I am pleased with the run of form which has seen us win four of our last five games. It is nothing more than we deserve as we have been playing well.

As we welcome Swindon Town to Boundary Park - manager Paolo di Canio, his staff players, directors and fans - I know that we can be at our worst in such circumstances.

As a staff, we have this week kept on top of the players and stressed the importance of maintaining this level of consistency.

We have stressed the need to be focused and to do the right things because the natural thing when you do well is to get giddy in training and the banter goes too far. It is because the players are winning games and enjoying themselves so we have to keep the lid on it.

We will need to be at our best because Swindon have a strong squad. They have spent money, but spent it well and find themselves just outside the play offs.

It will be a good test for us, but it is a game I am really looking forward to.

I played against Paolo a number of times during my career and I can even recall swopping shirts with him on one occasion. More recently I had a chat with him at a referees' meeting.

I know people give him stick for being over zealous, but I think he is a great character and is passionate about his football as he also showed when he played. He is also showing it as a manager, and he has done a great job at Swindon.

I cannot see any problems on the touchline as Paolo and I are both shy and reserved characters!

Looking back to last Saturday, it was an excellent win at Colchester where we hadn't a good record.

We didn't have the best of starts, but we weathered the storm and played some really good football. We won 2-0, but it could easily have been by four or five.

I would put our improved form down to confidence and belief and there is a really good atmosphere around the place at the moment, though we cannot get too carried away as we have seen before. The teams at the top of the table are the consistent ones and that is what we are striving to achieve.

This afternoon Matt Derbyshire plays the final match of his loan spell from Nottingham Forest and he wants to finish with a goal, good performance and a win. Matt has been fantastic for us and hopefully we may be able to get him back in January. It is a busy period coming up and, apart from tomorrow and Wednesday, the players will be in every day until we play Nottingham Forest on January 5th.

It is a small sacrifice to make, but footballers have to live with it as these games can play a big part in having a successful season so we have to apply ourselves properly, put the work in and be dedicated.

These are my last notes before Christmas and, on behalf of my staff and everybody at the club, may I wish you all a happy and peaceful Christmas and hope to see you here again on Boxing Day for the visit of Doncaster Rovers.

Short Term Loan...

Alex Cisak is back at Latics after the shortest of loan spells with power League One rivals Portsmouth, writes Tony Bugby.

The Aussie goalkeeper had only been at Fratton Park club for one week when he was dramatically recalled to Boundary Park.

"I received a tweet saying Dean Bouzanis had been sent off at Doncaster so I knew I would be returning to Latics because of the 24-hour recall clause they had," he explained.

Though Cisak played only one match for Pompey in a 1-1 draw at Coventry City, he believes his return to first-team action benefited Latics.

"It meant I got some match practice before our FA Cup tie so it was a win-win situation. It got me a game and sharp for when I played for the game against Doncaster," he continued.

The 23-year-old Cisak kicked off his second season with Latics as No 1 only to lose his place to Dean Bouzanis in mid-September.

After two months out of the first-team spotlight, Cisak jumped at the chance to join Portsmouth on a one-month emergency loan after Mikkel Anderson returned to Premier League Reading after a three-month spell at the South Coast club.

Cisak said: "Like any young keeper, I want to be playing games which is why I jumped at the chance of the loan move to Portsmouth.

"You don't want to be sat on the bench which is why I would accepted a loan move to whatever club. The fact it was a club of the size and stature of Portsmouth made it easy and it was an honour to play for them."

Cisak's debut and only one match for Pompey was in a 1-1 draw at Coventry City where they ended a run of seven successive defeats.

He said: "It stopped our losing run and it turned out to be a good point as Coventry are in great form at the moment.

"We fell behind and were under the cosh and I made a number of key saves to keep us in the game. We kept battling and were rewarded with a 93rd minute goal from Izale McLeod."

Cisak added it was his first appearance at Coventry's Ricoh Arena which has been their home since 2007 and he was impressed with the stadium.

"It was a great experience to play at the ground which has a good surface. There was a nice, big crowd of over 11,000 and I enjoyed the day," he continued.

Cisak never got to play a home game on his loan spell at Fratton Park though he says he played there at the start of the season for Latics which again was a terrific experience.

He was impressed with the set-up at Pompey saying it is sad to see them falling on hard times. It is hard to believe they won the FA Cup in 2008 and reached the final again two years later. They also graced the Premier League until 2010. Cisak says he has no qualms about being back at Latics and his challenge is to keep hold of the No 1 spot.

"I am under contract to Latics and this is where my heart lies. I am back in the team and I will be playing as hard as I can to keep the spot," he explained.

Cisak was pleased he marked his return with victory against Doncaster which helped set up a third-round tie at Nottingham Forest.

He said: "When we conceded a goal in the first five minutes I thought here we go again.

"After a sloppy opening 20 minutes, we worked hard and showed great determination to get back into the game."

Cisak is also looking forward to playing at npower Championship club Nottingham Forest in early January.

He said: "We would have loved another trip to Liverpool because those occasions don't come along very often.

"Forest is a big club and we will go there looking to win. It will also be a good day out for the fans."

Cisak added that it was a great experience to play at Anfield and put himself in the spotlight

He said: "The beauty of the FA Cup is that it puts players from lower divisions in the shop window.

"Look at DJ Campbell who got his move after scoring goals for non-league Yeading in their cup run some years ago."

Cisak, who is still only 23 years of age, says he is still a babe in goalkeeping terms.

He explained: "They say goalkeepers develop four or five years behind outfield players so I am still only aged 18/19.

"And when you see goalkeepers David James, Mark Schwarzer and Brad Friedel playing beyond 40, I could still have 17-plus years ahead of me if I can keep my body in shape."

Cisak already has the experience of over 100 career appearances for non-league Tamworth, Accrington Stanley and Latics for whom he played 47 games in his debut campaign.

It was back in 2004 when Cisak joined Leicester City having grown up in Hobart, Tasmania.

And the whole of the Cisak family – parents Adam and Anna and younger sister Ewelina – relocated from Down Under to help him.

"I really appreciate what sacrifices they made to help me succeed," he said.

Cisak has also had to deal with adversity after sustaining a serious wrist injury which kept him out for 18 months and which at one stage threatened his career. It was sustained in the warm up before Leicester's FA Cup tie against Crystal Palace.

"The physios told me my career was over so I was thinking at the age of 19/20 what I was going to do with my life. It was a difficult and depressing time," he continued.

Cisak added it was hard trying to get fixed up with a new club after being released by Leicester when clubs became aware of his wrist injury.

"Accrington were the only ones to take a chance and the rest is history," he continued.

Cisak was a regular in the Accrington team in the second half of the 2010/11 campaign which coincided with an upturn in their fortunes.

He said: "When I broke into the team, they were fighting relegation and we ended up making the promotion play offs.

"We had a great run of results and it was a great experience being part of it."

It was during this spell that Cisak came to the attention of Latics who signed him in the summer of 2011 for an undisclosed fee.

He is one of a four strong Aussie contingent at Boundary Park – he is joined by fellow keepers Bouzanis and Liam Jacob and midfield man James Wesolowski Cisak, who has played for Australia at under-20 level, says he is not looking at furthering his international career.

He said: "It is always proud to represent your country, but I am simply concentrating on playing and doing well for Latics.

"I will continue to work hard and keep my head down. I love it here and, if I play well for Latics, everything else will take care of itself."

23 PIES

Latics will visit a minimum of 23 stadiums this season... hopefully many more with a cup run or two... and that means at least... 23 pies!!

TELL ME A Secret

Do you have a hero in your life, sporting or otherwise?

It is not so much a hero as someone that I owe a great deal to. In the early years of my football career my Uncle Tony used to drive me everywhere because I was too young to drive a car. If I was to name a footballer I looked up to it would be Ryan Giggs. In my younger days I used to play as a winger. It was not until later I became a fullback.

Do you play other sports and if so is there one that you excel at?

No..I do not seem to have the time with having a young family. My brother (Mathew) is very good at cricket. He plays for Thornaby CC, a local club in Stockton near Hartlepool.

Were did your football career first take its shape?

I used to play at school like most kids, and one summer I went on a summer soccer school. Whilst at the soccer school a lady (Marie) who was in charge at Middlesbrough ladies football team spotted me and recommended me to the coach at 'Boro. I was then invited to the academy and the rest is history.

What has been your career highlight to date?

The game that will always stand out would be my debut for Middlesboro against Liverpool. The game went by in a flash but it was a very special moment.

If you could invite three people to dinner, dead or alive, who would they be?

Jose Mourinho, he would bring the world of football alive in conversation. Lee Croft, he would totally confuse Jose...and Anthony Gray, Latics' youth team therapist (his nickname is Tiger Massage) for obvious reasons.

If your house was on fire, what would be the first thing you would save from the flames?

My family is my world. My son Louis and partner Savannah are the most precious things in my life. Louis is the first thing I look at in the morning and the last thing I see at night. I live my life through my son.

What is the best and worst holiday you have ever been on?

The best holiday I have ever been on was a trip to Las Vegas with the Middlesbrough boys. I don't gamble which may seem strange if you are going to Las Vegas but there are so many other things to do. The shows and bars are amazing. The worst holiday was a miserable week in Zante. The place was OK, the hotel was worse than Fawlty Towers. It was rank, just truly awful.

What is the changing room banter like at Boundary Park?

It is very good. There is always a lot of mickey taking going on. You have to be thick skinned to be a footballer. But whenever there is something going off around the changing rooms you can bet your bottom dollar that Jose Baxter and Lee Croft are involved in some way. They are like a double act.

Which TV programmes do you make a point of never missing?

Believe it or not I am not a big TV person. I don't understand people watching the X Factor and rubbish like that. I am more in to watching DVD's, I have a number of box set's the latest of which is Homeland and the new Breaking Bad series.

What was the last book you read?

I am not ashamed to say that I have read all the 'Twilight' books. Having read them I then went to the cinema to watch the film versions. The books were better!

What type of music do you listen to?

Like most footballers you listen to house music and R&B. My favourites at the moment are Drake and Jay-z.

Do you enjoy relaxing after a game and if so how do you like to relax?

As stated earlier my family mean everything to me so it all surrounds them. We are busy getting ready for our first Christmas together as a family. My son Louis is eight months old so this Christmas should be very special.

Finally...tell me a secret?

There has been a secret luncheon club formed at Boundary Park entitled the Wombles Lunch Club. Everyone is trying to join the club but it is proving to be pretty exclusive. The founder members are myself, Jose Baxter and Jose's dad Andy. (Andy brings Jose to training every day and stays for lunch before running him back home)

Thanks for the Memori

Matt Derbyshire's loan spell from Nottingham Forest will draw to a close after this afternoon's npower League One match against Swindon Town.

The striker, who was playing in the Champions League for Greek champions Olympiakos a couple of years ago, has provided some lasting memories.

Derbyshire has so far scored six goals for Latics, possibly seven as there is some dispute as to the one at Colchester last Saturday. He would have hit double figures had a further four not been chalked off when replays clearly showed they were all inside.

After finding himself out of favour at Forest, Derbyshire has welcomed the chance to play regular first-team football as he has made 19 appearances for Latics. Derbyshire jumped at the opportunity to sign for Latics as he found himself out of favour at Forest where he was one of eight strikers at the City Ground.

He said: "If you are not playing regular football, you can quite easily be forgotten and that is what happened to me over the last couple of years.

"I had been out through injury and nobody therefore knows where you are and what you are doing.

"I am grateful I have had the chance to play 19 games, hopefully 20 including today, for Oldham Athletic."

Derbyshire added that playing games and regaining match sharpness was the main objective of the loan spell and the goals have been a bonus.

"It has been nice to score a decent number of goals and I have also stayed fit so there have been a lot of positives," he said.

Derbyshire has enjoyed his front partnership with Jose Baxter saying he would love to play alongside him again in the future.

He said: "He is unselfish and works hard off the ball which I also like to do. He is perfect to play alongside.

"Jose drops back in the hole when we don't have possession and picks up the ball and is always looking to put players through on goal and it has been a great partnership."

Derbyshire also thanks Latics' manager Paul Dickov for bringing him to Boundary Park.

He said: "I would like to thank the gaffer for bringing me here and putting his faith in me and for playing me week in, week out.

"Thanks also to the lads for making me so welcome over the last three months. I have enjoyed my time here."

Derbyshire also believes Latics can have a successful season.

He continued: "I have been surprised by the standard of players here – there are no bad ones.

"They all have good ability and there is no reason why they cannot push well up the table."

Derbyshire says it is a case of returning to Forest and seeing what happens when the transfer window reopens in January.

And on a personal score, Derbyshire will always remember his time at Latics because of two things.

"Firstly the fans have been brilliant and welcomed me with open arms. It has been an eye opener just how friendly everyone is in Oldham." And secondly it was while here at Boundary Park that partner Melissa presented him with six-week-old son Killian.

Killian completes a hat trick of boys as Derbyshire also has four-year-old twins Braidin and Callum.

Swindon Town

Paolo

BOSS

The madcap Italian, who excelled as a player in the Premier League with West Ham, has had a dream start to management in Wiltshire. The 44-year-old, who studied for a UEFA Pro License after ending his playing days, was a surprise appointment by the Robins in May, 2011, following the club's equally unexpected relegation to League Two. His first game in charge went well, defeating Crewe 3-0, but it wasn't long before Di Canio hit the headlines following a well-publicised disagreement with former Latics striker Leon Clarke.

Progress was more than steady on the field and at the turn of this year, Di Canio's side caused a big upset in the third round of the FA Cup by seeing off Premier League opponents Wigan, 2-1. It was a victory an emotional Di Canio dedicated to his father, who had passed away in late 2011.

While the league campaign was going well, the Robins also made progress in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy where they reached a Wembley final before being defeated 2-0 by Latics' conquerers Chesterfield.

Promotion back to League One was assured by late April and Di Canio's side made sure of the title by seeing off Port Vale 5-0 a week later. Swindon ended the season on 93 points.

A steady start to the campaign has followed this time around, after many pundits tipped the club for a back-to-back rise to the Championship.

As a player, Rome-born Di Canio's career began at Lazio and after starring in Serie 'A' with Juventus, Napoli and Milan, a successful season in Scotland with Celtic brought a £4.2million move south of the border to Sheffield Wednesday.

Di Canio moved to West Ham for £1.7m in 1999 and spent four years at the club, leaving for Charlton and finishing his career in Italy with Lazio and then Cisco Roma.

OPPOSITION

Wes FODERINGHAM

The 21-year-old goalkeeper, who hails from Shepherd's Bush, is a former Fulham trainee who had two years at Crystal Palace where he headed out on loan to Bromley, Boreham Wood, Histon and finally Swindon. Having arrived at the County Ground as cover for injured Phil Smith, Foderingham's form was such that he persuaded manager Paolo Di Canio to make the move permanent last season.

Matt RITCHIE

The subject of a reportedly huge transfer bid from Bournemouth last season, the former Portsmouth trainee is renowned as one of the finest wingers in lower-league football.

Aged 23, Ritchie graduated through the academy ranks at Portsmouth and made a Football League debut while on loan at Dagenham in 2008. He impressed Daggers boss John Still during his initial spell, scoring on his first start, and after completing a full season at the club returned to Fratton Park to be rewarded with a fresh two-year contract.

Notts County secured Ritchie's services for the first half of the 2009-10 season, before he switched to Swindon, initially on loan, under boss Danny Wilson.

The following campaign saw the player again move temporarily to the County Ground and after excelling, the club signed him permanently on a two-and-a-half year contract on January 7th, 2011.

Ritchie has continued to flourish under the guidance of Paolo Di Canio. As the Robins claimed the title in style, the winger won the individual award as League Two's player of the year.

FOCUS...

James COLLINS

Collins was hot property before he made the move to Swindon for the start of this season.

The 22-year-old striker made his way through the academy structure at Aston Villa but, despite at one time being named in a squad to travel to Rapid Vienna in a UEFA Europa League clash, he didn't make a first-team appearance for the club.

Collins' first loan spell was at Darlington in October, 2009, on a three-month basis. He scored two league goals before returning to Villa.

The forward then linked up with Aberdeen on a trial at the start of the 2010-11 season, but ultimately remained at Villa Park.

A loan at Burton was successful in October, 2010, bringing with it two goals in his first three games for the Brewers.

Collins made a permanent move to Shrewsbury at the start of 2011 and early in the following season his name rose to prominence thanks to a goal against Premier League club Arsenal in the League Cup.

He netted a total of 16 goals for the Shrews, a record which prompted Swindon to make their swoop during the summer. Collins netted for the Robins for the first time in the 4-3 Capital One Cup victory over Stoke.

Danny HOLLANDS

The arrival of a player who made his name at Bournemouth on loan is one that gives the Robins plenty of experience of life in a successful League One club's engine room.

Hollands (27) started his career at Chelsea as a trainee, where he turned professional in November, 2003.

The Ashford-born midfielder was captain of both the Blues' youth and reserves sides but had to wait until a loan at Torquay before making a professional debut.

Hollands made a total of 10 appearances for United, scoring once as the club survived relegation to the non-league ranks on the last day of the 2005-06 season.

After being released by Chelsea, Hollands moved to Bournemouth on a two-year contract ahead of the 2006-07 campaign.

He went on to make a total of 219 appearances for the Cherries across five seasons with the club, before opting not to renew his deal after the club failed to make it into the Championship through the play-offs.

Charlton acquired his services at the start of a 2011-12 season which was to become a happy one for player and club, as the Addicks gained promotion.

Hollands made 14 appearances for Charlton in the Championship before being squeezed out of the first-team picture, leading to his half-season switch to the County Ground.

WHO'S WHO AT THE

The County Ground

John Bostock

The re-arrival of the former Crystal Palace prodigy on loan provides another example of Swindon's ambitions.

The midfielder (20) is in his second spell on loan at the County Ground and recently came out to say he is "open minded" about making the deal a permanent one.

Aden Flint

The former Alfreton Town defender is an England 'C' international, who signed for Swindon at the start of the 2010-11 season.

Flint (23) had a spell back at Alfreton during his first campaign at the County Ground, but he has featured 14 times in League One this season.

Joe Devera

Of Venezuelan origin, Devera (25) made his name in professional football at Barnet, where he established himself as a dependable right-back.

Making a debut for the Bees in 2005, he spent the next six years at the club before moving to Swindon in June, 2011.

Troy Archibald-Henville

Troy Archibald-Henville

A summer signing from Exeter, Archibald-Henville is a versatile player who can operate equally at centre-back or at the base of midfield.

The Tottenham trainee (24) helped Exeter into League One during his first spell on loan at the club in 2008-09 and eventually made that move a permanent one.

Darren Ward

Now 34, the experienced centre-back is currently on loan at the County Ground from Millwall.

Ward is in his second spell at The Den and has made more than 200 league appearances for the Lions in a career which has seen also him represent first club Watford, Crystal Palace, Wolves and Charlton.

Simon Ferry

The Scottish midfielder, born in Dundee, began his career with Celtic but after not featuring for the first team decided to try his luck down south.

The 24-year-old signed for Swindon after spending the 2009-10 campaign on loan at the club and continues to be a pivotal figure.

Alan Navarro

Alan Navarro

The 31-year-old became a Swindon player during the summer, swapping life in the Championship with Brighton for the County Ground.

Liverpool-born midfielder Navarro started off at Anfield and after moving to Tranmere, he has also represented Accrington, Macclesfield and MK Dons.

Tommy Miller

Miller (33) made Swindon his seventh professional port of call when signing for the Robins on a free transfer during the summer.

Fresh from aiding Huddersfield's ascension to the Championship, the industrious former Hartlepool, Ipswich and Sheffield Wednesday man brings know-how to Swindon's midfield.

Adam Rooney

The Republic of Ireland under-21s international is on loan at Swindon from Birmingham, the club he signed for after a prolific three-year spell north of the border with Inverness.

Rooney (24) was born in Dublin and started his career in England with Stoke City.

Gary Roberts

Now 28, winger Roberts is a winger who pushed through the ranks in Wales before becoming a highly effective player at Accrington.

Liverpool-born, Roberts shone with Stanley and played for Ipswich in the Championship before a move to Huddersfield in the summer of 2008 for a fee of around £250,000. He signed for Swindon on a free transfer before the start of this season.

Raffaele De Vita

Raffaele De Vita

Hailing from Rome, Paolo Di Canio's compatriot was with Blackburn Rovers as a youngster but didn't trouble the first team. De Vita (25) moved to Livingston in 2008, where he scored 21 goals in 67 league games prior to his move to join the Robins at the start of last season.

Chris Martin

The Norwich youth-team product is on loan at Swindon having found first-team chances in the Premier League tough to come by. Martin (24) has spent time out on loan at Luton and Crystal Palace and last month made the move to the County Ground on a temporary basis up until January 5th.

ROVERS LEFT REELING

Oldham Athletic 3
Doncaster Rovers 1

FA Cup with Budweiser, 2nd Round

Saturday 1st December 2012.

Attendance: 2,783

Latics recovered from a nightmare start to their second-round tie against Doncaster Rovers to record a resounding 3-1 victory in this FA Cup 2nd round tie.

It was not so much the victory, but the quality of the performance for the last 70 minutes which stood out as Latics outplayed the team which is joint top of npower League One.

Robbie Blake's early goal for Doncaster was cancelled out by Reece Wabara's header in first half stoppage time. Matt Derbyshire then took centre stage in the second period scoring twice in the space of seven minutes to seal victory which could even have been more emphatic given Lee Croft and Cristian Montano both hit the crossbar.

Doncaster took the lead in the fourth minute following an unfortunate slip by Wabara let in David Syers on the right and he cut the ball back for Blake to fire Doncaster ahead. Latics were certainly wobbling in those early stages and only a terrific save from Cisak to turn over a Syers shot prevented the visitors from establish a 2-0 advantage.

Athletic were twice denied by the crossbar as Croft and Montano struck the frame of the goal. Montano had earlier been released by an exquisite pass from Jose Baxter only to see his lob land on the roof of the net. But in first half stoppage time, Wabara came up with a timely equaliser, his first goal for the club, as he headed home Baxter's free kick from six yards.

Latics went off at the break with the momentum in their favour and they continued where they left off in the second period.

They carved out a series of chances after the restart with home keeper Gary Woods saving well from Croft while Baxter and Derbyshire also had openings.

Latics' patience and perseverance paid off as they took the lead for the first time in the 70th minute after a neat passing move which ended with Dean Furman's shot being parried by Woods as Derbyshire slotted home the rebound from close range. It ended a run of nine games without a goal and it was rather like waiting for an eternity and then two buses arriving simultaneously as he struck again seven minutes later.

This time the passing move was slick as Latics carved a way through the Doncaster defence with Furman, having an excellent game, squaring the ball from the left for Derbyshire to slot home.

Latics (4-4-2): Cisak; Connor Brown, Wabara, M'voto, Grounds; Croft, Furman, Wesolowski, Montano; Derbyshire, Baxter. Subs (not used): Jacob, Tarkowski, Simpson, Smith, Taylor, Millar, M'Changama.

Doncaster (4-4-2): G Woods; Quinn, Jones, Martis, Spurr; Blake, Clingan, Keegan, Husband; Syers (Michael Woods 88), Chris Brown. Subs (not used): Maxted, Griffin, McCombe, Finnigan, Meade, Middleton.

The goals: Wabara (46+1), Derbyshire (70, 77) for Latics. Blake (4) for Doncaster.

Bookings: Clingan (49), Jones (55), Quinn (73), Keegan (90+3) for Doncaster.

Referee: Mr N Miller.

This must STOP NOW!

We all love Derby games, and what could be better than being pitted against your local rivals at Christmas time?

The fixture computer is apparently programmed in such a way to allow clubs a local game over the festive season. Great news for us fans and the players alike as we can all get back home that bit sooner, and crack open the cans to celebrate the victory!

The game can make or break your Christmas. If it ends in a victorious manner, then Christmas is a real cracker and it adds that extra bit of sparkle to the holidays. Alternatively, losing over Christmas ruins it for you and you just want to go home and rip down and burn the tree.

The recent derby game between the two big Manchester clubs was a great spectacle for the football. However, the coin-tossing incidents totally ruined it. This trend which unfortunately is creeping back in to the game MUST STOP NOW! What goes through the minds of these idiots who throw missiles of any description at players? We all get wound up and frustrated when things get a bit tense during a close game but to start launching things at players or opposing fans is outrageous. The players have enough to worry about, getting injured during the run of play. They shouldn't have to worry about getting injured as a result of some moron throwing things at them. Rio Ferdinand was lucky that the coin didn't hit him directly in the eye. I don't think I'd have been as jovial and light hearted about the incident as he was. He tweeted that he'd wished it were a £1 coin rather than a two pence piece. Obviously, it can't be easy to identify the culprit within a massive crowd like the one at the Ethiad and the police will have their work cut out on that one. A similar incident happened a few seasons ago when Chris Kirkland was hit by a coin whilst keeping goal for Wigan against local rivals Burnley. Similarly though, Wigan had the last laugh (as did United through Van Persie) when a late goal took all three points and condemned the cash-chucking fans to a defeat. The Professional Footballers' Association has called for netting to be placed around the pitch to protect the players from missiles but surely this would spoil our view of the game wouldn't it? The answer is to find the offending fans and ban them for life, which would surely deter any further incidents.

We're here to enjoy the game – this will always involve the emotional ups and downs that every 90-minute adventure brings. We just need to behave ourselves and take the rough with the smooth. That's what makes the game so irresistible. The outcome of each match we play is unpredictable and there are so many twists and turns that can influence the subsequent result. It's the beautiful game, but there are still mindless cretins out there that spoil it for the rest of us. Enjoy today's adventure against Swindon Town and even though it's the season of goodwill to all men, please keep your coins in your pockets, there's a recession on you know!

LOSING The Plot

ELM PARK

For the football fan over the age of forty football, as we know it, has changed dramatically in recent years.

Many of the famous old 'Grounds' have disappeared; here game by game we re-discover the famous stadiums of the Football League.

Elm Park was the home of Reading football club for 102 years. Elm Park was home for the Royals until the move to the Madejski Stadium.

The first game was held on 5th September 1896 between Reading and A Roston Bourke's XI - which saw Reading leading 7-1 before the match was prematurely ended due to torrential rain. The final competitive match at Elm Park saw Reading play Norwich City on 3rd May 1998. The ground consisted of four stands: North (known as Norfolk Road), South (Tilehurst Terrace, also referred to as the South Bank), West (Tilehurst End) and East (Reading End, also referred to as the Town End). Both the North and South Stands were covered, while the east and west stand were uncovered terraces. The East Stand was reserved for away supporters, as well as a small section of the North Stand.

The record attendance was achieved in 1927 when 33,042 watch Reading beat Brentford 1-0 in the fifth round of the 1926/27 FA Cup. As a result of the Taylor Report, Reading were forced to implement changes to the ground which reduced the capacity to 14,800. Elm Park, however, was representative of a very different time. It was clear by the start of the 1990s that it would need to be either replaced altogether or renovated beyond recognition, and the arrival of John Madejski at the club granted the opportunity. By the middle of the decade, Reading were knocking at the door of a place in the Premier League and, despite the occasional lick of paint, Elm Park didn't fit with this vision.

UNUSUAL FACT

Most fans know Reading as either the Royals or the Royal Blues. However in the early days Reading carried the nickname 'The Bender Boys'. However, even I am not getting involved in this one. Thankfully it was dropped in the early nineteen twenties.

LATICS AT ELM PARK

Athletic and Reading faced each other on 15 occasions at Elm Park. Reading winning 10 times, Latics triumphing on just four occasions with one game finishing as a draw. The games produced 56 goals averaging 3.5 goals a game. Latics' best performance was a 3-1 win in 1995 thanks to goals from Graeme Sharp, Gunnar Halle and Lee Richardson.

The Community Trust was out and about with Jean-Yves M'voto this week as he spent an afternoon with the year seven French students from North Chadderton High School on Tuesday. Jean paid a visit to help the students with their French studies and participated in a Q+A session with the students with the majority of questions being asked in French.

Billy Quarmbly, Oldham Athletic administrator, said: "It was great for the children of North Chadderton High School to not only meet a professional footballer, but also a footballer who speaks fluent French and who could help them with their studies. It was an opportunity to put their French skills to the test with Jean only to happy to help."

The visit lasted for 90 minutes with Jean not only answering questions but also signing autographs and taking time have time to have photographs with the students. There was a wide range of questions, from his life back in France, his career with Latics and his plans for life after football.

Martin Vose, Oldham Athletic Community Trust Participation Officer, added: "It was a fantastic opportunity to hear the children asking Jean questions that they'd learnt and rehearsed in class. Its just one of many ways the club works in the community."

Christmas Eve Club

Oldham Athletic Community Trust and LaticZone Study Support Centre have once again come together to offer a brand new activity for the young people of Oldham to enjoy. To go along with the popular OAFC match day Club, there will be a very special OAFC Christmas Eve Club. The club will be held at LaticZone Study Support Centre, between 12:00-3:00pm. The club is for those parents who have last minute shopping and wrapping to do. There will be a chance for the children to design special Christmas cards to give to family members the following day, as well as designing some edible goodies to be enjoyed on Christmas Day.

The club will cost £5 for the three hours of activities; however we do stipulate that you book on in advance. To book, please contact Suzy Chapman (suzy.chapman@oldham.gov.uk) or Martin Vose (martin.vose@oldhamathletictrust.co.uk).

The background of the advertisement is a dark blue night sky with two large stadium light towers on either side, each with a grid of bright white lights. The text is centered in the middle of the image.

U'S TURNED OVER IN ESSEX

Colchester United 0
Oldham Athletic 2
npower League One
Saturday 8th December 2012.
Attendance: 2,997

Latics produced one of their most complete performances of the campaign registering a 2-0 npower League One victory at Colchester United.

Goals from Jean-Yves M'voto and Matt Derbyshire didn't do justice to dominant Latics who triumphed for the first time in eight visits to the Essex club. The first win at Colchester since 2002 was fully merited as manager Paul Dickov explained: "At times our attacking play was devastating and we could have won by more but for their goalkeeper who gave a really good performance and was probably their man of the match.

Latics made a tentative start before they finally clicked into gear and carve out chances against opponents who looked low on confidence after recording only one win in their previous seven games.

Jonathan Grounds, overlapping on the left, was the first to test home keeper Mark Cousins after half an hour.

Latics made the breakthrough in the 33rd minute when M'voto powered home a terrific header from a Lee Croft corner. It was the centre back's second goal of the campaign, an unstoppable effort which went in off the underside of the crossbar.

They were unlucky not to finish the half with a bigger advantage.

Cristian Montano cut the ball back from the left for James Wesolowski, ghosting into the box from deep, to shoot wide when it looked as though he could not miss. Jose Baxter then had a goalbound shot blocked by Magnus Okuonghae.

Montano had a chance soon after the restart to increase Latics' lead, but scuffed his shot wide.

Montano then forced a decent save from Cousins before the second goal came just after the hour.

Croft released Derbyshire with a delightful pass. He burst clear on the right and saw his shot partially blocked by Cousins before trickling over the line via a defenders heel.

There was some doubt as to whether Jose Baxter got the final touch, but Derbyshire made it clear he was claiming his seventh goal of the campaign.

Croft and Montano both forced brilliant saves from Cousins while in stoppage time Latics ought to have won a penalty.

Baxter was clearly pulled back as he burst into the box and, to the amazement of everyone at the Weston Homes Community Stadium, Referee Ian Williamson waved play on.

Colchester (4-1-2-3): Cousins; Wilson, Eastman, Okuonghae, Potts; Bean (Wright 57); Bond (Gilbey 70), Wordworth; Henderson (Morrison 80), Ibehre, Sears. Subs (not used): Rose, O'Toole, Pentney, Thompson.

Latics (4-4-2): Cisak; Brown (Byrne 46), M'voto, Wabara, Griunds; Croft (Simpson 90+2), Wesolowski, Furman, Montano (M'Changama 90+2); Derbyshire, Baxter. Subs (not used): Jacob, Tarkowski, Smith, Sutherland.

The goals: M'voto (33), Derbyshire (61).

Bookings: Okuonghae (26), Bean (32) for Colchester, Brown (31), Cisak (90+3), M'Changama (90+3) for Latics.

Referee: Mr I Williamson.

EL Capitano

Dean FURMAN

We will be looking to take our recent good form into today's home npower League One match against Swindon Town.

They are a team which is challenging for a play-off place having maintained the momentum after winning promotion earlier this year.

By all accounts they are a very good team so it will be a difficult game. We have worked hard this week on countering their strong points.

Swindon have a good budget for this league and they have some good players. You can see why they are near the top of the table.

It will also be nice on a personal note to play against Danny Hollands who they have on loan from Charlton. He was the captain of the youth team and reserves when I was at Chelsea.

We feel we can beat anybody at the moment and it is important we take our recent good form into this game having won four of our last five games.

We seem to have hit a good level of consistency at the moment and it is important we maintain it over Christmas when a lot of games are coming up in a short space of time. We will be looking to pick up as many points as possible from this busy period and give you something to cheer.

I would say in the last five games we have only played badly for the second half at Doncaster which was a major disappointment as we felt it was a game we could have got something out of. Since my last notes, we have given two very good performances against Doncaster here in the FA Cup and last Saturday at Colchester.

Though we lost at Doncaster in the previous midweek, we took confidence from that game and believed we could beat them in the FA Cup.

We showed great character after going 1-0 down and riding an early storm when we were under pressure. After 20/25 minutes everything clicked and we put in a really good performance and scored some terrific goals in our 3-1 victory.

It was important for the club to get into the third round of the cup, not only for financial reasons, but also for the excitement. We saw it last season when we drew Liverpool and I arrived at Boundary Park one day to seeing fans queuing in the freezing cold for tickets. There was a lot of excitement and it is a good draw for us. We will go to Nottingham Forest full of confidence and hoping to progress to the fourth round.

We continued where we left off against Doncaster at Colchester where you could not fault our performance.

I was reminded in the warm up that we had a poor record at Colchester, but I brushed that off saying history doesn't mean anything.

We knew we had to start with a solid defensive base as our attacking players are always going to create chances and it would only be a matter of time before we scored which we did from a set play. It was a great goal from big Jean and he is hard to deal with when he attacks the ball.

We say farewell after today's game to Matt Derbyshire who returns to Nottingham Forest after his loan spell. Matt's done brilliantly for us and he is also a great character who has livened up the dressing room. And on the pitch, everybody has seen what an impact he has had and you can see why he has played at the highest level.

We hope we can bring back Matt in January because he will be a big loss. We thank him for his goals and, but for some dodgy decisions from referees' assistants, he would have been in double figures.

It has been a pleasure to play alongside him and we thank him for his great contribution to our season.

As it is our last home game before Christmas, on behalf of all the players may I wish you a very happy Christmas.

Enjoy the game.
Dean

Good Afternoon and welcome to Boundary Park. A warm welcome to the Players, officials and supporters of Swindon Town. Thanks for making the journey north and I hope it's not too cold for you!

On the pitch a big thank you to all the volunteers who have been helping with the frost covers to ensure today's game could go ahead and also the 142 supporters who made the journey to Essex last weekend and were rewarded with a fantastic performance.

Today is the last home game before Christmas so we'd like to take this opportunity to wish all of our sponsors a very Merry Christmas and hope you have a fantastic day before joining us again on Boxing Day.

We are delighted to have sold out our Christmas Party in the Sponsors Suite for Boxing Day. It promises to be a fun filled festive footy afternoon. Today we have representatives from Prostate Cancer UK around the ground. They will be holding a collection as part of our kit partnership so please take a minute to have a chat to their volunteers. At half time, weather permitting, we will be hosting our first Santa race. What can possibly go wrong with Santa's sprinting the length of the pitch and back again, I understand even Chaddy Claus will be getting involved.

Enjoy today's game and as ever please feel free to get in touch with us about any advertising, promotions and partnership activities. We're always happy to hear from you, and to have a coffee!!

Mascot

This afternoon's match mascot is Reece Carlisle.

Reece is eight years-old tomorrow! Happy Birthday Reece!!

Reece attends St Anne's Primary School in Greenacres, Oldham.

Youssef M'Changama is Reece's favourite player and he predicts an home win this afternoon by a 2-1 scoreline.

Christmas Parties

We had a great time at our two Christmas parties. The players really enjoyed playing games and chatting to you all over the two nights. We have had some brilliant feedback and think we will go ten pin bowling again before the end of the season. The players had a fab time and even had a little bet between themselves as to who is the best bowler. Even Chaddy Owl had a go!

This is our last game before Christmas so we'd like to wish you all a wonderful Christmas. We hope you get lots of Latics goodies and we'd love to hear about your presents and see some of your photos.
