ADVER CATCHES THEM OUT!!

The Evening Advertiser caught their rivals out on April 1st with the following story.

Those in the know were O.K., but for those unaware of the date the story was passed onto various news agencies who in turn notified the national media and the Club was inundated with queries asking if last Saturday's game with Peterborough United would go ahead!

El of a lift for Town players

Ready for take-off... Flt Lt Ted Querzani and Gibraltar-bound Hercules.

AIRMEN from RAF Lyneham are today preparing to airlift stranded Swindon Town football players out of Spain in time for Saturday's match.

Glenn Hoddle and his team were scheduled to return today from a five-day break in La Manga on the Costa Blanca.

Promotion-chasing Swindon face Peterborough United at home this weekend.

The match was under threat until airmen stationed at the RAF base near Swindon devised a rescue plan.

Swindon's soccer stars will be bused to Gibraltar, a Crown colony, so the Hercules can land without entering Spanish air space.

The team will then be flown back to RAF Lyneham in time for the big game.

Flt Lt Ted Querzani, community relations officer at RAF Lyneham, said; "We are just happy to help as Swindon Town aim for the top flight."

Spanish officials were holding an emergency meeting in a bid to end the strike.

As Noel Edmonds would say - "Gotcha !!"

Martin Ling - makes another attacking run.

Glenn Hoddle

First a big, big, welcome to David Pleat this afternoon. I really applaud the way he has persevered under severe pressure and continued to play good constructive football despite being embroiled in the relegation dogfight for most of the season.

It says a lot about him. He has kept to his principles and continued to champion the cause for good football.

Nice to see that Luton now look as if they will stave off the drop - I hope they do. But of course not at our expense this afternoon.

As you know, I always support those who try to produce creative teams and I know just what a test it can be when you are down in the basement.

When I first arrived at Swindon, the team were just above the relegation pack and in those eight final games that season, I learnt more than in the past two years.

Just a note on our trip to Spain which was absolutely terrific. I think it was more a mental break than anything although we trained extremely well and had a couple of sharp sessions. We managed to get away from the pressures of the game, relax, play golf, and have a good time. I think it enabled John and I to switch off and recharge the batteries.

It was even nicer to follow that trip with three points against Peterborough. There was only one goal in it, but I felt we were always in control and had we scored earlier, we would have won by three or four. What upset things I think was the torrential rain, which started before kick-off. It made the conditions very difficult.

I know a lot of fans came here expecting a big win but it's very hard in modern football to find the back of the net.

It was an excellent goal from Paul Bodin that won us the match. He has really taken his chances superbly this season and it rounded off a good week for him having been involved in that superb Welsh victory over Belgium in mid week, when he contributed significantly to their second goal.

So we come to the Easter programme which is always very crucial to the promotion and relegation issues. I always feel this is like getting past Beeches Brook on the second circuit - when the National is run, that is!

If we can come through the holiday schedule in a top four position, I believe we will be set to make the play-offs. We really need a couple of away wins to set us up and hopefully we can achieve one at Birmingham on Monday.

As I have mentioned before, we didn't play well in that goalless draw at Luton a few weeks back but if we can put things together now, we will be in with a good chance of not only making the play-offs but securing second spot and automatic promotion.

Looking back over this season, I think we deserve it. While most of our rivals have gone out and splashed big money on strengthening their sides we have had to sell players to survive yet have still maintained our momentum in the promotion chase.

What we need now is a little bit of luck to swing our way. I'm confident we have the ability ... have a happy Easter.

NEWS ON one

Newcastle United kept on course for the First Division title last Saturday with a convincing 3-0 win at lowly Cambridge with Steve Howey, top scorer David Kelly and new striker Andy Cole finding the net. Despite this latest setback Cambridge boss Ian Atkins remains optimistic that his side can avoid the drop. "The dividing line between success and failure this season is a very thin one as, bar the top two sides, it is a very even league. We ourselves have proved this as we have had good results against the promotion chasers. A couple of wins can send you right up the table."

West Ham needed two goals in the last couple of minutes at St. Andrews to gain an important win against a Birmingham side who had taken the lead through recent signing Andy Saville. Blues boss Terry Cooper has almost rebuilt his side in the past couple of weeks following the change of Chairman but believes he has a future International on his hands in the form of left back Graham Potter "Players like Graham come along once in a while. I could not believe he was just 17 when he made his debut in the first team as he looked so confident. He's just got natural ability. Last season I watched him play in the Youth Team and knew he was an outstanding prospect. He's already part of the England set up at Youth level and will soon be playing for the Under 21's. There isn't a better young left back in the country at the moment."

Watched by Everton boss Howard Kendall, Stan Collymore notched his 14th goal of the season for Southend United at Sunderland since his transfer last November. New Southend manager Barry Fry, who saw his team leave Roker Park with three valuable points in their battle against relegation following their 4-2 victory said that if anybody wants Collymore they would not get him for only £2m. A deadline day transfer with Nottingham Forest fell through. Fry said "Stan is a bit special. He'll go on to play International football. I need him at the moment but if we go down we could not afford to keep him." After their drubbing Sunderland manager Terry Butcher confessed that the game was the worst The Rokerites had played all season.

David Lowe wrecked Leicester City's hope of eight wins on the trot by directing a torrent of verbal abuse at referee David Frampton during their 0-0 draw with Bristol Rovers at Twerton Park last weekend. He lost his cool when what appeared to be a clear cut penalty was turned down. Lowe will miss next Saturday's clash here at The County Ground.

The vagabond of football secured a point for Millwall in their battle with Portsmouth at The Den. Goal hero John Kerr has had thirteen clubs in five different countries during his career. Football has taken him on a round the world trip playing for teams in America, Canada, England (twice), Northern Ireland and France. He even commuted to play for Wycombe Wanderers when he moved to Scotland following a family bereavement.

Barnsley only had two shots on target in their 0-0 draw with Charlton Athletic at The Valley and this did not please the travelling Oakwell fans who barracked Tykes boss Mel Machin. "Those supporters just do not realise how hard it is to run a club like ours. I think that we contained Charlton well." Alan Curbishley would not blame his sides injury crisis for their display. He said "We have not only got thirteen fit men but we just have not given the fans real value for money since our return to The Valley."

Alan Curbishley -
"thirteen fit men."

Luton Town

Luton Town's climb from the relegation zone continued with a convincing 2-0 win over Cambridge United, a victory achieved with spectacular goals.

Kerry Dixon was on target for the second time since arriving on loan from Southampton with a vintage strike that had the hallmark of class written all over it. The former England striker has intimated he would like to sign for his home-town club. The stumbling block is Southampton's £200,000 price tag, which though reasonable for a player of his quality, is still beyond the financial scope of David Pleat.

The win over Cambridge was also a success for Chris Kamara, the no-nonsense ball winner who clocked up 234 League appearances with Town during his two spells with us. Recalled from a loan spell with Middlesbrough he arrived as Mr Unpopular and left with the Man of the Match award.

It was Chris' first game for the Hatters in four and a half months after loan spells with Sheffield United and Middlesbrough and he was more than a little apprehensive as he thought the fans felt let down because they knew he was unsettled.

The former Town midfielder admits he was pleasantly surprised at the improvement in the Hatters side since his last appearance with them in early November when Luton were on the wrong side of a 4-1 thrashing from Grimsby at Kenilworth Road.

He cautioned: "I don't want to get carried away but the improvement from them is phenomenal."

Even in mid-October when Luton fans only had one win - over Brentford - to applaud in 15 starts there was no denying David Pleat's team still tried to play football. They lacked experience however and were not helped in this respect by the state of their heavily sanded pitch which sucked the skill factor out of their game.

Dixon, who has played under some big name managers in his time, is full of enthusiasm. He claims: "David Pleat is a different class. I love the way he wants the game played. He gets people knocking the ball around."

The former Chelsea hit-man made his reputation as a goalscorer but it is his ability to bring other players into the game that is proving so influential with Luton. The experience of Dixon and Kamara has transformed the team and brought the best out of the promising youngsters who at one time looked destined for Division Two.

It is only a couple of months ago that Luton were at rock bottom of Division One. They clawed their way up the ladder with a run that has seen them beaten just three times in 12 games.

A goalless draw with us highlighted the fact that they are no pushovers these days and the Hatters come to the County Ground knowing that just one more win should ensure their place in Division One next season.

Mr Pleat will probably not get the credit he deserves. Last summer finances forced the sale of top scorer Mick Harford to Chelsea for £300,000 and midfielder Mark Pembroke to Derby for £1.25 million. He was left with an enthusiastic yet inexperienced squad.

Scoring has been the Hatters biggest concern, yet in midfielder Phil Gray they have a player whose consistency in this department is second to none.

Gray has ruffled in no less than 18 goals this season, many of them spectacular efforts from outside the box. His form has attracted the scouts from many Premier League clubs and there was wide speculation that he was destined for Chelsea prior to the deadline.

None the less with relegation threatening Mr Pleat took the precaution of signing the experienced Kerry Dixon on loan from Southampton. In recent weeks the former England striker has formed a partnership with Scott Oakes.

Dreyer, Johnson, Peake and James have been the regular backline, with Hughes, Telfer, Rees and Preece in midfield. Gray and Oakes up front. The introduction of Kamara and Dixon has given Mr Pleat more variations.

Des Linton, Aaron Skelton, an 18-year-old midfielder who made his debut after just two reserve games, and Martin Williams, 20, who made his debut at Southampton in March 1992, have also contributed to the Hatters cause.

Alec was signed from Everton for £150,000 in July 1988 and took over in the Luton goal towards the end of the following season. He was a reserve player at Ipswich, but soon stepped into League soccer with Colchester United after his transfer in 1982. Everton signed him for £75,000 in 1987 as cover, but after a loan spell with Tranmere. He moved to Kenilworth Road. He spent the early part of this season on loan at Chelsea. Born: March 20-6-64.

Kerry Dixon - Striker.
The perfect gentleman off the field, a ruthless destroyer on it. Spotted with Chesham United as a youngster he played as a part-timer for Spurs in the South East Counties League in 1978-79. Didn't make an impression and joined Dunstable. Reading introduced Kerry to League football v Walsall in 1980 and he scored his first League goal at Brentford 23-8-80. Chelsea paid £175,000 for him in '83 and he responded with 34 goals in his first season - Chelsea's best for 21 years. Became a legend at The Bridge scoring 147 goals in 355 League games for the Blues. Joined Southampton this season but 2 goals in 11 games did not establish his place and he has joined Luton on loan. Capped by England at Under-21 and full levels he was a member of the World Cup squad in Mexico. Born: Luton 24-7-61.

John was an apprentice with Oxford but played League soccer for both Torquay and Fulham on loan during 1985-86, before getting his chance. in the Oxford side the following season. He joined Luton in 1988 for £140,000 and he has been an ever-present member of the side for the past three seasons. Born: Alnwick 11-6-63.

Phillip Gray - Forward.
Phil developed in the junior ranks at Tottenham, making his debut in 1987. However, he found first team openings limited and spent a loan spell at Barnsley. He joined Luton for £275,000 in August 1991, but missed most of the season through injury. He has since hit a goalscoring purple patch, prompting a recall to the Northern Ireland side to face Denmark in November 1992. Born: Belfast 2-10-68.

LUTON TOWN

Richard Harvey - Defender. Richard is a former England youth international who made his Luton debut as a 17-year-old in 1986. He made the left-back spot his own last season and has been a regular first-team squad member for the past three seasons. Unable to gain a place in the starting line-up this term, Richard spent a loan spell at Blackpool in November. Born: Letchworth 17-4-69.

Ceri Hughes - Midfield. Another young Luton Town Welshman, Ceri is tipped as having a very bright future in the game. He made his Town debut v Aston Villa in 1990 and is a Wales youth, Under-21 and full International. Last season, and the early part of this, has been wrecked for Ceri after a series of long injuries. Born: Rhonda Valley 26-2-71.

Marvin Johnson - Defender. Marvin made his Football League debut against Wimbledon in 1988 and quickly established himself as a regular in the Town defence. A player who can play anywhere along the back line, he missed all of the last season with a ruptured achilles tendon, but is now back in the squad. Born: Wembley 29-10-68.

Chris Kamara - Midfield. Much travelled Chris joined Luton Town from Leeds in October 1991 for his first extended spell in Division One. He started his career at Portsmouth in 1975 before joining Swindon Town two years later. In 1981, he returned to Pompey for a season before joining Brentford. In 1985 he returned for a second spell at Swindon and spent a further three seasons at the County Ground before spells at Stoke and Leeds. Born: Middlesbrough 25-12-57.

Scott Oakes - Midfield/Forward. 20-year-old Scott joined Luton in October 1991 from Leicester City, along with Des Linton, and made his debut for the Hatters later that month. He developed in the junior teams at Filbert Street and made his League debut in 1990. Scott made an impressive impact on the right wing last season until injury ruled him out of the final stages. Born: Leicester 5-8-72.

Trevor Peake - Defender. Club captain, Trevor started his career at Lincoln in 1979 before moving on to Coventry City in 1983. He enjoyed eight full seasons at Highfield Road winning an FA Cup Winners' Medal in 1987. He joined Luton for £100,000 in August 1991. Born: Nuneaton 6-7-57.

David Preece - Midfield. David made his League debut for Walsall in 1981, winning a regular place two years later. THE MAN IN CHARGE

DAVID PLEAT made a name for himself, both as a player and a manager with Luton Town. Began his playing days at Nottingham Forest but played only half a dozen games before joining Luton Town in 1964. In 1967 he was transferred to Shrewsbury Town and later played for Exeter City and Peterborough United before retiring in 1971.

In 1974 he returned to Luton as reserve team coach and was promoted to first team coaching three years later. David was finally appointed manager in 1978 and guided Luton into Division One four years later.

In 1986 he joined Tottenham Hotspur, leading them to an FA Cup Final appearance before moving on to manage Leicester City in December 1987. He remained at Filbert Street until January 1991 before returning for his third spell in June 1991.

Those were the days...

BY PAUL PLOWMAN

... looks back at previous connections with today's visitors

Luton have been regular visitors to Swindon since those far off days before the Town even moved to the County Ground, in fact, they were one of the last clubs to be entertained at The Croft, 98 years ago this week.

They were also the first to oppose Swindon in a Football League fixture, a game more commonly referred to as the one by which the Town recorded their highest ever victory in competition.

It came on August 28 1920, when over 12,000 - a figure never previously seen at Swindon for other than an F.A. Cup tie - turned up to welcome Swindon Town into the new Third Division. On the previous Saturday, a crowd of eight thousand had attended the annual public practice match, when the 'Whites' or reserves, defeated the 'Reds' or first eleven, 3-2!

Swindon had four new players on view, including a completely new half-back line in Tommy 'Jumbo' Langford from Stalybridge Celtic, Fred Hawley from Birmingham and Billy Wareing from Everton. The fourth was also an ex-Evertonian, full-back Jock Maconnachie, who had been at Goodison for 13 years.

There was also a change to the laws of the game, in as much as a player could now no longer be deemed offside when receiving the ball directly from a throw-in.

Kick off was at 3.30 and at 3.36 Billy Batty - who had scored both the Reds' goals the week before - netted the first League goal at the Town End, or Hotel End as or was then known. Bertie Davies soon hit a second before Swindon's England International Harold Fleming added a brace, twice outwitting the visitors' defence.

Luton managed to pull a goal back when Hawley was penalised for hands and Simms scored from the free-kick, but within three minutes Fleming had registered a fifth to complete the first-half scoring.

Batty again opened the Town's account after the interval, converting a Bob Jefferson centre, before the veteran winger grabbed the seventh goal himself. On this occasion, Batty was the provider. Keeper Watson could only parry his shot and 'Jeff' knocked on the rebound.

Still the goals came! Fleming took his personal tally to four and his side's to eight when he enticed the keeper from his line before nonchalantly tapping the ball past him. The only forward not to get his name on the score sheet was Dave Roberts, but he had the honour of at least two 'assists'.

The final goal came when Luton's Mathieson decided to get in on the act, lobbing a 30-yard back-pass over Watson's head to make the scoreline 9-1! In the seventy-three years that have passed since that day, Swindon have never equalled that score in a League game, although they hit ten in the F.A. Cup against the amateurs of Farnham United Breweries just five years later.

Hello and a very warm welcome to everyone here today from all of us in the Commercial Department and a big thank you to all the programme sellers and volunteers in the shop and behind the scenes for giving up a day of your holiday to help with todays match.

Matchday Sponsors: HAINE AND SMITH

We are thrilled today to be joining in the Birthday party of Giles, Tim and Mark who are all going to be celebrating their fourteenth birthday in April. They are the young guests of honour in the Haine and Smith party, todays Match Day Sponsors. Haine and Smith Opticians have been delighted with the many ventures that they have been involved with at Swindon Town and I'm sure that the whole party will enjoy their time with us today.

UNDER 17 INTERNATIONAL TOURNAMENT FRANCE - EASTER '93

We would like to extend a big thank you to Courtaulds Films for their sponsorship of the Under 17 Tournament in France at Easter. This has been the first time for many years that a Swindon Town Youth Team has travelled abroad to play in such an event and we are very grateful to the Chief Executive and staff of Courtaulds Films for their patronage.

Mark Williams receiving his Trivia Quiz Award in the Match Day Sponsors Lounge from Paul Bodin, Man of the Match on Wednesday March 24th - Swindon Town v Bristol City.

SAVING LIVES IS OUR GOAL

Here at the County Ground on 15th April will be a bone marrow donor recruitment clinic, to help provide donors for leukaemia sufferers who need a bone marrow transplant.

It is being organised by the Anthony Nolan Bone Marrow Trust, which currently has Europe's largest panel of potential volunteers with over 210,000 people on it's register.

All that is involved is rolling up your sleeves and giving 10mls of blood - a mere tablespoon! This will be tissue typed and put onto a confidential computer. In the event that there is a match you will be asked to provide a further sample of blood and after that possibly donate some bone marrow. All loss of earnings and travelling expenses will be met.

Swindon Town players will be here on the day and will be helping the cause. Glenn Hoddle has already given blood and is on the register. He says: "It is really worthwhile and you could actually help save somebody's life."

The charity desperately needs male donors as there is a shortage of them on the register, although anybody between the age of 18-40 who is in good health will be welcome.

The clinic will be held between 10.30am and 4.30pm. Please come to the Club Reception and support this.

You may be able to give somebody 'The Gift of Life'.

JUNIOR ROBINS

Once again we are planning to go on an away trip to support the Town. We have been invited to Notts County on Saturday 24th April. All those interested in going and playing Notts County Juniors complete and return your application forms to Justine Phillips at the County Ground.

TODAYS LUCKY MASCOTS

Today we are fortunate to have three young supporters of which two are celebrating their ninth birthday this weekend. I'd like to wish you both a very Happy Birthday on behalf of everyone at Swindon Town F.C.

The first mascot is Edward Robert Jones from Wantage in Oxon. Edward attends Charlton Primary School in Wantage. In his spare time he enjoys making models, cooking, playing snooker, football and doing magic tricks. Edward also finds time to train with the Wantage Concordes as a sweeper. His favourite team is of course Swindon Town where his favourite players are Glenn Hoddle and Fraser Digby.

Our second mascot this afternoon is Ian Lye, who will be celebrating his birthday tomorrow. Ian attends the Holy Family Junior School in Swindon. His hobbies include cricket and football. You won't catch Ian in on Saturday mornings as he will be training with Stratton Boys Football Club. Ian's favourite players are Micky Hazard, Craig Maskell, Dave Mitchell and Nicky Bamby from Tottenham Hotspur.

Our third mascot is 11 years old Mark Fulcher from Grange Drive, Swindon. Mark being a mascot today has been sponsored by Clearplas, a Coventry based company. Mark attends Braden Forest School in Purton. In his spare time he enjoys playing football for his school as either a goalkeeper or defender and playing computer games. Mark's favourite players are Glenn Hoddle and Martin Ling.

ENJOY YOUR DAY LADS.

PLAYER PROFILE

Even the Spanish sunshine was unable to burn out the sense of injustice that swelled within Steve White following his sending off at Brentford a fortnight ago.

After that fateful game a disconsolate Steve stood up against a wall and told the waiting media men: "My conscience is perfectly clear. This is only the second time in my career that I have been sent-off. The other was 12 years ago and was a case of mistaken identity.

There are few top-line strikers who can boast a disciplinary record as good as this. It must be second only to Alan Smith, the Arsenal number nine, who has never ever been booked!

Says Steve: "The rules seem very complex. We sent an appeal in because there was no way I deliberately tried to injure the other player. When you jump for a high ball you take off from one leg and naturally use your arms to help the elevation. All players do this.

"A video of the incident was sent to the referee to give him the chance to change his mind about his decision but to be honest it didn't look very good. He hasn't altered his mind which means I am not even entitled to a personal hearing which seems unjust."

It is this sense of injustice that has riled the normally quiet Steve White so much. He pleads: "If I'd elbowed the fellow intentionally I would stand up to be counted. Apologies to the manager. Apologies to the players and to the fans. But I never ever swing my elbow intentionally and this has been backed up by Keith Millen the Brentford player involved.

"I didn't solicit his support. It was made publicly of his own free will. I know and he knows there was no malice involved. The referee has not even had cause to speak to me before the incident.

"My disciplinary record over 16-years is impeccable. I really am angry about what happened at Brentford.

"The suspension couldn't have come at a worse time for the club or for me. With the possibility of Wembley looming this is not the time to lose your place in the team."

The three match ban incurred by the red card incident comes into force today. A most inopportune time as far as Steve is concerned as he would dearly have loved to play against his former club.

He sighs: "I joined Luton Town in December 1979 from Bristol Rovers and spent two and a half glorious years with the club.

"Pleaty was the manager then as well and was marvellous to work with. We played some excellent football and went on to win the Second Division Championship.

"There were some fine players in the side. Mal Donaghy, Brian Horton who is now the manager of Oxford. Lil Fuccillo, who was in charge of last week's opponents Peterborough United. David Moss, who must have been one of the best crossers of a ball in the business; with myself and Brian Stein up front.

"Mossy was a most underrated player. He possessed two fantastic feet and the string of crosses he would put over in the course of 90 minutes was phenomenal.

"We played a passing game as in fact they do now. David Pleat is a good manager. He can not only motivate you but I don't think there is a manager in the game who is as good as him when it comes to changing things at half-time. His appreciation of why things are happening is first class as is his ability to change it. That is hard to do I can assure you."

Today these qualities will be put to the test against a Town side without Steve and indeed David Mitchell to spearhead our attack. "I'm really sorry not to be playing," says Steve. "I'll see you in the stand.

"You know I never allow myself to get in a position on the pitch where I lose my temper. You might say I have a long fuse. But I have rarely felt as angry as I do right now. I understand that a referee's job is a very difficult one and that they have to make impulsive decisions under pressure. I just believe there should be some machinery in the works to allow them to retract their deliberations after revue. It could be done without losing face."

Steve White.

Happy Easter

Today we welcome David Pleat, John Moore and their players and everybody from Luton Town for this afternoon's clash.

We played poorly at Kenilworth Road recently and will want to make up for it today especially as the Easter weekend is so important with two games in three days.

On Monday we travel up to St Andrews to take on Birmingham City which should prove to be a great encounter. Birmingham are a much improved team of late and there should be a great holiday crowd there cheering both teams on. Vocal support from the fans is a great motivator for the team so keep behind the lads right up until the final whistle.

Much has been said about the sendings off at Brentford two weeks ago but I must commend the commitment of those left on the field and the magnificent support from our travelling army which ensured we left Griffin Park with a valuable point.

We had a great four days in sunny Spain following the Brentford game. We took in some golf in addition to our training which was relaxing and brought the spirit of the lads even closer together.

The boys were so well behaved it pleased us that we had such good pros under our guidance.

We had some laughs and found some real characters coming out of their shells. The noisiest room was occupied by Shaun Close, nicknamed the gaffer for always giving advice, Adrian Viveash-a walking football encyclopedia full of dry humour and Nicky Summerbee and Paul Hunt who must rate as the untidiest sleepy heads ever!

Golfer of the week Colin Calderwood roomed with Mr Polite Shaun Taylor, Dave (Long Chat) Mitchell and Martin Ling who went a nice shade of beetroot red from the sun!

The two chauffeurs of the party Ross MacLaren and ever tidy Nicky Hammond shared with Chalky White who wore the same clothes for most of the time and commented on how nice it was there...two hundred times and Fraser Digby who took time to settle and even when he did found nothing to do!

Glenn, Kevin Morris, Eddie Buckley and myself completed the club party. We took turns making breakfast each day and even now we are still waiting for Kevin to bring us tea.

'Bucks was the main man during the stay driving our buggy and generally putting us off our golf by talking just as you were about to tee off.

Kevin as usual came alive at night playing all of his instruments - he brought enough for a full scale orchestra!

We were accompanied on the trip by Carl Ross and Ant Sprung (!)

who are with us filming for a fly-on-the-wall documentary for Channel 4. As hot as it was there they only started to wear shorts one hour before we left for the airport to come home-they looked as white as pints of milk! They were so trustworthy and naive you could catch them out with almost anything in the end so it was a waste of time.

Many thanks again to all the companies who sponsored our trip including Cowies of Swindon and Halliday Catering who offered help after last weeks programme had gone to print.

Enjoy the game. We hope to see you at St Andrews on Monday or back here next Saturday when we entertain Leicester City.

Paul Hunt - Untidy sleepyhead.

Home & Away

It's tough at the top and it is going to get harder as we embark on the final chapter of this enthralling season.

At one stage of the game Birmingham City, who were promoted from the old Third Division last year, looked certain for relegation. However new owners, a touch of glamour and a bit of cash, have helped transform the whole picture at St Andrews.

The Blues were streaming towards their fourth win in six games when they led West Ham 1-0 with three minutes to go last Saturday. Alas for them, and the chasing pack, a blunder by Australian goalkeeper Bob Catlin and a wicked deflection helped the Hammers steal the points with a more than fortunate 2-1 win.

The week before Terry Cooper's team had led Newcastle 2-0 at St James' Park before being hauled back to 2-2, yet despite the loss of virtually three points their performance against the top two sides in the Division are a warning to us all.

It is going to be a real battle to force a win at St Andrews on Monday and our lads will need to be at their best. The heavy Easter programme usually has a direct hearing on the promotion and relegation issues and this year is no exception.

There were no goals when we met here in January but the last time we visited St Andrews - almost four years ago to the day - Ross MacLaren scored twice in a 2-1 win. A repeat performance on Monday would be the perfect Easter present ... The kick-off is 3.00pm.

Next Saturday we are home to Leicester City in another six pointer.

City boss Brian Little has just followed in the steps of Glenn Hoddle by collecting the Barclays Bank Manager of the Month Award for March.

Little's side have just hit form at the right time winning all six of their First Division games last month. This equalled the club record. It was Bristol Rovers who prevented them rewriting the books by holding City to 0-0 last Saturday.

We couldn't have planned a more exciting run-in. City you will remember were unfortunate to lose in last year's play-off final to Blackburn Rovers through a controversial penalty. They are anxious to put that disappointment behind them as quickly as possible.

Swindon Town v Leicester City looks set to be one of our most important home fixtures of the season. Don't be late we are anticipating a big gate. Can Town repeat their triumph of April 1991 when they put five past the Filberts? Or will City frustrate our ambitions as they did in the goalless draw at the beginning of last season? There's only one way to find out. See you on Saturday 17 April, 3.00pm kick-off.

Ross MacLaren - gave Birmingham

WITH
CALDERWOOD

We just about squeezed the points out of Peterborough United last Saturday. Those of you who were here will have shared our sense of relief when Paul's shot eventually found the net.

The result meant so much. We had dominated most of the game but that would have counted for little if we had not achieved the victory.

As the game went on we could feel the frustration of the fans. In the end we got the result we needed and deserved.

As the other results filtered through it was clear that things are getting tighter. There were few goals in the First Division - just six in fact from home sides in 11 games. Alas, there were two too many at Birmingham City!

West Ham and Newcastle are maintaining their advantage but we have not given up hope of catching the Hammers. Because of the Easter deadline these notes were done before Tuesday's appointment with Tranmere. If we beat them we are certainly in business for an automatic promotion place.

Our first priority though must be to make sure we qualify for the play-offs at least. The emphasis then is on us to get another win against Luton this afternoon.

Please be patient. I have a feeling this game will be similar to last week's ... It is a psychological thing. The fans look at Luton's position in the table and come here thinking it is an automatic three points for us.

Before the Peterborough game the Gaffer stressed we must put our minds to the task in hand. Nothing is won easily. I will not be surprised if he doesn't emphasise this point again today.

But if we are to play in the Premier League next season we have to beat sides like this.

By the way we had a great time in Spain ... The Gaffer won the golf competition while Steve White set a new record. He lost 15 balls in one round!

Finally, our Union chairman, Brian Marwood, has been getting at me for not welcoming him to the Club. So Brian, Welcome to the County Ground. It's good to have you here.

BENNO

Easter is one of the most critical periods of the season. It can be literally make or break time for many of the clubs contesting the issues at both ends of the tables.

True it is not quite as hectic as it used to be when clubs were called upon to play three times over the long weekend with games on Friday, Saturday and Monday. But the fact that the fatigue factor has been eased somewhat by playing the Good Friday games in midweek does not detract from the significance of these seven days.

For us the picture is clear. Victory over Luton Town and Birmingham City, on Monday, is essential if we are to make inroads on West Ham United's position just behind the leaders.

All very exciting as the chase for the Premier League gathers momentum. After Birmingham we have just four games left. Two at home to Leicester City and West Ham United - two six pointers if ever there was. Away to Notts County and Barnsley - a tricky one this for the last game of the League programme.

The situation last weekend - before this week's fixtures - was this: West Ham can gain a maximum 94 points; Portsmouth 91; Leicester City and ourselves 89; Millwall 87 and Tranmere 85.

Now no side is going to win every game and if Tranmere slip up early it will relieve the pressure on the other four contenders for the play-offs.

Rovers are at Millwall today so something has to give in this one. They also have to travel to Wolves, Birmingham and Peterborough. They have home fixtures with Barnsley, Watford and Sunderland.

Newcastle's programme sees them at Wolves today. They then face a tricky trip to Millwall and go to Grimsby. At home they take on Oxford, Sunderland and Leicester City on the final day.

The Hammers, who entertain Leicester tomorrow, have further home fixtures with Brentford, Bristol Rovers and Cambridge - with just two away games left. At Luton - come on the Hatters - and here on May 2nd.

Bristol Rovers can do us a favour this afternoon if they dent Pompey's run. The Hampshire side are also away to Notts County and Sunderland. Their home games pit them against Derby, Wolves and Grimsby.

The Lions will certainly have a big say in who qualifies. Home to Tranmere this afternoon they also await Newcastle, Charlton and Bristol Rovers to the Den where they have lost but once this season. Just two away days for Millwall, at Leicester and Wolves.

Leicester City could hold the key. As mentioned previously they take on the Hammers at Upton Park tomorrow. They come here and visit Peterborough and Newcastle. Millwall, Southend and Bristol City wrap up their home schedule.

Before our trip to Prenton Park on Tuesday I reckoned we required ten points from the 21 available to clinch a place in the play-offs. This is definitely within the scope of the team despite the injuries and suspensions that have deprived Glenn of some of his first choice selections.

Paul Vanes the referee this afternoon was in charge of the Millwall v Portsmouth showdown at the Den last Saturday and had a very good game.

The official from the West Midlands is certainly getting a close look at the promotion contenders but there is no worry that he might not last the course. You see Paul, who has been on the League panel of referees since 1984, is a keen marathon runner and boasts a best time of 2 hours 50 minutes.

That seems about how long the second FA Cup semi-final between Arsenal and Tottenham Hotspur took last Sunday. Because of all the stoppages the referee added some ten-minutes or so to the game overall.

I don't know what you made of it but I felt there was a lot of play-acting going on. One particular challenge, which was more clumsy than brutal, from Gary Mabbutt on Ian Wright, had the Arsenal striker seeking attention. How he was so badly injured on the leg by a contact of bodies, with Mabbutt making no challenge with his boot, is quite beyond my comprehension.

Was he trying to get his opponent booked? Or am I just getting old and cynical?

Congratulations are in order again for Glenn who has been named the UHLSPORT Matchman of the Month for February. Glenn evidently polled three star ratings in five games including a maximum 10 in the 2-0 win over Tranmere.

Indeed it is a double celebration for Town with Martin Ling coming second to Glenn who will receive a scroll from Match Magazine the co-sponsors. David Preece of Luton Town was seventh in the listings.

Before I sign off Colin Calderwood has asked me to thank, on behalf of the players, all those of you who supported the team so magnificently at Brentford.

It really was a stirring experience. At one stage I thought all the Brentford supporters had gone home.

A wag sitting not far from me yelled: "Can't you send two more of them off to give us a chance ref." That was with 25 minutes still to go! By half past four he'd gone. Unable to take the humiliation of seeing his side out manoeuvred by nine men.

Martin Ling - runner-up to Glenn.

INSIGHT

Phil Duffell scooped the jackpot when his story that airmen from RAF Lyneham were preparing to airlift stranded Swindon Town players back from Spain for last week's game with Peterborough, hit the front page on April 1st.

It was of course an April Fool's Day joke contracted by Phil, and it certainly fooled the media men who swarmed towards the airbase from all directions to meet the plane.

"It went well," agrees Phil. "It has been traditional on the 'Advertiser' to run a Fool's Day early and we contacted the RAF who were very helpful setting up the dummy picture which we took on the Tuesday.

"Jon Pollard played his part down at the ground to give the story credibility and it went well.

"Ironically the lads in Spain knew nothing of this spoof yet John Gorman tried a similar joke when he told them there were flight problems and they might not get back for the game."

A graduate of Keele University, where he read History and Classics, Phil arrived on the Swindon Advertiser in January 1990.

He admits that when he went to University he had no clear plans as to his future. He claims: "I have always had an interest in writing and am mad on sport. While I was there I started covering Stoke City and Port Vale games for the Potteries Post and after graduating decided to go for journalism.

"I did a year at Highbury College, Portsmouth, then wrote to just about every provincial paper in the country. In the end I had several options and was fortunate to select Swindon. I chose the Advertiser because it meant I could go straight into sport, which is what I wanted.

"It worked out well for me because Clive King had to give up because of ill health and I was elevated to cover Town much sooner than expected."

A young journalist couldn't have asked for a better start either. Phil played his part against a background of excitement and intrigue as Ossie Ardiles led us to promotion to the old First Division through a Wembley victory in the play-off final. It was a case of promotion one minute demotion the next as the League punished the Town for irregularities behind the scenes.

Phil describes it as "a baptism of fire." I would describe it as heaven sent for the local scribe.

Even though Phil's soccer education was achieved on the terraces of Molineux he has quickly come to appreciate the finer points of the game as displayed by Glenn Hoddle's team.

Says Phil: "When people find out I come from Wolverhampton it invokes bitter memories for them of the 1980 semi-final. They always ask me why Bradshaw wasn't sent off for his challenge on Alan Mayes ... Good question.

"I believe it is a big advantage in my job not to be from the area. It is hard not to be biased if you a lifetime fan. Obviously I have to write from Swindon's angle but if they are no good I have to say so.

"Thankfully this is not the case right now but I still try to be objective and as detailed as possible. You have to remember that my report is only my view. If you ask three people here today about the game afterwards you will get three different games. I'm just lucky that people read my report.

with Colin Benson

"They say we are all frustrated players and I think this is true. I played for Wolverhampton schools but never got any further. I played leftback and that is exactly what happened to me. Everybody would love to be a professional footballer and I suppose after that they would like to write about it.

"It is great to get up on a Monday morning and want to go to work. I have friends who were at University with me who are in jobs that pay much better but they are not happy. They don't get the job satisfaction."

The relationship between Phil and the club is of the utmost importance to both bodies. The key to the liaison of course is trust. He says: "It is my business to get to know people well but not so well you can't criticise them if the situation justifies such comment."

The media is as much a business as anything else and scoops are the lifeblood of any journalist. Phil was on the ball over the David Kerslake transfer to Leeds United. He explains: "We got a lucky tip from within football - but not Swindon - and we ran the story six days before it broke in the other papers.

"It is nice when you get it right like that. There is quite a bit of speculation involved in this game and though you obviously try to get it right you are not always on the button."

The one story Phil is anxious to write is of Town's promotion to the Premier League. He confides: We are already starting preparations for a special celebration supplement - that's the confidence we have in the team.

"I'm looking forward to that one. I also think it would be really nice to win promotion at Wembley. Financially it would be rewarding and sentimentally it would be nice after what happened last time."

Helping the most important people in football

Football is much more than a game of 90 minutes. Every day clubs throughout Britain are providing recreational and sporting opportunities for their local communities.

Much of this has been achieved with the help of the Football Trust. As part of its commitment to Football, The Trust has granted £4M to set up the National Football and Community Development Scheme.

Bringing club and community together, Trust-backed initiatives have provided a variety of local amenities, including:

- Artificial pitches for local teams
- Coaching for youngsters
- Support for women's football
- Facilities for people with disabilities

A big thank you to the Junior Robins who have represented us in the thirty yard shootout entertainment against a representative team from the visitors. They have done us proud and we are grateful to them for their time and efforts.

Our photograph shows soccer school participants receiving coaching from the professionals. Assistant manager John Gorman and Goalkeeper Nicky Hammond take time out to pass on a few tips at a recent soccer school.

Rowland's RESERVES

Our last two away games in the Football Combination both produced disappointing defeats to which we can point to poor running of the game by match officials at Southampton and our own downfall brought about by the sending off of John Moncur at West Ham United.

Firstly to The Dell, where for long periods of the game we dominated and played some really positive football, only to find ourselves a goal down when Southampton scored from a corner.

The long ball plus their power at set pieces did cause us a few problems, but they had no answer to our football and we created several good chances.

During the first half the referee disallowed a quickly taken free kick by Micky Hazard which Craig Maskell stuck in - because the Southampton wall was not ten yards from the ball!! The linesman got into the act in the second half when allowing play to continue although a Saints player was clearly five yards off-side, a decision which even the referee questioned. Needless to say the linesman was adamant that he was right and the consequent goal was given to leave us ruing our missed chances and unfortunately the poor standard of the officials.

The defeat last week against West Ham United at Upton Park was a bitter pill to swallow particularly as it came about through our own doing.

The game was nearly an hour old and we were coasting at 1-0, our goal an impressive ten pass move finished off by fit again Micky Hazard, when John Moncur having been fouled, retaliated on his opponent by lashing out with a boot was deservedly sent off.

The whole game was completely turned on it's head and although we battled well and never let our heads drop, West Ham United made good use of the extra man and hit us with three quick goals.

We managed to pull one back from the penalty spot to make it 3-2 but an error by Kevin Phillips in goal saw The Hammers wrap it up in the last minute of the game.

ANDY ROWLAND

So although we lost there were some encouraging performances with Kevin Horlock, Steve Heffer and Stuart James battling well and Micky Hazard looking sharp again in midfield. Craig Maskell's confidence and fitness is returning all of which is counter-balanced by the dismissal of Moncur.

FOCUS on youth

A hard bumpy pitch did not help our passing game and we found it hard to put our style of play onto the South East Counties League game against Bristol Rovers.

Over the ninety minutes, a 1-1 draw was just about the right outcome, with neither side able to dictate play for any length of time.

Rovers made it very difficult for us, hurrying the player in possession, denying him the time and the space needed to pass accurately.

Bristol went ahead when a bouncing ball was quickly gained by a more alert Rovers forward and finished well giving Shane Cook in goal no chance.

We were showing good enthusiasm for the game and our awareness and thinking power never matched this effort but to the players effort they never gave up and gained some reward when Mark O'Driscoll sent a through ball to Steve Luwero who beat the retreating defender and the advancing keeper for the equaliser.

On a difficult pitch good football was always going to be hard to achieve but I could not fault the effort shown by the players.

The Allied Counties League game against Reading saw us lose our 100% record drawing 3-3. An early goal gave us the ideal start with Jamie Waters not giving up on a through ball, giving Mike Short an open goal to shoot into.

Unfortunately it had the reverse effect, allowing Reading to dictate and they deservedly equalised before the interval.

A few choice words to certain players at half time about their application to the game looked like backfiring with Reading taking the lead less than a minute into the restart from a shot at least 45 yards out which caught Shane Cook napping.

This reverse seemed to have sparked us off gaining more possession and we equalised when Jamie Waters headed in from an Andrew Kearns corner.

Playing with more commitment we took control going ahead when Jamie Pitman and Ben Worrall combined for Worrall to cross finding Jim Fraser free in the penalty area who scored with a fine shot.

JOHN TROLLOPE

Victory was snatched from us a minute into injury time when we failed to defend a corner allowing two headers for the equaliser.

A good second half performance could and should have brought us victory but our defending resulting in all three of Reading's goals was very disappointing.

With four games left we need to show a more consistent approach looking to improve the understanding between the players in readiness for next season.
