if you work hard in practice on skills you can do it in match play.

We have the chance today to do just that in the exciting encounter that is ahead of us.

There is now just two months left of this season and every game and every point won is vital so please do your part and get behind the lads as we go for the final push for promotion.

Shaun Taylor - on stage.

Home & Away

Luton Town and Derby County away are the next two fixtures in our busy schedule before we take on Bristol City here in the big derby clash on Wednesday March 24th.

The programme kicks off this coming Wednesday when we travel to Kenilworth Road. It seems fate has not been too kind to us in this respect for on the original date this game should have been played - Boxing Day - Luton were in the middle of a really desperate patch. They have improved considerably in recent weeks and were very unfortunate last Saturday at Fratton Park where Portsmouth needed a penalty to edge a 2-1 win.

Luton's 16-goal hit man Phil Gray offers a definite threat. He seemed to be on his way to Chelsea until manager David Pleat stepped in to squash the deal but now Blackburn Rovers are reported to be interested. Another to keep an eye on is former Blues striker Kerry Dixon currently on loan to the Hatters from Southampton.

Yet it is at the back that Pleat's team have improved most. They were looking for an eight-game clean sheet record until Barnsley forced a 2-2 draw in their last home game.

This will be our first League visit to Kenilworth Road since October 1973 and the lads will be looking for our first win there since November 1972. If you can make it we shall be glad of your support. The kick-off is 7.45pm.

The game against the Rams has been put back to Sunday 21st March for live coverage by Central TV.

This promises to be a real cracker with Derby County still smarting under the worst home record in the country. It even prompted them to try and lift the curse angry gypsies made on the ground 100-years ago. But after a spiritualist buried some herbs Peterborough United arrived to inflict yet another home defeat.

County were not involved in First Division matters last week. They had the glory of an FA Cup Quarter-Final meeting with Sheffield Wednesday on Monday night. This afternoon they are away to Millwall.

This, incredibly, will be only our fourth League visit to the Baseball Ground where we have yet to register a win. Only two Swindon players have actually scored there. Micky Hazard in a close 2-1 defeat last season and Mick Summerbee in February 1965...Perhaps a goal from his son, Nicky, would be a timely boost! The kick-off is at 2.55pm.

Finally, the big derby clash here with Bristol City promises to be a lively evening. City caretaker boss Russell Osman has asked for composure in his side which last week crashed at home to Tranmere to drop to within a point of the bottom three. Away from home they have lost 10 of their 17 fixtures with the worst goals against record in the division, 37.

Yet current form tends to count for little in derby clashes. There will be no taking things easy on our part. This game is just as important to our promotion hopes as is this afternoon's battle with Newcastle. So make a date with us for more First Division excitement...You know you can count on quality football here at the County Ground...Swindon Town v Bristol City here on Wednesday 24th March at 7.45pm...An experience not to be missed.

Steve White
A hat-trick at Watford. Can he score his first against Derby?

COLIN'S CORNER

WITH COLIN CALDERWOOD

When you win 4-0 away from home you are naturally on cloud nine. I thought it was a super performance until someone read me the report of the game at Watford in the Sunday Telegraph.

It reads: "One goal of the highest quality provided a moment to remember in a match which, despite the scoreline, was far from spectacular."

It would be easy to ask if the reporter was at the same game. But on reflection perhaps we are so close to it all we get carried away a little. It sometimes does you good to get an independent view.

When I think about it we did have to battle. We did have to dig in. We scored an early goal and then had to withstand quite a barrage during which Fraser made two very excellent saves.

We played some good football at times but it certainly wasn't a doddle.

Neither will it be today. Newcastle stole a march on everyone at the beginning of the season and have done exceptionally well to maintain their lead.

We had a great game at their place in November. It was at a time when Newcastle were really steaming so we were pleased with the draw. I think because they are such a big club they suffer a little because everyone raises their game when they go to St James' Park.

We shall need to do that again today for this is a big game for both teams. If we can beat them it will really enhance our promotion prospects. Likewise, if they win I'm sure they will feel they are almost in the Premier League.

Just a final few words on Eddie Buckley our kit man who had to go to hospital last week for tests... We hope he's feeling better. The lads have promised to be more in order to keep his work load down... Providing he improves that training brew of his that is.

BENNO

One Manager of the Month award.

Congratulations again to Glenn Hoddle who for the second time this season has been awarded the Barclays Bank Division

Glenn led the side to four victories in February, including wins over promotion rivals Millwall, Tranmere Rovers and Portsmouth; and it is worth pointing out that unlike many of our rivals in the chase for a place in the Premier League, he has achieved this success without spending money.

Because of financial restrictions there has been no cheque-book building of this Swindon team. Instead Glenn and John Gorman have persevered by developing the players in their charge. Good coaching and understanding has been the backbone of Town's rise. The fact that there is not one player here who has not improved his technique since the arrival of this management team is testament indeed to their quality.

In my book I have always respected more the men who have achieved success on limited resources. People like Jim Smith, the current Portsmouth boss, who performed miracles at places like Colchester United and Oxford without the backing of financial clout.

To some extent the current England manager Graham Taylor came into the same category when he dragged ailing Watford from the lower reaches to establish them in the top division.

Ron Atkinson achieved great things with Cambridge United on a shoe-string budget before he broke into the big time with West Brom then Manchester United.

To my mind these are the people who should be crowned manager of the year. Not the Kenny Dalglish's, George Graham's of this world who have the financial muscle to buy almost whom they please when it suits.

Success is the achievement of something desired, planned or attempted, Sadly in this materialistic world we confine our heroes to absolute winners. But success should be relative to means and in this respect Glenn and others like him are true heroes.

Prior to the kick-off this afternoon Glenn will receive his prize, an inscribed plate and jeroobam of champagne, from Tony Eves, the Business Manager of Barclays Bank Swindon.

While on the subject of achievement lets not forget 'Chalkie' White's great hat-trick at Watford last Saturday. It was Steve's first in four years and took his tally for Swindon Town to 81 goals in 233 League appearances.

Some striking record this for the 34-year-old who during his career, which has spanned Bristol Rovers, Luton Town, Charlton and Lincoln City as well as Town, has amassed 162 goals in the Football League.

Not bad eh for a lad who started out with Mangotsfield United. Mangotsfield who? Exactly.

It's almost 15 years since Steve made his League debut for Bristol Rovers in a 3-1 defeat at Southampton in the Second Division. His first goal was struck on April 1st 1978, in a 3-1 win at Millwall. Paul Randall and Bobby Gould, from a penalty, were the other scorers.

No doubt many of you enjoyed the live Cup tie between Manchester City and Tottenham Hotspur last Sunday. It was nice to see little Fitzroy Simpson playing so well.

Fitz was a product of our youth enterprise and his achievements in the Premier League with the Maine Road club underline the difficulties Glenn Hoddle has had to overcome. Unlike Mr Keegan who has been able to splash out on experienced campaigners, such as Barry Venison and John Beresford, Glenn has been forced to sell Fitz and striker Duncan Shearer who has since been included in the Scotland squad.

INSIGHT

The smile that filled Andy Rowland's face at 3.40pm on Monday afternoon would have lit up the whole of Wiltshire. He had just seen his reserve side beat Bristol City 2-0 to record our first home win in the Neville Ovenden Football Combination since October.

Two goals from Chris Hamon sealed the victory after Town were reduced to ten-men just before the interval, when goalkeeper Nicky Hammond was red-carded for a professional foul.

A delighted Andy reflected: "I don't know why our home record has been so poor. Our overall performances have not been bad. Playing here in the afternoon could be a reason. There is just no atmosphere when the ground is empty. Under lights attention is focused on the field. It is a psychological thing."

"We also have an extremely young team. They are very inexperienced."

"The pleasing thing is that we are seeing some progress from them. Obviously most of them are still learning but there are one or two lads who are suggesting they might develop into first team players."

"Eddie Murray is one. He has come on in leaps and bounds after wasting most of his first year through injury."

"Another is Andy Thomson, who at times has shown that he can do it. Again, the consistency factor is missing from his game. There aren't many teenagers who can turn it on week in week out."

"We have a couple more that on their day look accomplished footballers. I know what they have got inside them. The difficulty is getting it out of them on the field."

"It can be frustrating at times. One day a lad will really look the business and make you think he is something special. Then three days later the same player, on the same pitch, in the same team, will look as if he has never played before."

"What we are looking for is someone who is able, to put in 10, 12, 15 solid appearances a season. Produce, both mentally and physically, a steady pattern of performance."

"It is all part of the learning process. If they pick up the good habits and repeat them then we are getting somewhere."

Andy, who made over 450 League appearances during a career which started at Derby County, continued with Bury and ended here, is a most respected figure. But what differences has he noted from his days as a young man trying to establish himself as a professional player?

"I don't think there is a great deal of difference," he claims. "Attitudes are possibly a little different. Some lads today think if they get in the reserve side they have made it as a professional for the rest of their life."

"As soon as they are offered a professional contract they think they have cracked it. They believe it is then just a natural progression into the first team."

"This is possibly why so many young players fail to make the grade. A pro contract is only the second rung on the ladder. Once you have achieved it there is still a long way to go to the top. It requires a lot of hard work, a lot of dedication.

with Colin Benson

"Possibly it is a little too easy for them at this stage. Because of the big cutbacks on playing staffs it means the opportunities come quicker. Some just don't realise how lucky they are."

"I joined Derby County on a professional contract as a youngster and in my first 18 months made only 20 reserve team appearances. This was because of the numbers available for selection. You had to bide your time. It made you realise that once the opportunity arose you had to take it."

"Contrast that with the situation here now. All our trainees have played in the reserve side this season."

As you are possibly aware Glenn has introduced the same system of play throughout the whole club. But how does Andy go about finding someone to fill Glenn's role in the reserves?

He laughs: "It isn't easy. Very difficult in fact. But we have a lad, Lee Middleton, who came here from Coventry City. He isn't a Glenn Hoddle - who is? - but he is a great passer of the ball."

"We are not rigid anyway. We tailor the system to suit the players available. Otherwise the system would look silly. You don't put square pegs into round holes."

"The main purpose is to play good football and produce one or two players who will enhance the first team. If we can do that then we will have achieved our objective."

"Glenn and John Gorman really make us feel part of the whole thing so there is a common commitment. I certainly feel more a part of the club than I have ever done before."

Rowland's RESERVES

As always games between ourselves and Bristol City are fiercely contested and our recent Football Combination clash at Ashton Gate was no exception.

It certainly was not going to be a game where we could pass the ball at our leisure and tackles and confrontations were the order of the day.

To our credit we matched Bristol in all departments and again it was nice to see the lads roll their sleeves up and have a go.

Following some good work by Chris Hamon we went a goal up in the first half from Marcus Phillips.

Nicky Hammond was again in good form and made some great saves to keep us ahead. The second half was also played at break-neck pace with both sides battling hard and we held our own having the better of the play.

Our second goal came in spectacular fashion when Adrian Viveash hit a free-kick from outside the box into the top corner of the net.

The goal was just reward for a fine performance and was good enough to seal the win that over the ninety minutes we deserved.

Two days later we had a home fixture against Ipswich Town and made several changes to the team who played at Ashton Gate.

Ipswich fielded a strong side and the outcome was always going to be close. We could have come in at half time a couple of goals up if we had taken our chances.

As it was we lost our way a little and Ipswich's experienced midfield began to take control. Ten minutes after the break Neil Gregory scored the visitors first and a fine individual effort from Adam Tanner put the game beyond our reach.

So our disappointing home form continued and confidence certainly is not at it's highest. This was shown in last week's home game against strugglers Luton Town. The first half was probably the worst I've witnessed from any team this season with passes going astray with alarming regularity, tackles mistimed, balls miscontrolled and a general lack of aptitude for the game.

We should count ourselves lucky to come in at half time on level terms and better opposition would have certainly punished us. As it was we were still in the game and had to improve in the second half.

We did get better for a while and took the lead when Shaun Close headed in Mike Burns' cross but if our hopes were raised they were soon dashed as Luton pounced on some sloppy defending to equalise. Poor finishing and some brilliant goalkeeping from Andy Peterson kept us from retaking the lead. However with the game heading for a draw and us thinking that we should be grateful for a point we were again caught napping when poor defending at a corner cost us the game.

Once again the players must look at themselves and question their individual performances. They must all improve enormously if they are going to make a career in the game.

Before I sign off this week I would just like to send good wishes on behalf of everybody at the Club to Derek Owen who is presently on HMS Endurance on ice patrol in the Antarctic and listens out for our results on the radio. Derek is a great Swindon Town supporter and should be back in England at the end of April... "just in time for play offs" he says.

FOCUS on youth

Our improved form continued in the South East Counties League game against Crystal Palace at Mitcham, again showing that when we play to our potential we are more than a match for any team in the League.

For the first two thirds of the game we dominated play with good passing movements giving us openings but as in so many games we did not turn the chances into goals.

An early goal against from a long throw did not cause us to loose the belief in the way we play and did not buckle to the more direct play of Palace. We sometimes find it difficult to overcome this style of play but on this occasion proved that our way can be more effective when the application and appreciation is right.

Our reward for this good play was a long time coming but when Steve Luwero was brought down in the penalty area, Rob French equalised scoring from the rebound after his spot kick was parried by the home keeper.

For some reason we completely lost our way after this, trying to play the Palace way, too fast sometimes forcing play and un-necessarily wasting good possession.

Our belief must not waver in the formation or style of play, whatever the score or opposition.

The two recent Allied Counties League fixtures both ended in victories. The 8-1 win at Basingstoke Town did not tell the story for their performance both individually and team-wise was disappointing. The players thinking and awareness was not early enough resulting in slow decisions especially in possession. Certainly most of the team must look to improve on this performance.

The game with Swindon Supermarine was similar, having so much of the possession but missing open goals and generally making the wrong decisions. The two goals scored were scant reward for the amount of play we enjoyed and we must look to improve our final ball into the opponents penalty area, taking a better percentage of the chances created.

JOHN TROLLOPE

Against tougher opposition this lack of appreciation and sloppy play will be punished and the players must concentrate on doing the early, simple and most effective things before the complicated.
