Good afternoon and welcome to The Den for the final time in the regular season.

As we expected, a rollercoaster ride of a campaign has come down to the final day where any one of five teams can win promotion to the Championship. It has been a fantastic advertisement for lower league football and hopefully Bristol Rovers can do both teams a favour and beat Leeds.

Of course, that won't mean a thing if we can't overcome a Swindon side who have surprised everyone to go into this game level on points with The Lions. Could this game be any more exciting?! The players are going to need every one of you to help them across the finish line so make sure you raise the roof this afternoon.

If promotion aspirations can be put to one side briefly, the club are delighted to announce that the youth team have won their league and we have all the coverage and reaction from that brilliant achievement.

Not only that but our feature interview is with Lions chairman John G. Berylson who talks about his love for Millwall and why it has been a challenge he has relished since taking over the club.

Elsewhere, we follow The Lions' progress in the last three games against Huddersfield Town, Leyton Orient and Tranmere Rovers, while Danny Wilson and Gordon Greer join us to discuss all things Robins.

We need three points to have any chance of automatic promotion this afternoon and you can all make a big difference.

Sing your hearts out and enjoy the match,

FROM THE DEN

ANOTHER CHANCE TO HELP

Joining us this afternoon are volunteers holding a bucket collection for the London Taxi Benevolent Association for War Disabled. Formed at the Bedford Arms, Fulham, on February 27th 1948, its object is to help the War Disabled in hospitals and at home, in London and the Home Counties, by providing entertainment, outings and much needed specialised equipment. Year after year, drivers and committee members give their taxis, time and services to provide outings, entertainment and support for ex-service men and women disabled from the First World War to current conflicts.

They depend wholly on donations, the generosity of London Taxi drivers and the many unpaid volunteers without whom the charity could not continue to benefit those veterans to whom we all owe a great debt of gratitude.

Millwall supporters have been brilliant so far this season in raising money for charity, please show how generous we are once again.

STAY OFF THE PITCH

Whatever the result, for the sake of the club, your fellow supporters, the team and our future, please stay off the pitch throughout and at the conclusion of the match.

Provided nobody comes onto the pitch, we will be bringing the players back out after the match to acknowledge your tremendous support throughout this season.

Tomorrow, 9th May, there will be an auction held in aid of Yorkshire Cancer Research.

Held at the John Evelyn Pub in Deptford from 7pm, prizes on offer include a signed Millwall shirt.

Why not head down to lend your support.

40 NOT OUT

Congratulations to Les "Bye for Now" Withers (Pictured with Grandson Jack) on completing 40 Seasons as the Voice of Millwall.

From all your family and friends and all at Millwall FC

MARQUIS TO SIGN

Young Player of the Year John Marquis is set to signed his first pro contract with The Lions. John, who has spent the latter stages of the season on a work experience loan at non-league Staines Town, where he bagged six goals including a hat-trick against Thurrock, has also featured regularly for the reserves and youth team this season.

He will join fellow striker Kiernan Hughes-Mason in making the step up to the professional ranks.

AND THE WINNER IS...

Congratulations to right back Alan Dunne who has scooped the coveted Player of the Year Award.

Dunne, aided by a string of fine performances and two brilliant goals against Colchester United and Walsall, beat off competition from Steve Morison and Neil Harris.

At approximately 2.10pm, a bit earlier than is traditional to allow the players to get fully focused on rather an important game this afternoon, we will be presenting the awards on the pitch.

While some of you were fortunate enough to attend the Player of the Year dinner on Wednesday, the vast majority will wish to add their appreciation to some of the players who, at various levels, have contributed to an exciting season.

ALAN MARTIN

Alan (MILLWALL) Martin

Kenny JACKETT

I would like to start by welcoming everyone to The Den this afternoon for our final League game of the season against Swindon Town.

It's unbelievably tight at the top of the table with five clubs still having a mathematical chance of finishing in second position if results go their way.

The points total to get into the top six is very high and shows you the quality that is needed to get promoted to the Championship this year.

Last Saturday at Tranmere was disappointing as we were caught by a team and a crowd who were fighting for their lives at the bottom of the table.

We were the better side early on and missed some key chances before going behind against the run of play to a dubious penalty. Ian Thomas-Moore could easily have been booked for diving, but the referee saw it his way and it gave Tranmere a goal and something to hold onto.

Towards the end of the game I thought we lost our composure and could have performed better as we went chasing the game. Clear cut chances still fell to Lewis Grabban and Jon Obika while we also had a worthwhile penalty appeal turned down following a foul on Gary Alexander.

Unfortunately the result ran away from us and now we have to concentrate on today's game.

I would like to welcome Danny Wilson and everyone from Swindon Town for what will I am sure be a top class match with a great atmosphere.

We want to put on a performance and gain a result this afternoon to keep the pressure on Leeds United.

If by the end of the game that is enough to take us up automatically then great. If we finish in the Play-Off positions then we want to go into them with as much momentum as possible as we try to go one better than last year and achieve championship status.

All we can do today is focus on our job and come away with the win that we want.

Your support will be vital in achieving this as we all work hard to make home advantage tell.

The players are made aware of working hard to form a bond with their fans and we know this is done by always giving of their best and playing well.

This bond will need to be there today as we all need to pull together to achieve our goal of getting the three points.

Last but not least I would like to congratulate the youth team on winning their league last weekend. It is a terrific achievement by Scott Fitzgerald and the players and one that will, I am sure, stand us in good stead for the future.

Enjoy the game and get behind the boys,

Kenny.

CAPTAIN'S COLUMN

What a weird day this is. We go into this afternoon's game knowing we can finish anywhere from second to sixth, but we can't worry about anything other than what happens here over the 90 minutes. We have to win our game to give us a chance of automatic promotion, and if we do that and Leeds slip up we'll all be celebrating.

If Leeds beat Bristol Rovers, good luck to them, but if that's the case we want to go into the Play-Offs full of confidence after a good performance and a victory against a side we might yet play again.

One thing is certain, you cannot take anything for granted. You would expect Leeds to win, but they have struggled at times in front of their own crowd, and the pressure will certainly all be on them. What we must ensure is that if they don't win their game we're in pole position to take full advantage.

What we do know is that Swindon have also had a great season and have a prolific strikeforce in Billy Paynter and Charlie Austin. I'm relishing the challenge of playing against them and hopefully keeping them quiet on the day. The fact that they can also claim second spot with a win just adds extra spice to the afternoon and it will certainly be exciting.

I'm sure the crowd will be listening for scores from elsewhere which will add to the atmosphere as cheers and groans go round the ground. It will be difficult not to hear that sort of thing, but we will just stay focused on our own job. If we lose concentration that could be costly.

Putting the situation in context, at Christmas we would have been pleased at the prospect of reaching the Play-Offs. We are now guaranteed that outcome so we should go into this afternoon with the view that we have nothing to lose and potentially everything to gain.

Before The Lions' London derby with Leyton Orient a fortnight ago, Millwall were pleased to announce CYC's continued sponsorship of the club but also remind the footballing community of the charitable nature of our supporters.

Kicking off proceedings, Tony Fry, Nicky Hayes and John Sinclair from our main sponsor CYC (above) celebrated agreeing a new three-year deal with Millwall that will see them continue their successful association with the football club.

The Millwall Knights of Ne (below), fresh from their 10-mile walk on St Georges Day, took to the field to present Karen Bain of Help for Heroes, accompanied by serving soldier Alfie Bain and Lions trio Liam Trotter, Alan Dunne and Tony Craig, with a cheque for £5,600, a superb effort from the Knights.

Zampa the Lion, joined by his counterpart from east London Theo the Wyvern was then presented with not one but two cheques from young Lions fans who had raised money

Former Lion Nicky Johns (below) took centre stage with Zampa and Theo. Nicky was at The Den game handing out leaflets to raise awareness about bowel cancer, having sadly lost his son to the disease.

Finally, Pete Dacres from Millwall's Community Scheme (below right) received a cheque for £2,000 on behalf of the Millwall Anti-Racist Trust.

DANNY WILSON

OPPOSITION SWINDON TOWN

Every season, there always seems to be one team that comes from nowhere to either sneak a Play-Off place or win promotion. Leicester City and Blackpool are both fulfilling the role of 'surprise package' in the Championship. Aldershot have come from nowhere to sit in the League Two Play-Off places and Birmingham City, with a bit more luck, could have been dreaming of Europe next season. In League One, you need look no further than Swindon Town.

A 15th place finish last season and the introduction of big clubs like Charlton, Norwich and Southampton meant that not many expected anything from The Robins, as manager Danny Wilson admits. "I think we are the surprise of this division. The fact that there are so many quality squads in this division meant that I don't think we were in that category of promotion contenders, so I would say we are something of a surprise package."

Indeed, Town held the poison chalice that is second place in early April only to then lose it after a 3-0 defeat to Colchester United. "We had it for one week and lost!" recalls Wilson. "But if we manage to take it come the end of the season that would be excellent and I certainly won't be complaining! It's a difficult one to put your finger on why teams can't seem to hold on to second place. Obviously it does come with a little bit more added pressure when you are in that position with so many games to hang on to it."

The Robins are one of a number of clubs you could say are a 'Championship club in League One', having graced the Premiership not so long ago. Wilson remains confident that that fact won't distract them from what needs to be done first. "Obviously when you take over you look at all aspects of the football club and certainly when you look at the history and the background of the club you could say that yes Swindon are potentially a Championship club, but there is a lot of work still to do on and off the field to make that a reality. There are aspects of the club that need improving if we want to go up and sustain our status as a Championship side and as I said, there is a lot of work still to do in that regard, we're not there yet by any stretch of the imagination. But we will keep knocking on the door until we get that opportunity."

Today will prove a fitting end to what has been a season of ups and downs for both clubs and there will be more than one anxious glance at the Leeds game throughout the 90 minutes. Wilson though has enjoyed the competitiveness of League One. "It has been very entertaining this year. There are some quality teams in there, big clubs with big players and it has gone all the way to the wire in determining certain clubs' futures. Where most people were thinking two or three sides would walk away with the top two places, it has not been the case. I have to say that Norwich have done brilliantly to get themselves in a promotion position and then become Champions so quickly because I thought it would go down to the last few games to be honest. But the rest have been about right I think. There are a lot of quality sides and no one has really run away with it and that has made it very exciting."

The gap between the Championship and League One is dwindling and not because of a lack of talent but because there is more of it coming through. From non-league right through to the Championship there is a bit more quality breaking through.

That has been what has helped the likes of Leicester and Scunthorpe stay up. They have added a bit more to their squads because it's a tough league and they have had to. But it gives us all hope that if we are fortunate enough to go up, we are capable of staying there.

If anyone would have offered this scenario at the beginning of the season, particularly after the 5-0 defeat on the opening day, we would have snatched their hand off. We are going into this game as underdogs and we aim to enjoy it. We have enjoyed ourselves so far and have put in a lot of hard work over this season. There is an opportunity to go into the last game of the campaign with something to play for so it will be a fantastic day for everybody."

If Swindon are to be promoted today Wilson is well aware they face a stiff battle this afternoon. He has locked swords with The Lions on more than one occasion over his career so is in a good position to know what to expect. "I know what everyone has known for years and years and years. Millwall are a fully determined, well organised team under Kenny Jackett. There will be a very vociferous crowd and it will be a very tough place to come and play as it always is. Millwall's expectation levels have always been high which might help us to relax a little bit because sometimes it can be a bit of a hindrance. But we know what we will face and I'm sure it will be a very tough test for us."

GORDON GREER

After helping Swindon Town avoid relegation at the end of the 2008/9 season, Scottish defender Gordon Greer has been a key component in The Robins' rise to the Play-Off spots.

Having made his move from Doncaster Rovers permanent in the summer, Greer was handed the captain's armband by Danny Wilson and was charged with leading Swindon up the table to compete in the upper echelons of League One. Not many outside of the County Ground believed Town could match the likes of Charlton, Leeds and Norwich, yet here they sit comfortably in the Play-Off places - not that Greer is surprised. "Considering the season that we had last year you could definitely say we are dark horses," he admits. "We just about avoided relegation and I think a lot of people tipped us to be down there again. No one has expected us to do as well as we have done. But within the dressing room and the club behind the scenes, we felt we could do something this year so we are pleased with our form."

Greer's side have come a long way since an opening day thumping at the hands of newly-promoted Gillingham. But, just like Norwich, it proved a catalyst for a surge up the table, with The Robins gaining a measure of revenge over The Gills with a 3-1 win along the way. "It was a bad day for us. We didn't play well at all. But the team we put out today is totally different to the one that faced Gillingham that day. We have earned a few 1-0 wins away and had some impressive results against Leeds and Southampton. I don't know why we seem to get so many one nils. We do our best in every game and whatever is put in front of us we just try to go out there and win the match."

Swindon have been one of a handful of sides, along with Millwall, who have found holding on to second spot easier said than done this term but Greer is adamant that it's not just second spot that has afflicted teams this season. "I think it is the whole league

CHARLIE AUSTIN

DAVID LUCAS

is like that to be honest. It is a really tough division where anyone can beat anyone. In my spell here last year when I was on loan, Swindon - who were down the bottom - were going to top sides and giving them a game. We drew one each with Leicester for example. I just think that anyone can take points off anyone in this league. We drew with Exeter 1-1 recently who are down the bottom so the quality is there in every team, which makes every game difficult."

However, what does make life a little easier is having strikers in red hot form and in Billy Paynter and Charlie Austin, Swindon boast not one but two of the leading strikers in the division. Whilst headlines continue to be written about former bricklayer Austin's meteoric rise to prominence from Poole Town, it is perhaps the emergence of a rejuvenated Paynter that might please manager Wilson most.

A promising talent at Port Vale, Paynter's career stalled during spells at Hull City and Southend United. But this season, Swindon's faith in him has reaped rewards and he has 28 goals to his name so far. Centre back Greer is just happy to have both of them in the side. "I'm delighted for them. Since Charlie came into the team and forged the partnership with Billy they have scored bags of goals together. It's been great for the players who are out there with them because thanks to their goals, we have been gaining good results. I'm not sure why they clicked so quickly. From day one they worked really hard together. It is great for the rest of us when you see your front two working hard for the team and getting goals as a reward."

Behind the front two are players who know League One inside out and Greer is well aware of the impact the likes of David Lucas, Craig Easton and Kevin Amankwaah, amongst others, have had. "As I said, it is a tough league to get out of so you need players who have competed in this division for a few seasons. We have the likes of Jon-Paul McGovern, Michael Timlin and Jonathan Douglas who have all played at this level as well for a number of years.

We have also had a number of loan players and it is good to see some talented youngsters here. Simon Ferry has done well in midfield whilst Danny Ward has scored some goals and Alan Sheehan has performed brilliantly all season. He has played in this league and higher so he has been a good player to have around. The manager has used the loan market to good effect but then so do most teams at this level to boost their squads."

Greer is one of a number of Scottish players at Swindon and that has helped him. He in turn has been required to assist another Scot settle in alongside him at centre back. "It's good to have Scott Cuthbert at the back with me. We are actually from the same area of Glasgow and he went to school with my younger brother. Scotty has done really well since he arrived from Celtic. We have a good partnership going as well. There are about five Scots in the squad and of course the banter flies around. But it's great and it's a good club to be at. Hopefully we can keep going, stay together and stay focused for 90 more minutes."

JON-PAUL MCGOVERN

Whatever the outcome of today's game, Greer knows that it is another obstacle in the way of what Swindon are trying to achieve. And if October's clash at the County Ground is anything to go by, it could be an interesting one. "That one was a bit heated! We had Jonathan Douglas sent off early on and you had a man sent off as well. It was a tough game and I think a point overall was a fair result. It wasn't a great football match and hopefully we can come down and do well against you this afternoon.

All season, whatever has been put in front of us we have tackled head on and we have done our best in every game. We take each one as it comes, I know that's an old cliché, but all week we have concentrated on Millwall. Hopefully it will be a good game with two great sides going for the win."

AT A GLANCE

Huddersfield Town gained a measure of revenge for their 3-1 defeat here at The Den back in September with a narrow 1-0 win that saw Millwall's promotion push stutter. Peter Clarke rose highest to nod in from a corner but despite the best efforts of Jon Obika who hit the bar, The Lions failed to pick up crucial points.

JACKETT'S JUDGEMENT

"I thought it was a tight game and one we should have got something out of. We've got to pick ourselves up for the last three games and aim to take nine points out of nine.

"We'll see where that takes us and hope it puts pressure on the teams around us. I'd also like to beat our points tally from last season. We got 82 last year and we've got 79 now, so we're nearly there."

When John Berylson was asked recently what had enticed a successful American businessman who already had sporting interests Stateside to throw in his lot, and his money, with a London based football club in the third tier of the English league, he replied: "I've been asked that question numerous times, and I'm not sure I ever come up with the same answer twice." »

JOHN G. BERYLSON

Looking back now, you sense that he genuinely cannot quite recall what motivated him to become involved with Millwall. Certainly the sense of adventure, his sporting fanaticism, and his relish for a challenge were factors. What he did not envisage back in 2006 was that The Lions of SE16 would become a passion that would become entrenched in his heart and soul, and indeed that of several members of his family.

"I first invested in the club back in November of 2006," he recalls. "At that time things were not looking all that bright on or off the pitch.

In the January of 2007 we brought in Neil Harris, Chris Hackett and Dave Brammer I believe, and under Willie Donachie we pulled clear of relegation and actually finished the season quite well.

My first game, though, was at home to Leyton Orient, when Gary Alexander scored for them in a 5-2 defeat for Millwall. I remember saying to a couple of friends who were with me, 'This team looks valueless and is no fun to watch.'

I remember at the EGM in March 2007, Nick Hart from the Lions Trust asked me that question about why an American who knew nothing about English football was taking over the club. My answer on that occasion, which still holds true, was 'You should be happy that I'm here, because for me losing sucks, and I'm determined that we're going to make Millwall successful.'

The pledge I made to the fans, who obviously didn't know me and were understandably suspicious, was that I would leave the club, whenever that is, in a healthier state than it was when I arrived. Three years on, we have made significant progress towards that and we have plans to keep moving in the right direction.

That run of good form towards the end of 2006/7 earned Willie the right to try to get the team competing at the top end of the league the following season. »

IF IT'S THROWN AT THE PITCH, IT HITS THE CLUB. HARD.

Millwall has been reported for items thrown onto the pitch more than any other club in the leagues.

The FA take it seriously - the penalties can be severe. We can be fined, forced to close sections of seating, or even have points deducted.

Help us stop it.

Our expectations were that we could reasonably become a top 10 if not a top six outfit that next year, but sadly we made a poor start, and after a 4-0 defeat at Carlisle the decision was made to part company with Willie and seek another manager.

For myself, I was still very much on a learning curve in terms of managers, players and the game in general, but with the board we drew up a shortlist of likely candidates, assessed their strengths and weaknesses, looked at their track records, and it immediately became apparent to me that Kenny Jackett should be our number one target.

It took a number of phone calls to Kenny to persuade him to meet with me to discuss the job. The fact that there had been a bit of a revolving door at Millwall with chairmen and managers over the previous years meant that I had to convince him of my commitment and vision for this club. Once that meeting took place a deal was done within a couple of hours.

My first year or so at Millwall was hard going. I couldn't just enjoy the football because so much of my time was taken up protecting the club and myself financially.

The difficulties we had with certain shareholders have been well documented and have still to be fully resolved, but we have moved forward as a company and at the same time, the team under Kenny has improved significantly.

Finishing in 17th spot after taking over a struggling team in the November of 2007 was a fine achievement by Kenny, and that summer we sat down and thought, 'right how can we do better.'

We strengthened the squad by bringing in the likes of David Forde, Tony Craig, Gary Alexander and Jimmy Abdou, and the goal we set ourselves was to reach the Play-Offs.

At one stage it looked like we might be capable of doing even better than that, but we suffered one or two key injuries, notably to Paul Robinson, and eventually finished fifth and went into the Play-Offs on the back of some patchy form. »

Beating Leeds in the semi-finals was a great effort, but at Wembley in the final we made one or two mistakes and in the end Scunthorpe beat us for the third time. I took the view that if you've been beaten three times by a team over the season that makes them better than you. Should we find ourselves in the Play-Offs this time I take comfort from the fact that we won't face Wycombe and have nothing to fear from anyone else!

I believe we did suffer a bit of a hangover from that Wembley defeat. That combined with some more injury problems early on this season meant we started more slowly than we expected.

However, I knew many things were now right about this club, Kenny, the management team, the players, and indeed my own knowledge had become significantly greater.

The decision making process in terms of the players and the team has become streamlined and effective with Kenny and Andy Ambler taking the lead supported by myself along with the board.

I felt the turning points of the season were the draw at Charlton before Christmas and then the win at home to Bristol Rovers at the end of December. We were still some 20 points behind Leeds, but I was confident then that we would reach the Play-Offs and predicted the season would come down to the last game. It looks like I was right.

Back at the start of my time here, I expected us to lose, and celebrated draws as if they were wins.

That has changed now. I expect us to win every game. I expected us to win at Leeds. I expected us to beat Norwich at home, after which their directors told me we were by far the strongest team they had played.

Having seen all the other sides in this league there is currently nothing I would change about our team. Whether we are promoted automatically or have to face the Play-Offs, we are good enough and have the basis of a team that could compete in the Championship."

So what of the future for Millwall and football in general?

"The game in this country still has serious issues that need to be resolved. English football must put its financial house in order, and in my opinion adopt a version of what happens in the States and elsewhere so that the free spending without thought is stopped. We need to regulate how much clubs can spend and how much players can earn.

The good news for Millwall fans is that we do not have a penny of debt owed to any bank. We are not under threat from anyone.

All the debt is with the shareholders and the majority of that is with me. I have not taken a penny of interest out of the company and all the security of the club and The Den is mine. A Crystal Palace situation will not happen to us.

Going forward, we have already signed up the majority of our core players on new or extended contracts and if promoted we would bring in perhaps three key additions. If we remain in League One we might still add to the squad.

I am superstitious so I am not going to make predictions about what might happen if we get into the Championship.

What I will say, though, is that we will continue to make sustainable progress. Our ambition will not end there, but we will not risk the stability of the club by reckless spending. We will build a strong squad which ultimately will enable us to challenge at the top end of that division."

So is the chairmanship and enjoyable experience for John these days?

"I'm having a great time now. I like a great deal about this club, the management, players, coaches, staff, and especially the fans.

Millwall now has quite a following in the States, particularly in Boston, and I'm looking forward to seeing that grow in the coming years.

"But most of all what I'm looking forward to is seeing this club becoming more successful and winning more football matches."

LIFE'S A PITCH

with David Hall

Oggy Oggy Oggy

There's no need to reply to this Welsh call. It's just my way of drawing your attention to the strange phenomenon that is the scoring of own goals.

Today's opponents, like ourselves, have been fortunate recipients of an own goal or two this season. In addition, Steve Morison, perhaps needing a bigger challenge than that posed by Charlton keeper Rob Elliot, took on David Forde with some success against The Addicks at The Valley.

However, I can't seem to work out why there have been so many own goals this season, not just in League One but in every division of English football.

Has it been because of a change in the football being used? Maybe, but surely that would have accounted for a lot more goals of a strange nature. There have been quite a few goalkeeping gaffs which might be explained because of a different ball, but own goals? Probably not.

Maybe it's the quality of defenders, although I can't see why this should be the reason either, as that would mean there would be a lot more goals scored, either own goals or regular ones.

Maybe it's the man with the football remote control, who moves around from ground to ground trying out this wonderful invention. [All right I'm kidding but you get the point].

Of course no season goes by without its fair share of own goals, but this season seems to have produced more than most.

So you can take your pick as to what the reason is, but, if there's one scored today anywhere in League One, I just hope it goes in our favour.

Turf War

Everyone and his dog has been complaining about the Wembley pitch recently and no matter where you look, nobody can come up with the answer as to why it is in such bad condition.

I don't care what they do with it. I'm not bothered whether it stops us getting the World Cup or any other game played there in the future. All I ask is that if we have to play there on 29th May, we don't suffer because of it.

Cash Drop

If money has something to do with getting promoted, then it will be even harder to break into the Premier League if the clubs there already get their way, which they almost always seem to do.

Not happy with the two-year parachute payment clubs relegated from England's top flight currently receive, now they want to make it four instalments - £16million for the first two years and £8million for the further two.

It gets closer to a closed shop every season.

Demotivated

Can somebody tell me why a referee or his assistant who makes a couple of bad decisions in the Premier League is demoted to a lower league instead of being dropped from the list for a while?

Are the rules different there or does making the correct decision not matter so much?

ROBINS ROUTED

by Dave Sullivan

Amongst our oldest adversaries are Swindon Town, one of the founder members of the Southern League back in 1894. It was during that initial season of 1894/5 that Millwall thumped The Robins 9-0, but today I will concentrate on two other routs of The Robins by The Lions at The Den.

It was at the conclusion of the 1895/6 campaign, in which Millwall claimed their second Southern League title, that The Lions finished in fine style, trouncing a luckless Swindon side, who once again found themselves on the end of another nine-goal drubbing. They did, however, manage to breach Millwall's defence on one occasion this time around.

The score at the break saw The Lions up 2-1, but there was no indication of what was to come. The Swindon defence had coped reasonably well against the Millwall forwards after Charlie Leatherbarrow had given Millwall the lead on 10 minutes.

Almost immediately, however, Swindon were back on level terms when Jimmy Hayward equalised, but The Lions regained the advantage through skipper Alf Geddes.

And so it stood at half-time, with the crowd oblivious to the feast of goals they were about to witness. An explosive start to the second period saw Leatherbarrow complete his hat-trick with two quick goals to make it 4-1.

The catalyst for Swindon's downfall was the free-spirited outside-right Mickey Whelan, whose exceptional performance saw him help himself to a well-deserved goal. Millwall's

LEATHERBARROW (L) AND

flowing football showed a touch of arrogance as they secured a fifth, when the elegant Whelan netted following a corner.

Swindon's shattered and beleaguered defence were found wanting again as Joe Gettins registered the second hat-trick of the game to make it 8-1, before Geddes added a ninth.

Mickey's 'Man-of-the-Match' performance was highlighted at the end of the game when the fans swarmed onto the pitch to bear him aloft back to the dressing room, and no wonder as five of his excellent centres had led to Millwall goals.

Eighty-four years later, The Robins visited The Den in early March 1980 to face an inconsistent Millwall in a season that had been full of Jekyll and Hyde performances from The Lions. After losing 1-0 at Mansfield in the previous game, Millwall now needed to win their next two home fixtures against Swindon and Sheffield United to put them back in the promotion race.

The encounter with Town saw Millwall set about the visitors as they launched a barrage of non-stop attacking football to win by six goals to two. Just like Mickey Whelan all those years before, it was another outside-right, Tony Towner, who inspired his team to success, and in doing so, gave Swindon's left-back David Peach a torrid evening.

'Tiger's' threat began as early as the 10th minute when his excellent cross found the head of Tony Tagg to open the scoring. Swindon had a great opportunity to draw level when Mel Blyth handled in the area 13 minutes later. However, Blyth was mightily relieved to see his former Palace team mate John Jackson save Ray McHale's spot-kick. The miss was to prove very costly for the visitors and in the 22nd minute Bobby Shinton cashed in on Billy Tucker's error to lob home The Lions' second.

But Swindon rallied, and within a minute they reduced the arrears when Jackson missed a Derek Mayes cross to allow Andy Rowland to hook home his 22nd goal of the season. Millwall's response was instant and effectively put the match out of Swindon's reach. 'Tiger's' effort on 37 minutes went under goalkeeper Jimmy Allan's dive and a minute later Shinton was on hand to head home Johnny Lyons' deep cross for a 4-1 interval lead.

A foul on Tony Kinsella allowed Lyons to exquisitely curl in a free-kick beyond Allan for Millwall's fifth after 62 minutes, before Swindon got their second through a John Sitton own-goal in the 71st minute. Millwall's sixth arrived when a short-corner routine found Shinton in space to supply the centre for Lyons to tap home from close-range.

NEW ARRIVAL!

What a great middle name that is! Leo was born in early April and we are told he is already dreaming of Millwall's leaping Lions jumping into the championship either automatically or via the Play Off final way!

SAM MASSON DOES THE MOONWALK

MSC Committee member Sam Masson is once again (her third time!) embarking on a marathon walk to raise money for a good cause and would like your support. Sam tells us about it:

"Yes I am mad and yes this is my third Playtex Moonwalk. It's a 26.2 mile power walk around the streets of London and yes you've guessed it... in my bra. I don't think I will ever learn!

This year it will be held on Saturday 15th May 2010 at midnight smack in the middle of the Play-Off dates (hopefully we won't be in them) so if you are about it would be great to see fellow Lions and Lionesses on the route.

Training has been great fun so far, walking up to four times a week in some crazy weather. I am currently up to 16 miles and only have two more long distance walks before I can relax for two weeks.

I am aiming to beat my time of six and half hours that I managed last year. In fact, last year I was very surprised at my time as I was looking to finish in seven hours. So this year it will be hard to beat but I will give it a good go.

I am walking on behalf of everyone who has lost or who has been touched by breast cancer.

Please, please, please dig deep and sponsor me.

Believe me your money makes such a difference and without you, this would not be possible.

Donating through Justgiving is quick, easy and totally secure. It's also the most efficient way to sponsor me. Walk The Walk Worldwide gets your money faster and, if you're a UK taxpayer, Justgiving makes sure 25% in Gift Aid, plus a 3% supplement, are added to your donation.

So please sponsor me now either through my online page www.justgiving.com/samantha-masson or come and find me on match days at the blue bus."

DOUBLE CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to sisters Charlie and Frankie Davis.

Frankie will be celebrating her 21st Birthday on 24th May and big sister Charlie is expecting her first baby (another Lion cub) around the same time. Hope you don't kill me for the photo's girls! - Daddy

FRAMPS KIT SPONSORSHIP RAFFLE

In case anyone was keen to find out who won the raffle we were holding recently for Andy Frampton's kit sponsorship package, including the VIP day at today's match, the winner was Paul Saberi from the Cold Blow Lane End. Paul was very happy to win the raffle and decided to take his father along for the package much to the annoyance of his Lions-supporting sister Leigh who had lent him the money for the raffle in the first place...or so she says!!

The MSC is independent of Millwall FC although we are in regular consultation with the club. #### AT A GLANCE

Millwall returned to winning ways with a much-needed victory in the last London derby of the regular season against Leyton Orient. The Lions were rewarded for their patience on 70 minutes when Paul Robinson drilled in from eight yards, before Scott Barron was sent tumbling by Adam Chambers following Gary Alexander's brilliant pass. Up stepped Steve Morison for goal number 20 and despite a late Ben Chorley header, Millwall held firm for the three points.

JACKETT'S JUDGEMENT

"I'm delighted with the win. It was hard-earned because Orient were resolute and defended well.

Our objective was to win a local derby and keep the pressure on the teams above us.

Our captain scored a vital goal for us as he has the ability to do but now the focus is on Tranmere away which is a tough one."

With Leeds losing at Charlton, Millwall blew the chance to retake second place as Tranmere Rovers did their survival chances the world of good with a 2-0 win at Prenton Park. Ian Thomas-Moore proved their talisman once again with a penalty before on-loan Leeds man Andy Robinson rescued his parent club with a stunning second.

JACKETT'S JUDGEMENT

"I was disappointed today. I didn't think we played very well.

We've now gone to Yeovil, Huddersfield and Tranmere, which were three key games and we haven't done enough.

The first half was probably our best spell and after their goal we really ran out of ideas, it's a big frustration."

YOUTH UPDATE

Millwall's U18s were crowned Football League Youth Alliance South East Conference champions following a comprehensive 3-0 success at rivals Southend United.

Scott Fitzgerald's charges pipped Brighton & HA for the title, and will be aiming to sign off the season in style with an away win at Wycombe Wanderers today.

This was a cagey and tense first half in which both teams, due to the magnitude of the match, worked hard to not give anything away.

The early stages of the match saw Millwall exerting pressure on the home defence but some fairly robust defending and blocks kept The Lions at bay.

Fitzgerald's side forced several corners and free-kicks around the Southend penalty area during this period but resolute defending denied them any breakthrough.

Hassan Jannneh, Jimmy Rogers, Kamil Tevfik and John Marquis all had good efforts on goal blocked whilst Southend's best chance came when an over-hit cross into The Lions' area clipped the crossbar.

Millwall had a good claim for a penalty kick on 20 minutes when Connor McLaren was brought down in the Southend penalty area only for play to be waved on.

Connor French saw his low drive pushed away for a corner following good work by Kiernan Hughes-Mason and Rogers. In Millwall's next attack Hughes-Mason watched his 20-yard strike curl away from the goal after a knock-down into his path by Marquis.

Millwall's persistence finally paid off after the break.

There were 62 minutes on the clock when a quick Rogers free-kick picked out sub David Adedipe, who in turn held off his marker and steered the ball past goalkeeper Dan Bentley with the help of a slight deflection just five minutes after entering the fray.

Whereas the first half had been an evenly fought contest, the second period was definitely swinging Millwall's way.

Minutes after the first goal Grant Ludford let fly with a left-footer which fizzed over the bar but the best was still to come.

On 78 minutes Tevfik broke up an attack in the middle of the park and played the perfect pass that Marquis took in his stride, then shrugged off his marker and fired a low drive past the keeper and into the far corner of the net.

Less than 60 seconds later Lions goalkeeper Jamie Farmer made a vital save from George Smith, thus denying Southend a real chance of getting back into the match with 10 minutes still to play.

The game was effectively sealed in Millwall's favour on 83 minutes when Tevfik's drive had too much power for keeper Bentley, who was unable to prevent the ball crossing the line.

The Lions could have added to their tally in the dying moments when substitute Aiden O'Brien went close with two chances.

MILLWALL U18s

The Millwall Youth side will receive their Youth Alliance trophy and medals at half-time today.

Football League Youth Alliance

A goal in either half handed Millwall's youngsters all three points in this derby clash.

It took just three minutes for the hosts to take the lead, David Adedipe cashing in on a loose ball after O's keeper Jack Giddens palmed Aiden O'Brien's shot into his path.

The O's rallied, and home keeper Jamie Farmer was at his best to deny Musa Manneh on 25 minutes. Farmer was at it again early in the second period as Orient pressed for a leveller. The woodwork also came to The Lions' rescue, leaving Harry Beautyman frustrated. O'Brien then shared his agony after his shot thumped the crossbar.

With ten minutes remaining, The Lions made the points safe in fortuitous circumstances. When a Millwall attack was cleared, the ball fell to defender Luke Mathias who headed back into the danger zone. As it fell, an exceptionally high bounce fooled Giddens and the ball sailed over his head and into the back of the net.

Team: Farmer, McLaren, Mathias, Rogers, Beckles, Goodman, Adedipe (French, 51mins), Janneh, Ofoche (Stevenson, 86mins), O'Brien, Ludford (Tevfik, 73mins). Subs not used: Bartlett, Kingsmill.

Millwall and Leyton Orient's reserves fought out an entertaining 1-1 draw at the Calmont Road training ground.

The Lions featured Gary Alexander, Ashley Grimes and Ali Fuseini in their line-up along with a number of youngsters who benefited from the experience of mixing with the senior players.

Orient enjoyed the better of the opening exchanges with John Sullivan forced to make a smart stop early on and Phil Stevenson a couple of timely tackles.

The visitors took the lead on 27 minutes, though with a fine lob by George Porter from an Elliott Omuzusi flick on.

Connor McLaren then cleared off the line from Omuzusi and Harry Baker fired just wide as The O's looked for a second.

However, Millwall levelled on 39 minutes when Alexander's cross from the right was turned into his own net by Omuzusi.

The Lions were much more forceful after the break and Kamil Tevfik almost scored straight after the restart with a 20 yard drive that was clawed away by Glenn Morris.

Young substitute Aiden O'Brien might have won it on a couple of occasions, forcing a fine save from Morris and then shooting just wide.

Millwall: Sullivan, McLaren, Mathias, Fuseini, O'Connor, Stevenson, Sammouris, Tevfik (Adedipe), Alexander (French), Marquis (O'Brien), Grimes.
Subs not used: Farmer, Richards.

ZAMPA'S LONDON MARATHON – MISSION COMPLETE!

Post Marathon Report

"The aches and pains are all gone now, but the memory of two weeks ago will last forever. I finished the London Marathon 2010 in 5 hrs and 17 mins. Unfortunately I didn't set the record for the fastest marathon as a mascot of 4 hrs 30 mins, but I'm still very proud and happy with my achievement. I did beat Stamford The Lion and other mascots by over an hour as well!

It was extremely tough, much harder than my training prepared me for, and I got a bad stitch early on and had it for the whole route, making breathing even more difficult - I think I drank too much water. The highlight of the race was the last 100 metres, which I danced.

Overall, it was an amazing experience and the support was incredible from Millwall and non-Millwall fans alike, especially through Deptford, Surrey Quays, Jamaica Road onto Tooley Street, Canary Wharf and Embankment. It was a very disorientating run, and even though I was in pain most of the way, I'd consider it again! There were people everywhere, which did make it uncomfortable at times, nearly overwhelming. At one stage we had to stop in Greenwich because of the crowds! I got interviewed by the BBC going around Canary Wharf, which was a bit funny, as when the interviewer asked how I was doing, I told him 'I'm dying!'

The messages of support on Facebook have been fantastic, so please keep following me on there and adding any photos you have of me."

Final Fundraising

"We raised just under £11,000 which is an amazing effort, so thanks to all of you for your generous donations. Neil Harris donated £1,300 from his testimonial fund, and the Baker family in Box 9 donated £1,000. We raised over £2,500 from the sale of the special blue/white wristbands, and another £1,000 from the bucket collection at the Leyton Orient game. Young Tom Hodges and his school mates raised £872 and another young fan, Jonathan Hatchman, raised £200. The efforts of these individuals are massive and will make a real difference to Everyman's research and campaign work into male cancer. The rest of the money has come from Millwall fans donating online and family and friends of myself and my running partner Stuart Lenton. It wouldn't have been possible without Stuart, who was especially great during the marathon, encouraging me all the time and he only left me after 21 miles!

If you would like to find out more about Everyman and their work with the Institute of Cancer Research, go to www.everyman-campaign.org

Thanks again and keep cheering on Millwall!"

COMMUNITY

NEWS

ANOTHER GREAT YEAR!

The final community programme notes of the season give us the chance to look back at all that we have achieved over the last year. Even so, as the football season draws to yet another exciting conclusion, at the Scheme, we are gearing up for a very busy close season with the World Cup and school summer holidays fast approaching.

Kickz Awards 2009 Hope Stephenson, Faye White and Robbie Earle

The past season has been an eventful one for everyone involved with the Scheme. In footballing terms, we have seen transfers out, a new arrival and further success at Wembley. In September, Coach Education Manager Kay Cossington left us to take up a role with the Football Association, and in December Scheme Director Loo Brackpool headed for pastures new with the Football League Trust. Back in June of last year, Dean Watson joined the team as Sports Development Manager and has been a valuable addition to the squad.

Under Dean's stewardship, our Sports Development Team of Jason Henley, Paul Wycherley and Alex Zurita have gone from strength to strength. Our schools coaching programme is now delivering around 70 sessions in 25 local schools each term and is helping over 1,000 children weekly to access a range of sports and activities that provide them with the opportunity to develop their skills, improve their health, and support their learning. Our holiday programmes continue to grow, with more than 150 young people attending Soccer Schools and Multi-Sports Camps every day of the school holiday periods, whilst there is an ever increasing demand for our Cubz Kickers programme, which is aimed at toddlers aged 3 to 6 years. Since Kay's departure, Dean has also overseen coach education alongside Education Officer Dan McLoone, and this programme has flourished with over 500 people achieving an accredited coaching qualification during the year.

The Millwall Anti Racism Trust has also enjoyed a successful year, establishing the 'International League' that has given adults from a range of ethnicities and backgrounds the opportunity to take part in regular competitive 11-a-side football fixtures throughout the season. In addition, the Trust Development Manager, Marc Elliot has worked closely with Community Sports Coach Dan Cheshire to expand the delivery of activities for children and adults with special needs through the Every Player Counts programme, which has reached more than 500 users during the year. The programme has developed specialist activities for people with Autism, and will be expanding further to include football activities for wheelchair users and the blind and partially sighted over the next year.

Our Social Inclusion programmes also continue to go from strength to strength: with young people attending the Millwall Kickz project being recognised in the national Kickz Awards ceremony held at Wembley Stadium in October. We have received local recognition for the Millwall Street Pro programme that takes place at seven venues in Southwark each Friday evening, completing a 10th year of funding for the Positive Futures programme in Lewisham, a range of other programmes that include weekly football activities targeting men aged 35 and older, and mother and daughter exercise sessions. In all, the Social Inclusion Team - Richard White, Peter Dacres and Kelly Handley - oversee more than 80 hours of free to access activities for adults and young people across Lewisham and Southwark every week.

In addition to this, the Lions Centre hosts activities for more than 1000 users each week, and the Scheme is entering an exciting period with many new programmes coming on board for the next year which will highlight further the importance of the work we do within our local community. These include programmes to support unemployed young people who aren't in education or training, offender management programmes, an anti-knife crime campaign, a community development initiative in central Lewisham and activities for older people.

Since 1985, with the support of the club and other partners, the Community Scheme has been helping the people of Lewisham and Southwark to develop their potential, and I am extremely proud to be at the helm of such a prestigious organisation as we move into our Silver Anniversary year and begin to lay the groundwork for the next 25 years of success. Here's to the future.

JUNIOR

LIONS

Welcome Junior Lions to our last league game of what has been a terrific season! Who would have thought that going into the last weeks of the campaign we had a chance of going straight up? Hopefully the boys can finish the job this afternoon and we can all start the celebrations early!

Congratulations to Steve Morison, this year's Junior Lions Player of the Year, Steve gained over 60 per cent of the votes and was a worthy winner after bagging 20 goals in his first season in a Millwall shirt. Runner up to Steve was attacking midfielder Danny Schofield, who has also had an excellent first season at The Den. Two young Junior Lions, Lily Till & Thomas Dickinson had the honour of presenting the award to Steve at the Player of the Year dinner.

It is the last game today for two of our regular ball girls, Robyn Poore and Laura Jones, who are now 16 and no longer eligible for the Junior Lions. We would like to thank them for all their hard work over the last few seasons.

Finally, I would like to welcome Sharon and the Junior Robins to Millwall this afternoon. They always have time for us Lions when we go over to their ground and it is good to see them at the top of the table alongside us. Hope you enjoy your stay at The Den and have a safe trip home.

Get behind The Lions in our final push and enjoy the game,

TERRY

After the London Marathon, where plenty of Millwall fans were running for different charities and organisations, we would like to mention the fast-approaching Race for Life. Lots of Junior Lions and older Millwall fans will once again be doing their bit for charity. Among those running is Abby Egglestone and the Junior Lions are proud to make a donation to Abby's charity. Good Luck to all those taking part!

TODAY'S MASCOTS

Joining us as mascot this afternoon is 11-year-old Lions fan Aaron Frith.

Aaron attends Harrietsham School in Kent and plays for his local side Lenham Wanderers in midfield. He loves watching Millwall play and hopes to emulate his heroes Neil Harris and Steve Morison by donning the blue shirt one day. Enjoy the game Aaron!

What better way of showing your support for the team next season than by sponsoring one of the players or members of the backroom staff for next season?

Kit Sponsorship is an ideal opportunity to identify with one of your favourite players, whilst at the same time promoting your company name or personal message. There are some fantastic benefits to be had including:

- Your message will appear in every matchday programme
- A VIP day out for two at The Den for a home game of your choice (subject to availability)
- The opportunity to meet your sponsored player at the match
- A replica shirt will be signed and presented - there and then - by your player
- A photograph of the presentation to follow

If you're interested in sponsoring a player, or simply wish to discuss further information then please contact Nicolle Barber on 020 7740 0501 or email nbarber@millwallplc.com
