- the manager -

TONIGHT we are back in league action and it's a very important game for both clubs. Our fans have been fantastic all season and we need another great atmosphere under lights tonight as we look for another league win.

LAST Saturday we were without match action again with the Barnet game being postponed. It was disappointing as we would liked to have played the match but the cold weather conditions and the state of the pitch at Underhill made that impossible. I always want to take the positives from any situation and it's great that we were able to train at the weekend. We didn't give the squad time off with such an important game coming up against Crawley and we went to Croft to train on the 3G surface.

Several games did go ahead at the weekend in League 2 and several results went for us. Southend won against Rotherham United on Friday night which was good in terms of our league position and Hereford held Cheltenham at home.

Tonight we are back in League 2 against Crawley Town. They are a very good side and beat Cheltenham 4-2 last week, and beat Hull City in the FA Cup recently. They have proved they are a good team and they have won their last few games which will give them a lift coming into tonight's game. A lot has changed since we last played Crawley back in September. Their team has changed a lot and we have made a few changes to our side too. They are one of the best sides in the league at the moment so I am curious to see how the game goes this evening.

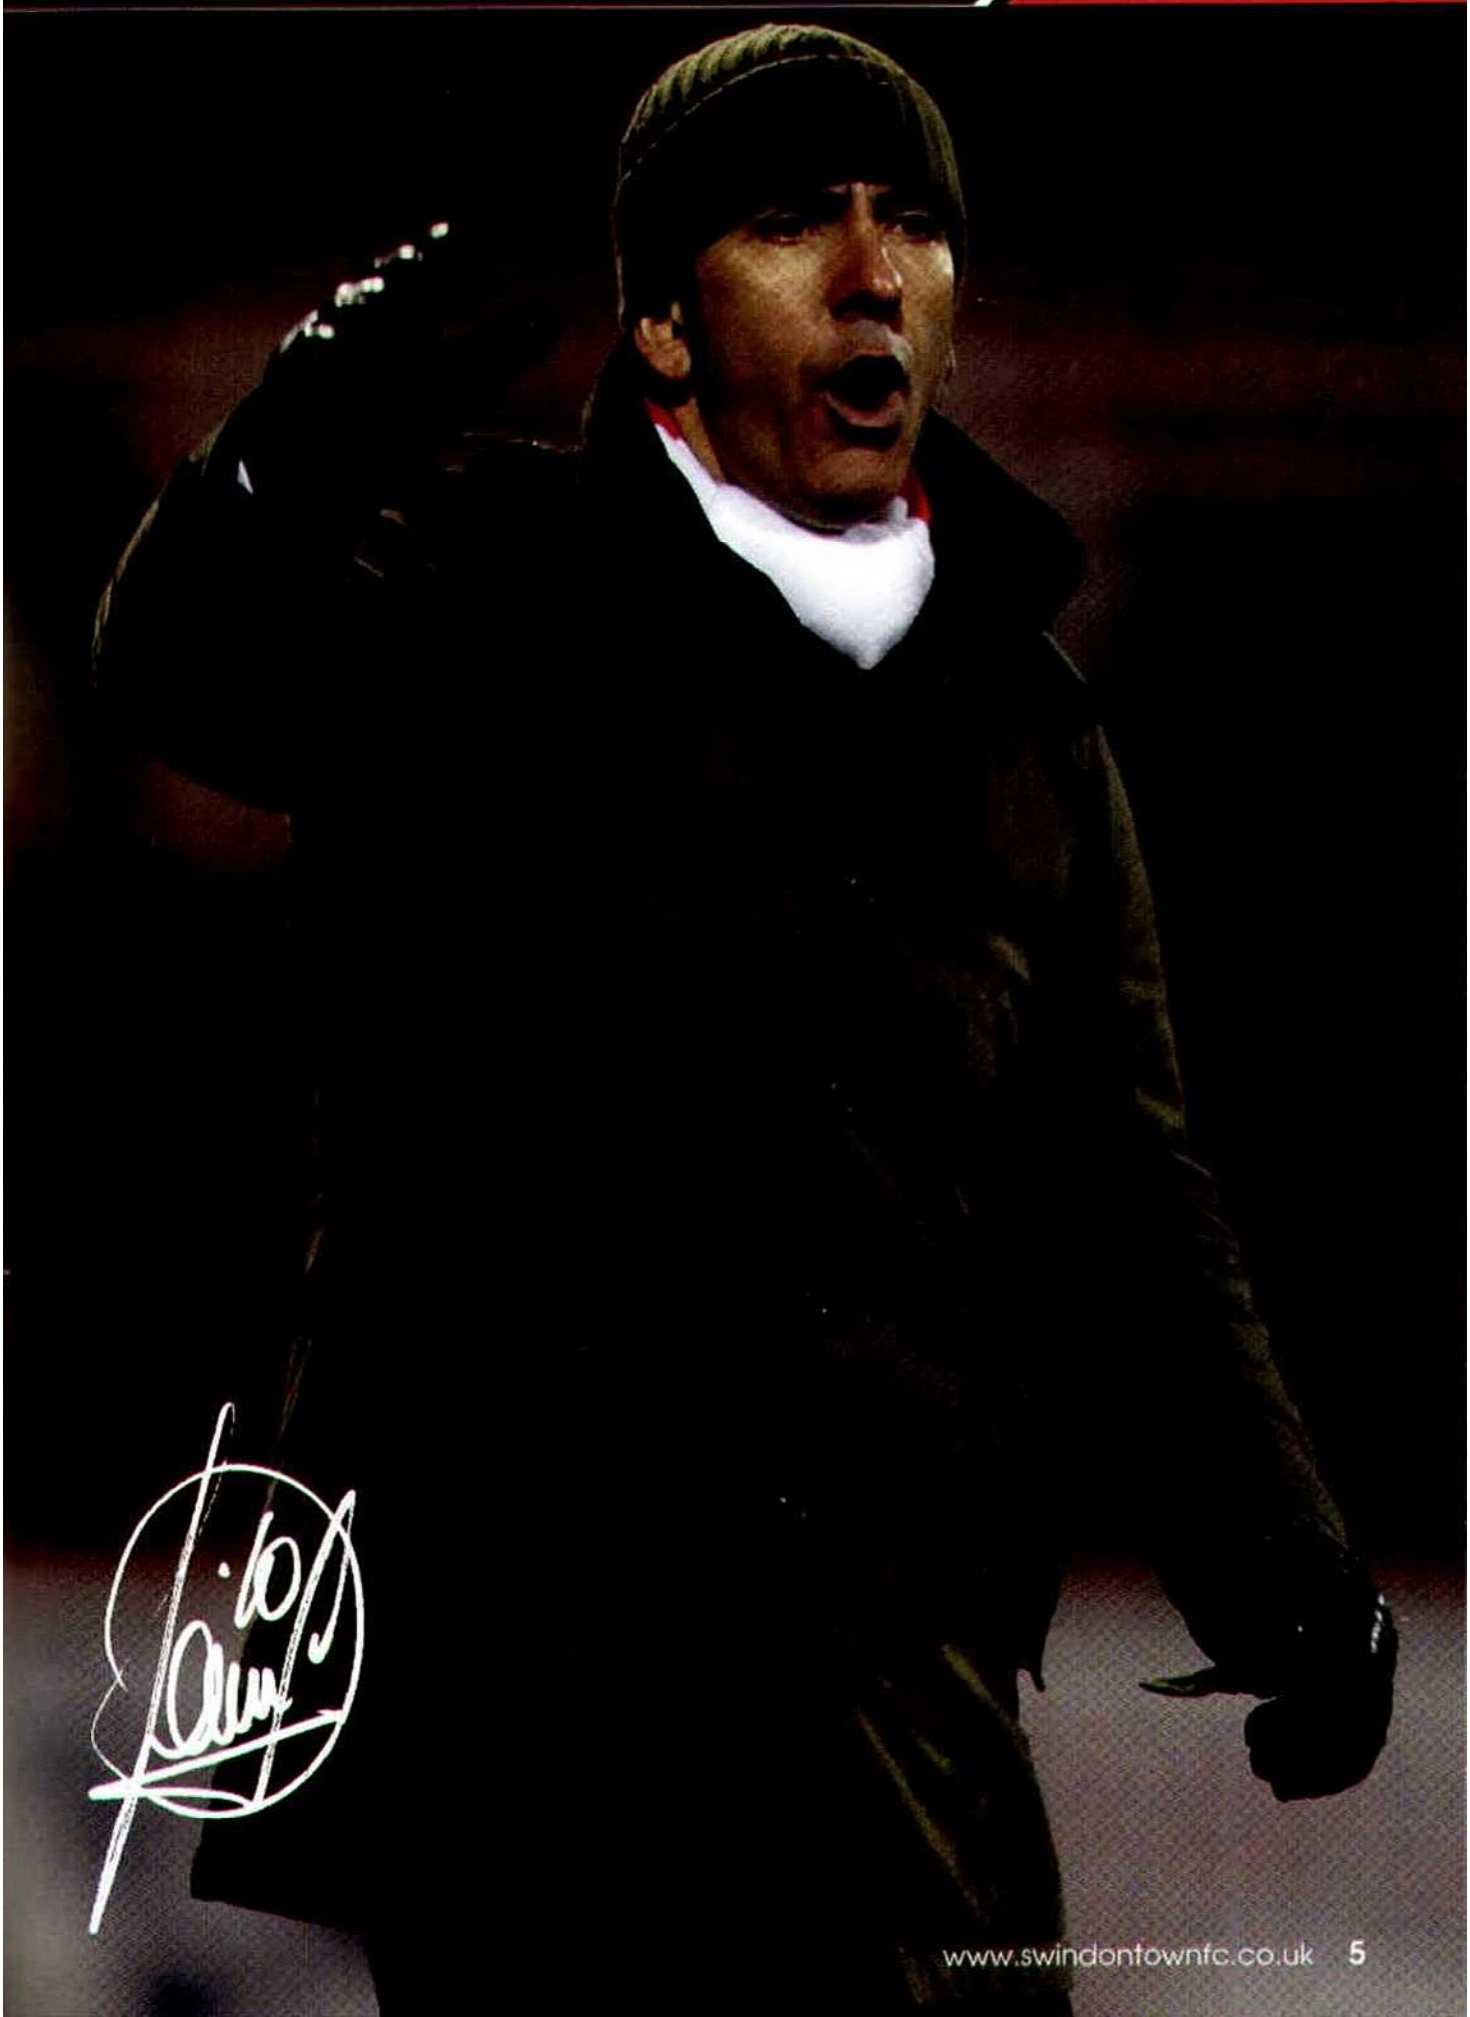

I have been given a two-game touchline ban by the FA and will have to watch the game from the stand this evening. I am not happy about the ban, but my players know their jobs and are strong enough to continue to play football in the right way. They are warriors and I have faith in them.

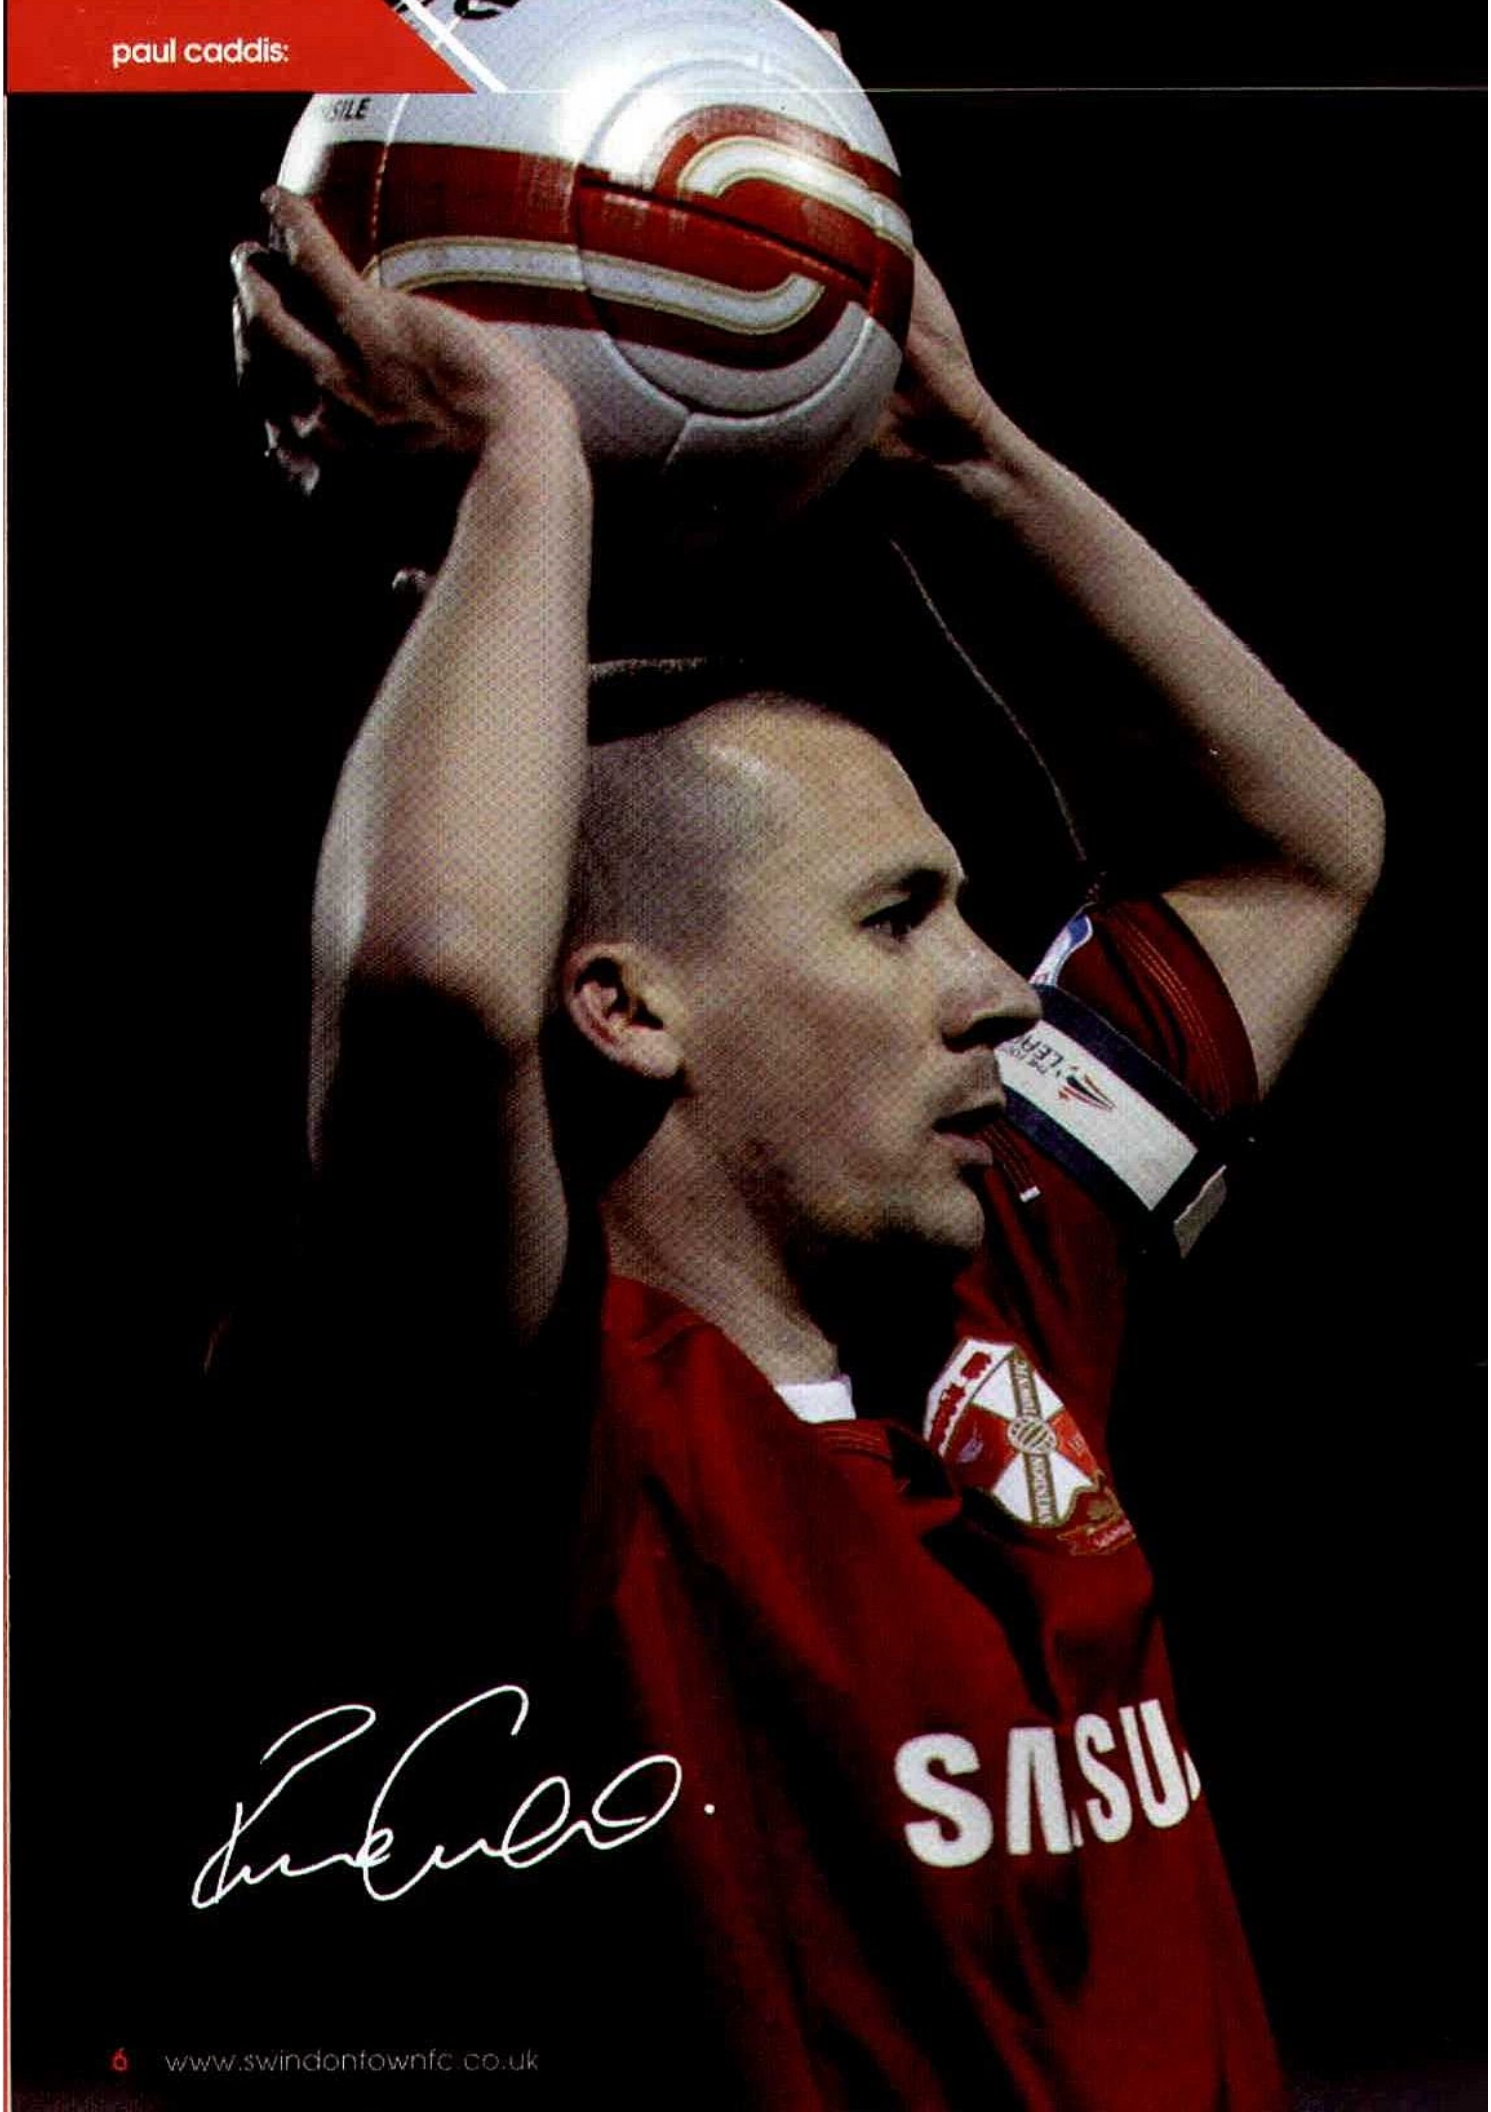

"Results have gone well for us over recent weeks and hopefully our home form and the way we play football can help us to victory tonight."

The league is very tight at the moment and that adds to what will be an exciting evening for the fans and players of both clubs. We have a chance to go above Crawley and that should give everyone at the club a lift. Results have gone well for us over recent weeks and hopefully our home form and the way we play football can help us to victory tonight.

Our supporters have a big, big part to play from now until the end of the season. Everybody has to give more - the fans, players and even myself as a manager. There is so much to play for and the atmosphere against Barnet was fantastic. Hopefully we can put in another performance to make sure have another amazing atmosphere in the stadium.

TONIGHT we host Crawley Town for a game that fans have been looking forward to for a while. We come into the game in good form and tonight the challenge is to register another important three points with the promotion race getting even more competitive after a weekend of surprises.

I must start by thanking each and every supporter who came along to the Barnet game seven days ago. The support we had on the night was absolutely magnificent and on behalf of all the players, thanks for such great backing. The noise levels inside the ground were great and despite feeling that we should have scored a few more goals, everyone was delighted to have reached the Johnstone's Paint Trophy Final. However, that game will not be played until the end of March and although it's a good achievement, we must put that to the back of our minds and concentrate on league duties until Wembley comes around.

On Saturday our league game at Barnet was called off which meant another weekend without football. This run of games being off isn't something I have had previously in my career. We knew on Friday that the game would be off so we were training over the weekend to prepare for the Crawley match.

I was talking through the amount of games we play the other day with someone and the game against Barnet last week was my 38th of the season. In the SPL there are only 36 games a season so the schedule has been pretty hectic here. That's not to say I'm disappointed with it, far from it. I am happy that I am playing so many games and hopefully I can play in every one between now and the rest of the season.

Tonight we face a Crawley Town side that have been a bit up and down this season. They have done well recently in the FA Cup and the league and they got a good win against Cheltenham Town last week. We will not be over confident and will show them respect, but each and every one of our players believes we are a better side than Crawley. We beat them 3-0 at their place back in September and hopefully we can do the same again now we are back at The County Ground. However, words don't mean anything without backing them up on the field with the kind of performance we all know we are capable of.

Our build-up to the game has been good and we are all focused on securing another win ahead of Saturday's away trip to Hereford United in League 2.

> "The support we had on the night was absolutely magnificent and on behalf of all the players, thanks for such great backing."

town shortlisted

SWINDON Town's 'Swindon' has been shortlisted for Best Matchday Programme at the Football League Awards 2012.

THE Robins will come up against five other Football League clubs for the Award, having made the final shortlist following judging by a panel of industry experts.

The club programme, simply named 'Swindon', offers supporters unique player content and behind-the-scenes exclusives as well as extras such as Collect-A-Cards, four perforated player cards covering current and former players. An emphasis on social media means the use of QR codes within the programme helps direct supporters to the club's official Facebook page, where discussions and further content is available.

When assessing the category, judges looked for excellence in design, use of imagery, features, innovation, value for money and overall content in match programmes from the 2011/12 season.

The full shortlist includes:
Brighton & Hove Albion - Seagull
Burnley - Claret & You
Huddersfield Town - Give us an H
Notts County - The Mag
Swindon Town - Swindon
Torquay United - TQ1

John Nagle, Head of Communications at The Football League, said: "For many supporters matchday programmes are an important part of the matchday experience. The standard was extremely high again this year with clubs, both big and small, producing terrific publications - I wish all of the nominees the best of luck on the night."

This year's Football League Awards sees a total of 17 awards with the winners being announced at the gala ceremony at The Brewery, London on Sunday 11 March 2012.

Michel Kuipers...

DUTCHMAN Kuipers ended a ten-year career with Brighton & Hove Albion in July 2010 to sign a one-year contract with Crawley and quickly established himself as first choice goalkeeper. After serving with the Dutch Marines and playing for DWS Amsterdam, he came to England to play professionally with Bristol Rovers before joining Brighton in 2000. The goalkeeper has now been ousted by Scott Shearer, with his last game for Crawley being the 3-0 defeat to Swindon in September.

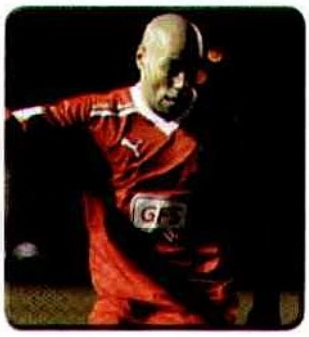

Hope Akpan...

MIDFIELDER Akpan joined Crawley Town in June 2011 from Premier League Everton. He made his competitive debut for the Toffees in a Europa League tie and was on loan with Championship outfit Hull City at the end of the 2010/11 campaign. He scored and was later sent off on his Crawley debut.

Josh Simpson...

SIMPSON arrived at Crawley during the January transfer window after completing a transfer from Peterborough United. He left the Posh during the summer for a successful loan spell with League 2 Southend United before Steve Evans snapped up a player he has long admired. An England C international capable of playing wide or in central midfield, he became a regular towards the end of the title-winning season. He has been skipper in the absence of Pablo Mills.

Karl Hawley...

AN experienced frontman, Hawley joined Crawley on loan until the end of the season in January 2012 from Notts. County. The 30-year-old had been a regular for the Magpies this season, scoring five goals in 31 appearances, before heading to West Sussex. He has made more than 300 appearances in a career stretching back 12 years.

Shooting boots

FOLLOWING the departure of 17-goal top scorer Matt Tubbs to AFC Bournemouth, Tyrone Barnett is now the top scorer at The Broadfield Stadium. Barnett has 15 goals to his name, including a double in the 4-2 league win over Cheltenham Town last Tuesday evening.

Sunday showdown

FOLLOWING a promising run in the competition last season, Crawley are still in this season's FA Cup and host Stoke City at The Broadfield Stadium on Sunday 19th February. Manager Steve Evans travelled to Craven Cottage to see Stoke play Fulham on Saturday and will see them in Europa League action this Thursday ahead of the game.

Last time out

THE last meeting between Swindon and Crawley came in September 2011 with the Robins running out 3-0 winners thanks to a goal from Alan Connell and a double strike from Mehdi Kerrouche, who recently joined Oxford United on loan.

steve evans

EVANS took charge at the Broadfield Stadium in May 2007 and less than four years later he had become a Conference-winning manager with two different clubs.

He joined the Reds from Boston United, who he had led to two promotions during his time with the Pilgrims, the second to the Football League in April 2002. He led Boston to the Conference title, pipping Dagenham and Redbridge on goal difference on the final day of the season.

After leaving Boston during the summer of 2002, he returned to York Street in March 2004 with the Pilgrims languishing in the lower reaches of the League Two table. He led United to their best-ever finish of 11th in League 2 in the following season, 2005-06.

Following Boston's relegation in 2007 he and his assistant Paul Raynor resigned from their positions at York Street and moved to Crawley Town.

Evans began his playing career with Bolton Wanderers, but he soon moved back north of the border to play for Clyde, Ayr United and subsequently St Johnstone and Albion Rovers as a midfielder although he was forced to give up playing at the age of 28 after suffering a cruciate knee ligament injury.

In 2010 he launched Project Promotion and has built a squad which took Crawley to the Football League for the first time in its history and to the fifth round of the FA Cup.

SWINDON Town can enhance their hopes of a top of the table finish with victory over Crawley Town this evening. Here are the views from inside the Robins camp in the build-up to the big game...

Wes Foderingham

GOALKEEPER Wes Foderingham is hoping to continue Town's good home form at 'fortress County Ground' against Crawley Town.

To help the cause, 21-year old Foderingham kept another clean sheet seven days ago as the Robins secured their place in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy Final, and the Robins return to League 2 action with promotion rivals Crawley Town the opponents this evening.

Foderingham said: "Three points against Crawley would be massive given the proximity between the two teams. Our home form has been very good this season and we want that to continue.

"I didn't play at Crawley in the game earlier in the season but they have done well and our concentration levels will have to be right up there."

Alan McCormack

DEFENDER Alan McCormack is looking forward to tonight's encounter with the promotion race hotting up at the top of League 2.

The 28-year old Irishman is expecting another tough test against the Red Devils, who have established themselves as top contenders and are hoping to complete back to back promotions.

He said: "Crawley have been right up there for most of the season. We beat them at their place and we want to do that again at The County Ground. They have proved they can go away to teams and win, such as Hull the other week in the FA Cup.

"We will play football against them and not employ the long ball game that a lot of teams in League 2 do. We want to show them that we are the best footballing team in this league."

FANS' FACEBOOK MATCH PREDICTIONS:

Martin Di Canio Carpenter: 2-1 to Swindon!

Calvin Hothi: A tough game but we will scrape through 2-1 with Benson and Rooney scoring for us.

Charlotte Townsend: I think it will be 3-1 Swindon, with Rooney, Ritchie and Connell on the scoresheet.

Katie Dowdeswell: 1-0 Swindon... Good Valentines present!

Robbie Hendry: 2-1 Swindon.

Referee: Mark Haywood

Fact: Tonight's referee has taken charge of Swindon Town and Crawley Town once before this season. He took charge of Swindon's home encounter with Oxford United back in August and Crawley's home clash with Bristol Rovers a month later.

CRAWLEY Town, like Swindon, were without a game at the weekend after their fixture at home to Aldershot Town was called off due to the weather. Here are the thoughts from tonight's visitors...

Steve Evans

CRAWLEY Town boss Steve Evans is looking forward to a match up with Paolo Di Canio this evening with 'a very important' three points at stake in League 2.

Evans, who watched Stoke City in action at Fulham on Saturday ahead of the forthcoming FA Cup meeting at Crawley, saw his side lose 3-0 to the Robins in the reverse fixture at The Broadfield Stadium back in September. Promotion is now a clear target for both of tonight's teams.

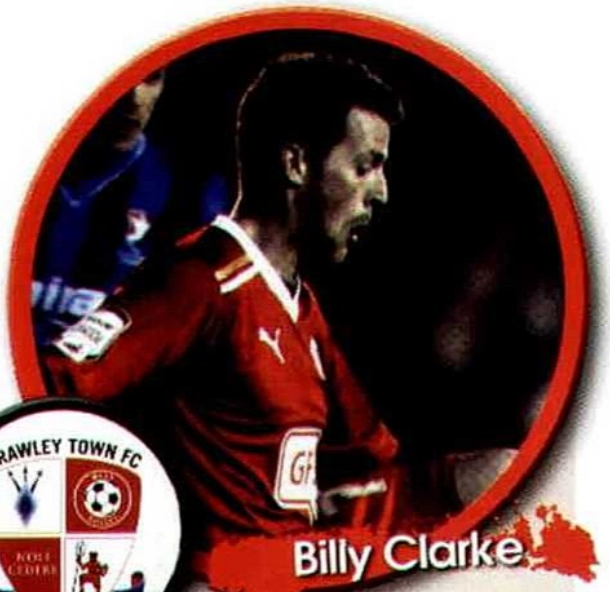

He said: "Swindon Town are a quality team with a number of exceptional players and a big name but very talented manager in Paolo Di Canio. He gets knocked by many for his enthusiasm and passion but for me it is fantastic to see.

"As a Celtic supporter I watched that same enthusiasm from him when he played and I look forward to seeing him on Tuesday."

Martin Gardiner: It won't be the easy game every one's saying, but Swindon will run out 2-1 winners.

Rob Smith: Going to be a tough game, If Benson can find form and the net then it will be a comfortable win for Swindon, but if Crawley play like they have been then they may sneak it.

Kev Browner: 1-0 to us COYR. Let's hope it's warmer than it was against Barnet!

Billy Clarke

NEW signing Billy Clarke made his debut in the 4-2 home win over Cheltenham Town seven days ago and is hoping to help his new team to promotion to League 1.

The 24-year old Irishman joined the Reds after permanent stays with Ipswich Town and Blackpool were punctuated by six loan spells, but is now set for regular involvement with Crawley.

He said: "I spoke to a few people about the move and it seemed like the right one to make. My aim is to help the team to promotion and hopefully I will get more match fit over the next few weeks.

"Crawley is a great club with big ambition and promotion is the aim that's for sure. League 2 is a tough league but we scored some great goals against Cheltenham and have shown what we can do."

COMMUNITY Development Executive Steven Weller discusses his role at The County Ground, Town's nomination for Family Club of the Year and stadium tours.

Player appearances...

In my role as player liaison I have a responsibility to make sure that our players engage with the community in a positive way. Last year we recorded over 500 combined player appearances and this year is looking like it will reach a similar number. So far we have had players involved in foreign language lessons, healthy eating projects and helping school pupils with creative writing. It is great to see the positive impact that an appearance from a Town player can make on a school or junior football team.

Family Club...

The club have recently been nominated for Football League Family Club of the Year, alongside Cardiff City, Dagenham & Redbridge, Huddersfield Town, Portsmouth and Tranmere Rovers. The club place a huge emphasis on trying to make The County Ground an enjoyable and family oriented atmosphere for all. Each year new ideas and initiatives are implemented to enhance this. Last year saw family open days, youth ticket initiatives and even a schools art project which has populated the concourses with artwork created by local pupils. All of these ideas are implemented in the hope that our fans and local community feel a closer bond with their club.

> "Most ardent Town fans will know a lot about the club's history, but these tours provide an insight into the daily goings on."

Ground Tours

We have recently started behind the scenes stadium tours here at The County Ground, and so far they have gone down really well. Most ardent Town fans will know a lot about the club's history, but these tours provide an insight into the daily goings on at a professional football club. There is normally an appearance from a familiar face or two as well!

IT was another frustrating weekend of fixture cancellations for Swindon Town...

SEVEN days after Burton Albion and bright ideas which were ultimately ruined by broken heaters, it was Barnet's turn to fall foul of the icy conditions. Unfortunately, with no undersoil heating and temperatures dipping well into the minuses, there isn't a great deal that can be done to resolve such a situation. It just leaves Swindon with a fixture list that is beginning to look rather hectic. Let's not forget that the trip to Aldershot now has to be re-arranged too as it was due to take place on the same weekend as the Johnstone's Paint Trophy Final at Wembley. Not that we'd swap that occasion to ensure a visit to the Rec remains on a Saturday afternoon.

However, a glance down the fixture list shows you that Swindon probably won't have a week's break between games until the home meeting with Plymouth and the trip to Gillingham. Amazingly, that is in the middle of April. Including tonight's match against Crawley, Town have an incredible seven matches which are guaranteed to be played midweek. That doesn't account for the additional two matches to be played on Good Friday and Easter Monday.

I tried to refrain from using any affection-related puns this evening but the prospect of Swindon against Crawley would probably see me using the much-worn 'no love lost' cliché anyway. In truth, these two have been favourites for promotion to League One from the off. Swindon were always backed to make a swift return while Crawley would make yet more history if they were to earn another step up the footballing ladder. You'd expect tonight's clash to be a feisty affair. Neither team will want to drop points – especially not to a title rival. The manner in which Swindon disposed of tonight's opponents the last time they met was impressive. It undoubtedly rocked Crawley as well. They'll chase revenge this evening but Town will simply want to finish what they've already started...

SWINDON TOWN FC

paul caddis

"We set out at the very start of the competition, against Exeter, with the mindset that we wanted to go as far as we could."

SWINDON Town skipper Paul Caddis is excited about the potential of lifting silverware in March, but it's another trophy in May he really wants to get his hands on.

Paul, can you tell us what the mood was like in the dressing room after the JPT win against Barnet?

The boys were buzzing. We set out at the very start of the competition, against Exeter, with the mindset that we wanted to go as far as we could in the competition and try and get to Wembley. We did well just to get through that game. Then we had AFC Wimbledon and a tough game at Southend. Barnet were tough opposition again but I think we deserved it over the two legs.

They're a different side to the one we beat convincingly in the league earlier in the season.

They picked up a few points in the four or five games leading up to the second leg and all credit to them. They came and made it very difficult for us. Both legs were very similar. It was a bit mix and match in that we played well in parts and found it tough in others, but it's all about goals and we got the one that mattered. We defended the lead well and thankfully it was enough.

We seemed to start the game with a real purpose in an attempt to get our noses in front. Was that the game plan?

We did that at Southend in the league game a week earlier. We came out really quick and created a few chances and we wanted to do the same again. We've not started well in a few games this year so we've tried to change things to try and give ourselves a kick up the bum. We started with a high tempo and tried to stick to it.

What was the highlight of the JPT run for you?

The win against Barnet. To score a goal at Southend was good for me but the team is more important and getting to the final is good for the whole club. The supporters and the staff behind the scenes,

Words:
Nick Judd
Pictures:
Puttyfoot Photography,
PA Photos,
Gareth Williams

from those in the office to the catering team and everyone in between, they all do so much behind the scenes and hopefully this day out will put some smiles on those faces.

The back line defended well, too.

It's another clean sheet. We've kept a few of those this season and again we limited them to just the couple of half chances, nothing too serious. We've got a good bond in the back four, as well as Wes behind us, hopefully that'll stand us in good stead until the end of the season.

Wembley seemed so far away when we were making the trip to Devon for that match against Exeter. Has it sunk in yet?

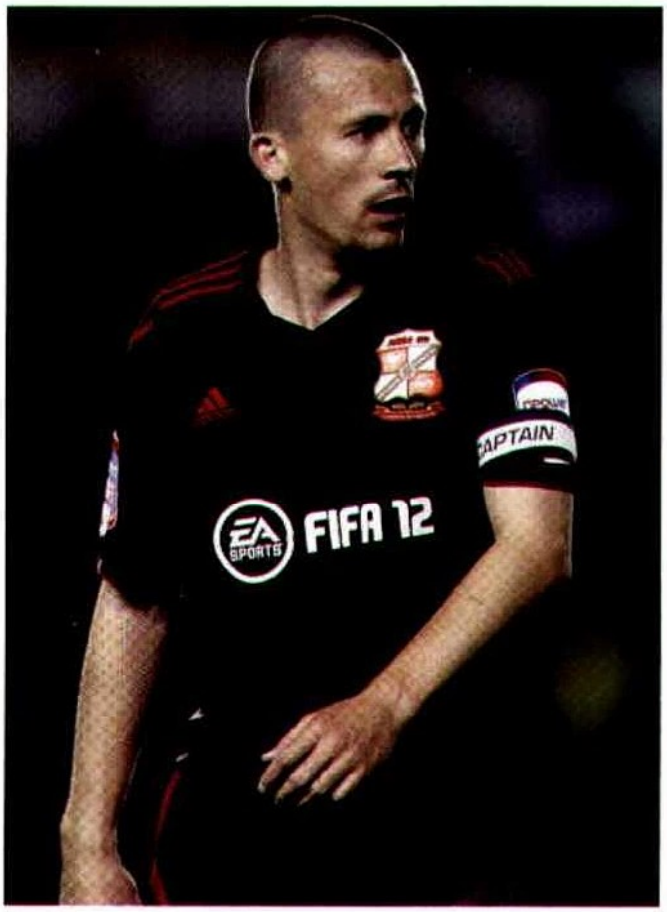

It will take a while to sink in. It's hard to believe we've come this far but it's not long to wait. We'll go into the final hopefully on the back of some good league form and we'll fancy our chances.

I know you're keen not to get too far ahead of things, but the thought of lifting the trophy at Wembley must have crossed your mind?

As soon as the final whistle went I thought about walking up those steps and lifting that trophy. I'm still young so it would definitely be the pinnacle of my career. I've played for Celtic, the team I support, against Barcelona before and that was an amazing moment, but this would top that.

Chesterfield are in good form but we have a good record against teams from higher divisions this season.

We went to Leicester and gave a good account of ourselves. We've outplayed Bristol City, Exeter, Huddersfield and even Wigan... so we'll go into the final like we have the other matches. We'll approach the match looking to play football in a way that's attractive on the eye and see what happens.

We still have to face Barnet again in the league, you must be sick of the sight of them?

I'm not a huge fan of their sloping pitch so we know it's going to be a tough place to go. We went out of the top three last Tuesday because of Crawley's win against Cheltenham, so it's going to be important to get back to business in the league against Crawley especially after the Barnet game was called off. Every game is important now and like the manager says, each match is like a Champions League final now. We just get on with each one as it comes and see what happens. That's how it will be until the end of the season.

"We haven't lost at The County Ground since August and we fancy our chances against anyone."

The main aim is promotion. We don't just want to finish in the top three; we want to win the league. The manager will make sure we're focused on each game and as he always says, the next game is always the biggest. He won't hesitate in telling us to focus on the league again and hopefully we can keep picking up the points.

Starting tonight, is it important to cherry pick points from our rivals?

It's another huge game, another match under the lights at home and we've shown we're strong here. We haven't lost at The County Ground since August and we fancy our chances against anyone. We went to Crawley and obviously got a positive result there, but a lot has changed since then. We've got a lot of new players and so have they, so it'll be an exciting game for the fans and one we're confident of winning.

Every match seems to have huge significance now.

Every game is a big one at the moment. It was the same last year but for very different reasons. You can understand why the fans were so disappointed at the way we were playing last year, but now they're out in huge numbers, like last Tuesday. In some away games it feels as though they've outnumbered the home supporters, so they've been fantastic. We've got some big games coming up and I hope the fans can continue to play their part - they've really been our twelfth man so far.

Are you enjoying the responsibility of being club captain?

The manager has a bigger role to play. I'm still a young player myself. I'm only 23 and it's a challenge for me to keep focused and keep going. But this is a good bunch of lads and they know the main aim is to finish first in this league. We'll all keep our feet on the ground.

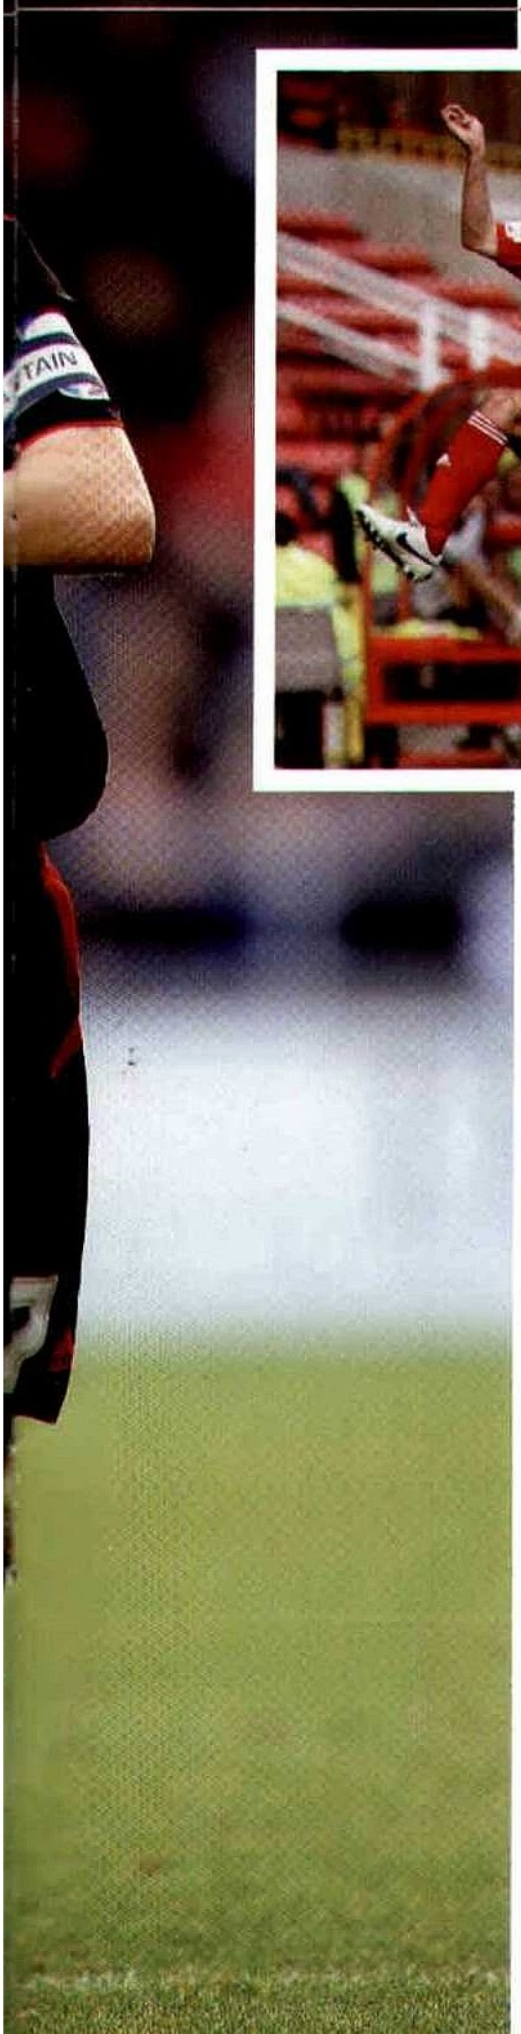

Do you feel you have a responsibility to ensure everyone is focused on the league and not Wembley?

The manager wouldn't let us think about Wembley! We have a good bunch here and I think if anyone started doing that two or three of us would speak up. We all want to play at Wembley but I don't think that will affect how anyone plays in the build up. When you cross that line you only think about the game you're in, not anything else.

You mentioned last season, can you believe the change in atmosphere around the club?

I think it's a credit to the manager and the players. The club needed a change and it's been refurbished from top to bottom, and we needed that. The chairman has come in, appointed the manager and given him money to spend on players. Even in the first five or six games, when we weren't doing too well, you just knew it was a case of the new faces gelling together. We've now got a really strong squad and it feels fresh from last year.

The squad seems to be more united, is that fair?

The squad is a lot tighter this year. I won't go into details [about last season] but we're a very close group this season and I think the new faces have helped. They have forced us all to get to know each other and we're now all very close. And the manager has to take credit for little things such as, when we go away from home we share with someone different every week in the hotel room. Between us we're making it happen.

For the players who stayed from last season, it must be so much more enjoyable now.

I think I speak for Matt [Ritchie] as well in saying we didn't want to shy away from the responsibility facing us after last season. We were both part of a squad that got relegated and while we'd both like to say we didn't play a role in it, we did. I played 30-plus games, so it was a team game and we all had responsibility. Now there's a very different feel and it's a good place to be at the moment.

You were recently nominated for the League 2 Player of the Month award. are you happy with your form?

I've been pretty happy and it's always good to be up for awards like that. It's nice to know people are watching what you're doing for the right reasons. The manager was up for the manager award and that's also important.

In the summer I felt we were going to get a manager who wanted to play League Two football, so back to front football quickly. That style doesn't suit me to be honest. I like to get it on the floor and we have the perfect manager for that. He loves us to play football.

He's a very different manager to the previous two you've played under here, isn't he?

He's lively I'll give him that! He's really passionate. Danny Wilson and Paul Hart were both passionate in their own ways, but Paolo is vocal and visibly passionate and sometimes that might get the better of him. That's no bad thing; it passes a message on to the players. It tells us what's required.

As club captain, do you enjoy a good relationship with him?

To be honest, it's all about the team this year and I'm no different to anybody else. He speaks to the squad about things if there are things that need to be discussed. He's very open like that and I think that's why we're close this year. We're all close and there are no secrets.

crawley clash

PRIOR to the FA Cup meeting with Crawley Town in 2010, there had been just one previous meeting between the two sides which came at The Broadfield Stadium in the summer of 2005, against a familiar face...

Crawley Town 3
Swindon Town 4
23 July 2005
Attendance: 658

SWINDON'S first visit to Broadfield came when the Conference club hosted a pre season friendly against Andy King's men – their fifth away game in ten days. It was another chance for new strike force Jamie Cureton and Tony Thorpe to show their worth.

But they were mere spectators when the early drama took place at the other end. With less than two minutes on the clock Jerel Ifil headed back Steve Butler and Simon Wormull sent Matt Bulman the wrong way from the resulting penalty.

Thorpe had a chance to equalise within five minutes but blazed his effort over the bar. And mid-way through the half Crawley went two goals ahead, Lee Elam's right-wing cross falling perfectly for Lee Blackburn to prod home.

Cureton reduced the deficit in the 27th minute, nodding past goalkeeper Phil Smith from ten yards from an Andy Caton centre.

The hosts might have gone in 3-1 at the break, but Burton's strike was judged offside – and ten minutes after the interval a crisp left-foot drive from Michael Pook put Town level. But poor defending from a corner again allowed Crawley to edge in front, with Ian Simpemba rifling in.

However, two goals in three minutes swung the contest in Swindon's favour. A Nicky Nicolau corner on the right set up Cureton for his second and then Pook repeated the feat, hitting a 20-yard right footer in off a post.

Crawley goalkeeper Smith signed for Swindon, then under manager Dennis Wise, in the following summer.

CRAWLEY TOWN:
Smith P, Judge, Jenkins N, Wormull, Simpemba, Donovan, Elam, Blackburn, Burton, Robinson, Hodgson.

SWINDON TOWN:
Bulman, Jenkins, Ifil, O'Hanlon (Comyn-Platt), Smith J, Roberts (Nicolau), Wells, Pook (Stokes), Caton (Fallon), Cureton, Thorpe.

ANDY Rowland (left) brings joy to Swindon hearts on Valentine's Day with a hat-trick as Swindon score an emphatic 5-2 victory over Sheffield United in Division Three. Rowland's three goals, plus an Ian Miller (right) effort and a penalty from Brian Williams, meant Swindon were 5-0 up at one stage. It's the biggest win of the 1980/81 season and proved crucial in the final analysis. Swindon stayed up by just one point in 17th place, while the Blades finished 21st and made the drop into Division Four.

cg ground tours

STADIUM Tours are becoming a more regular offering and after a successful tour on Monday, another will run on Friday of this week with a few spaces still available to book for a unique insight into all things STFC...

Cup visits:

TWO Swindon Town players were out in the community last Tuesday as the Johnstone's Paint Trophy visited Swindon.

The trophy was in Town prior to Town's Southern Area Final second leg encounter with Barnet at The County Ground. Billy Bodin, cup tied for the game, met supporters and posed for pictures with the trophy at the Johnstone's Paint centre in Stratton.

Winger Luke Rooney was also on hand to meet fans as he spent an hour in the Puttyfoot Studio at The County Ground alongside the trophy.

SWINDON Town Football Club will be running a stadium tour on Friday 17th February with places still available.

On a tour of The County Ground you will get the chance to see behind the scenes at SN1 - right from Paolo Di Canio's seat in the home dugout, into the Boardroom and through to the home team changing room.

The one-and-a-half hour tour also incorporates visits to the hospitality areas, the trophy room, media room, boot room and much, much more. There will be plenty of opportunities to take photographs along the way and learn about the history of Swindon Town Football Club.

Tour rates and how to book:

Adults - £8
Juniors (Unders 16's) - £4
Senior Citizens (Over 65's) - £5

Bookings operate on a first come first served basis with a maximum of 15 people per tour.

Please call Steven Weller to book on 0844 880 1113 or email steven@swindontownfc.co.uk

Our visitors said...

Greatest moment of my life...

Scoring for Ipswich Town when I was 18-years old against Exeter City at St. James' Park. It was a Carling Cup game and I came off the bench to get my first professional goal on my debut.

Rank the following four professions in order of a preferred alternative career:

3rd Psychologist

2nd Dolphin Trainer

1st Farmer

4th Dentist

Reason...

Being Irish I'm going to have to say a farmer as it's a good, hardworking occupation.

Most sophisticated meal I can cook...

I don't do much cooking so am going to have to sidestep this one. Steak and chips is a favourite of mine so I'm going to say that.

Name one Town player who could hold their own in another sport and why...

Paul Benson could be a cricketer if he put his mind to it. He used to play county cricket for Essex and with his long arms you can see why!

Favourite TV show...

Two and a Half Men – the old version with Charlie Sheen. The new one is disappointing.

Top four holidays of my life:

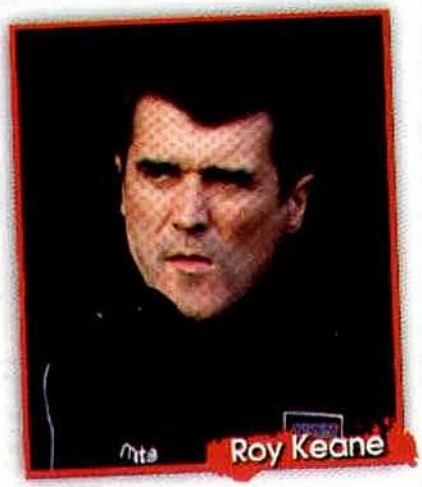

Reason...

Ayia Napa is great, I've been there before and had a blast. Florida is fantastic too so wouldn't say no to that either!

MUG SHOT

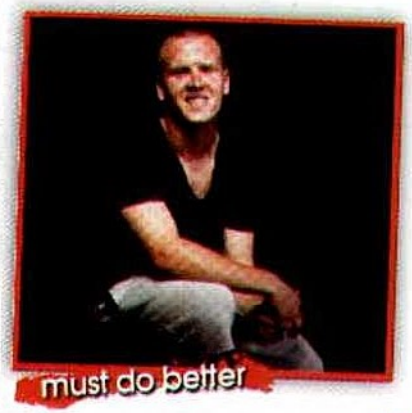

Who is the most famous person you have met?

Roy Keane – he was my manager at Ipswich Town for quite a while. He had a great career and is a bit of a footballing legend.

Best and worst dress sense in the Town squad:

Alan McCormack has the best dress sense here at the club and always looks sharp. The worst is Matt Ritchie, some of his gear is awful. He must do better!

TOWN had finished fourth in Division Two, separated only by goal difference from sixth placed Sunderland, with the teams beating Blackburn Rovers and Newcastle United respectively to reach the final.

AFTER weathering some early Sunderland pressure that saw Marco Gabbiadini hit the Swindon side netting, Town soon settled down with the first meaningful chance fired over the bar by Steve White. From then on Town took control, easily withstanding anything that the Wearsiders could throw at them.

'Chalkie' White chased down a back pass and hit a post and Tom Jones had a shot blocked by goalkeeper Tony Norman's legs, but on 26 minutes came the incident that decided the encounter.

Tom Jones won the ball deep in Sunderland territory and fed Steve Foley. His pass found Alan McLoughlin who turned towards goal around 25-yards out.

McLoughlin recalled: "Steve Foley played a first time ball to me and I was surprised that there was no-one on me.

"I shaped to hit it straight away but when I realised the space that

"The ball looped into the air past the stranded shot stopper and dropped over the line just inside the opposite post."

I had, I took it on five or six yards and tried to hit it nice and cleanly. It took a deflection off Bennett and seemed to take an eternity to go in.

"I could see Steve White trying to get there to tap it in and I was praying he wouldn't touch it. The next thing I remember is Ross MacLaren jumping on me and that was the end of my legs! To be honest we could have won 7-1."

The ball had cannoned off Sunderland skipper Gary Bennett as it looked destined to travel past Norman's right hand. Instead the ball looped into the air past the stranded shot stopper and dropped over the line just inside the opposite post.

If the goal looked tainted with some good luck it was no more than Swindon were to deserve as Town continued to dominate. Before half-time White almost connected with a scruffy headed chance, before supplying McLoughlin with an opportunity that he pushed just past a post.

The second half opened with a chance for Duncan Shearer before a purple five minutes saw White, Foley and Shearer all come close again.

With the game in its last ten minutes, Norman produced a spectacular tip over from Shearer before the whistle blew to bring pandemonium to the Swindon number within the 72,873 crowd.

Despite scoring 16 times previously that campaign, McLoughlin's strike had been the 23 year-old midfielder's first in three months, a rate that hadn't gone unnoticed.

The day after the momentous Wembley win, he left England for Malta, where he teamed up with Jack Charlton's Republic of Ireland team en route for the World Cup finals in Italy.

"I had a call from assistant Maurice Setters the night before who told me to pack enough clothes for a month!" McLoughlin recalls. "There is no way I could have predicted this sort of finish to the season, and now going to the World Cup I'm just hoping I will get a game in Italy."
