the gaffer

Good afternoon and welcome back to The County Ground for this League One fixture. Today I would like to welcome Aidy Boothroyd, his staff, players, directors and supporters along for the game.

The reserves kicked-off their fixture list with a one-all draw at Swansea City on Wednesday. It was a good opportunity for the players to get ninety minutes under their belt against a quality Swansea side. It was great to see some of our squad players getting game time. Some of our youth team players were included and they had a chance to play against experienced players and Billy Bodin and Abdul Said both did well. Callum Kennedy, Lloyd Macklin and Nathan Thompson also featured and they are still young players don't forget.

Colchester arrive in Town today on the back of a creditable draw at Southampton last weekend and Aidy Boothroyd has recently taken over at the helm. Aidy made a terrific impact during his time at Watford and he has a tremendously experienced number two with him now, in John Ward and that's a management team which I am sure will do well. Colchester themselves were in the Coca-Cola Championship only recently and I expect this to be our toughest game so far. They have experienced players within their ranks, some who were with them in the Championship, and I expect them to be tough opposition. They will be a confident side and have started the season very well. Colchester are a team that we are capable of beating but we will have to be on the top of our game if we are going to achieve that. We are now steadying the ship after our own start to the season and things are ticking along.

There are plenty of selection options for today's game and from my point of view that's great. By bringing the loan players in we have strengthened the whole squad and from time to time players will be left out of the side. The attitude shown by the likes of Craig Easton, when he hasn't been playing, is an example of a terrific attitude shown by a true professional.

Today is also the first of the club's military days for the 2009/10 season and I would like to welcome, on behalf of the management and players, all those military personnel who are attending the game today. Please enjoy your afternoon and let's hope we can finish the day with another three points.

Enjoy the game.

Question for the Gaffer?

Ryan Ainscow, Swindon asked:

If money were no object and you could sign any player from the Premier League on loan in the January transfer window, who would it be and why?

DW: Good question Ryan! I'd have to go for Liverpool and England midfielder Steven Gerrard. I don't think I need to say too much else because his performances speak for themselves. A bit like when I was a player, midfield dynamo!

Cheque Presentation →

Roger Bunce and Mavis Knight from the STFC Supporters Club presented at cheque for £10,000 to Swindon Town FC, after sponsoring the Centre of Excellence Milk Cup trip this summer.

The money enabled the trip to go ahead, covering all travel expenses and accommodation. The Town boys performed well again this year and reached the Quarter-Finals of the competition, where they narrowly lost out 1-0 to Premier League side Everton. Everyone at Swindon Town FC would like to express their sincere thanks to Roger and his team at the STFC Supporters Club for their continued, fantastic support in developing youth football at The County Ground.

Well Done John! →

Today marks John Menham's fortieth year of supporting the Town and everyone at the Club would like to thank John for his fantastic support of The Robins.

Former Town player Phil King, who now hosts the Sponsors' Suite on matchdays, added his thanks: "It seems like John has been part of the fixtures and fittings at the club since I came here at 1987. He has been at every reserve and first team game and he is a well-known face around the Town. He loves the football club and I take my hat off to the lad."

William 'Billy' Hill →

The family of the late William Hill (Billy), who passed away peacefully on August 19th 2009, would like to thank Swindon Town FC for a signed football. Billy was a Swindon fan for some seventy years and had many happy seasons standing on the Stratton Bank in all weathers. His son, Adrian, is also a firm supporter of the Town and Billy will be very sadly missed by all.

Who Was Your Favourite Ever Town Player? →

Whether it was John Trollope, who played nearly 900 first team games - or Alex Meechan, who played just one minute of League football for Swindon Town - every player has a mention in a new book by Paul Plowman.

Swindon Town 1879-2009 is now on sale at the STFC Superstore or available online at stfconlineshop.com

The cost for this mammoth A4 hardback of over 300 pages is £17.50.

Jo Joins The Team →

Jo Sear became the latest signing for the STFC backroom team after taking up her role as STFC Events Co-ordinator on Monday morning. Town Chief Executive Nick Watkins welcomed Jo into the role, offering supporters more on the appointment.

"The club has a number of in-house events planned for this year but more importantly it also needs to be all creating its own events for the purposes of generating revenues on non-matchdays," Watkins explained.

"Jo's role will be to manage all of the in house and matchday events and also to create, promote and sell a range of new events. She has a proven and successful track record in event management and she will now be deploying this experience to the benefit of STFC."

Nick Watkins: From the Boardroom

Good afternoon and welcome to The County Ground as we open the doors to our guests this afternoon, Colchester United, whom despite originating from Essex, are currently our near league neighbours.

Colchester United, like ourselves, are enjoying a promising start to the 2009/10 season and with Aidy Boothroyd now at the managerial helm, I am sure that they will continue to have a strong presence in the league as the season advances. We will today, use best endeavours to halt them on this journey.

We have dedicated today's fixture to another Military Day, with collections taking place for Help for Heroes, The Army Benevolent Fund and The RAF Benevolent Fund. Being Wiltshire based, Swindon Town FC resides in an area that has a large Armed Services presence and consequently, they form an integral part of the local community. At this particular time, the nation's focus is increasingly being drawn to events in Afghanistan and the bravery displayed each day by our Armed Forces personnel, currently deployed there. All too frequently of late, we witness at close hand, the ultimate price that these brave individuals are paying as their bodies are repatriated to RAF Lyneham. By dedicating certain Matchday fixtures across this season to the Armed Services, we hope that in some small way, we are contributing to the community and offering Armed Forces personnel and their families, some light relief from the day-to-day stresses and strains that they must feel. I very much hope that you will support the initiative.

On the subject of bravery, my very good friend Andy Ripley, a frequent Boardroom guest and

Ex-England Rugby star Andy Ripley

"The bravest are surely those who have the clearest vision of what is before them, glory and danger alike, and yet notwithstanding, go out to meet it."

Question for the Board?

David Brookes, Biddestone asked:

You will have been with Swindon for two years in January, what has been the most pleasing change you have seen at the club in that time?

NW: The most pleasing thing for me these past 18 months has been the knitting together of a team off the field that is totally united and fully committed to an integrated programme of continuous improvement. This designed to ensure that club is managed professionally and that STFC fans, clients, sponsors and guests always have the best possible experience.

Email your questions to:
Programme@swindontownfc.co.uk

fan of Swindon Town FC, since I swapped the cherry red of Rosslyn Park and rugby for the robin red of Swindon Town and football, is currently engaged in a fierce fight against the increasing onset of prostate cancer. He has bravely fought the disease for four years but in recent days has had to succumb to chemical warfare and embarked upon a course of chemo therapy. Sports people across the world adore the Big Man and I am sure you will join me in cheering him on in this particular battle. If determination and courage is a weapon, then he stands a very good chance of winning.

I am delighted to welcome Jo Sear to the STFC back office team, as she joins us as Events Co-ordinator. The club has a range of in-house events to organise throughout each season and it is important that we also begin to generate events of our own, to help swell the coffers. Jo will spearhead these activities.

In the Boardroom notes for Southend, I made mention of the AGM that was originally scheduled for September 26th. Apologies, not all Board members are available on September 26th due to other commitments and so the new and confirmed date is October 22nd at 18:30hrs in The Legends' Lounge.

So enjoy this afternoon and let us hope we close up The County Ground for the evening with another valuable 3 points.

Best wishes,
Nick Watkins

Gordon Greer: Captain's notes

It's nice to be talking about another win after three points at Yeovil Town on the road last Saturday afternoon.

Last season we went down to Yeovil and lost out in a 1-0 defeat. We didn't play that well so it was great to go there seven days ago and come away with the win. Another pleasing factor was the clean sheet. That's four for the season now and it gives us a good platform from which to build. We were really disappointed with the goal we conceded against Southend United, but overall things aren't looking too bad defensively.

Training has been nice and lively over the past few weeks and the spirit teams come here they are not just going to roll over and make it easy for us, but with our fans' backing hopefully we can continue our good run.

Looking back, Colchester was one of our poorest performances last season and we went down to a 3-2 defeat at their place. I remember that it was a really big game for us and we didn't perform, conceding three really sloppy goals on the night. Today should be a different story and if we play to the best of our ability then we will have in the camp is really good. The boys are enjoying things and there have been a few new additions over the past few weeks. Simon Ferry and Ben Hutchinson have joined from Celtic and Alex Revell has come in on loan from Southend United. Alex is someone I played against when we played Southend, and he was a real handful! He gave Scott and I a tough time that day so it's great to see him in a Swindon shirt now.

"Our supporters have backed us really well so far this season and we want to repay them by establishing some solid home form."

Our home form has been positive of late with wins against Southampton and Southend United. The Colchester game today will be another test for us, but we don't want to let our standards slip. We will take each game as it comes and not get too carried away. Our supporters have backed us really well so far this season and we want to repay them by establishing some solid home form. When opposition every chance of adding another three points to our tally.

The Johnstone's Paint Trophy draw was made last Saturday and we will travel to Exeter City in the second round. We were fortunate enough to be handed a bye in the first round, and the trip to Exeter will be our second away game against them inside seven days. It will be strange because we had a similar scenario with MK Dons earlier in the campaign. I haven't ever played against Exeter, but they have started the season quite well and we will go there and try our hardest to go through to round three.

SOUTHEND UTD 29.08.09

Town fans got into the party spirit with a beach party held at The County Ground for the last home game with Southend United.

The Club launched an appeal for supporters to attend the League One fixture dressed in beach-wear and three families won match tickets after being selected from the crowd at half-time by mascot Rockin' Robin.

There were a range of activities on the day with beach volleyball taking place behind The Don Rogers Stand, in addition to a live band and candy floss stalls around the stadium. Representatives from Swindon Speedway were also in attendance with Town fans – many of them also staunch followers of the Speedway – chatting with members of the team on the day.

The winner of the top prize on the day, Rosie Brasier, will be attending today's game with Colchester United in the Sponsors' Suite and she also won £50 worth of Thomas Cook holiday vouchers. Rosie attended the Southend game dressed in beach gear with her three children, Bonnie, Angel and Buster.

Rosie will be entertained today by former Town defender Phil King who hosts the Sponsors' Suite on a matchday here at The County Ground. Phil certainly embraced the beach party theme, as these pictures show!

Swindon Town: Commercial

Good afternoon and a big welcome back to The County Ground!

Today we entertain Colchester United, who like us are riding high in the league and come here bubbling with confidence under the new stewardship of Aidy Boothroyd. It all bodes well for an entertaining afternoon of football, so hold onto your seats as I am sure it will be another nail-biting, competitive League One Fixture.

I would also like to extend a warm welcome to those that have joined us for today's match from the Military; thank you for your support and enjoy your time with us. Our fixture today is the first of three matches designated as Military Days and are dedicated to raising funds for Help for Heroes, the Army Benevolent fund and the RAF Benevolent fund. Collections will take place at today's game as well as against Leyton Orient, with a larger scale event taking place against Tranmere Rovers. Look out for the Armoured Vehicle today; it will have a surprise in store for us just before kick-off.

Finally for the visit of Wycombe Wanderers we are promoting the fixture as 'The Generation Game'. A discounted family ticket will be on offer in the efforts to encourage three generations to The County Ground. The message for our younger fans is to get Grampy or Grandma out the armchair, and come along to cheer on the 'Town'. The cost for a 'Three Generation Ticket' is just £30. With Family members thereafter being charged just £10 for Adults & £1 for additional Juniors. Join us for a great, affordable day out with the Family!

Enjoy the game!

TALK OF THE TOWN:

THE BIG D

This week, three female Town fans discuss the rising number of women watching football, why the club needs hot cheerleaders, and marrying Peter Thorne... →

Q How long have you been following Town, and how did you first get involved?

LUCINDA: When it comes to looking out for their results, I've been following Town for as long as I can remember. In terms of going to games on a regular basis, I'd say about three or four years. My Dad took me when I was younger and I just carried on going.

LYNSEY: I've been following Town for over 16 years. Scary thought! It started off as a family thing, my Dad would take my brother and me.

CHARLOTTE: My first Town game was the Wembley play-off final in 1993. My dad took me and my sister up on a coach with Goatacre Cricket Club.

Q Were there many girls watching football when you were at school?

LUCINDA: Not that I can remember.

CHARLOTTE: There was me and my godsister! All my friends had Take That pictures all over their school books and we had pictures of Jan Aage Fjortoft! They were buying Mizz magazine and I was buying Shoot...

DEBATE

LUCINDA: There were a few who used to go occasionally when their dads took them. A few girls used to play football, but in terms of following teams, the Premiership always generated more interest with players like Beckham, Giggs and Cantona. I can't imagine why!?

LYNSEY: There were quite a few football fans where I came from, in Didcot. I had mates who supported Reading, Oxford, Wycombe and various Premiership sides. The fact I went to an all-girls school might account for the fact that it was alright to be a girl and a football fan though.

Q Do you find you mainly watch football with men, or do your mates watch Town, too?

LUCINDA: Most are male, although there are a few women in the group! I've brought friends along on a few occasions and they've always really enjoyed it, but it's not a regular thing. I know quite a few girls that go and I think more will come along in the future. In fact, I'm bringing a friend to Brentford away, so watch this space!

LYNSEY: I've tried over the years to get mates to go, but they're not really interested. They think I'm a bit mental sometimes. Luckily I've made mates,

"If Charlotte doesn't mention Peter Thorne as one of the fittest players we've had I'll be most upset!"

"If the players go out and work really hard and give it everything then I'm happy."

male and female, through going to watch town.

CHARLOTTE: Same here, the only girls I know that like football are the girls I have met through supporting Town.

Q You obviously know your stuff when it comes to talking football, but do you find people can be patronising, because you're female?

LYNSEY: People can be patronising, but I find that once they know I'm a Swindon supporter they do tend to shut up! I think lower league fans are seen as more genuine. Normally I have conversations about football with other Town fans and they're never patronising.

CHARLOTTE: I think because I come across as quite girly when people first meet me, then can be a bit shocked if they get me on the subject of football. I've probably been patronised and not even noticed!

LUCINDA: The people that you meet soon realise that you're not here because you've been dragged along, but because you want to be. You occasionally get the odd patronising comment from an away fan, but more often than not, it's pretty easy to put them in their place!

Q Do you feel the football experience is still mainly dominated by blokes?

CHARLOTTE: That's just the way it is - It doesn't really bother me and I hope that's the way it stays.

LYNSEY: There's nothing wrong with it.

CHARLOTTE: There are probably guys reading this now thinking 'What do they know?'

LUCINDA: I think it will always be a male culture and perhaps that's what puts more women off going? It's a shame, as it can be equally enjoyable for women as well, but I guess that's just the way it is.

CHARLOTTE: You get guys who think women only come to watch the 'hot blokes in shorts' and I guess to a certain extent there are girls out there like that, but not all of us!

Q Have you ever felt intimidated at a game?

LUCINDA: Not that I can remember, although Gillingham away a few years back wasn't the nicest of experiences and I won't be going back. I guess there can be a minority that try and cause trouble, however most of the time, I've never had a problem.

LYNSEY: Only time I've felt intimidated at a game was Cardiff at home in the FA Cup in 1996. It was terrifying outside the ground afterwards.

CHARLOTTE: Once, years ago - I remember Millwall fans jumping over the turnstiles and invading our stand - that was scary! Also, that game when the Rovers fans starting ripping out the seats... I didn't like the way the atmosphere changed that night.

Q And I have to ask, have any of the players ever caught your eye?!

LUCINDA: I guess you can't ask us ladies a few questions about football without throwing that one in!

LYNSEY: If Charlotte doesn't mention Peter Thorne as one of the fittest players we've had I'll be most upset!

CHARLOTTE: Oh my god, I used to be so in love with Peter Thorne. I used to wait outside the ground every Saturday so I could watch him pull up in his car and have my photo taken with him. I honestly thought one day I was going to marry him! I'm probably old enough to be most of the current players' mother these days!

LUCINDA: There have been a few good looking players over time but I guess Lee Peacock has his place, as does Rory Fallon.

Q What have you made of the season so far? Highlights/lowlights?

LUCINDA: I didn't go to Gillingham away; I'm glad I didn't! The highlight has been that we've looked stronger ever since.

LYNSEY: I did go to Gillingham, but the response away at MK Dons was great and the Southampton game excellent. If the players go out and work really hard and give it everything [like they did against Southampton] then I'm happy. I felt so proud watching them that night. It's the sort of night fans live for. I just hope they can keep it up!

CHARLOTTE: The Southampton game was great, you're right, and the new kit; it's the best we've had for years!

Q Which players/team performances have impressed you?

LUCINDA: I think JP McGovern has been fantastic. His work rate and commitment have been excellent and he has earned his place in the side.

LYNSEY: Billy Paynter, for me. He's got a hard job, but he's trying his hardest.

Jonathan Douglas is a big-game player. He likes to get stuck in and be aggressive... we've needed a player like him in the middle for ages.

CHARLOTTE: I personally thought Lucas was immense against Southampton. He seems unflappable – he's really impressed me.

LUCINDA: Morrison has also stepped up to the first team and taken his chance. I think he will grow to become a superb centre back with Greer alongside him.

Q Any areas you feel we still need strengthening?

CHARLOTTE: Strikers?!

LYNSEY: Striker please!

LUCINDA: I know we've got Tope from Bolton, but it's not a long-term solution. Support up front is a must and although we have now signed Hutchinson and Revell – we probably need some permanent additions.

Q The atmosphere against Southampton was pretty good, what would you do to ensure it's like that every week?

CHARLOTTE: Free beer and hot cheerleaders! In failing that, keep the good football coming and people will come back.

LYNSEY: If the team play like they did against Southampton, then there'll be a good atmosphere. Unfortunately it seems that the players have to perform before the crowd get behind them.

LUCINDA: The crowd will always become more enthusiastic when we are playing bigger teams and that's the way it's always been. I'm a firm believer that the atmosphere will improve when the crowd have something to cheer about on the pitch, although its evident good support raises the team, catch 22 if you like! To improve the atmosphere you have to increase the fan base and to do that I'd probably offer more ticket deals to get people into the ground.

Q We play Colchester today, who have started the season well. Do they, or any other team scare you in the division?

LYNSEY: All the clubs in the league scare me! We could lose to any of them, but we could beat them all as well.

CHARLOTTE: I think in this league you can expect any results against any teams. Colchester's opening day result [they beat Norwich 7-1] may have been just as much a fluke as ours!

LYNSEY: The obvious favourites are Leeds, Charlton and Huddersfield.

LUCINDA: I agree, I think Huddersfield will be one of the biggest tests this year, since they have spent a lot of money strengthening their squad. I also think Millwall have a good side capable of getting out of this division.

Q Where do you think we'll finish this season?

LUCINDA: I think we could finish around eighth, but lady luck would need to be on our side to finish higher. It would be a distinct improvement on last year and give us good ground to build on to push for the play-offs next season.

LYNSEY: It depends which Swindon team comes out every Saturday. If we play like we did at Gills we'll go down, but if the team who won at MK Dons and Southampton turn up, we'll be play-off contenders. I'd settle for midtable and a couple of cup runs. We've had so much happen in the last few years, a nice restful quiet season would suit me fine!

LUCINDA: I'd love to be more optimistic and say top six, but I don't think we are quite there yet.

CHARLOTTE: Part of the fun of being a Town fan is you never know what will happen next...

"I think JP McGovern has been fantastic. His work rate and commitment have been excellent."

"Jonathan Douglas is a big-game player. He likes to get stuck in and be aggressive."

COLCHESTER UNITED

Swindon Town take on Colchester United this afternoon in a sixth against seventh placed clash in League One. Town secured their place in the top six with a 1-0 win at Yeovil Town last time out whilst Colchester, now managed by former Watford boss Aidy Boothroyd, drew 0-0 at Southampton.

The draw against The Saints last weekend did not come without casualties though. Midfielder Kem Izzet will miss out this afternoon after receiving a straight red card for a 36th minute red card at St. Mary's. Former Arsenal defender Pat Baldwin also sustained an ankle injury.

Colchester's search for a new Manager was launched in mid-August after Paul Lambert chose to depart The Weston Homes Community Stadium to join League One rivals Norwich City. Lambert had seen his Colchester side put seven goals past The Canaries on the opening day – perhaps enough to raise a few eyebrows in the Carrow Road Boardroom.

Former Watford boss Aidy Boothroyd has been tasked with continuing the good work done by Lambert after accepting the Manager's role. Boothroyd, who was out of work for ten months following his departure from Watford, is eager to make his mark with The U's and believes that the U's are the perfect fit for him.

"When you enjoy a lovely relationship with people, like I had at Watford, and you have some success - which was down to a lot of people and not just me - what happens is, you kind of fall in love with a club," he said when appearing on Col U Live on Dream 100 recently.

Boothroyd continued: "Somebody very senior said to me when I left to make sure that when I came back, I made the right decision and pick the right club. It's like getting divorced. You don't want to get the wrong woman on the rebound, the guy added. As daft as that sounds, I think he's absolutely right."

Town fans will hope Danny Wilson can guide The Robins to three points this afternoon, bringing an early end to the Boothroyd honeymoon period.

COLCHESTER

WILLIAMS

Goalkeeper signed after a summer long chase by the U's for his signature. A former Manchester United trainee, the stopper has impressed since leaving Old Trafford in the summer of 2004 after two years with the Red Devils. Loan spells with Coventry City and Chesterfield preceded his first permanent move to Crewe Alexandra where he made 125 league appearances following a successful loan spell. A switch to Carlisle United followed in the summer of 2008 and he made 36 appearances for Carlisle in 2008/9 and his displays between the sticks were enough to earn him a move down south. Williams has started the season as Colchester's number one and will have enjoyed the opening day rout at Carrow Road where supporters witnessed eight goals – although only one went past the U's stopper.

PLATT

A fantastic 2006/7 season was enough to earn Clive Platt a move to the Championship for then new club record fee for Colchester United. The 6'4" front man scored eighteen goals as part of MK Dons promotion quest in the 2007/08 campaign, an attempt which fell at the penultimate hurdle with a play-off semi-final defeat. He arrived at Colchester with a multitude of experience under his belt, averaging nearly 40 games per season since making his debut for Walsall back in August 1996, and he scored eight goals for the U's in 2007/8. Platt scored twice on the opening day in the emphatic 7-1 victory at Norwich City and has also found the net against Gillingham and Leeds United.

OKUONGHAE

Powerhouse defender who signed for the U's after an impressive season with Dagenham & Redbridge, as the London side closed in on a play-off spot last season.

He scored twice for Dagenham last term, with strikes against Luton Town and a goal in the 6-1 thrashing of Notts County.

Croydon-born Okuonghae began his career with three seasons with Fulham, one as a professional before joining the ranks at Rushden & Diamonds. He made his Football League debut in August 2005 with a 1-0 win over Mansfield Town and went on to play 23 times for the Northants club.

He also has experience with the likes of Aldershot, St. Albans and Crawley and he help Colchester keep their first clean sheet of the season against Southampton last weekend.

The 6'3 centre half can also play at right back and he will be hoping to continue his own personal progression alongside the U's aims of pushing for promotion this season.

O'TOOLE

Republic of Ireland Under-21 international O'Toole became the first signing by new boss Aidy Boothroyd after his arrival at Colchester United recently. Boothroyd gave the player his breakthrough at Watford and, with the youngster's first team chances restricted at the Hornets, the new U's chief wasted no time in drafting in his former protégé. O'Toole took his place in the starting line-up at Southampton last weekend and will hope to impress again this afternoon. The midfielder also spent a nine-game loan spell with Coca-Cola Championship side Sheffield United last term.

BEST OF THE REST

Former Chelsea defender Pat Baldwin has made almost 200 league appearances for The U's since joining the ranks in August 2002. Marc Tierney joined Colchester from Shrewsbury Town in January following a successful loan spell and the Bury-born defender adds experience to the backline. 6'3 defender Magnus Okuonghae had sampled life with five non-league clubs before breaking into the professional ranks in the summer, whilst fellow summer addition David Fox can list Manchester United amongst his own former employers. Simon Hackney was a January signing from Carlisle United and the midfielder scored in the Carling Cup defeat by Leyton Orient in August. Former Cheltenham Town forward Ashley Vincent returns to familiar territory this afternoon and scored against Town at Whaddon Road in August 2007.

our opponents:

GAFFER

AIDY BOOTHROYD

Boothroyd joins the U's in what is his second managerial post, following his successful spell in charge of Watford.

He arrived at the Hornets following successful coaching spells at the U's East Anglian neighbours Peterborough United and Norwich City.

After two years at Carrow Road, he was appointed as Youth Development Officer and Technical Director at West Brom, before later joining Leeds United as a first team coach.

A year later, he joined up with Watford, where he was appointed as manager in March 2005 at the age of 34.

At the start of the 2005/6 season, Aidy said that his aim was to get the Hornets promoted to the Premier League. Nine months later, the team had made the play-offs and faced his former club Leeds United in the Play-Off Final.

Whilst life in the Premiership was to prove tough for the Hornets, the team did manage to reach the FA Cup semi-finals before they were eventually defeated by Manchester United.

Back in the Championship, Watford got off to a flying start in 2007/8, sitting nine points clear after twelve games. They eventually finished in the play-offs again, but lost to Premiership bound Hull City in the semi-finals.

His spell at Watford came to a close after 176 games on November 3rd 2008 and, after ten months out of work, he returns to employment to take over a U's side in good shape after the first month of the season.

LISBIE AIMING HIGH...

Kevin Lisbie is making quite an impact at Colchester in his second spell with the Essex boys. Having departed for Ipswich in the summer of 2008, he has now returned on loan to help The U's promotion bid.

Lisbie ended a twelve year association with Charlton Athletic when he signed for the U's in the summer of 2007. He joined Charlton in 1995 and made his senior debut for the club in September 1996 against Burnley, coming off the bench to replace Paul Sturgess. He went on to score his first goal for The Addicks in January 1997. He was part of the Charlton side beaten that season 1-0 by Swindon in March, with Wayne Allison getting the winner at The County Ground in front of 9,256.

However with only one goal to his name at the end of the campaign, the forward was released by boss Alan Pardew at the end of the 2006/07 and joined the U's on trial during the following pre-season. His two goals in the warm-up to 2007/8 was enough to convince then Colchester manager

Geraint Williams to snap him up on a free transfer and he ended the campaign as the U's top scorer with seventeen goals. His form that season attracted the attention of near neighbours Ipswich Town who parted with £600,000 for his services.

The forward scored seven goals for the Tractorboys last term although following the arrival of boss Roy Keane, was allowed to rejoin Colchester on a season-long loan in August.

With four goals to his name this term already, the 30-year old looks to be a shrewd addition to the squad and he will be hoping to play his part in a positive Colchester display this afternoon.

A free-kick from Jon-Paul McGovern is not cleared and the ball finds its way to Scott Cuthbert who fires in his first goal in Town colours.

26

Simon Ferry, making his first Football League appearance, produces a fine tackle inside the box to deny Southend midfielder Frank Moussa.

34

The visitors are reduced to ten men as Jean-Francois Christophe is shown a second yellow card for protesting following an alleged foul on the edge of the area.

56

Another McGovern corner causes problems inside the box and this time the ball is met by Greer who sees his effort saved by former Town keeper Mildenhall.

79

Loanee Tope Obadeyi nets his first goal in Town colours from the left-hand side of the box, as the shot squirms through the arms of Mildenhall and into the net.

80

Southend are given hope as substitute Damian Scannell powers home a fine effort from inside the box for his first goal of the season on his first appearance of the campaign.

Post-Match

"I think that as the game went on Southend had a bit more hope, but we didn't defend that well at all. We warned the players what could happen in the second half and not to let the work ethic go."

Key Moments

9 Andy Welsh clips in a deep cross to the back post although former Glover Kevin Amankwaah clears well under pressure from Sam Williams.

41 Town take the lead as a superb cross into the box from Jon-Paul McGovern is headed back across goal by Paynter but Terrell Forbes heads the ball into his own net.

49 Spurs loanee Jon Obika – a scorer against Town last term – goes close with a left foot effort which is well-held by David Lucas.

60 Town boss Danny Wilson is sent to the stands by Referee J Singh after an exchange of words with Yeovil Manager Terry Skiverton.

83 Substitute Lloyd Macklin almost scores his first League One goal but after being played through by Douglas, sees his effort drift wide of the Yeovil goal.

90 The Robins almost make sure of the points but Billy Paynter is denied from close range after being played through on goal.

Post-Match

"I don't think Dave Lucas had a serious save to make all game so defensively we worked extremely hard, and that's from the forwards right the way through the side. In particular in the second half because that's when we really had to work at it. That's what we have to do every week if we are going to be successful."

Can you name the club crests?

ANSWERS: 1 Hull City, 2 Preston North End, 3 Carlisle United, 4 Accrington Stanley.

A big welcome to U's who have made the long journey from East Anglia. I spent some of my summer in East Anglia, on a boating trip with Mrs Robin!

I happen to be a little bit stronger than Mrs Robin so we decided to share the job of rowing. I sat myself on the left thinking that it would be relaxing and nice to go slowly and gently across the river. This contrast in rowing styles was the beginning of the end, as far as the trip was concerned anyway! With a powerful stroke from my side and gentle dabbles in the water from hers, the boat veered to the left, heading straight towards a flock of baby ducklings. We had gone past the point of no return and there was nothing either of us could do. So, being the gallant and calm Robin that I am, I jumped clear in to the water and abandoned ship, leaving Mrs Robin to steer our boat to safety.

The boat careered in to the bank narrowly missing the new born ducks, while I formed a robin like shield around my newly found feathered friends, protecting them from the boat and the newly found wrath of Mrs Robin!

Manchester City ace Robinho sees no reason why Mark Hughes' side cannot challenge for the title this season.

With a host of world-class additions on board during the transfer window the ex-Real Madrid man believes they have the talent to succeed.

"The club have set their sights high this year and backed that up in the transfer market," said Robinho. "We have what it takes to go for the title."

"The more I think about it, the more I think this year must be our year."

Thank you to everyone who has already sent in their Junior Robins membership forms.

If you are interested in becoming a Junior Robin this season please let me know and I will send a form out to you. It's FREE and there are some great benefits to becoming a Junior Robin! We will soon be holding a Meet the Players evening and the details of this will be coming up very soon.

Away Trips

I still have a few places left for the trip to Walsall on Saturday 19th September. I am also taking bookings for Norwich on Saturday 24th October now. The Walsall trip will be just £12 for Junior Robins and £16 for adults. This is the total price for the coach journey and entry to the game. This is a popular trip so please book as soon as you can. I do need payment at the time of booking. We accept cash, cheque or card details. The Norwich trip prices will follow soon in an upcoming programme.

Kitted Out!

In a series of new articles we will be taking a look behind the scenes here at Swindon Town Football Club and find out more about 'the office' and beyond.

Name: Roger Jones
Job Title: Kit Manager
Year Joined: August 2000

How and when did you join Swindon Town?

I joined when Colin Todd was Manager here. Malcolm Crosby, who I had worked with up at Sunderland, was a part of the coaching team and I was then asked if I would like the job. It came as a bit of a shock because I was going to be Kit Manager in addition to running the hostel where youth team players used to stay, but when I arrived I got the washing too - three jobs piled into one!

How difficult was the transition from player to working behind the scenes?

I had five years as goalkeeping coach at Sunderland before joining Swindon and looked after the kit up there too. When I joined Swindon it was just a case of getting back into the routine. It's great to still be in football, because there aren't many coaching jobs around and it's my luck that I'm still involved in the game.

What does your role at Swindon involve?

It's about making sure Swindon Town teams have the right kit for every game and training session. It's not just the first team. As well as thirty professionals there is the youth team and the Centre of Excellence. I don't do all the washing, but there is a lot to do. For example, some days there are double training sessions for both the first team and youth team so it gets busy. If the first team are off, there are still the injured players who need kit for training.

Tell us about your average home matchday?

I'll get to the stadium for around ten o'clock and finish off any washing that's left over from Friday training. The first team kit will already be out in the changing room as I do that on Friday afternoon, so on Saturday I make sure the youth team kit is prepared ahead of their games. Then it's doing final checks for the first team players and staff kit ahead of the game.

What are the current squad like to work with?

We have always had a good squad here and whilst we have underachieved in the past, the results have picked up this season and it's been going well.

The players do have some strange requests though. Some of them don't like having feet in their socks so my Wife, Sue, had to cut them off and sew them up again to make them look presentable. Some players wear Skins underneath their match shirts and I also look after their shin pads too.

Most memorable moment at Swindon?

When I picked up an award from the players at the Staff Christmas party last year. That was a great moment.

TOWN VS COLCHESTER UTD

Match Background

It was one day away from December when Swindon and Colchester United met in 1975, and Town were launching a campaign to reclaim the Division Two place they had lost the previous season. Just four defeats in the opening 20 games saw us placed handily for a top three spot, and Colchester were to feel the onslaught of winger David Moss.

Two penalties added to one from open play handed Moss a hat-trick against the U's, while Peter Eastoe chipped in with a fourth. Bobby Svarc replied for the visitors in front of a crowd of over 10,000.

Colchester attempted a reply in January, and Manager Jim Smith was understandably disappointed when the game was abandoned through a water logged pitch with his side three goals to the good. Come March though, Layer Road witnessed the home side dent Town's continued promotion push with a 2-0 win courtesy of another brace from Svarc.

Football Snippets

Manchester United regain their first division status at the first attempt clinching the Second Division Championship in May.

The World That Season

In August US President Richard Nixon resigns, and thousands drown with millions left homeless as monsoons hit Bangladesh.

The IRA continue their bombing campaign on the UK mainland, killing five people in a Guildford pub in October. In the same month, Labour retain power in the British general election, and Muhammad Ali regains his world heavyweight boxing title, knocking out George Foreman in Zaire.

February sees Margaret Thatcher elected as the leader of the Conservative Party, and 35 people die on the London Underground as a train crashes.

Season Outcome For Both Clubs

Despite a concerted effort, Town finished a creditable fourth in the table, missing out on promotion by the two points we finished behind third placed Charlton Athletic. Striker Peter Eastoe finished the division's second top goalscorer on 26. Hereford's Dixie McNeil took the honours on 31.

Potential FA Cup glory came in a trip to West Ham United where we grabbed an impressive draw, but the replay brought elimination by the First Division side.

Colchester had a sharp shooter of their own. Bobby Svarc fired 24 goals to finish third in the goalscoring table and helped his side to an 11th place finish.

Home Pride

As Scotland prepared to take on Holland in midweek for a World Cup Qualifier at Hampden Park, Town defender Scott Cuthbert was gearing up for today's home clash with Colchester United.

The 22-year old has settled well into life as a Robin after what was a gruelling start to his Town career.

A surprise inclusion in the starting line-up for the season opener at Gillingham, Cuthbert and his teammates were on the receiving end of an unwanted thrashing. After missing out on a starting berth in the following four games – he returned to the line-up for the Carling Cup clash at Wolves and hasn't looked back since.

The Scot is immensely proud of his roots and recalls the warm welcome he received from his fellow countrymen upon arriving in SNT for the first time. With four Scottish-born players in the most recent starting line-up, the Scots' roots are deepening.

"It's great isn't it?" smiled Cuthbert. "I remember when I arrived at the club there were a few of the Scottish boys in the dressing room who made me feel welcome. Lee Peacock is Scottish too. He doesn't have much of an accent but he still counts as a Scot! Simon Ferry came in the other week and he's a great character – on and off the pitch. His performances have been different class."

Town fans know all about the tenacity a Scottish player can bring to a side. Colin Calderwood, Scott Leitch and Duncan Shearer all serve as recent examples of former Swindon players who were not afraid to put a shift in. Cuthbert, who made 29 appearances on loan at St. Mirren last term, will do his best to follow suit.

"All Scottish players work tremendously hard and a work ethic is engrained in us. If you watch the national team in action at Hampden Park they really get into the oppositions faces. Scottish footballers will always work hard and that's something that will never change."

The defender already has experience on the international stage and Captained the Scotland Under-20 side at the 2007 World Cup in Canada. After a move to Swindon in the summer, he still harbours ambition of progress at international level.

"I was lucky enough to play through the age-groups and Captain a lot of those sides. The next step from the 'B' side is to make it into the full national side. I have said before that I don't think I'm ready for the full side yet, but maybe in a few years."

"I'm only 22 but hopefully when the next 'B' squad is named I'll be there or thereabouts. If I can impress in those games then who knows? A lad I played with coming through the age-groups, Graham Dorrens, has just won a call-up so it can be done."

Cuthbert was part of the Town side which kept a fourth clean sheet of the season with a 1-0 win at Yeovil Town last weekend. Last term The Robins were guilty of conceding a plethora of late goals, but there are significant signs of improvement this term.

"Lesser teams might have crumbled at the end," Cuthbert explained. "We took the lead quite early against Yeovil and managed to defend well right throughout the ninety minutes. Yeovil didn't really have any clear cut chances. We defended well from front to back and big Dave had a quiet afternoon in goal."

Town fans at the last home game with Southend United will have witnessed Cuthbert's first goal in Swindon colours. The defender is now eager to build on recent performances with another three points against The U's.

"I can't imagine that I'll be scoring again so soon, but never say never! It was great to get a goal against Southend because I usually only get one a season, so to score on my home league debut was fantastic."

"Colchester have just changed their manager and will be keen to impress him, but if we can get a result against them then we will be going in the right direction – and that means the top six."

Should Town achieve a top six slot at the end of the campaign, then full international honours may not be too far behind for Swindon's number two.

"All Scottish players work tremendously hard and a work ethic is engrained in us."

home sweet home

ALAN O'BRIEN

How long did it take you to find a property in Swindon?

It was quite easy actually. I went to see a place on the day that I signed, liked it and took it straight away. I went into Primary Executive Homes and spoke to them and they found me somewhere. They got it sorted and as I didn't like staying in hotels, I went straight in. It's worked out really well I'm happy with the house that I'm in now.

You played for Hibernian last season, what was life like up there?

Edinburgh is a great city and the people are fantastic. I liked the area and had some really good friends up there. There were plenty of places to go on days off and always different things going on.

Before Hibs you were with Newcastle... how was that?

I lived at a place in Northumberland Park. The people were really friendly and because I was there from a young age, I made a lot of good mates. As I got older I have calmed down a little bit but as a youngster it was a tremendous place to be.

How have you found things in and around Swindon so far?

It has been really nice, especially exploring what is around. I like chilling at home but when I have some time I like trying out new restaurants as well as going to the cinema. If the other lads try somewhere to eat and like it then I'll give it a go.

How impressed were you by the location?

When I first moved down here I wasn't quite sure what was around, but since I have been here I have realised just how well located Swindon is. It seems to be in the middle of everywhere! London is only an hour away and places like Bath and Bristol are close by too. The airports aren't far either, which makes going back to Ireland to see family quite easy.

Who do you live with here?

Emma, my Girlfriend. She lived with me in Edinburgh for a year and has moved down with me to Swindon. I have three dogs as well, but I won't tell you their names because they are pretty embarrassing and I'll get some stick from the lads.

Tell us more about your dogs...

One is an Alaskan Malamute; he's pretty big and weighs in at about 60kg. The second is a female Siberian Husky which is a bit smaller than Malamute. The third one is a Tibetan Mastiff who is the youngest of them all. He is supposed to be a lot bigger than he is and I think he's the runt of the group.

I can't walk them all together because they are quite a handful. I usually walk the big one on his own and then take the other two around. Sometimes I walk them individually, it depends. There is a forest not far from where I live which I can take them into and that's really handy.

Describe your dream house...

I like American homes, so I'd probably go for a place in LA because I love Vegas too. Or I'd go for a country pad near Dublin with a big garden for the dogs. I like barn conversions so it would probably be one of those.

And finally, which three personal items are most important to you?

I'll have to be honest and say my three dogs, my girlfriend knows that too!

In my programme notes for last year's home game with Colchester, I was slightly (OK, very slightly) lamenting the passing of the U's crumbling old home, Layer Road, and looking forward to my first visit to The (deep breath) Weston Homes Community Stadium.

Having now been there, I'm not sure that I shouldn't have been looking at things the other way around.

It's not that the stadium is particularly bad; although bleak would be a fair enough description, at least on the rainy, windswept night we visited there at the back end of last season. Nondescript is probably the best word I could use, and that's a real shame. Four separate, rather grey looking stands (at least from the outside), right on the A12 but it still takes ages to find and surrounded by the most pot-holed car park this side of the non-league.

I'm not having a pop at Colchester or their fans, as games between the teams have been pretty enjoyable in recent years (although it'd be nice to see some defending this afternoon, after that game in Essex last season!). But with the future of Swindon's own ground redevelopment likely to rear its head again in the coming months, I hope it's something of a cautionary tale.

I've been banging on about a new ground for the Town for a long time now, but it's such a once in a generation opportunity to set Swindon up for the next few years

"I'd love to see somewhere that actively attracts fans to want to come and watch, somewhere that makes a real statement."

that I don't think I could bear to see it wasted. I'd love to see somewhere that actively attracts fans to want to come and watch, somewhere that makes a real statement. Swindon as a Town is so lacking in signature buildings that a stand which combines bottom line economics with a sense of style could be a real boost to both the club and the Town.

So whether you like the curves of the Galpharm, the multi-purpose use of the Matchroom, the ambition of stadiumMK (but one that's actually finished, please) or the all-encompassing bowls favoured by so many clubs recently, I really don't mind. It just needs to be a bit, you know, special.

SWINDON DOWN'S

SYNDROME GROUP

Our aim is to support people with Down's syndrome, their families and carers and also anyone with an interest in Down's syndrome by providing information, advice and support as well as raising general awareness. We are a parent-led support group run by a committee of 14 volunteers and a registered charity - 1096089 - affiliated to the National Down's Syndrome Association. All our work is funded by our Group and the money is raised through jumble sales, sponsored walk, donations and grants from local companies and businesses.

The group provides opportunities for parents to support each other by organising trips to the theatre, theme parks, a Christmas party, barbecues, activity sessions and monthly baby/toddler support meetings. We aim to provide training and information through an annual training day aimed at teachers and teaching assistants and through seminars throughout the year. We also support pre-schools, primary and secondary schools by providing school resource packs containing manuals, flash cards, software, DVD's, numeracy resources and books aimed at educating a child with Down's syndrome.

The Group also provides some specialist sporting activities - football training run in conjunction with Swindon Town Community Team. This training session is open to all children with a disability between the ages of 5 - 18. Tennis lessons with a specialist coach and fortnightly swimming lessons with a specialist swimming coach and working towards nationally recognised qualifications. The Group also runs weekly speech and language therapy sessions.

These sessions are attended by children with Down's syndrome, their parents and, in most cases, a teaching assistant from the child's school. Visit: www.swindondownsgroup.org.uk

COMPLIMENTARY STRENGTH/ POWER TRAINING TO DEVELOP SPEED

Highlighted in the last home game programme notes were simple procedures to follow when trying to develop speed and power development whilst on the training field.

Today, we are going to take a quick look at complimentary exercises performed in the gym to develop these respective fitness aspects as research suggests that speed and agility training alone will result in a plateau or deterioration in performance.

To supplement these training methods to continuously improve performance, the power of the working muscles must be continuously increased. This can be achieved by stimulating the neuromuscular system with strength/power training to increase the recruitment of the fast twitch muscle fibres. The aim of strength and power training is to increase the performance of a muscle to a higher level that cannot be attained during specific football training.

Maximal strength can be defined as the result of force producing muscles performing maximally during a single voluntary effort. Maximal strength is normally expressed as one repetition maximum (1RM) during a single movement (in this case to develop speed, we are looking at the half squat exercise).

Neuromuscular adaptations through strength training, exercises should be performed using few repetitions (<6reps) executing 2 - 6 sets, with high loads (85-95% 1RM) performed slowly through the entire movement phase. Power is the ability to produce as much force as possible in the shortest possible time. Therefore, to improve power, the squat exercise should be performed slowly during the downward phase, incorporating high velocity movement during the upward phase, lifting approximately 75-80% 1RM, again using few reps (3-5) per set. Research has found improvements in 10, 20 and 30metre sprint times using these complimentary training techniques among professional football players over a 6-8 week period.

Though these training techniques sound easy to perform, due to the heavy loads that are been lifted and the correct squatting techniques required to see improvements, these exercises should be performed under the supervision of a trained instructor.

DICK'S DIARY

Iwould like to start by thanking Club Doctor, John Elliman, who took on the role of Club Physiotherapist for the last home game with Southend United.

John is a very able Club Doctor who is particularly useful with more serious injuries on the pitch, so I had no problem in recommending him to fill the breach.

Alan O'Brien has a hamstring problem and has been doing some rehabilitation work this week. He has been jogging and rowing, to try and get some more work through his leg. Alan has a grade two hamstring injury which is a considerable problem, because he is such a quick player. Speed is a large part of his game so it will be three weeks, at least, before he makes a return and you can't beat twenty-one days for a grade two injury such as his.

Scott Cuthbert didn't train on Tuesday as a precaution. He made one or two tremendous blocks at Yeovil last weekend and one of those produced a little bleed on the inside of his knee. He then took a small knock on it again in training, so we thought it best for him not to train on Tuesday but he should be fine for today's game.

SWINDON TOWN 2 OXFORD UNITED 2

The Liddington
Puma Alliance League Cup

A late equaliser from midfielder Abdul Said secured a point against local rivals Oxford United, with former Plymouth players Dan Evans and Seb Broomfield both coming off the bench for their first competitive appearances for Swindon.

Swindon took the lead after 20 minutes when Billy Bodin lifted the ball between two U's defenders, burst into the penalty area and scored with a powerful left foot drive from 16-yards. With Swindon not taking their many chances Oxford equalized with a tremendous strike from 30-yards which left Callum Antell no chance in the Swindon goal.

The game was a real battle in midfield where first year scholar Abdul Said had to be at his best along side second year scholar Mark Hartman. Midfielder Josh Parsons had to leave the field on 35 minutes due to a back injury and was replaced by fellow first year Matt Clark. The scoreline stayed the same up to half-time where both sides needed the half-time rest after the fully committed performance.

The second half started brightly with the young Robins almost scoring within 20 seconds after a quick counterattack down the left resulted with striker Jordan Record scrambling the ball across the Oxford goal-line only to see the ball come back from the far post and cleared to safety. The Under 9's, 10's, 14's and 15's made the trip to the South Coast with the other age-groups hosting The Cherries.

The Under 16's played Calne Under 18's on Wednesday 2nd September which was a good fixture and it presented the opportunity for our lads to play under lights and to play against stronger players. Our lads made a good start and passed the ball well, racing into a 3-0 lead. Calne got back level and after we went ahead again - they equalised. Unfortunately we missed a penalty in injury-time and the score ended up at 4-4.

On Saturday 5th September the Under 16's took on AFC Bournemouth and were soon 3-0 down, which was a complete turnaround from the scoring on Wednesday evening. The coaching staff then changed the formation and there were good

The game was to continue in the same way with the Oxford rearguard and goalkeeper doing everything in their power to stop the ball going into their net.

Captain Will Evans took an injury to his ankle and had to be taken off and X-Rayed after the game which showed a small fracture in his big toe. With time ticking on and only minutes remaining Oxford had a free-kick just inside their opponents half where the ball was played out to the right wing and a cross delivered into the 6-yard box wasn't cleared and driven into the back of the Swindon goal for what appeared to be the winning goal. Swindon kept driving forward until the final-whistle and with almost the last kick of the game Abdul Said received a throw in from midway inside the Oxford half. He then turned sharply and unleashed a right-footed shot which sailed into the top right hand corner for a late, but deserved equalizer for the home side.

performances from Ben Whitehead and Darren Jefferies, with Darren capping a Man of the Match display with a fine 25-yard strike. Ben Whitehead then added a second and Tommy Stockwell hit the winner in injury-time. It was certainly a game for the neutral, but the players need to cut out the simple mistakes.

The Under 9's got off to a good start with a 3-2 victory. Connor Hibbs, pictured left, scored two on the day. The Under 10's also won 3-2 and the Under 14's won 1-0. The Under 15's lost by the same scoreline although midfielder Jake Bateman deserves special praise for a good performance.

The Under 11's won 4-2 with a good team performance and Billy Aldrich played particular well. The Under 12's drew 2-2, with the U13s winning 3-2 which saw Kalum Youngsam grabbing the winner.

This weekend the Under 9's to Under 16's play Oxford United and I am sure these will be a keenly-contested set of fixtures! Look out for reports and pictures in the next home programme.

Enjoy the game this afternoon.

Football in the Community: News round-up

Today we would like to welcome Mark Abbott and his Fairford Town Under 12's who are our first Saturday Team Club visitors for the 2009/10 season.

We hope Mark and his team have a great experience with us today and witness a Swindon victory! We are taking bookings for the rest of the season so if you feel your team, school or club would like to experience this unique matchday opportunity then please do not hesitate to contact the Football in the Community Trust Office on 01793 421303 or email admin@stfc-fitc.co.uk

Our after school clubs start back in earnest from Monday which will see 700 up and coming future stars attending this ever-popular project in Swindon schools and neighbouring Towns and Villages around Wiltshire. This project has been running for many years with us being involved with many schools throughout the county. If you think your school would like to set up an after-school club then have a word with your teachers and get them to contact us on the above number or email address.

The last course of the summer holidays was a fantastic experience for everyone involved. Over 200 participants were treated to a great three days of half-decent weather with lots of fun had along the way. On the Thursday we were delighted to welcome Town striker Billy Paynter as our special guest. He did a fantastic job with the ever-popular question and answer session and Billy received some severe stick for his allegiance to the Blue side of Liverpool! One or two of the recipients of the awards were donning Liverpool shirts, which proved hard for Billy to deal with! On a serious note our sincere thanks go to Billy Paynter and the rest of the STFC first team squad who have taken part in our summer courses. With their support, it sets us apart from other coaching organisations in the Town. Player presence is a huge bonus for the community scheme, the children and the parents. We would also like to thank Marie Saunders for her help with photography and player organisation.

MIKE THANKS THE TEAM

Swindon Town Football in the Community Chairman Mike Spearman has paid tribute to the Town community staff following the silver accreditation award by The Football League Trust for their work in the local area.

The scheme, which is a registered charity, saw Town's Community department receive £48,000 to be invested into community activities.

Mike said: "During my twelve years as Chairman of Swindon Town Football in the Community, I have watched the scheme grow and grow. From a gentle start it has now become one of the finest in the Football League and for this I would like to record my deep appreciation for the work of Clive Maguire and Jon Holloway.

"They both work with enthusiasm, dedication and lead from the front. Their staff therefore find it easy to support them and I thank the staff for that support.

"This must endorse my recognition to Jon and Clive. Both of them are a credit to Swindon Town Football Club and to themselves."

In total, silver awards have been given to 11 clubs in the Coca-Cola Championship, 13 in League One and seven in League Two.

1 New Signing - Grantham-based Town fan James Bryden emailed in this photo of his son, Joshua. Aged four and a half months old.

2 High Times - Tim Westcot made sure he packed his Town shirt for a trip to the Space Surveillance Systems Observatory at 10,023 feet, at the top of Mount Haleakala Volcano, on the island of Maui.

4 Barca Boys! - Two Junior Robins managed a snap with the Champion's League Trophy! Joshua Hinds, wore his Barca shirt whilst 11-year old Lewis Hinds took along his Town shirt to Barcelona.

5 Liam's A Red! - Sue Webb sent in this snap of her nephew, Liam Wardell, who now has his first Swindon Town kit aged six months old!

6 In The King's Wood - James Watkins swapped College Road for the Rift Valley recently with a spell teaching at Gogar Primary School in Rongai, Kenya. James also took over a set of old Swindon kit.

The STFC Supporters Club

After last weekend's win at Yeovil I am sure everyone is looking forward to today's game and a chance to establish our top six spot.

The half-time draw winners for the Southend United match were:
V Baxter of Swindon who won £386 with ticket number 1008 and K Townsend of Swindon who won £42 with ticket number 372.

Although we went out of the Carling Cup at Wolves I think the supporters that travelled there deserve a real pat on the back for the atmosphere they produced and for keeping it going throughout the match. I am sure that this had some bearing on the performance of the team on the night.

IMPORTANT DATE!

The AGM will take place on Saturday 17th October in the Legends Lounge at 11.15am ahead of the match against Hartlepool United. For further details please visit our website.

We regard every supporter as part as the Swindon Town family and there are many who deserve mention but today I am including the first part of a feature on Derek Elston as he moves towards a unique event of 1500 CONSECUTIVE matches watching the Town, a milestone to be reached at the next home game against Wycombe. Derek is a Supporters Club member and lives in Northampton - which makes the run even more remarkable with every home game almost like an away game for him! Here is a little more about Derek's time supporting the Town.

An interview with Derek Elston

What is the first Town game you recall?

It was an away fixture at Brisbane Road against Leyton Orient. The game was towards the end of the season and was a not very enthralling and ended in a 0-0 draw.

How close have you come to missing a game?

I was due to go into hospital for a cartilage operation on December 15th 2007, Town were at home to Brighton. I rearranged the appointment and they sent me a new date for the procedure. The new date came through as Tuesday 4th December, the same day as Carlisle away! I decided to try for another cancellation but was informed that I would have to wait indefinitely. I was out of work at the time and needed to get the operation carried out so that I could get myself back to work. I was not happy! My wife then made the fatal mistake of volunteering to drive me to Carlisle should I be discharged in time. We agreed a cut off time of 2.30pm and when I had not gone down to the theatre at 10.00am I was resigned to missing the match.

I went down to Theatre at 10.45am and came round on the ward at midday. My first question to the nurse, when can I go home? I was informed that I had to drink, eat something and keep it down, get up and walk and use the toilet before I would be considered for discharge. I secured my release at 1.45pm and rang home then collected and chauffeured to Carlisle and back by my super heroine, but I was also informed that this would be a one off never to be repeated gig! She had already dropped me at the hospital at 6.00am completed a days work and still had to start at 6.00am the next day!

Two former Swindon players will face their old club when Town make the trip up the M5 in next weekend. Jamie Vincent returned to Walsall after a three-year spell with Swindon and has claimed the left-back slot for the Saddlers. Sam Parkin will also be a familiar face to Town fans and the front man is now leading the line for the home side. Parkin will hope to impress against his former club whilst Swindon supporters will no doubt look forward to seeing 'Super Sam' in action.

The mane event

03.10.09 3pm

Town will open their October fixture list with a home clash against Kenny Jackett's Millwall. Always lively affairs, The Lions saw Jermaine Easter sent off in the corresponding game last term. Jack Smith, who claimed a goal for Swindon against Millwall on that day, will return to The County Ground for the first time after his summer switch. The defender was one of Town's longest-serving players before being released by Danny Wilson in the summer.

League One Round-Up:

Tranmere Rovers suffered their fifth straight defeat on the spin with a 3-0 reverse at Carlisle United last weekend. John Barnes also saw his side fail to score for the fifth consecutive fixture as goals from Joe Anyinsah, Danny Livesey and Ian Harte secured a second home win of the campaign for The Cumbrians. Elsewhere Huddersfield Town were 3-2 winners at MK Dons with Theo Robinson amongst the scorers at stadiumMK.

Simeon Jackson – who scored an opening day hat-trick against Swindon – took his goal tally to seven for the season with a brace against Exeter City.

FLYING THE FLAG

Town's line-up at Yeovil Town last weekend included four Scottish-born players. Gordon Greer (Glasgow), Scott Cuthbert (Alexandria), Simon Ferry (Dundee) and Jon-Paul McGovern (Glasgow) all played their part in the win at Huish Park. Craig Easton (Bellshill), Lee Peacock (Paisley) and goalkeeping coach George Wood (Douglas) complete the Scottish contingent at The County Ground.

Important information:

In the event of an emergency at The County Ground you will hear a police message over the public address system. It will be preceded by a loud 'alarm' sound. Please remain where you are, listen to the message, and if it affects your area of the stadium, comply with the instruction immediately. These will direct you to a safe area, through exit gates and doors into car parks, roads or the pitch area. If you are disabled or feel unsafe in a large crowd, please remain where you are until the stewards assist you to leave. Above all, REMAIN CALM and DO NOT MOVE unless the announcement concerns your area of the stadium.

THE LAST WORD:

with...

Alex Revell

What was the LAST thing you bought?

A nice pair of white Vans trainers from Bluewater.

Can you remember the LAST goal celebration you laughed at?

It's quite funny to see a few players copying the Usain Bolt celebration, where he raises his arms to the sky. Perhaps someone will do it here soon! That's the new thing.

What's the LAST thing you do before a game?

I use vapor rub so it's just putting that on the top of my shirt to help with my breathing during a game.

Who did you make your LAST phone call to?

The Wife, to talk about things here at Swindon.

When was the LAST time you paid to see a game?

I went to see Cambridge United take on Torquay United in the Play-Off final in May. Cambridge is one of my former clubs so I went to see how they got on with a few friends.

Tell us about the LAST flight you took and where was it to?

It was actually my honeymoon and we went to Singapore and Bali and had a great time. Both are really great destinations and I'd recommend them to anyone.

Who was the LAST celebrity you met?

Frankie Dettori came to my wedding – does that count?
