'WE HAVE TO BE MORE RUTHLESS'

WHAT a week it's been. As I'm sure you all know we had, what can be best described as the journey from hell, up to Huddersfield last weekend.

As the bus drew to a halt on the M5 around lunchtime I don't think any of us were expecting that we would still be there at around 7.30 in the evening.

That's how long it took for us to get going again and we finally arrived at our hotel as late as 11.30 at night.

It was however nice to receive a warm welcome by the press contingent who were also staying at the hotel enjoying a refreshing pint, but for us I'm afraid it was just some soup and off to bed!

Bearing that in mind though, I was really pleased with our start against Huddersfield.

None of the lads had complained about the hold up and started with a real determination to win.

We put Huddersfield on the back foot and created quite a few chances. Sadly though we again failed to turn early pressure into goals and we have to be more ruthless.

I don't want to keep saying the same things, but we've got to change this aspect of our game, and I've told the players that.

We played well but little things keep coming back to haunt us and we need to work on that.

I'd like to take this opportunity to congratulate Alex McCarthy, Jon Obika and Ryan Mason who have all been selected to play for England in the next week or so.

Not only are these players a credit to themselves and their parent clubs they also show the ambition we have here at Huish Park regarding the quality of the players we are bringing to the club.

Today we welcome Danny Wilson, his Swindon team and backroom staff to Huish Park for another derby match.

Derby matches are always tight affairs, and I'm not expecting much different today, but I am hoping the lads can keep up the level of their performances, and I'm sure they will be striving to do so.

Finally a word of thanks to the fans who got up at the crack of dawn to travel to Huddersfield.

Your support is vital and the lads and management team really do appreciate your undying support.

Enjoy the match and have a safe journey home.

SUPPORTERS LIAISON GROUP SET UP TO IMPROVE RELATIONS

YEOVIL Town Football Club are pleased to announce, after weeks of discussion, the setting up of the SLG (Supporters Liaison Group), the new group to develop and improve the club/supporter relationship.

This has been established to replace the Achieve by Unity Fans Partnership which has been running for two years now.

Speaking about the new initiative supporter liaison officer Sara Bradley, who has been instrumental in setting up the SLG, explained: "I feel that the ABUFFP has done a good job, however it has limitations.

"The new working party is the next step forward and will be more successful in building good relationships between the fan base and the club and developing best practice."

During the time of the ABUFFP, there were a number of initiatives put forward by fans that have been implemented including discounted season tickets, the abolition of premium pricing, the improvement of the matchday programme and the website to name a few.

The SLG will meet bi-monthly with Sara for the course of the year with the first meeting arranged for next month. The group's main aim will be to purely focus on matters that directly affect the supporters and their experience at Huish Park.

The SLG will discuss general agenda items rather than specific questions as this will ensure a more concentrated approach on key areas within the club. Ideas generated from the meetings will be presented to the Executive Committee for consideration at their next meeting.

SWANSONG: Danny in action during his last game for Yeovil, against Huddersfield last Saturday

SCHOFIELD: 'THANKS EVERYONE, YOU'VE ALL BEEN GREAT'

FORMER Yeovil Town midfielder Danny Schofield has been talking about his recent move to Millwall which was concluded on Tuesday morning.

The Doncaster-born player, who had joined Yeovil in the summer of 2008, made 46 appearances for Yeovil scoring five goals including the third goal in the recent 3-3 draw with Leyton Orient at Huish Park.

His departure came as a surprise to some fans but the wheels were already in motion behind the scenes.

"I had a call from my agent saying that he'd had some interest from Millwall and asking if I'd be interested.

"I said that I would be; after all they're a big club and had a good season last year," said Danny.

"I had a phone call from the manager saying that they'd agreed a deal which was in both clubs' interest and it all went from there.

"I travelled down on the Tuesday morning and signed in the transfer window."

Danny moved down to Yeovil when he joined the Glovers and admits it will be a real culture shock to join the Lions.

BY MARTIN McCONACHIE

"I'll be looking for a place on the outskirts of London as I don't really want to be in the hustle and bustle of London.

"I think Millwall train away from London so living outside shouldn't be a problem," he confirmed.

He then looked back on his time with Yeovil. His highlight? "I'd say the two goals against Crewe was a great personal moment for me," he said recalling the day when his brace put the Glovers two up before Crewe came back and almost snatched a point.

So Danny leaves with the best wishes of supporters ringing in his ears.

Is there any message he has for the fans left behind? "Yes. I'd like to thank them all for their support for me, they've been brilliant to me and I really appreciate that.

"I loved playing for Yeovil, it was a great experience and I loved my time there."

Everyone at Yeovil Town Football Club would like to wish Danny the best of luck with his new club and we look forward to seeing him again for the visit of Millwall on Tuesday 13 April.

INCREDIBLE LADIES HIT 21 IN ONE MATCH

BY ALI KING

EXPECTATIONS were certainly high for the Yeovil Town Ladies first team this season, but I doubt anyone involved could have dreamt of them scoring 21 goals in one game.

That's exactly what happened two weeks ago as the Ladies destroyed a lacklustre Reading side 21-0.

It was a very good all round performance from the girls, and one, which came as an instant reply to the 2-1 defeat to Plymouth Argyle the previous week.

The star of the day was Lindsey Roe who struck eight of the 21 goals and she was naturally delighted with the team's performance.

"It was definitely the way to come back after the Plymouth defeat," said Lindsey after the game.

"It was a confidence boost for us all, and hopefully now we can go from strength to strength. It was a great performance from the team, and an incredible win."

"We took our chances well, which is something that we didn't do in the defeat against Plymouth.

"Hopefully now we can push on, and keep it up for the rest of the season.

"Our confidence is up now, and looking back at this game we know that we can score goals, and from many areas of the pitch.

GOAL HUNGER: Lindsey Roe hit eight goals in the 21-0 demolition

"So hopefully now that will continue, and we can keep the results coming."

And looking to the rest of the season, Lindsey knows that there are a number of strong teams that have to be beaten if the Glovers are to realise their promotion dream.

"Newquay will definitely be up there," she pointed out. "Having been relegated last season, they have the experience of playing at a higher level, and will be one of the front runners.

"Forest Green Rovers are looking strong again this season. They were one of the better teams last season, and will fancy their chances again this year.

"But hopefully if we just keep playing our game, then we won't have to worry.

"It's all about us getting the right results in each game, and I know that all of our players are focused on doing that.

"Hopefully we can finish the season in top position."

FOR CRAIG ALCOCK THE VISIT OF SWINDON TOWN BRINGS BACK SOME FOND MEMORIES AFTER HE SCORED HIS FIRST EVER GOAL FOR THE CLUB AGAINST THEM LAST SEASON AND THE NEW STAND-IN CAPTAIN IS LOOKING TO REPEAT THAT PERFORMANCE FOR TODAY'S BIG CLASH »

THE BIG MATCH PREVIEW

SOMETHING TO SHOUT ABOUT: Craig celebrates his goal against Swindon in last season's 3-2 victory at the County Ground

BY CHRIS
SPITLES

CRAIG Alcock has vivid memories of the last time he played against Swindon

Town, a match which came at the end of a tumultuous week for the Glovers.

Alcock lined up at right-back against the Robins at the County Ground last December and scored his first ever goal for Yeovil with a tenth-minute header.

That goal put the visitors 1-0 up and prompted a huge outpouring of emotion as the game came just days after midfielder Darren Way was involved in a road accident.

Alcock recalled: "It was a really big week for the club, especially because Darren had been in the accident and we were all so worried about him.

"I SCORED THE FIRST GOAL AND IT WAS A BRILLIANT FEELING TO SCORE FOR THE FIRST TIME IN SUCH A BIG GAME AS WELL"

CRAIG ALCOCK

"It was so important that we won the game for him and also because we knew a win would lift us out of the relegation zone over Christmas.

"I scored the first goal and it was a brilliant feeling to score for the first time in such a big game as well.

"We all celebrated the goal together and signalled that we were all thinking of Darren as well so it was quite emotional."

After Alcock and Lee Peltier – with his first goal for the club – put Yeovil 2-0 ahead, Swindon fought back to level just after half time.

But an own goal from Jerel Ifil sealed victory for Yeovil and took them out of the bottom four in League 1. Alcock headed in from a corner that day and his presence in the penalty area seemed to surprise the home defenders.

The right-back added: "That was actually the first game that the gaffer let me go up for corners and I scored straight away.

"It's probably the advantage I have of being quite small; it lets me sneak into the area unnoticed.

"Sometimes it's a choice between me and Terrell Forbes and he hasn't ever scored so I get the nod.

"But I actually think Terrell might break his duck at some stage this season because he keeps pushing forward and seems to think he's our version of William Gallas!"

Alcock captained the Yeovil team during Stefan Stam's recent absence through injury, a promotion he admits took him by surprise.

When Stam limped out of the draw with Exeter last month, the armband eventually found its way to the 21-year-old. And he kept it for the subsequent league games while Stam recovered from a hamstring strain.

Alcock said: "I really wasn't expecting it when I was given the armband at Exeter because there were other players with a lot more experience than me.

"I was delighted to be made captain though, it's a really big honour and I relish that sort of responsibility.

"I know Terrell Forbes was captain at the end of last season and I thought he might do it again when Stamy wasn't available.

"But on the Friday before the Leyton Orient game the gaffer told me I'd be captain again and it's nice to feel valued and be told you're doing ok.

"When I started my career, my first aim was to establish a place in the first team and one day it was an ambition to captain this club.

YEOVIL

Injuries – Dean Bowditch is still ruled out with a dislocated shoulder. Aidan Downes and Darren Way are long-term absentees.

Milestones – If selected Ben Roberts will be making his debut for the Glovers.

SWINDON TOWN

Injuries – Lee Peacock, Hasney Aljofree and Kurt Hammonds are long term absentees.

Milestones – If selected Alex Revell, Nathan Thompson, Jakub Jesionkowski and Mark Scott will be making their debuts for the Robins.

“But there’s no way I expected it all to happen so quickly and it’s rare to have a 21-year-old captaining a team.

“It’s great to have the honour of doing it and hopefully it can help me improve as a player as well.”

Alcock started 25 league games for Yeovil last season, competing with Peltier and then Danny Hutchins for the right-back spot.

He looked set to start this campaign as Town’s first choice in the position, but was then sidelined by a groin injury in pre-season.

“It was a bad time to get injured because I’d had a good pre-season and I think I would have started the first game,” added Alcock. “I wanted to hit the ground running but then I had a setback and I had to be patient.

CRAIG ALCOCK

“I just had to make sure that I made the most of my chance when it came along and hopefully I’ve done that in recent matches.”

As well as taking on the captaincy in recent weeks, Alcock has suddenly become one of the Glovers’ more senior players despite his relative inexperience.

With on-loan teenagers Alex Mc-

Carthy, Steven Caulker, Ryan Mason and Jon Obika all appearing regularly, Alcock is no longer one of the team's youngsters.

"All of those young lads are destined to go on and have long and successful careers," said Alcock.

"Having them at the club has been a real breath of fresh air and you can tell they have come from Premier League clubs.

"They're all quality players and have done really well for us. It's been a change for me to not be one of the younger lads all of a sudden."

Swindon were tipped as potential play-off contenders before the start of the season but saw that optimism crushed by an opening day hammering at Gillingham.

Since then Danny Wilson's men have embarked on a four-match unbeaten run to climb to eighth spot in League 1.

And Alcock knows Yeovil face a tough test this afternoon against a side that some fans consider to be local rivals.

"It will feel a bit like a derby because we're in the same area of the country and I know it's a game the fans look forward to," said the Truro-born full-back.

"They're one of a number of clubs in this division who will be looking to make the play-offs.

"But this league is so unpredictable and anyone can beat anyone and we go into every game believing we can win."

'I'M SURE THE TEAM WILL BE HIGHLY MOTIVATED AGAINST OUR VISITORS TODAY'

GOOD afternoon everyone and welcome to the players, officials and supporters of Swindon Town to Huish Park. I hope they enjoy their stay with us and have a safe journey home.

After the entertaining 3-3 draw here against Leyton Orient two weeks ago the lads made what turned out to be an epic journey to Huddersfield last weekend.

Leaving Huish Park at 12.15pm Friday lunchtime they didn't arrive at their hotel in Yorkshire until 11.30pm that night.

Not the ideal preparation for the game the next day, particularly with the early scheduled kick off.

However, the team produced a good performance and we were unfortunate not to secure a point against a team that are certainly favoured to finish in the top six this season.

On to Tuesday night and the performance fell below the standards that I know Terry and Nathan are trying to instil into the players.

As a result, we suffered another disappointing first round exit in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy, a competition in which we'd hoped to do well this season.

Setbacks are common place in football and the trick is to respond to each one in a positive manner.

I'm sure the team will be highly motivated against our visitors today, who made some impressive signings just before the transfer window closed and present themselves today in good form, with only the surprise defeat at Gillingham on the opening day of the season going against them so far in the League.

Sadly, we said goodbye to Danny Schofield on transfer deadline day. Millwall had been interested in the player for some time and we had resisted all their previous overtures.

We didn't want Danny to leave but he expressed his wish to talk to Kenny Jackett and at the eleventh

OPTIONS: Manager Terry Skiverton is currently monitoring a few players who could come in to join the squad hour Millwall made a very good offer for his services which we felt obliged to accept.

We would like to thank Danny for all the good work he did for the club. He is an outstanding professional and we wish him every success at the New Den.

Although the transfer window is now closed we still have the opportunity to bring players in on emergency loan or, on contract, where they are currently unattached.

We are monitoring a number of players at the moment who Terry and Nathan may bring to the club if they become available and they feel will improve the squad.

We must now focus on consolidating our position in the League over the next few weeks with two more games here at Huish Park and visits to Southampton and Millwall before the end of this month.

Please keep your excellent vocal support going today as we seek our second league win of the season.

Enjoy the game and take care.

Martyn Starnes, Chief Executive

» VICE PRESIDENTS

"SOCCER is not about justice. It's a drama, and criminally wrong decisions against you are part and parcel of that." – Pete Davies.

The above words by the popular author have a special significance and topicality in the light of recent events at Ashton Gate. There is no doubt that Crystal Palace scored a perfectly good goal. Nevertheless the match officials disallowed it for whatever reason, and both teams must abide by refereeing decisions or anarchy would result.

Today we welcome all players, officials and supporters of Swindon Town to Somerset. Our visitors have had a somewhat mixed start to the season.

An unexpected opening day defeat surprised many, as did the tremendous Carling Cup battle with Wolves which resulted in Swindon being on the wrong end of the dreaded penalty shoot out. Today, however, is a local derby and we can be sure of a testing time.

Since my last notes I have seen two games. At Exeter we were slow starters but made amends in the second half.

Ryan Mason's spectacular equaliser was one of the best goals I have seen us score in recent years.

In the game against Leyton Orient there was another great goal, scored against us this time by our former player, Andros Townsend, who beat four players in a tremendous run from just outside his own penalty area before striking a sweet shot past the Yeovil keeper.

There were some who said that Andros should have been stopped but he was travelling at such speed that it would have been difficult to tackle him without risking a yellow or even a red card.

It was one of the few occasions on which I can recall our supporters applauding a goal for the opposition with quite such enthusiasm.

Finally, can I remind all members about the AGM which takes place here on September 25 at 7.30 pm.

Should you wish to propose anyone for one of the three positions as officers of the committee, please collect an information sheet from me. This contains full details of the correct procedure.

Meanwhile, enjoy the game and cheer us on to three points.

"I'm disappointed that we only got a point and I have to fight to remember that we had a really excellent performance in the first half. In the second half we showed a little bit of naivety because there's certain elements to our game which are not nailed down yet."

PAUL WARNE

GUEST COLUMN FROM  FORMER YEOVIL TOWN FORWARD

OLD HABITS DIE HARD!

EVEN now when I read the paper on a Sunday morning it's funny that I have to look at Rotherham's and not Yeovil's result as well as finding out I've got my usual rating of six out of ten.

This rating is essential in the Warne family because I phone my father after every game telling him how I performed, or didn't as the case may be.

Then he will phone me after reading the same paper to discuss the discrepancy in my version and the reporters. The conversation usually follows the same path: "You told me you played well and you have scored a five!"

So after two enjoyable years at Yeovil I now need to retrain my brain to look at Rotherham and not Yeovil scores.

In regards to my time at Yeovil I will look back fondly especially with friendships I formed, with playing and backroom staff.

I signed because Russell Slade phoned me the day after I got released from Oldham and although I had options to continue to play up north I decided to move everyone down south (with a little opposition from the wife).

Russell had tried to sign me when he was at Grimsby and after the play-off exploits of the previous season I was well aware of Yeovil's capabilities.

The best managers I have played for have adopted this attitude encouraging mutual respect.

It was nice to receive messages of goodwill this week to congratulate me on my Rotherham start.

I had a call from Ronnie Moore (ex-Rotherham man-

WELCOME SURPRISE: Paul receives his Player of the Season award at the end of last season ager) and a text off John Deehan (ex Wigan manager) and Russell Slade.

Unfortunately my first season at Yeovil ended in disappointment with the famous broken metatarsal.

However, I believe my time at Yeovil was best summarised by a gas fitter.

He said without encouragement: "Wow you're Paul Warne, what a great season you are having," which I replied "why thanks." He then made a point he felt compelled to get off his chest: "That's good because last year you were rubbish!"

My highlights at Yeovil were scoring at Oldham and the penultimate game of last season at Tranmere.

To get a point there and stay up was outstanding, however I missed the celebrations because no one told me we had stayed up!

I was showering on my own when I discovered. I presumed the lads were warming down, which if I am honest I'm not a believer in, so I was happy to get an early shower.

Also my end of season award which I did not expect was a welcome surprise, so thank you.

I sincerely hope Yeovil have a great season this year and I can achieve promotion with Rotherham.

If this happens I know which fixture I will be looking for first next season. Enjoy the season!

AS you may be aware, of I am now playing back at Rotherham United, a club I played for seven seasons, in which we gained two promotions. After four league games we are joint top but I think a true representation of the team's potential will be after ten games. At the moment we are playing average but winning. We have a big squad of 22 players, all of which are first team players so we should compete at the top end of the table. I am playing on the wing and I have been able to get onto the score sheet three times! This has been all the more satisfying as people like to discuss my age!

AFTER a storming round consisting of 13 points we now have a new leader of the predictions league.

Jed Pitman is now sitting pretty at the top of the table having correctly predicted three correct results.

Roy O'Brien also had a good round with two correct results and former leader Martin McConachie remains in a good position with a solid round of seven points.

Adrian Hopper and Sara Bradley both scored six points for the round and will be hoping to do better next time in order to climb back up the table.

Our guest fan Andy McCourt fared slightly better than our previous fans but still we await to see a correct result prediction.

Today's predictions are just from League 1 and 2 games as the top two leagues are taking a break due to international matches.

TODAY'S guest fan is Sophie Louise who is 15 years old. She is a regular at Huish Park and watches the Glovers from the Blackthorn Stand with her sister, brother and two friends.

Sophie's favourite players are Sam Williams and Scott Murray. She also plays for the Yeovil Town girls Under-16s.

BY DAVID CORTES

TABLE-topping Charlton Athletic manager Phil Parkinson hailed a consistent team as the reason behind his side's best start to a season in the club's history

The boss saw his side maintain their 100% record with a 4-0 win at struggling Tranmere Rovers last weekend and admitted he focuses each training session on trying not to get players injured.

The Addicks, who travel to Brentford today, have started with the same eleven for all their five matches this season.

Parkinson said: "It's great after what we've been through over the last couple of years. It's nice to have a positive mark on the club's history, but we're not getting carried away.

"We spoke about the record to the lads before the match and we told them they had a chance of making history, it feels good."

Tranmere manager John Barnes told his players to start believing in themselves accusing them of being a squad which "does not think it is good enough."

The ex-Liverpool legend said: "I think the players have the belief when they play against the so-called lesser teams.

"But, I don't think we do when we play against the big teams and we have to get it."

Fellow Anfield star Gary Ablett described bottom club Southampton as one of the division's best sides after seeing his Stockport County team earn a 1-1 draw last Saturday.

County earned a point courtesy of a Carl Baker penalty awarded for handball in injury time at the end of the match, infuriating Saints' boss Alan Pardew whose side took the lead through a Ricky Lambert spot-kick - also awarded for handball.

Ablett said: "The referee has seen them both as handball and given the penalties, but I'd rather focus on what a good side Southampton are.

"They won't be in the position they're in now for long if they continue to play like that."

Speaking after the match, Pardew

Ablett will have former Yeovil loanee Liam Bridcutt back from suspension when his side travel down to Huish Park next weekend.

Carlisle United also had some last-minute good fortune last weekend to earn a 2-2 draw at Leyton Orient, who have signed Swansea City's Kristian O'Leary on a one-month loan deal.

A brace from Jermaine Easter saw MK Dons continue their strong start to the season with a 2-1 victory at Exeter City while Brentford remain in the play-off positions despite only drawing at home to Oldham Athletic.

Leeds United hot-shot Jermaine Beckford remained the division's top scorer netting in the 2-1 win at fellow high-fliers Colchester United.

Manager Simon Grayson told his

He said: "The season is a marathon and we have to keep doing the right things in every game.

"I think there's a lot more to come in certain areas of the pitch but you can't fault the players for what they have done."

Today's visitors Swindon Town moved into eighth with a 2-1 win over ten-man Southend United, who had former Glovers' loan signing Jean-Francois Christophe sent off for two bookings after being accused of diving.

said: "We warned ourselves about that before we went out that it could possibly happen, that you think the job is done, they're down to ten men, and maybe your work ethic comes down just a notch."

In last weekend's other games, a late strike from Jon-Paul Pittman saw Wycombe Wanderers move out of the bottom four with a 2-1 home win over Bristol Rovers, Norwich City moved into the top half with a 2-0 win at Hartlepool United and Walsall held Gillingham to a 0-0 draw at the Bescot Stadium.

Russell Slade's Brighton and Hove Albion came from a goal down to earn a 1-1 draw at Millwall in the Friday night fixture.

MAIN MAN: Billy Paynter, right, is the main striker for Swindon after Simon Cox's departure in the summer

NOW in their third season as a League 1 club following promotion from the basement division in 2007, there were some grim predictions for Swindon after last season's talismanic top scorer Simon Cox departed for West Brom.

A 5-0 defeat to newly-promoted Gillingham on the opening day did nothing to silence the doubters but, since then, the Robins haven't lost a game in the league and also took Premier League Wolves to penalties in the Carling Cup.

Better at home than on the road (seven of their eight points have come at the County Ground) Swindon start the day in eighth, three points ahead of the Glovers.

And after mediocre mid-table finishes in the past two seasons, hopes are high that boss Danny Wilson can mount a play-off challenge this term.

BY CHRIS DUNLAVY

To that end, Wilson has set about improving a squad that was severely stretched last season, although the perennial lack of finances at the club mean he has largely been forced to rely on loans.

Having started the season with just one recognised striker in Billy Paynter, the Robins have now recruited England Under-20 forward Tope Obadeyi on a one-month loan from Bolton.

The 19-year-old opened his account in last weekend's 2-1 win over Southend, as did centre-back Scott Cuthbert, who joined from Celtic in the summer.

And Wilson revisited the Scottish giants last week to snap up midfielder Simon Ferry and striker Ben Hutchinson, The duo, both 21, have joined on loan until January.

SWINDON SQUAD OVERVIEW »

DID YOU KNOW?
Swindon have used at least five different kit badges since their inception. The current badge was chosen from a choice of three by the fans and is based on the 'steam train' badge that the club used when it was first setup.

CAPTAIN MARVEL:
Defender Gordon Greer is Swindon's captain

GOALKEEPERS

DESPITE shipping five goals against Gillingham on the opening day, summer signing DAVID LUCAS has kept his place between the sticks and has vindicated Danny Wilson's faith by conceding just four more in the six games since, including three clean sheets in the last five.

Signed in June following his release by Leeds, the 31-year-old started his career with Preston in 1994 and made over 150 appearances in a decade at the club. He has also had spells with Darlington, Sheff Wed and Barnsley.

The man pushed aside to make way for Lucas was last year's No.1 PHIL SMITH. The 29-year-old made his name in Non-League with Folkestone, Dover, Margate and Crawley before signing for the Robins in 2006.

He has since made 71 league appearances, although none yet this term. Youngster JAKUB JESIONKOWSKI, 20, is also in the ranks, but has yet to make his debut.

DEFENDERS

NEW signing SCOTT CUTHBERT, plucked from Scottish giants Celtic in the summer, started the season on the bench but an impressive performance against Wolves and a goal against Southend last weekend means the 22-year-old is likely to keep his place at centre-back today.

Alongside him, expect to see skipper GORDON GREER, the former Kilmarnock and Doncaster stopper. Greer, 28, enjoyed a 19-game loan spell at the County Ground last term and his performances played a large part in Swindon's late surge up the table. Released by Donny in the summer, Wilson wasted no time snapping him up.

The recent form of Cuthbert has forced out home-grown SEAN MORRISON, who came into the side in March and began the season as first choice.

But at just 18 years old, highly-rated Morrison will get plenty of opportunities. Experienced defender HASNEY ALJOFREE, though, is out with a long-term knee injury.

At right-back, former Glover KEVIN AMANKWAH has been an ever-present this season. Amankwaah, or Kevin Kwaku Osei-Kuffour Amankwaah to give him his full name, was a popular figure in his time at Huish Park, playing in all but two games as Yeovil consolidated their place in League 1 in 2005/06 before leaving for an injury-hit spell at Swansea.

And, on the other side, Haiti international LESCINEL JEAN-FRANCOIS will vie with youngster CALLUM KENNEDY for the left-back spot. Jean-Francois, 22, is the man in possession but 20-year-old Kennedy impressed in his only start against Wolves and will be hoping to improve on his two substitute appearances so far.

MIDFIELDERS

A BOX-TO-BOX midfielder who can also play on either wing or even as a full-back, JONATHAN DOUGLAS hasn't missed a minute of Swindon's season so far.

The tough-tackling 27-year-old joined the Robins in the summer after four years and over 150 appearances at Leeds. Released from Elland Road after a contract dispute, he also has eight caps for Ireland.

Right winger JON-PAUL McGOVERN is another of Danny Wilson's automatic picks. The pacey wideman, who can also operate through the middle, made his name during Sheff Wed's 2005/06 promotion campaign and had one season at MK Dons before joining the Robins in 2007.

He began his career at Celtic, so should have much in common with new midfielder SIMON FERRY.

The 21-year-old joined on loan from the Hoops last week and went straight into the side for last weekend's 2-1 win over Southend.

WILSON, 49, took over from the sacked Maurice Malpas on Boxing Day and had a less than impressive start – just three wins in his first 15 games saw the Robins deep in the relegation mire.

However, an excellent run-in secured a 15th-place finish and Wilson has carried that form into the 2009/10 campaign.

As a midfielder with the likes of Chesterfield, Brighton, Luton and Sheff Wed, he made more than 600 League appearances and notched over 100 goals.

But it was as the manager who led Barnsley to the top-flight for the first time in their 110-year history that he really shot to fame.

Barnsley's stay lasted just one year and since then, Wilson has gone on to manage Sheffield Wednesday, Bristol City and MK Dons. In 2006-07 he led Hartlepool to promotion from League 2 but was acrimoniously sacked in December 2008.

PACEY: Winger Anthony McNamee, left, has been an ever-present for the Robins this season

DID YOU KNOW?

Swindon's first recognised manager Sam Allen took charge of an incredible 1127 games for the Robins. His spell lasted from 1902-1933 before going on to be the club's secretary for the next 13 years.

This is his first taste of competitive football after missing almost three years with a succession of injuries.

Before his arrival, MICHAEL TIMLIN had been the man at the heart of the Swindon midfield. Formerly with Fulham, where he began life as a left winger, the 24-year-old playmaker made 38 appearances last season, captaining the side on several occasions.

On the left, ANTHONY McNAMEE has been an ever-present this season. Short in stature but big on pace, the 26-year-old was a big part of the Watford side that won promotion to the Premiership under Adie Boothroyd in 2006 and went on to play seven times in the top flight.

Several man of the match performances have ensured he is a big favourite at the County Ground.

Former Newcastle trainee and Irish international ALAN O'BRIEN is first choice cover on the flanks.

The 24-year-old joined from Hibernian in the summer and has one start and one sub appearance to his name so far. MARK MARSHALL, 23, is also an option out wide, but has only featured from the bench so far this season.

FORWARDS

FOLLOWING the departure of 35-goal top scorer Simon Cox and a long-term back injury to LEE PEACOCK, BILLY PAYNTER was left as the only recognised striker at the club.

But the 25-year-old former Port Vale man has stepped up to the plate, scoring three times to add to the 11 in 42 starts he hit last term.

Wilson has finally moved to shore up his paper-thin attack though. BEN

HUTCHINSON arrived from Celtic last week and partnered Paynter against Southend.

The 21-year-old, who started his career with Middlesbrough and scored one goal in eight Premiership appearances, is highly rated at the Scottish club, for whom he has started five games.

And another loan star is speedy striker TOPE OBADEYI, who made his debut as a 56th-minute sub against Southend and hit the winner just 23 minutes later.

The Birmingham-born 19-year-old is on a month's loan from Premier League Bolton and already has three Trotters appearances to his name.

The only other man in contention is home-grown 20-year-old LLOYD MACKLIN, who can play as either a winger or a striker and became the youngest player ever to represent Swindon when he came on as a substitute against Brentford in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy in 2007.

FAN SINCE

WHAT HAS BEEN YOUR BEST MEMORY WATCHING SWINDON TOWN?

THE play-off final against Leicester City in 1993. That match was amazing; watching Paul Bodin hit that penalty was the best feeling I had experienced at that tender age.

After leading 3-0, Leicester bringing it back to 3-3 was devastating. There was a real sense of justice between the fans after our demotion from the Premiership due to financial irregularities.

AND YOUR WORST MEMORY?

BRIGHTON away in the play off semi-final in 2004. That was without doubt the lowest point of my football fan life.

We were by far the best team over the two legs. We arrived at Brighton quite early and literally stood in the rain for eight hours. Soaked, cold and beaten on penalties.

I will never forget the yell of Rory Fallon when he hit our goal in the 97th minute.

To let in a last minute soft goal was a nightmare; I still dislike Adam Virgo now.

HOW HAS THE SEASON GONE SO FAR?

WE started the season with a 5-0 defeat at Gillingham and now we are just off the play-off positions. I don't suppose I can complain really.

HAVE THINGS BEEN MUCH DIFFERENT SINCE THE MONEY TROUBLES ENDED?

OFF the pitch yes, we are now a very professionally run club.

Not as much money has been invested into the playing squad as perhaps some people expected and we seem to have gone backwards a little in that respect over the past couple of seasons.

However, we now have a very good manager in Danny Wilson and have attracted some very good players like Jonathan Douglas to the club over the summer, so we seem to now have a little more pulling power than in the past.

WHAT WAS YOUR SOLITARY SEASON IN THE TOP FLIGHT LIKE?

THE Premiership days were fun, pure and simple. We lost a number of key players and our manager after our promotion to the Premiership therefore relegation was inevitable.

But still I must say I enjoyed every single game. We may have got beaten 5-0 but still how often did you see players like Ian Wright at the town!

IF YOU COULD PINCH A PLAYER FROM ANOTHER LEAGUE ONE CLUB, WHO WOULD YOU HAVE?

JERMAINE Beckford, please! I rate him - he's cocky and arrogant like all good strikers.

You hate playing against him but would love him in your side.

WHO WILL BE PROMOTED FROM LEAGUE ONE THIS SEASON?

LEEDS, Charlton and Norwich.

HOW DO YOU THINK SWINDON TOWN AND YEOVIL TOWN WILL DO THIS SEASON?

THE mighty reds to finish just below the play-off positions and Yeovil will end up in the bottom half.

FINALLY, CAN YOU PICK YOUR ALL-TIME BEST SWINDON TOWN XI?

MY team would be:

Fraser Digby, David Kerslake, Paul Bodin, Shaun Taylor, Colin Calderwood, Nicky Summerbee, Don Rogers, Glenn Hoddle, Micky Hazard, Duncan Shearer, Jan Aage Fjørtoft (pictured).

MATCH SPONSOR
BRADFORDS BUILDING SUPPLIES

WELCOME to managing Director Dennis Smith, Sales and Marketing Director Mike Tidmarsh and all their guests from Bradfords Building Supplies for today's game against Swindon Town.

Bradfords are synonymous with Yeovil Town after their eight year reign as main sponsors. During that time the football club rose from Conference level up to the dizzy heights of League 1.

It is good to have some familiar faces back here at Huish Park and on behalf of everyone at Yeovil Town Football Club we would like to thank everyone from Bradfords Building Supplies for their sponsorship, past and present.

PROGRAMME SPONSOR
RADIO CABS

WE also extend a warm welcome to Andy Rossiter and all his office staff and drivers from Radio Cabs of Yeovil.

If you are ever in need of a taxi then give Radio Cabs a call on 01935 426 666. They have a premier fleet of vehicles, with distance no object.

Andy has supported and been involved with the Glovers for many years and travels to the majority of away games as well as the home matches.

On behalf of the Chairman, Directors and myself we sincerely hope that you have an enjoyable day here at Huish Park and wish you continued success with your business.

BALL SPONSOR
CHARLES HART JEWELLERS - FROME

OUR sincere thanks go to Chris Hart and for the sponsorship of today's match ball, and also for the valued support that you give to the club in supplying all the mementos for our match and programme sponsors.

IF you or your business would like to be a match, programme or ball sponsor for a forthcoming Yeovil Town home match then contact Commercial Manager Dave Linney on 01935 423 662 to discuss availability and rates.

WELCOME

WE bid a warm welcome to Maurice (Mo) Benton and his partner Joanne (Jo) Goody-Orris who are here as guests of Yeovil Town Football Club in recognition of all the hard work they are carrying out with regards to supporting our troops in Afghanistan with regular parcels/provisions they are sending.

Today they are also celebrating their 21st anniversary of being together.

Based in Curry Rivel Mo and Jo have been sending packages full of various items to military personnel in Afghanistan and Iraq.

The packages are full of necessities and treats that have been donated by people and businesses from Somerset that have reached around 2000 service men and women.

Each parcel has been carefully and lovingly wrapped and sent over to these countries.

On behalf of everyone at Yeovil Town Football Club may we commend Mo and Jo for this wonderful support and hope that you enjoy your day here at Huish Park.

MASCOT PACKAGES

ARE you aged between two and 15 years of age and would you like to be one of the Yeovil Town mascots for a game?

IMPROVING: Alex McCarthy is enjoying life in League 1

GOALKEEPER Alex McCarthy admits his call-up to the England Under-21 squad is a direct result of his loan move to Yeovil Town.

McCarthy was with Stuart Pearce's men in Macedonia last night for their Group Nine qualifier.

And the 19-year-old acknowledges the role the Glovers played in bringing him to Pearce's attention.

"I know there is no way I would have been called up if I hadn't been playing regularly in League 1 for Yeovil," said McCarthy.

"If I'd been playing youth or reserve team football at Reading then I just wouldn't have been on their radar.

"Playing in League 1 has been a great experience and I think it has improved me as a goalkeeper already.

"Getting the call-up was a bit of a surprise and the first I knew about it was when the FA sent a letter to Yeovil, but obviously I was delighted."

BY CHRIS SPITTLES

McCarthy's inclusion in the Under-21 squad was his first international call up, after previously being on standby for the Under-19 side.

His absence allowed former Manchester City youngster Richard Martin to make his Yeovil debut in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy at Bournemouth on Tuesday night.

And McCarthy was pleased to see Martin make his bow as the pair have become good friends since arriving in south Somerset over the summer.

"We were staying in the same hotel at first and we get on really well," said McCarthy. "And now we're sharing a flat, so we're good mates.

"I know some people may think we're rivals for the same position, but we try to help each other out.

"We obviously talk a lot about football and about goalkeeping so hopefully we can help each other improve over the course of the season."

McCarthy has yet to make his Reading debut but had first team experience from a series of loan spells last season.

The Guildford-born keeper played in League 2 for Aldershot and also spent time with TeamBath in Conference South.

He added: "Reading know the benefits of sending young players out on loan to get experience and it's already worked with other goalkeepers at the club.

"Adam Federici is now first choice there and he was on loan with a few clubs before he broke into the first team at Reading.

"And last season Ben Hamer had a great spell with Brentford, helping them win promotion. Now he's close to getting into the team at Reading."

McCarthy has been at the Madejski Stadium since he was 14 - but also had spells with Wimbledon and Wycombe as a schoolboy.

He started out with the Dons but was forced to leave when they relocated to Milton Keynes and linked up with Wycombe instead.

He added: "Wimbledon were my first club and it was a blow when they moved to Milton Keynes. I was still at school and couldn't really move up there so I went to Wycombe instead."

But McCarthy's progress at Adams Park was such that he soon became a wanted commodity and Reading paid a fee to the Chairboys to bring him to the Madejski.

He said: "I've had a great time at Reading and the club have been really good to me, especially the goalkeeping coach Sal Bibbo."

But McCarthy has also quickly established a good relationship with Yeovil's goalkeeping coach, the former Middlesbrough stopper Ben Roberts.

He said: "Ben's been brilliant and is really good to work with. I know he's played at the top level and played in an FA Cup Final and that experience is invaluable."

CULLOMPTON HIT FOR NINE AS GOAL HAPPY LADIES CONTINUE SPREE

YEOVIL Town Ladies put in another superb display of attacking football last Sunday, as they swept past old rivals Cullompton Rangers, thrashing them 9-1.

The Glovers were on a high after the previous week's 21-0 destruction of Reading Town and it took them just five minutes to score the first goal. Jemma Tewkesbury flew down the right to cross in for Anusia Rourke to volley home from five yards.

On seven minutes Yeovil won a corner, and Emma Brazell sent it in to the feet of Amy Wild, who was unlucky to shoot wide from six yards.

Wild could have added another on 12 minutes, but her angled shot was saved by Coope in the Cully goal.

Rangers had a good chance to equalise on 28 minutes when Jess Hooper powered her way into the area to unleash a decent shot, but Simkin was equal to it, and made a good save to deny her.

Yeovil were always in charge though, and on 29 minutes Roe sent Tewkesbury clear into the box with a great pass and she tested Coope well with a good shot. The ball then came back out for Rourke to tap the ball in from six yards.

Yeovil had the bit between the teeth now, and turned on the style to crush the opposition. On the half hour Brazell sent a wonderful pass from the right to Roe to power her way into the area and bury the ball from 10 yards.

On 40 minutes Wild went brilliantly down the left wing and into the box to shoot low from 12 yards, the ball going through Coope's hands.

And Yeovil were not finished yet, as they went in at the break 5-0 up after Rourke sent a great ball to Tewkesbury on 44 minutes, to break clear of the last defender and shoot in superbly from 15 yards.

Yeovil continued to attack in the second half, and on 55 minutes Wild accelerated into the box to draw the 'keeper, before sending a simple ball to Brazell to score from close range.

Dodge made number seven on 73 minutes when she sent a great pass from her area up field for Tewkesbury to speed past two defenders and into the box to send in a firecracker from 12 yards.

Rangers scored a brilliant goal on 75 minutes when Lola Sanchez accelerated through the Yeovil defence to unleash a wonderful shot from 20 yards that flew into the net.

Normal service was resumed a minute later when Yeovil added number eight, Rourke scoring from the penalty spot, after Roe had been brought down in the box.

The Glovers finished the demolition on 86 minutes when Tewkesbury passed to Rourke in the centre and she made no mistake from 18 yards.

YEOVIL: Simkin, Bowles (Morgan - 68), Brazell, Turner (Lawler - 68), Coles, Roe, Pearson, Edwards, Wild (Nardiello - 68), Tewkesbury, Rourke

WHAT IS YOUR FIRST FOOTBALLING MEMORY?

PLAYING football in the drive at home with my dad and brother, using the garage door as a goal!

WHERE DID YOU FIRST START PLAYING FOOTBALL?

AT primary school, with the boys!

DO YOU REMEMBER YOUR FIRST EVER GOAL?

I remember when I was about six or seven years old banging one in from about 20 yards. I thought I was Glenn Hoddle!

WHO WAS YOUR FIRST EVER COACH?

DI Vincent, who was a player in the early days at Yeovil Town Ladies, and who used to coach the youngsters.

WHAT WERE YOUR FIRST PAIR OF BOOTS?

A PAIR of Diadora's.

WHO WAS YOUR FIRST GOOD FRIEND IN FOOTBALL?

KIA Bowles. Bowley and I have been playing together since we were ten and eleven years old.

DO YOU REMEMBER YOUR YEOVIL TOWN LADIES DEBUT?

IT was when the club was still called Sherborne Ladies and I was 14 years old.

DO YOU REMEMBER YOUR FIRST INJURY?

I PICKED up a knee injury in 2000, but after a lot of hard work I was soon back fighting fit.

WHAT WAS THE FIRST PROFESSIONAL GAME YOU WATCHED?

GLOVERS BEATEN BY ROVERS IN BAD TEMPERED MATCH

AFTER last week's thrilling 4-5 loss at home to Exeter City, the young Glovers came up against a gritty and determined Bristol Rovers side for their next encounter.

Being the form team in the league, the Pirates were content to let Yeovil play their football in front of them, attacking on the break.

After twenty minutes, Yeovil had a lucky escape when Steve Boore clawed the ball away from the line.

The Pirates vociferously claimed a goal, only for the linesman to ignore their appeals and fail to acknowledge the ball had crossed the line.

Seven minutes later the home team did go ahead when some slack marking allowed their striker to plant a shot past Boore.

By now Rovers were starting to take control of the match and Boore was again called into action in the 33rd minute when he had to be at his best to tip a fierce strike over the bar.

However, he was beaten again shortly afterwards when Jordan Tilson slotted a fine effort into the back of the net.

Manager Mo Hopkins was forced into a substitution at half-time due to an injury to apprentice Rhys Baggridge, who is still to gain full match fitness following a broken foot.

His replacement was lively Under-16s player Lloyd Matthews. His introduction sparked the Greens into life and he was a constant threat to the Rovers' defence.

In the fifty-fifth minute, midfielder Ciaran Levett was the victim of an unfair challenge resulting in his having to leave the field of play.

Rob Clowes came on using his height and physical aggression, and ably backed up by the confident Matthews, Yeovil began to get the better of their opponents.

Hopkins then brought on his son, Tom, for Adam Wakley, the second Under-16 player to be used in the match. Again, he made an instant impact, taking on opponents and using the ball well.

The two schoolboys were playing with confidence and composure and on sixty-nine minutes Matthews had a fine effort saved.

By now chances were going begging at both ends and the game was starting to get niggly.

A Rovers player was booked for a cynical foul on Hopkins and was soon followed into the book by his influential captain and ex-Argyle schoolboy George Booth for back-chatting.

As the match entered the last few minutes Rob Clowes left his foot in and, after the ref had let play continue, was called back by the official to become the second Yeovil player to be booked.

However, he redeemed himself deep into stoppage time when, following a Tyler Sheppard free kick, the ball was palmed to him by the keeper and he nonchalantly placed it past the Pirates' keeper to bring the final score to 2-1.

YEovil: Boore, Ford, Baggridge, Harris, Grimstead, Gallagher, Oliver, Scott, Sheppard, Wakley, Levett. SUBS: Clowes (55 min Levett), Matthews (46 min Baggridge), Hopkins 68 min Wakley, Elsworth, West.

ON TARGET: Rob Clowes scores for the Glovers

SOCCER SCHOOLS START TO PRODUCE TOP TALENT

BY ADRIAN HOPPER

WITH summer drawing to a close the Community Trust had the second of their Summer Soccer Schools last week at their sports facility at Alvington.

Nearly 90 children have attended the two courses which are beginning to produce very good players who are being trialled for the Development Centre.

The Trust have always tried to keep the dream alive for children that are good enough.

They will have the opportunity to rise up the scale, via the Development Centre and Centre of Excellence to the Youth team and onwards through the reserves to the first team.

The standard of coaching is also improving with 12 new Level Two coaches almost ready to participate in our school and Social Inclusion coaching.

Having completed their intensive Level Two coaching and hands on coaching schedule they have just got two more full days tuition before they get their full certificates.

The Trust is still signing up new coaches so if there are any Level Two coaches looking for some part time work please contact Roy O'Brien.

With the demise of the summer holidays we are all gearing up for our after schools coaching and this term we will be coaching over 500 children a week.

This represents an almost 100% increase on last year, but with the addition of the new coaches the Trust is now in a position to spread its wings further.

So if there are any schools that have not been approached please don't hesitate to contact us on 01935 847 873.

The Trust are also pleased to announce that they will be introducing new coaching sessions every Friday night on the Astro pitch at Huish Park.

'Jolly's Giants' will allow any child, from aged 5 to 12, to come along and enjoy some fun football coaching between 4.30pm and 5.30pm at a cost of £2.

We have responded to the demand from parents to re-introduce Friday coaching which we hope will be well supported.

IAN ABRAHAM'S

THE WACKY

VIEW OF talkSPORT'S LOVABLE 'MOOSE'

WHY ARE LOWER LEAGUE TALENTS BEING IGNORED?

THIS PAST week has been manic at talkSPORT with the closing of the transfer window on Tuesday.

Silly rumours and brinkmanship from clubs lead to a lot of over-hyping and in the end not a great deal of excitement, and certainly no big deals like we saw last year with Dimitar Berbatov moving to Old Trafford and Robinho joining Manchester City at the eleventh hour.

I often wonder why the so called "big" clubs in the Premier League don't look around the lower leagues for talent.

It amazed me that Simon Cox didn't move from today's opponents Swindon until last summer and that players like Jermaine Beckford is still at Leeds and the likes of Paul Benson and John Nurse remain undiscovered at Dagenham and Redbridge.

My old mate John Still won't thank me for mentioning two of his key players, but it is staggering the same pool of talent moves between the top few clubs when who knows what gems lie undiscovered. I am sure week in, week out you see such players.

It's amazing to think a month of the season has gone already and so much has happened.

In League 1 I was stunned by Norwich's cruel sacking of Bryan Gunn after his side's win here in the League Cup. It doesn't endear clubs to the wider public when they treat such legends in such a despicable way.

The one thing I'm never afraid of is telling it how it is and to my mind the way Bryan was treated was disgraceful and I will not be buying another Delia Smith cook book again.

Well to be honest I haven't got one anyway, I mean who needs to be told how to boil an egg, make a cheese sandwich, or make a complete fool of yourself on the pitch at half time in a game, all in the name of stoking up a crowd.

Apart from the good work here by Terry Skiverton, I also think Phil

Parkinson at Charlton and Larry (Simon) Grayson and his amazing back room team (one of whom is a very close friend of mine) have done well at Leeds.

I am at Brighton

today. Not to walk on the only beach known to man without a grain of sand on it, but to run the rule over the start made to the season by Russell Slade.

Don't forget to keep talkSPORT on while you're at today's game and call Stan Collymore afterwards.

TALENT: Striker Jermaine Beckford has been banging the goals in for Leeds United but it still hasn't been enough for a big club to take a chance on him

IN the past week I have resembled Mr Angry with so many things getting my goat. Diving in football, the idiotic crowd behaviour at the West Ham v Millwall game, and the most annoying, the most useless thing I have ever seen connected with football. That idiot dressed up as a Plymouth fan in his car chanting "Green Army" in a TV ad. I don't know what he's trying to advertise but I wish he'd shut up and take his silly, dreary chant back to Devon or wherever Plymouth is. As you will all testify to, there is only one Green Army!

CHRIS SWEET

THE VIEWS OF WESTERN GAZETTE'S

YEovil TOWN CORRESPONDENT

CALL-UPS PRESENT A NEW CHALLENGE

GLOVERS' boss Terry Skiverton has been presented with plenty of new challenges during his seven months in charge.

However, another new factor has been introduced into the selection process for today; one that is not often talked of at Huish Park. I am talking about international call-ups.

Such has been the quality of performances from three players currently with Yeovil Town that they have caught the eye at the top level.

Reading loanee and goalkeeper Alex McCarthy has been selected by England Under-21 boss Stuart Pearce for tomorrow night's clash with Macedonia, as well as next week's trip to Greece.

McCarthy, 19, will be battling Watford stopper Scott Loach and Blackburn Rovers' Frankie Fielding for the number one jersey, both of whom have experience at that level.

Tottenham Hotspur loanee Jon Obika has been rewarded for his dazzling displays in attack with a place in the England Under-20 squad for the FIFA Under-20 World Cup.

That squad will be slashed from 30 players to 21 next week, but another goal or two for the Glovers will leave Obika with a good chance of travelling to Egypt at the end of the month.

The striker's Spurs teammate Ryan Mason is also on standby for the England Under-19 international against Russia in Shrewsbury on Tuesday.

The three youngsters have been in excellent form since representing Yeovil and thoroughly deserve their call-ups.

It is not hard to see

IN FORM: The performances of Jon Obika have seen him receive a call-up to the England Under-20 squad that the trio, along with defender Steven Caulker, have big futures ahead of them in the game and is a credit to them that they have been spotted by England's top coaches.

Skiverton will have to adapt his sides around the call-ups. Normally poor form, injury or suspension will deprive him of a player, but these circumstances are notably different.

It was not too long ago when Yeovil managers such as Gary Johnson and Colin Lippiatt were fretting over losing their prized stars, including Skiverton, to England National XI duty.

This most recent recognition not only shows how far the Glovers have come in a short space of time, but the calibre of player the club can attract.

Skiverton and his team have forged excellent links with some of the country's biggest clubs and are becoming respected coaches, after earning good playing reputations.

Loanees such as McCarthy, Obika, Caulker and Mason may not remain at Yeovil for long spells, but their impacts will live long with the Glovers' fans.

Not only does their talent further the club, but they will learn plenty about the professional game at an early stage.

IT HAS been less than six months since Swindon Town last visited Huish Park, when they were beaten 1-0 at the end of March. However, Danny Wilson's men will come up against a virtually unrecognisable Glovers' side, with six of the team that started on Saturday 28 March having left the club. Only Danny Hutchins, Terrell Forbes, Nathan Smith, Gavin Tomlin and Jon Obika stand a chance of facing the Robins again today.

THE YEOVIL TOWN FILES

SEASON 1907/08

BY MARTIN
McCONACHIE

IN Part three of the new series "The Yeovil Town Files, we look back at the season when one of the most famous names in English football was born.

AS season 1907/08 came around, changes were again afoot at Yeovil Casuals.

The previous season had not been a great one as the first team had finished a disappointing tenth of twelve teams in the Wiltshire League only three points off the bottom of the table.

The reserve team had also flattered to deceive and had ended the season seventh of eight in the Yeovil & District League ahead only of St Ivels. Alterations were needed and the summer saw them made.

The first thing on the agenda at the annual general meeting was to switch leagues again, leaving the Wiltshire League and rejoining the Somerset Senior League.

A team was also entered into the Dorset League so the team, who had the English Cup and Junior Cup to go for, were going to have a busy season ahead.

CHAMPIONS: Yeovil Town reserves won the Yeovil & District league title

The big news at the AGM was yet to come though. Mr Bond, secretary of the club and an ex-player to boot, announced that Yeovil Casuals were no longer in existence and that the new season would see them play under a new name, Yeovil Town Football Club.

The changes in league and name injected new optimism into the club and surrounding areas. Petters United were still going well so the new Yeovil Town team were going to have competition again from very close to home.

New league, new name, what next? A new kit, that's what. The team looked very smart in their shirts with a green body and white edging as they took to the field for their first friendly.

against Upton Park FC from East London.

Petters United were preparing for the new season as Yeovil & District League champions and looked equally stylish in their amber and black kit.

Yeovil were now ready to unveil their secret weapon on the division and what a weapon it was.

Back in the previous April, a striker by the name of Fred Hayward (nicknamed Johnny) had made his debut in a 1-2 defeat against Warminster but what was to follow was nothing short of incredible.

Hayward played up front with Harold Lodge and the pair were to terrorise defences all season long at league and county level.

The East Londoners won the friendly 4-3 with Lodge scoring twice and he scored again in the first Dorset League match in a 3-3 draw.

Hayward netted in that game too and, after three games without a goal, set off on a scoring run that may never be beaten. Defeats to Street (league) and Branksome Gas (cup) were followed by a 2-0 victory over Bruton where again Lodge netted. Then Hayward started.

The team suddenly found a free scoring burst from somewhere scoring seven against Wells City, six against Bruton and putting five past RGA Weymouth.

Hayward notched eleven goals in seven games including a hat-trick and a four-timer too before taking a breather.

He then came back with an astonishing sixteen goals in eight games taking the match ball home a further three times. With such a prolific striker, Yeovil Town should have been miles clear at the top but a leaky defence constantly conceding goals wasn't helping.

The first local derby between Yeovil Town's reserve team and Petters United was in November and saw the Town triumph in front of more than 400 spectators.

The two sides met again in the Junior Cup drawing three apiece but when the referee didn't turn up to officiate the replay, a friendly was played instead which angered the crowd who "kicked the ball into the road".

December brought scandal to the club. The secretary Ernest Sercombe had taken a spell of leave and in his absence, team captain Maughan played three players under assumed names in a 2-3 defeat to RGA Weymouth.

The Dorset FA clamped down on the Town fining them two guineas, deducting two points and banning Maughan for two weeks.

January came and the first team were top of the Somerset Senior League and going well. The team remained unbeaten in 1908 until 7th March when they crashed 3-8 to Weymouth in a Dorset League game.

The team recovered quickly however and responded by beating Frome Town in the semi-final of the League Cup in front of more than 1,000 supporters before losing 3-5 to Paulton Rovers in the final (after the first game ended 2-2).

The final attracted a whopping 3,000 fans to Wells City's ground and even witnessed a Hayward missed spot kick.

The closing stages of the season saw Hayward go on his third scoring spree of the campaign netting thirteen times in ten games.

Results were still inconsistent though and the team won two games 6-0 either side of a 0-7 defeat to Weymouth Whiteheads albeit a weakened team played in the Dorset game.

EYE ON THE BALL:
Yeovil Town in action in 1908 at Pen Mill. This is the earliest known picture of them in action

And so the season ended. The first team missed out on the Somerset League by a solitary point to champions Frome but had scored a hundred goals in total.

Johnny Hayward struck 41 times while strike partner Harold Lodge achieved 25 goals. The reserve team had silverware to celebrate when they pinched the Yeovil & District League title from Stoke-under Ham by a point and received their medals and trophy after a celebratory match against a "Rest of the League" team.

Financially the club were blooming with more than £24 in the bank which pleased the team's officials and led them to declare season 1907-08 "one of the most successful ever".

The healthy bank balance was raided to the tune of £2 in order to give the grandstand at Pen Mill a makeover. All was well on the good ship Yeovil and hopes were high of a great season to follow.

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

GLYN BROOM

Date of Birth: November 17, 1955

Yeovil appearances: 66

Yeovil goals: 1

DEFENSIVE football in the seventies had a lot in common with what happens in the game these days. Teams often paired a big, cumbersome centre half with a ball-playing, cultured partner; the latter of the two sweeping up if his mate hadn't won the ball.

These were sweepers and Yeovil had the perfectly named man to fill the role. Glyn Broom joined Yeovil from Bath City after he was signed by Barry Lloyd.

He had enjoyed four years at Twerton Park after, in turn, joining them from Swindon Town. His career at the County Ground was spent on the fringe of the first team appearing mainly in Football Combination matches for the reserves. This, as Glyn explained, gave him a good grounding in his career.

"I had five years at Swindon," he recalls "and came up against a lot of great players on their way back from injury for instance.

"The hardest opponent I ever faced was Peter Osgood when we played Southampton Reserves so it gave me an insight on dealing with the top strikers."

Glyn's proudest moment in football was the game we featured in a recent issue of 'The Glovers', the FA Cup tie with Norwich City in 1979/80.

It's worth repeating his comment when I asked him what it was like facing up to the likes of Justin Fashanu and Kevin Reeves.

"I soon realised that they had a pair of legs and a backside, same as anyone else really". You can't argue with his logic there.

In his time at Huish, Glyn played with two partners in the back four. Jess Payne was one and Jimmy Harmison was the other.

"Jimmy came down from the north east and we bonded straight away" he states.

"Jimmy would go and win the ball but if he didn't for some reason, I'd sweep up after him. Broom by name, broom by nature!"

Glyn joined Yeovil after a measure of success at Bath City. The Twerton Park outfit had decent players of the likes of Colin Tavener, Richard Bourne and Paul Gover and even thirty plus years on, he remains friendly with some of them.

Yeovil Town also took on Kim Book and Nigel Ryan and they have a reunion with Glyn and the others every eighteen months to mull over their views on football.

In those days, players had a career outside of football and this was to impact on Glyn's spell with Yeovil.

He worked for the ambulance service while at Huish but the travelling and the working hours weren't really conducive to keep both things going so he reluctantly left the club.

He's still in the same line of work now though he's progressed to the role of a paramedic tutor and a clinical team leader.

This allows him to enjoy his hobbies of five-a-side football and golf along with bringing up his beautiful family (partner Louise and children Amy, Jessica and Sam, his four-year-old son currently being built up with some fine roast dinners) at his home near Bath.

Glyn Broom was a top quality centre-half who could play a bit, was brave and gave twelve years good service to his three clubs. No one can brush those facts under the carpet!

» AWAY DAYS DIARY

Huddersfield Town

Saturday 29 August
Coca-cola League 1

THE noon kick-off time did make the trip to the frozen wastelands of the North a little daunting; however, I love away days and did not consider for one moment not going.

If I was still fairly sleepy at 5.45am when we set off from Bourton to meet friends Steve and Sarah in Portishead, but my daughter's driving which resembled something from an Alton Towers white knuckle ride soon jerked me from my slumber!

Luckily, Steve drove the rest of the trip to Huddersfield, arriving at 11am. We did stop for a fry-up on the way, double eggs, beans etc, added to the chicken jalfrezi from Friday night, concluded in me producing enough gas to fly my own Betfair blimp!

This was my fourth visit to the Galpharm Stadium and I will repeat a well worn cliché, I am not keen on the soulless concrete stadia which will in a few years totally dominate the Football League.

Nevertheless, the Galpharm has a unique architectural design and with a tree-lined hill as a backdrop (similar to Wycombe) gives the stadium some distinctive character.

The stadium announcer gave the Yeovil support a tremendous welcome, thanks and ennoblement for making the trip for the noon kick-off, which was very appreciated and I am sure was shared by the other 230 Yeovil supporters.

One of the attractions of the long away days are the positive ambience and camaraderie generated, and always fills me with pride, being part of Yeovil Town.

I felt disappointed for the team, we took the game to Huddersfield, and played well, the players deserved at least a point.

A surprising benefit from an early kick-off, Sarah prepared an excellent picnic for after the game; of course the tasty cheese will probably enable me to generate my own wind farm!

In conclusion, Huddersfield were as has been my experience in the past, good hosts and apart from the result I enjoyed the day in the company of my daughter and friends.

» DISABLED SUPPORTERS ASSOCIATION

THE Disabled Supporters Association are now sponsoring the away kits of Terrell Forbes and Andrew Welsh.

Discussions are also taking place regarding a DSA Player, Young Player and Supporter of the season.

For those of you who are not aware, the new DSA Chairman is Roger Battrick whilst Sharon Swain has been re-elected as the DSA Secretary.

The DSA committee will consider any constructive suggestion that would benefit us all, so please contact us if you have any bright ideas.

Disabled parking at the ground is with a permit issued by the Disabled Supporters Association.

There are also a few spaces which are available on a first come first served basis, behind the Cowlin Stand.

Anyone with a permit who will not be using it for a particular game please contact Sharon Swain on 07790 375 250, so that the space can be reallocated for that game only.

Any person wishing to become a member of the DSA, or if you have any problems or need any help, then please contact Sharon Swain.

Finally, we would like to thank everyone who has sent us donations, this helps keep the DSA solvent.

» PITCH INVASIONS

ANY supporter who encroaches the field of play during the course of the game (for any reason) will be ejected from the ground. Please note that the Football Association will impose a fine on the club if any crowd trouble is reported to them.

» RACISM

ANY supporter heard making racist comments inside Huish Park will be ejected from the ground and immediately arrested by Police outside the ground.

» BALLS

PLEASE do not throw the ball back onto the pitch should it be kicked into your area in the stands as we operate a multi ball system. It will be retrieved by a ball boy or girl in due course. Thank you.
